

POETRY.

A FUNERAL DIRGE.

BY THE REV. GEORGE CROLY, L. L. D.

Earth to earth, and dust to dust! Here the evil and the just, Here the youthful and the old, Here the fearful and the bold, In one silent bed are laid; Side by side, lie withering; Here the sword and scepter rust, Earth to earth, and dust to dust.

Age on age shall roll along Over this pale and mighty throng. Those that wept them, those that weep, All shall with these sleepers sleep, Br. there, sisters of the worm! Summer's sun and winter's storm, Song of peace, or battle's roar, Ne'er shall break their slumbers more; Death shall keep his silent rust, Earth to earth, and dust to dust.

But a day is coming fast; Earth, thy mightiest and thy last; It shall come in fear and wonder, Harassed by trump and thunder; It shall come in strife and toil, It shall come in blood and spoil, It shall come in empires' groans, Burning temples, trampling thrones; Then, ambition, rue thy lust! Earth to earth, and dust to dust.

Then shall come the judgment sign, In the east the king shall shine, Flashing from heaven's golden gate, Thousands, thousands, round his state, Spirits with the crown and plume, Tremble, then, thou sullen tomb, Heaven shall open to our sight, Earth be hurled to living light, Kingdoms of the ransomed just, Earth to earth, and dust to dust.

Then shall, gorgeous as a gem, Shine thy mount, Jerusalem; Then shall, in the desert rise Fruits of more than paradise; Earth by angel feet be trod, One great garden of the God; Till are dried the martyr's tears Through a glorious thousand years, Now in hope of him we trust, Earth to earth and dust to dust.

There is that in the following lines which will touch the heart of every one who has known the feelings that belong to a Parent who has lost a beloved and cherished child.

WEE WILLIE. Fare thee well, our last and fairest! Dear wee Willie, fare thee well; He who lent thee, hath recalled thee Back with him and his to dwell. Fifteen moons thy sister's lullaby, Only o'er thy brow had shed, When thy spirit joined the seraphs, And thy dust the dead.

Like a sunbeam through our dwelling, Shone thy presence bright and calm; Thou didst add a zest to pleasure— To our sorrows thou wert balm; Brighter beamed thy eyes than summer; And thy first attempt at speech Thrilled our heart-strings with a rapture, Music ne'er could reach.

As we gazed upon thee sleeping, With thy fine face locks outspread, Thou didst seem a little angel, Who from heaven to earth had strayed; And, entranced, we watched the vision, Half in hope, and half affright, Le t what we deemed ours, and earthly, Should dissolve in light.

Snows o'er-mantled hill and valley; Sullen clouds begim'd the sky, When the first, dread doom oppressed us, That our child was doomed to die! Through each long night watch, the taper Showed the hectic of thy cheek; And each anxious dawn beheld thee More worn out, and weak.

'Twas even then Destruction's angel Shook his pinions o'er our path, Seized the rosiest of our household, And struck Charlie down in death! Fearful—awful! Desolation On our lintel set his sign; And we turned from his sad death-bed, Willie, round to thine!

As the beams of spring's first morning Through the silent chamber played, Lifes in mine arms I raised thee, And in thy little coffin laid; Ere the day-star with the darkness Nine times had triumphant striven, In one grave had met our ashes, And our souls in heaven!

Five were ye, the beauteous blossoms Of our hopes, and hearts, and health; Two asleep lie buried under earth. Three for us yet garden earth. Thee, our yacinth, gay Chloë— Willie, thee our snow-drop pure, Back to us shall second spring-time Never more allure.

Yet, while thinking, oh, our lost ones! Of how dear ye were to us, Why should dreams of doubt and darkness Haunt our troubled spirit thus? Why, across the cold, dim church-yard, Fit our visions of despair! Seated on the tomb, Faith's angel Saith—"Ye are not there."

Where, then, are ye! With the Saviour Blest—for ever blest are ye, 'Mid the sinless little children Who have heard his "Come to me!" 'Yond the shades of death's dark valley, Now ye lean upon his breast, Where the wicked dare not enter, And the weary rest.

