MISSISSIPPI.

The annexed account of a dreadful affray in Woodville, Wilkinson county, Mississippi, is from the Natchez Courier of the 20th

May.

It seems that a short time previous to the recent Session of the Grand Jury of that County, a challenge was passed and a duel was to have been fought between Mr. Leigh, a son of Watkins Leigh of Virginia, and Mr. W. A. Norris, Editor of the Republican, but it was arranged by the friends of the parties. When the Grand Jury convened, the foreman, in accordance with his oath, took an active part in endeavoring to investigate the matter, and bringing the parties concerned in, and cogniz. ant of the matter before them. They all refused to testify, and were all consequently committed to prison.

Sometime after this, the foreman, Mr. A. J. Foster, happened in Mr. Leigh's office, and inquired for some person, when Mr. Leigh called him an informer and used other abusive language to him .--A challenge ensued and a duel was to have been fought between them, which was set for some few days subsequent. A day or so after the quarrel, Mr. Leigh met Mr. C. Foster, a younger brother of A. J. Foster in the street and asked him who he was looking at so hard? Mr.F. replied that he had a right to look as he pleased, without being questioned; some other words of an insulting character were used, and a general quarrel and fight ensued, commencing between Mr. C. Foster, Dr. Morese and the friends of each, among whom were Mr. Leigh, Mr. Fielding Davis, Judge Smith, and one or two others; immediately after which Mr. Leigh, who had received some personal injury from Mr. Davis, sent him a challenge by Mr. H. A. Moore and to which Mr. Moore requested an immediate answer. Mr. D. replied he would answer it in the morning ; Mr. Moore then used some haush language to Mr. D. and either called or insinuated that he was a coward, upon which Mr. D. turned and struck Mr. Moore with a whip which he held in his hand, and injured him very severely in the. face. Mr. D. then went home and changed his dress which had been soiled in the affray, and walked in to the post office. Mr. Leigh walked in immediately afterwards with a drawn knife or dirk in his hand. Mr. D. saw him as he advanced and told him not to approach him. Mr. L. continued to do so. Mr. D. repeated his warning, and told him if he did so, that he would shoot him, and seeing that Mr. Leigh did not stop, he raised a double barrelled gun which he had in his hand and snapped both barrels at him, neither of which went off. He then struck him with the end of the gun and knocked him down and then retreated across the street. Mr. Leigh after rising continued to advance, when Mr. Davis drew a pistol and shot Mr. Leigh in the side, which penetrated his spine. Leigh, af. ter lingering near two days died, of the wound .--Davis was immediately arrested, and after an examination was admitted to bail in the sum of $15,000.

Resolved, That the issuing of Treasury Notes for the immediate temporary relief of the Treasury Department is but another mode in disguise, for creating a national debt, which, if persisted in, will soon fix upon the Government a heavier burthen than the debt of the Revolutionary War.

Resolved, That the practice of the heads of De partments at Washington City, acting immediately under the eye of the Executive, in charging to the Government, the hire and boarding of servants and horses, hire of Hacks, washing of towels, Dinner for Clerks at Taverns, &c. &c., is unwarranted by precedent, unauthorized by law, and merits the se verest disapprobation of the People. Resolved, That the People have a right to expect that candidates for high political stations, which can only be attained by their suffrages, will frankly and freely make known their sentiments on all prominent topics without disguise or disingenuousness, and that he who fails or refuse to do so, is unwor thy of the People's confidence or support.

Resolved, That the unsullied character and exalled ability of HENRY CLAY, of Kentucky, together with his long and faithful services in his country's cause, pre-eminently designate him as the most suitable person for the next Presidency.

Resolved, That in a Republican Government; i the duty of the people to exercise a vigilant jealousy in regard to public measures, and to rebuke in the determined language of patriotism, the abuses or corruptions of their rulers.

