

VALUABLE CITY LOTS AND Improvements thereon, FOR SALE.

In pursuance of directions contained in the last Will and Testament of Mrs. Elizabeth E. A. Haywood, deceased, the Subscribers will on Saturday the 16th day of February next, offer for sale at the Court House in the City of Raleigh, those well known lots Nos. 190 and 191 in the plan of said City with the improvements, being the late residence of their Testatrix. Said lots with the improvements are of great value, and if not the most valuable, are believed to be the most desirable, as a private residence, within the limits of this City. The improvements thereon consist of two large and commodious houses of two stories each, with two wings, with every necessary out house nine in number. Said lots contain two acres. The garden, which is laid off in the most approved form on one acre of said lots, is in a high state of cultivation, and is so arranged as to unite the most beautiful flower garden with a large one for the cultivation of Vegetables. A more particular description of said property is deemed unnecessary, and is well known to most of the citizens of this State who have visited this City. Any person desiring a more minute description of said lots and improvements, will be furnished with the same if application is made to George W. Haywood. The above property will be sold upon a credit of one and two years from the day of sale, and bonds with approved security will be required. ELIZA E. HAYWOOD, Executrix, G. W. HAYWOOD, Executor. 7 tds. Star & Standard.

THE Subscriber being about to start to the State of Mississippi on business, has appointed John L. Terrell, his agent for the State of North Carolina. Should any friend feel desirous to write him while absent, they will direct their letter to Holly Spring, Marshall County, Mississippi. WILLIAM ROLES. Rolesville, December 15, 1838. 7-3t

COACHES, BAROUCHES AND BUGGIES.

THE Subscriber has on hand an assortment of the above Carriages. Some are richly finished, which will, he thinks, bear a comparison with any manufactured elsewhere. The work is warranted to be faithfully executed, and will be sold on as favorable terms as can be afforded. Those wishing to supply themselves, will please call and judge for themselves. THOS. COBBS, Raleigh, May 21, 1839. if 29

CIGARS and TOBACCO.

HAVANNA and PRINCIPE CIGARS, and OROONOKO CHEWING TOBACCO, also WINE and BRANDY, comprising CHAMPAGNE, MAHERA, and PORT WINE, and a lot of very superior FRENCH BRANDY. For sale by WM. MASON & Co. December 12, 1838. 7

MOST DESIRABLE Residence For Sale.

THE residence of the late Judge Sewell, near the City of Raleigh, is now offered for sale. To a person wishing to combine the advantages of City and Country life, an equally desirable location in all respects, perhaps cannot be found in the vicinity of Raleigh. The Dwelling House is of two stories, consisting of eight large and conveniently constructed rooms. There is a wide passage below and above stairs, equally dividing the house, thus rendering each room in the whole house entirely private. The house is at present in a state of good repair. Upon the premises are all necessary out houses well constructed and most of them new. Within a few steps of the Dwelling House, are two never failing SPRINGS of most excellent water. Attached to the premises there are 325 acres of land, 25 of which only are cleared, the balance timbered. To suit the convenience of the purchaser, either the whole or a part of the land will be sold with the Dwelling House. This property will be sold either at private or public sale. If not sold at private sale before the 1st of January next, it will be publicly sold or the highest bidder at that time on the premises. Possession to be rendered on the 1st of January. Terms of sale CASH, or Bond with approved security due on the 1st of January 1839, with interest from that date. Where the annual interest shall be promptly paid, and the bonds should continue to be regarded as entirely safe, perhaps the principal might not be demanded for several years. Persons desirous to purchase are respectfully invited to examine the premises. Apply to WM. SEAWELL. November 26, 1838. 5

FOR SALE.

A small Plantation of about 200 Acres of Land, 130 of which are under cultivation, with a good Orchard on the same, and an opportunity of making a fine meadow thereon. The above was formerly the property of JAMES GRANT, dec'd, and lies within 2 1/2 miles of Raleigh, adjoining the Race Course. DANIEL MURRAY. Dec. 4th 1838. 7-4w. Standard 4 w.

MORE NEW GOODS, AT THE NEW STORE.

THE Subscribers are just receiving and are now opening a large and handsome selection of new Goods of great variety and quality, which with their former stock will render their Assortment very complete. Their friends are respectfully invited to call and examine them, as they flatter themselves that they can sell on the lowest possible condition. TOWLES & CALLUM.

NEGROES for Sale.

ON FRIDAY, the 4th day of January next, will be sold to the highest bidder, at the Dwelling House of the late JOHN S. RAYBURN, of Franklin County, TEN NIKELY NEGROES, Men, Women, Boys and Girls. Also, the valuable TRACT OF LAND will be rented out for the ensuing year, with a valuable Mill and other improvements. Terms made known on the day of sale. JOHN LIGON, Adm'r. December 17, 1838. 7-1c.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

THE Subscriber keeps constantly on hand a good assortment of BOOTS and SHOES, all of his own manufacture: none others are sold by him. He will make any article in his line to order, at short notice, and at moderate prices. Call at his Store, on the South side of the Market House, in the brick row. JOHN HOLLOWAY. September 20. 48 3m

Episcopal School, Raleigh.