BECKWITH'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS. FREQUENT applications from those who have confidence in Beckwith's Anti-Bilious Pills, and in their Author, for a Pill of more actively purgative properties, have induced him to issue one calculated to supply the demand. These Pills are therefore designed expressly as an active purgative, and possess highly Antibilious qualities, yet without a particle of Calomel or any other mineral. Calomel has been, or may be, used to counteract it, when prescribed for individual cases by a judicious Physician; but the Inventor protests against it in combinations designed for popular use, for it is well known to the Faculty, that most of the objects desired in the employment of such articles, can be attained without it, and that its too common introduction into families for domestic consumption, is often followed by consequences injurious to the general health, if not destructive to the constitution. They are not offered as a panacea—they promise no cures but such as are well known to follow a thorough action upon the bowels; and whenever an active purgative is required (and there are few who do not daily determine this fact for themselves), these Pills may be safely taken. As an Antibilious they should not be taken, dyspeptics have no business ordinarily, with purgatives of this class. The laborer, the hearty feeder, with sluggish bowels, the habitually bilious, in short all who desire or need to have their bowels urged to more active duty, may rely upon the efficiency of these Pills. They are prepared solely by Thos. L. Jump, General Agent, Raleigh, handsomely put up in tin boxes with directions, and for sale at the North Carolina Book Store, also, at the Drug Store of W. M. Mason & Co. in this City, and by most of the Agents for the sale of Beckwith's Anti-Bilious Pills, throughout the United States. Price, 25 cents per box. May 1839. 28

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. THE New York Sun says: Brandreth's Pills have been used among many of our friends, and in our own family we have used them nearly four years when we required medicine; in that period, no Doctor save Dr. Brandreth has crossed our threshold, and no medicine besides the Doctor's Pills used. Our belief is, "keep your bowels and blood pure," and every kind of disease will be prevented or cured. The Brandreth Pills are eminently calculated to do this, and thereby much lessen the sum of human misery. The New York Evening Star says: Brandreth's Pills are a medicine which their own intense worth will secure for them a large and ready sale. They have deservedly a high reputation; and as a family and anti-bilious remedy, it would be difficult to equal them among all the Patent Medicines of the present day. "To the whole Family of man.—We feel both pleasure and satisfaction in recommending to all our readers, Brandreth's Vegetable Pills, as the most certain, most safe, and invaluable medicine extant. As anti-bilious and aperient Pills, we are perfectly convinced they stand far above all others: as a certain cure in all cases of worms, scurvy, scorbutic humors, erysipelas, and all affections of the skin, dropsy, asthma, stone, gravel, piles, and lumbago, they will be found invaluable." London Times. For sale by Wm. Peck, Agent, Raleigh, N. C. who is also duly authorized to appoint Sub-agents for sale of the Pills, in each of the following Counties, viz. Cumberland, Chatham, Caswell, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Johnston, Moore, Nash, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham and Wake. In inviting application for Sub-Agencies in these Counties, it is suggested, (as is usual in such cases) that the applicant should be recommended to the Agent above named at Raleigh. Raleigh, Feb. 9, 1839—15 6m.

BLANKS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

THE universal estimation in which the celebrated Life Pills and Phenix Bitters are held, is satisfactorily demonstrated by the increasing demand for them in every State and section of the Union, and by the voluntary testimonial to their remarkable efficacy which are every where offered. It is not less from a deeply gratifying confidence that they are the means of extensive and inestimable good among his afflicted fellow creatures, than from interested considerations, that the proprietor of these pre-eminently successful medicines is desirous of keeping them constantly before the public eye. The sale of every additional box and bottle is a guarantee that some person will be relieved from a greater or less degree of suffering, and be improved in general health, for in no case of suffering from disease can they be taken in vain. The proprietor has never known nor been informed of an instance in which they have failed to do good. In the most obstinate cases of chronic diseases, such as chronic dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation, asthma, nervous and bilious head-ache, irritability, pitia, general debility, scrupulous swellings and ulcers, scurvy, salt rheum, and all other chronic affections of the organs and membranes, they effect cures with a rapidity and permanency which few persons would theoretically believe, but to which thousands have testified from happy experience. In colds and coughs, which, if neglected, superinduce the most fatal diseases of the lungs, and indeed of the viscera in general, these medicines, if taken but for three or four days never fail. Taken at night, they so promote the insensible perspiration, and so relieve the system of febrile action and febrile obstruction, as to produce a most delightful sense of convalescence in the morning, and though the usual symptoms of a cold should partially return during the day, the repetition of a suitable dose at the next hour of bedtime will almost invariably effect permanent relief, without further aid. Their effect upon fevers of a more acute and violent kind is not less sure and speedy, if taken in proportionable quantity, and persons retiring to bed with inflammatory symptoms of the most alarming kind, will awake with the gratifying consciousness, that the fierce enemy has been overthrown and can easily be subdued. In the same way, visceral turgescence, though long established, and visceral inflammations, however critical, will yield to the former to small and the latter to large doses of the Life Pills; and so also hysterical affections, hypochondriacism, restlessness, and very many other varieties of the Neurological class of diseases, yield to the efficacy of the Phenix Bitters. The above medicines are for sale in Raleigh, by WM. PECK, Agent. Raleigh, April, 1839. 27

