But these are in a measure consecrated to the learned professions-to the privileged few-for they are privileged, inasmuch as they are the exclusive recipients of public bounty in the higher branches of learn. ing. Productive labor receives little or no advantage from their teaching. Few of the youth who enter their halls, ever seek for a livelihood in the laboring arts. They learn to look upon labor as servile and demeaning, and to seek their living in what they consider the higher classs of society. COMMUNICATION.

TO THE FREEMEN OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAS DISTRICT.

FELLOW-CITIZENS :-- Dr. Montgomery, after having misrepresented you for several sessions in the National Legislature, has addressed to you a Circular, bearing the plain marks of Presidential and party origin, wherein he discourses with his usual eloquence upon the more prominent questions which now interest and divide the country, and of the distinguished part which he, as your immediate Representative. has thought proper to take in regard to them. I have seen this precious document, fellowcitizens; and I wish you to understand in the outset of this communication, that I do not intend to review it minutely. Such a review would be a task rather than a duty; but, if I can command my own patience and your attention, I do propose to take a few random glances at its strange positions, and to speak freely of its writer and of the par-

Those of you, fellow-citizens, who are parly men, and who have hitherto voted for the Doctor, most assuredly have no cause to complain of him. He has been a servant of yours-good and true. Do you go for the Sub-Treasury, and against Banks? He goes with you. Do you wish to array the rich against the poor, and the poor against the rich ? He strives to do the same. right or wrong? There he is with you again. Do you go for the Atherion Resolutions? So does the Doctor. That most POINTED REPROOF .- Two gentlemen one blessed coalition of Southern Van Buren day, at a public table, got into a vehement men and Northern Abolitionists for the protection of Southern liberty. I mean not to call the Doctor an Abolitionist; his property, his interests are here, and they would check him, even if he had no family ties. Nor do I call those who leagued on that occasion with Northern men, Abolitionists. But the principle of such a league-what is it? It is to violate the Constitution, by receiving petitions which meditate treason to its provisions. It is to settle the question by concession and base compromise. It is to lull the South, while volcanic fires are raging beneath her! It is to light up the torch of havoc and rapine in her dwellings! It is to scorch and crimson her plans with the fires and blood of civil conlamitous consequences; like him, the Abolitionist, here or elsewhere, would blow up the temples of legislation, and invoke death remember that! Ponder upon it, for you are the rightful judges, the sole arbitrators. doom your spirits to that ulceration and daughters, the conflagration of your cities, the disruption of your Federal Union, would produce? If you are, first tear down (if you can,) that banner of yours which now glitters in sunshine and wayes in shade from the St. Lawrence to the Gulf--first tear up your pension rolls-your written constituish the architraves that now stand so strongin gloom and blot from your children's memories the name of WASHINGTON-for the act would be at best suicidal-and you will then have proved yourselves the most skilful architects of public destruction that any age has ever produced ! Other questions, fellow citizens, less momentous indeed, but still of great and abiding interest, are presented to you. In these, as in all other political questions, you are the only and the competent unpire. You are to bear their consequences, whether for weal or for woe. If you would, you CANNOT shift the responsibility. - You are FREE-MEN, and if you are fettered, it is by your connivance or by your indifference. If demagogues prevail over honest statesmen, liar and necessary institutions pass through peril or fall, whether you perceive or not ed at the public expense.