THE Subscriber has taken the buildings belonging to the Episcopal School, and proposes to continue the Institution upon his own responsibility. The next Session will commence on January 14, 1839. Pupils will be received at $75 per session of five months, which sum covers the expense of Board, Tuition, Washing, Mending, Fuel and Lights. As each boy has his separate bed, every boy at his first entrance incurs an additional expense of from $10 to $15, for bed and bedding. The boarders will constitute a part of the Subscriber's family, and the attention and discipline will be as parental as circumstances permit. They will be required to attend religious services on Sunday, and, when not otherwise directed by Parents and Guardians, will accompany the Rector of the School to the Episcopal Church. Day Scholars will be admitted on the following terms: Reading, Spelling and Writing, $12 00 English Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography with the use of Globes and Algebra 16 00 Ancient Languages, and higher Mathematics 20 00 Competent Assistants are engaged, and all the branches of Learning taught in Academies and high Schools of the country will be taught here. French, Spanish and German, will be taught, when desired by Parents, without additional expense. Students intending to enter College will be directed in their course of study with special reference to as speedy preparation as is consistent with thoroughness. Persons intending to enter pupils, and desirous of further information, are requested to address the Subscriber. M. A. CURTIS. Raleigh, December 6, 1838. 7 if Richmond, September 22, 1838.

Ma. E. P. NASH. Dear Sir:—The Piano Forte which I bought of you, I am happy to say is greatly admired both by those who have eyes and those who have ears. Its tone is very rich and full, powerful without being at all harsh, and soft without being dry. Better judges than myself, and in whom I am willing to place the utmost confidence touching such matters, have pronounced it a most excellent instrument. Most respectfully yours, E. S. MILLS.

I consider it a much better plan to let the public see what is thought of my Piano Fortes by those who have bought and tried them, than to make any strong assertions in their behalf myself.

E. P. NASH, Petersburg, Va. Book Store, west side Sycamore Street—Piano Ware House, east side Sycamore St. P. S. I am now opening, in connection with my Piano Forte Establishment, east side of Sycamore Street in this place, a general MUSIC STORE, in which will be kept a large and extensive assortment of every description of music for the Piano, Guitar, Flute, Violin, &c. together with a handsome assortment of nearly all desirable Instruments. Particulars will be given in a future advertisement. E. P. N. December 6, 1838. 7 3w

JOHN BASCOMBE.

THIS renowned and ever memorable Horse will occupy his stand at the Hampton Course, in the vicinity of Augusta, under my direction. Col. Crowell, his owner, after returning from his tour through the North, East and West, has come to the conclusion to allow him to remain with me another season. Applications were made in various sections of our country: unlimited business was guaranteed; large sums offered by various gentlemen for the service of the horse; but Colonel Crowell threw aside all minor considerations, all pecuniary motives, when on his return he found so many solicitations, from various quarters of the South, to allow the horse to remain with me, that he at length yielded and gratified their wishes. In fact, Bascombe has so many warm admirers, that they nearly view him as their common property. Bascombe has attained his end in one point, he has put to rest all those little, petty slanders, relative to impotency, as he has proven himself as sure a fag-getter as any horse that stands on four feet. His first get was dropped this season, each and every person's colt, in different parts of the South, is the crack and brag colt; in fact, for game-like appearance, quickness of action, sprightliness and playfulness, UNSURPASSED. He will commence his season on the 15th of February next—to terminate on the 15th of July. TERMS, $100 the season, and $1 to the groom. Good lads, fine stables, pastures, and provender, will be provided for the Mares; no liability for escapes or accidents. Persons sending Mares are particularly requested to send their Pedigree, also, notes made payable to John Crowell or bearer; the expenses of the Mares to be paid before taking them away. Mares remaining with the Horse will be taken care of at 50 cents per day—Servants with them, fed gratis. It is useless to mention pedigree and performances; Bascombe's speak for themselves; the world knows them; his name will be handed down from Turfite to Turfite; and when more, the bosoms of future sportsmen will swell with emotion and delight, when they hear mentioned the name of Bascombe. SHOCCO CLASSICAL SEMINARY.

A. HAN HART will commence the exercises of a Classical Seminary, for young gentlemen, at Shocco, on the first Monday in January. The situation is very healthy and retired from all inducements to dissipation, being nine miles distant from any village or store. The waiting seasons will not interfere with the duties of the Students, because the longest vacation will be during that period, when Parents can visit or withdraw their Sons. Mr. Hart has had twelve years experience in teaching, and is highly recommended by many eminent gentlemen of this State. Students for the University will be prepared to enter in the Freshman and Sophomore class. The course of studies will embrace the Greek, Latin, English and French languages, the Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Mental and Moral Science, &c. Tuition from 15 to 20 dollars the Session. The Spanish and Italian Languages can be taught if required. The number of Students is limited to twenty-five. Mrs. Ann Johnson will furnish comfortable accommodations for the Students at $10 per month. Students may remain during the vacation at the same rate. Payment must be made in advance, and School Books will be the only extra expense. Shocco, Nov. 1838. 4 6w

NEW GOODS CHEAP.

PRIMROSE & HOLLAND HAVE been for some time receiving and opening new and seasonable Goods, consisting of a great variety, which, together with their stock on hand, constitute an extensive and general assortment of DRY GOODS, HARDWARE, QUEENS WARE, GROCERIES, HATS, SHOES, &c. Their assortment is pretty full now, and will be kept so, as one of the partners is constantly in New York buying and forwarding Goods which are bought low. No one house can boast of having every article cheaper than others have; hence in pricing they may have some articles higher than their neighbors, but if convinced of that fact, they are determined to bring them down to the lowest prices. The same articles are sold at the place. Friends and customers, and all others wishing to make the best of their funds, are invited to come and see. November 17, 1838. 3
