MR. MCQUEEN'S ADDRESS.

CONCLUDED.

VOL. XLI.

"Ours are the plans of fair delightful peace, unwarp'd by party rage, to live like brothers."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1839.

WESTON R. GALES. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS.

SUBSCRIPTION, three dollars per annum-one half in advance.

Persons residing without the State will be required to pay the whole amount of the year's subscription in advance.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

one dollar; each subsequent insertion 25 cents. Court Orders and Judicial Advertisements will be charged 25 per cent. higher and a deduction of 33 per cent. will be made from the regular prices, for advertisers by the year.

LETTERS to the Editor must be post-paid.

Mt. Pleasant and Danbury for sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his two Tracis of Land, situated in a fine neighborhood on Dan made. River, Rockingham County, North Carolina. The Mount Pleasant Tract contains 1700 acres, six or seven hundred of which is cleared, with about one hundred acres of river low grounds; also a new and commedious Dwelling, with all the necessary Out-Houses, fine Garden, well selected Orchards, excel-Jent Water, and a first rate Mill Seat. The Danbury place contains 1000 acres, of which 500 are under fence, with about 125 acres of Creek and unrivalled in the State.

Persons wishing to see the place will apply to which the following comprize a part : Mr. Rawley Gallaway, who will take a pleasure in Super Wool dyed Black, showing the premises. ALEX. HENDERSON. October 1.

Theasant Hill for sale .- I now offer for sale, the very desirable situation on which I reside, in the Eastern part of the City, containing 2 3-4 acres of land, on which is a large and comortable Dwelling House, built this season, in the Beaver—a new latest style, with all necessary out houses, new Car- Over Coats. riage House and Stables, a fine Garden, yard well Sup'r Wool dyed Black, shaded, and an excellent well of Water. The property will be sold low, and, if desired, possession DAVID CARTER. given immediately. Raleigh, August 24, 1839.

In my absence, Mr. Wx. PECK will act as my Agent, to whom persons, desiring to purchase, will please make application.

A valuable Plantation for Sale.

very valuable Plantation on Tar River is now offered for sale on accommodating terms. The Tract contains 2,183 Acres, and is in Edgecomb County, 10 miles above Tarboro'. A particular description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed the purchaser would wish to examine the Land personally, before buying; but the fact may be stated with confidence, that the Land is equal to any on the River, and the Plantation is in good order for farm-

The Stock, Crop, Plantation Tools, Wagons, Carts, &c. &c. will be sold with the Land. Persons wishing to purchase will please apply to THEOPHILUS PARKER, Esq. Tarboro', or to Mrs. ELEANOR HAYWOOD, Raleigh. October 14, 1839.

FOR SALE,

COMFORTABLE Two Story Dwelling to mention. House, on Wilmington Street, in the City of Raleigh, at present occupied by Messrs. Oliven men, and will warrant every thing we manufacture of the bar, after he has been once carressed the Halls of Legislation. and PATTON. The House has six rooms, a large not to be excelled in America. front Piazza, a good Garden spot, and all necessary out-houses. For terms apply to DANIEL MURRAY. Raleigh, September 10. 1839.

ENTERTAINMENT. THE SUBSCRIBER, having been satisfactorily engaged for more than three years in attending

BOARDING HOUSE, Feels encouraged to say to the public, that her HOUSE AND STABLES are well furnished for the reception and accommodation of those who E SMITH. may be pleased to call.

All the STAGES arrive at and depart from my House, where Seats are secured, and no exertions spared to give general satisfaction to Pas-

My Residence is on the corner of Gillespie Street, the Lot formerly occupied by Mrs. Barge, convenient to the Market and near the State Bank. Fayetteville, August 14, 1839. 42-3m.

GENERAL AGENCY

COMMISSION BUSINESS.

THE Subscribers have formed a Copartnership under the Firm of FREEMAN & STITHS, and sent, at the Store of Messrs. W. & A. STITH.

E. B. FREEMAN, W. A. STITH,

A. B. STITH. Raleigh, May 4, 1839.

Executive Office, Raleigh, ? October 9, 1839.

I.LEN R. BUSH, of Marianna, Florida, is apwhich appointment, by 4th Section of said Act, that I now eat what I please, do what I please, sleep each Clerk of a Court of Record, within this State, is to take notice,

Attest, C. C. BATTLE, Private Secretary.

A Card.

THE Subscriber inadvertently omitted to state, in his late Advertisement, that he had made ample provision for having Horses and Carriages well taken care of. JAS. LITCHFORD. Raleigh, October, 1839.

DENTAL SURGERY.

DOCTOR SCOTT VILL be absent from Raleigh for 5 or 6 weeks, from the 11th of September, 1839. BACON! BACON!!

REEMAN & STITHS will receive, this day, a part of a large lot of Middling Bacon, which they will sell either by retail or by the quantity. August 3, 1839.