PETERS' PILLS. THESE Pills are no longer among those of doubtful utility. They have passed away from the hundred that are daily hunched upon the title of experiment, and now stand forth to the public as high in reputation, and as extensively employed in all parts of the United States, the Canadas, Texas, Mexico, and the West Indies, as any medicine that has ever been prepared for the relief of suffering man. They have been introduced wherever it was found possible to carry them, and there are but few towns that do not contain some remarkable evidences of their good effects. The certificates that have been presented to the proprietor exceed twenty thousand!—upwards of five hundred of which are from regular practicing Physicians, who are the most competent judges of their merits. Often have the cures performed by this medicine furnished subjects for editorial comment, in various newspapers and journals; and it may with truth be asserted that no medicine of the kind has ever received testimonials of higher value than are attached to this. They are in general use as a family medicine, and there are thousands of families who declare they are never satisfied unless they have a supply always at hand. They have no rival in curing and preventing Bilious Fevers, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Asthma, Dropsy, Bilious Colic, Flatulency of the Spleen, Piles, Cholera, Female Obstructions, Heart-Burn, Furred Tongue, Nausea, Distension of the Stomach and Bowels, Incipient Diarrhoea, Flatulency, Habitual Constiveness, Loss of Appetite, Bloated or Sallow Complexion, and in all cases of Torpor of the Bowels, where a cathartic or an aperient is needed. They are exceedingly mild in their operation, producing neither nausea, griping, nor debility. These extraordinary and justly celebrated Pills are sold, in Raleigh, by Williams & Haywood, and W. M. Mason & Co., and in all the principal towns in the State. Retail price, 50 cents per box. May 1, 1839. 1027.

One case of Dropsy cured by her, was of 15 years standing—a child of Zachariah Wimberly. She has numerous certificates in her possession, bearing testimony to her successful treatment. Let the afflicted apply as above. Wake County, May 1, 1839. 27

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE, NEAR RALEIGH. THE undersigned offers for sale a very valuable tract of land, lying five miles west of Raleigh, containing about 500 acres, the greater part of which is uncleared, well watered, well wooded, and a portion of it equal in fertility to any in the county. It has on it a dwelling and other buildings, with springs of excellent water convenient. The situation is remarkably healthy and beautiful, and would make a very desirable residence to any person wishing to locate near the City. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as persons desiring to purchase, will no doubt first view the premises. A great bargain may be had, if early application be made. JANE WILLIAMS. Raleigh, Jan. 5, 1839. 10—4t.

Stock of Books, Stationary, Fancy Goods, Musical Instruments, In Petersburg, Virginia. POSSIBLY there are few establishments in Virginia in which could be found a larger and better assortment of desirable Goods, than in the subscriber's at Petersburg, and he has recently devoted great care and time, and considerable capital to effect this desirable end. The public must not suppose that because the town of Petersburg is small, that therefore the stock of Books and Stationary, is also small; for, in such a conclusion, they would be entirely wrong; particularly as respects Piano Fortes, which will not find in any one establishment in Richmond, Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia, or New York so large an assortment of first rate Instruments, as they will find at my rare room on Sycamore street. I have now sold upwards of one hundred Pianos, and not one single instrument has proven defective. E. P. NASH, Petersburg, Va.
