Clarksville Female Academy.

THE TRUSTEES of the Clarksville Female Academy have elected Mr. SANCEL L. VENABLE, Principal of the Institution.

They have also appointed a young lady of approved qualifications, Assistant Teacher. Mr. Venable will devote all his energies to the school; which, the Trustees think, will ensure success to the enterprize, as he is a gentleman of talents and finished education. They believe he will successfully teach all the branches of a thorough Female Education, and that Parents and Guardians may safely commit their daughters to his instruction. The Trustees are making arrangements to furnish the School with the necessary Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus. The first session will commence the 15th of February next, and close the 1st day of August : The second session will commence the 1st day of his great grandam by the imported Old Jolly demned, subject to the Plaintiff's recovery.

October. Board, including washing, lights and fuel, can be obtained in respectable families at from 45 to 50 dollars per sscsion of five months.

Y virtue of a Decree of the Court of Equity, D made in the above named case, the Subscriber will preceed to sell, at the Court House, in the City of Raleigh, on Monday, the 19th day of February next (being the Monday of Wake County Court) the following valuable Real Estate, viz :

Part of that desirable Lot, described in the original Plan of the City of Rakigh as No. 164, but better known as the Casso Lot ; an eligible site for bdilding.

Also, part of Lot No. 146, situated in the very heart of the City, near the Market, and having thereon at present two Stores.

Also, a Tract of Land, contiguous to the City on the East, containing 13 acres more or less, and adjoining the Lands of James Coman and John Sugg. Also, a Tract, containing 14 acres more or less,

CHARACTER, one of the few remaining thorough bred Sons of Old Sir Archy, is now offered for sale very low, or to farm out next season, if application be made by the 1st of March next, or sooner.

CHARACTER is rising 13 years old, is a be utiful deep sarrel, 5 leet S inches high, has been successful in running at Hillsborough and other places.

CHARACTER was got by the celebrated Old Sir Archy-his damby the imported Druid - grandam, the famous Old Mark Anthony-Roger, out of a thorough bred Bace Mare. (See Turf Register, Val. 5.) His Colts are large and likely. To be convinced of this fact, it is only necessary to visit Pomona and see them. Being over stocked. I have a few fine blooded Mares in foal by Character, very cheap. Wake Forest Institute.

THE Exercises of this School will be resumed on the 1st Monday in February next .-Since the close of the last term, the services of two able & experienced Professors have been secured; and they will be in place at the commencement of the Session. The friends of the Institute have; now, much to encourage them. The annual expense of each Student at the Institute, is One hundred Dollars,-payable, Fifty at the beginning of each term, (February and July.)

It is deemed important to state, that the neglect hitherto of the Resolution, requiring the Fifty dollars in advance of each Session, has proven both detrimental and inconvenient to the interests of the Institute; and will in future be rigidly enforced.

No Student will be admitted to recitation, without first producing the Treasurer's certificate. We hope that in this requirement. we shall not be esteemed either rigid or illiberal, as it is the common requirement of all schools.

JOS. B. OUTLAW, Piest. January 1, 1838.

The Biblical Recorder, Standard, Milton Spectator, Western Carolinian, Religious Herald and Norfolk Herald will give the above four insertions, and forward their accounts to William Roles, Esq. P. M. Rolcsville, Wake Co. North Carolina.

Who is it, that, in fair or foul,

Is such a constant mover ;--

Whose mind is busy at his work,

So full of stock and stover,

With fields so fertile and so green,

Out doors and in?-Tom Clover.

Who owns the farm so nice and trim,

And all well fenc'd?-Tom Clover.

Who too the handsome dwelling-house,

That stands beside the grove there,

The garden?-Why! Tom Clover.

To whom does that smart team belong,

So plump and fat?-Tom Clover.

Those cattle, fit for drover,

And gelding, so well disciplined;

As, yesterday, at early dawn,

I pass'd the meadows over,

Whom saw I mowing in the dew?

It was the same, Tom Clover.

A trifle each one strove for ;

Two neighbors were in warm dispute,

A third one came and peace restored;

Was this he? - Ay, Tom Clover.

Kind looks, kind treatment he received:

Tom Clover, then, I'll greet thy name!

Thou art the true chef-d' œuvre,

And pattern for our farmers all;

Yes, yes, indeed, Tom Clover.

Its States and Kingdoms over,

To be, but this Tom Clover.

The paltry sceptre I'd resign,

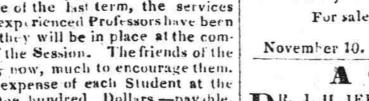

And new, could I the wide world rule,

From Tom too?-Right, Tom Clover.

To the Afflicted.

HADLOCK'S Vegetable Powder and Syrup.

For Diseases of the Lungs, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Coughs, Colds, &c.

HE operation of this Medicine is particularly ild and safe. It promotes a gentle and healthy perspiration, and checks Morbid and pernicious sweatings; relieves chronic affections and congestion of the lungs ; assuages cough ; promotes a free and mild expectoration ; removes pains from the chest ; relieves asthma or difficult respiration ; corrects obstinate costiveness, and leaves the bow. els in a regular and healthy state. Those painful symptoms which indicate diseased lungs readily yield to this certain remedy, when seasonably resorted to; and restores the patient to the bodily vigor which that wasting disorder, the consumption, if left to its natural operation, so surely destroys.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We have had frequent opportunities of conversing with our acquaintances at the south, who have used Hadlock's Vegctable Medicine, many of whose names are attached to his cretificate, and from our knowledge of their respectability, and the benefits at the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to be held for the county of Granville, at the Court we have no hesitation in expressing our belief that it is a valuable remedy for the purpose for which it is offered to the public, and as such we cheerfully recommend it.