Resolved, That this meeting most solemnly protest against the passage of the Sub-Treasury Bill in any shape, because it would create a distinction between the people and the officeholders, making a better currency for the latter than the former; because it would separate the Government from the People, and tend to alienate their affections, and because we believe it would be calculated to prostrate our State Institutions, and tend to consolidation, and because the late defalcations prove the utter impolicy of the scheme.

Resolved, As the settled conviction of this meeting, that it is the duty of the National Government to furnish the People with a sound currency, coextensive in credit with the limits of this great na-

Our enterprising friend, Johnston ces. Busbee, of Wake, has ordered further supplies from our market, and promises the patronage of his neighbors if our merchants will sell him good bargains. Mr. Busbee, it will be recollected was the first adventurer from Wake, in a home market. We were at the depot day before yesterday, and saw 16 barrels of Salt Pork, from Lenoir, corned & brought to this market by Mr. Lassater. This, we hope, is but the first step towards a brisk and mutually advantageous traffick between the Farmers of Lenoir and the Merchants of Wilmington.-Advertiser.

NORTH-CAROLINA ELECTIONS The election for 13 Members of Congress takes place in this State on the second Thursday of August next. As opposition has been brought out in every District probably, where it is intended, we subjoin list of the Candidates, with a guess as to it. result.

In the Mountain District, James Graham (Whig) has no opposition, for the simple reason that it would be hopeless. The same remark will apply to the Surry District. represented by that sterling Whig, Lewis Williams.

In the Mecklenburg District, Mr. Connor (Van) is opposed by Gen. B. M. Edney (Whig). The chances, we should think are decidedly in favor of Mr. C.

In the Salisbury District, represented by Mr. Rencher, the Candidates are Charles Fisher and Pleasant Henderson. The lat. ter is the regular Whig Candidate, though we have no doubt Mr. F. will receive many Whig votes, having acted with that party until the new Finance question sprung up. and being with them, even now, so far as we have any certain knowledge. If both hoist the Whig banner, unequivocally, the result will be hard to foretell until after the election ; but if Mr. F. gives any reason to doubt his adhesion to Whig principles, Mr. H. will, in our opinion, be certainly elect. ed-for this District is Whig to the back.

In the Caswell District, the Candidates, are Augustine H. Shepard (Whig) and John Hill (Van). We presume Mr. S's election is certain.

In the Raleigh District, Dr. Montgomery (Van) is opposed by G. W. Haywood (Whig). This will be a remarkably close contest. Each party hopes, and will strive for success.

In the Warren District, Gen. Hawkins is General, decidedly.

A very great excitement prevailed at Woodville, at the last dates, and it was believed that other acts of outrage and bloodshed would grow out of the affair.

WHIG MEETINGS.

A large number of Political Meetings have recently been held in this State, by those desirous of a change in the Administration of our Government, the details of which would, if published, exclude every thing that we will accord to him our hearty support at else from our columns. It is due, however, to the cause of the people, that the principal features of each meeting should be recorded, and we shall content ourselves with this, if there be nothing to render a more extended notice necessary and proper.

At a meeting in Salisbury, at which Col. Macnamara presided, the following Resolutions, among others, were adopted :

Resolved, That we will not support any man as a candidate for the next Congress, who is in favor of the Sub-Treasury, or in favor of Martin Van Buren as our next President.

Resolved, That HENRY CLAY, of Kentucky, is our first choice for the next Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That we will support no man for Congress, or any public trust, who is not directly and avowedly a Whig in principle, sentiment and prac-

At a meeting held on the 28th ult. Dr. James F. Martin in the Chair, the following Resolutions, introduced by Gen. Cooke, were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That a crisis has arrived in the political affairs of this Country, well calculated to excite apprehension and alarm in the bosom of the Patriot and lover of Liberty, for the permanence and prosperity of our free Institutions.

Resolved, That in such a crisis, it is the right matica as they possess. and duty of the People from whom all power emanates, for whose benefit all power is exercised, to make known their opinions to their rulers, in language respectful but plain and unequivocal.

Resolved, That in the exercise of this fundamental and inestimable right, we condemn in the most decided and positive manner, the financial scheme of the party now in power, because its necessary consequences are corruption, peculation and defai-cations in the collectors and disbursers of the Rev. enue, immense losses to the Government which must be made up by taxing the People, and alarming and dangerous increase of Executive Patronage; an odious distinction between the currency of Office holders and the great body of the People, and a violation of the great Principles and safe guard of civil liberty, and the separation of the Purse and the Sword

Resolved, That it is the duty of Congress to pass such laws as may be necessary for supplying the sence of the judge and jury, upon an indithe benefit of the officeholders, as virtually contended forby those in power. Resolved. That we protest aganist the doctrine advocated by the supporters of Mr. Van Buren. that every man has a right to construe the Constitution, as he pleases, regardless of the opinion of those that formed it, and the legal tribunals of the country.

Resolved, That the long tried honesty, wisdom Champaigne Wine. and integrity of Henry Clay, of Kentucky, entitle Madeira him to the confidence and hearty support of all the Tenerifie Whigs or true Republicans of the Union. Sicily offer for sale on reasonable terms, either one of the following pieces of property, viz :

One Dwelling House 2 stories high, convenient and well built, having 4 rooms; other improvements are on the lot of one and a half acres, situate in the North Eastern corner of this City. This I think is one of the handsomest sites in Raleigh. It is now a comfortable residence and might be made a beautiful place.

Or if the purchaser prefers it, I will sell the Dwelling House and premises on Fayetteville Street, where I re-ide. The house is large and in complete repair - The out houses newly fitted up and extensive. For a family the situation is pleasant, and by some additions to the buildings it would make a capital HOTEL FOR FAMILIES, and no place in North Carolina would support such an establishment better than Raleigh. My Kitchen is finished in a complete manner. A servant house, separate from the Kitchen, 2 stories high, with 6 separate apartments, is on the premises, and also every other out dwelling for the comfort of a family.

We shall publish the proceedings of the Convention when they come to hand, and cannot forbear the remark, that we have rarely before witnessed such a degree of enthusiastic feeling as was displayed by that body. Hillsboro', May 31, 1839.

SIR: In pursuance of previous notice, a Convention of Whig Delegates for the several Counties of this Congressional District, met this day for the purpose of selecting some individual whose name they might present as a candidate for Congress.

The undersigned were appointed a Committee to announce to you, your selection, by the unanimous voice of the Convention, and they flatter themselves, that called by the unsolicited confidence of your Fellow Citizens to battle for good principles, at so momentous a crisis, as the present, you will yield to their wishes.

They avail themselves of the present opportunity, o assure you of their individual gratification at this event, and are

> Most respectfully, Your ob't. serv'ts. MICHAEL HOLT, W. A. GRAHAM, N. ALBRIGHT, GILES MEBANE, HUGH WADDELL.

Raleigh, June 3d, 1839. GENTLEMEN :

I have received your letter of the 31st ultimo, in which the unexpected information is contained, that I have been nominated as a candidate for a seat in the next Congress of the United States, by the unanimous voice of the Whig Delegates, assembled in Convention in the Town of Hillsborough, " fer the purpose of selecting some individual, whose name they might present as a candidate for Congress" in the District composed of the counties of ORANGE, PERSON and WAKE.

Being thus solicited to become a candidate, and professing to be a Republican in principle and action, I am not able to discover or assign any good and sufficient reasons for refusing to comply with the wishes of my friends-because I believe that the Dwelling has already 8 Rooms and 3 Cellars, the | Country which gave us birth has a right to demand our services, and upon most occasions they ought not to be withheld, although a compliance with her demands may cause a temporary sacrifice of the interest of the individual called upon to serve her; and I further believe that a nomination of the kind mentioned in your letter is neither to be sought for nor declined; and all of you are well aware that it was not desired by me. Influenced by the above considerations, I take pleasure in requesting you to inform the members of the Convention that I yield to their request ; and you are authorized to announce me to my Fellow-Citizens of the District as a candidate for Congress. I deem it unnecessary at this time, to enter into a full explanation as to my sentiments in regard to the political topics which now agitate the public mind ; because my opinions as to public measures and men shall be frankly made known to the people of the District, at their different public gatherings, without concealment upon any subject. I contend for principles, and not men.

Your obedient servant,

WM. A. GRAHAM.

GILES MEBANE,

HUGH WADDELL,

In the Halifax District, Mr. Bynum (Van) is opposed by Col. Long (Whig,) and with every prospect of success. The difference between them at the last Election was only about 70 votes.

In the Edenton District, Maj. Sawyer, who was elected a Whig but became a Sub-Treasury man, is opposed by Kenneth Rayner-the talented young Whig who has so distinguished himself in our State Legislature. All accounts from that quarter represent Rayner's election as certain.

In the Newbern District, Charles Shepard, also elected a Whig but converted the beauties of Van Burenism, is opposed by Col. Biddle (Whig). The last "Newbern Spectator" asserts confidently, that Biddle will be elected.

In the Wilmington District, Gen. McKay (V. B.) has no opposition as yet.

In the Fayetteville District, Edmund Deberry (Whig) is opposed by William A. Morris (Van.) We consider Mr. Deberry's election certain.

In the 'Tarboro' District, Edward Stanly (Whig) is opposed by Dr. Hall (V. B. and we have heard no one yet, hardy enough to question the triumphant re-election of the former.

So that the Whigs have a fair chance of carrying ten out of THIRTEEN Districts. We do not say they will certainly succeed to this extent, but we have good grounds to hope it.

The "Standard" says "any man of ordinary fairness and common intelligence must see the guilty connexion that exists between the Whig party and the Abolitionists." Can impudence go farther than this ?

American Farmer.

Mr. SKINNER, late Postmaster at Baltimore, having been removed from office by Mr. Van Buren, has again taken charge of the "American Farmer." of which he was the original projector. It has recently been conducted by E. P. Roberts, Esq., who changed its original title from that of "American Farmer," to that of "Farmer and Gardener," and under the latter name it has been issued for some years. It is now enlarged and much improved in mechanical appearance, and sailing as it will under its old name, and under the guidance of the able commander who first launched it forth, it cannot fail to retain its late friends, and gain the aid of new ones. Mississippl. The business condition of the State of Mississippi, is, at present, in a most lamentable condition. It would seem from the accounts, that the operation of the laws are suspended, and men are driven to desperation by the pressure of circumstances. medium, and that a good currency for the Officers of the Government, and a bad currency for the People, is a distinction which American Freemen ought not, and will not submit to.

Resolved, That as eitizens of one of the old States. to relinquish the Public Domain, or to reduce the price thereof, as a gross infraction of our rights, and violation of the national faith.

Resolved, That the withholding the fourth instalment of the Public Deposites, is attributable alone to the folly and extravagance of the present Admin. istration ; that the expenditures of the Government have increased to an alarming extent within the last ten years, to wit, from 13 millions to 39 millions of dollars, annually.

Resolved, That the practice of levying Taxes of Federal officers in proportion to their salaries, to be expended on electioneering objects, is contrary to the spirit of Republicanism, and if not arrested will ultimately destroy our free Institutions.

Resolved, That the enormous defalcations of Swartwout, Price, Harris, Boyd, Hawkins, Smith, Dameron, and a host of others, is the natural consequence of the Sub-Treasury scheme and of the rewarding of unprincipled party zeal by the bestowal of office.

Resalved, That the President of the United States is chargeable with gross neglect in not sooner dis-country with a uniform and wholesome circulating vidual in the custody of the law-a crime, we venture to say, that is unparalled in the records of human atrocity. In another gazette we read of the Governor of the State being spit upon; in another, of the circuit we view the settled purpose of the party in power judge of the United States having his nose puiled by an officer of his own court, and on its very threshold. To this list other outrages might be added too numerous to mention .- N. O. Bulletin.