YOUNG LADIES SCHOOL AT CHAPEL HILL.

HE duties of this School will be resumed on Monday, the 6th day of January, 1840.

The Young Ladies will be thoroughly instructed in the English, Latin, Greek and French Languages, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Natural Philosophy. Natural History, Music, (Piano and Guitar,) Drawing and Needle work.

The Young Ladies will be received into the family of the Principal, and treated in all respects as daughters, and their intellectual and moral natures For every 16 lines (this size type) first insertion cultivated with the anxiety, devotedness and affection of a Parent.

The business of the School will be conducted under the superintendance of the Principal, assisted by competent Instructresses, and no pains will be spared to promote the interest of the Pupils. The expense of the entire course is $85 per session, exclusive of Music and Drawing, for which the usual charges will be made. Those who may wish the English course alone will be charged $85 per session. It is requested of those, who intend patronisoon as possible, that suitable arrangements may be J. PHILLIPS.

OLIVER & SMITH (Successors to Oliver & Juhnston,) MERCHANT TAILORS.

November 1, 1839.

1-9wp

VESTINGS.

FATETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH, W. C. RE now opening, at their Store, one door above the Cape Fear Bank, a large and splendid as River bottom. These lands are well adapted to the sortment of goods in their line, selected by Mr. Olicultivation of Corn, Wheat and Tobacco, and for ver in person, which can be confidently recommenbeauty of situation, and purity of atmosphere, are ded to our friends and customers not only for their elegance of style, but for their durability also; of

do Blue, do Brown Rifle Green, CLOTHS. Drake Neck, Grass. Wool dyed blue and black Washington Mixed, Durham Polish CASSIMERES. Grey, Brown. Light Drab Dark do Mixed do and Buff Sup'r Plaja Black Silk Velvet Blue

Brown Buff Valencies Together with an assortment of READY MAD CLOTHING, made up by ourselves and warranted to et Handkerchiefs, and many other articles needless

Mollen

Chally's

Black Salin

Blue do

Figured do

Black Mole Skin

We have in our employ, first rate Northern werl

Orders from a distance will be promptly attended to as heretofore.

Thankful for past favors, we respectfully solicit continuance of public patronage. OLIVER & SMITH.

Raleigh, October, 1839. READ AND PROFIT!

THE following Letter from the Hon. BEVERLY College, Virginia, was recently received, and affords very strong evidence of the efficacy of BECKWITH's were designed:

Lee's Springs, Virginia, Aug. 7th, 1839. ments which I have long felt to be due from me, for the benefits I have received at your hands. Fouron a few years of precarious existence, and assured wide circle of attention. me that the least indiscretion must be fatal. Soon afterwards I found myself becoming dyspeptic, and ry which dyspeptics alone can know. This, as usu- most captivating prospects of renown and light as the down on a linnet's wing, when in its march to uncontrolled ascendancy, by ly ascribed by an opposing party. to bad offer their services to the public as General Agents | cases, because a consciousness of my danger put me | the vision of man, have been mournfully flowing and pompous harangues in Con- ly gave life to our system, it will ultimateand Commission Merchants. Apply, for the pre- or my guard, and experience had made me familiar disappointed, and many of the noblest gress—the one of which creations may be ly ripen into an aristocracy as ponderous gress of the disease was retarded, and my life was wisdom, have fallen short of that sterling ty for practising the arts of deception, and two meals in regular succession, and for some hours cils, which a rich store of learning and acu- wild and undisciplined fancy.

> soundly, and enjoy life as much as any man living. Your young friend, who has been with me a week, my high respects. B. TUCKER.

Dr. BECKWITH. Morus Multicaulis. 21

purchasers, deliverable in this City during the month of November next. FREEMAN & STITHS. Raleigh, September 12, 1839.

FOR SALE, CUTTINGS of the MORUS 600,000 MULTICAULIS, in quantities to suit Purchasers, to be delivered in December next. Apply to JOS, W. ATKINSON, Falkland, September 18, 1839.

WE are authorised to sell 100,000 MORUS rod of the prophet, will cause refreshing and see if it does not, in its various alternations and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternations and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternation and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and see if it does not, in its various alternation and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and changes, fix at last upon the party spirit, in the councils of Cartesian and changes are constant.

notoriety, like a delirious vision, yields a frethy joy, Which mantles high, sparkles and expires, Leaving the soul more vapid than before."

upon the desert wastes of human life, whilst the intoxicating draught of political

But apart from the capacity for rendering Or to JAMES R. HOYLE, Greenville, N.C. important services to his country, and the ercises of the bar, his character will receive of the Union. Whilst I am soliciting a portion of your a fresh hue to its attractions and splendonr.

treasure is, there will the heart be." If employments. From this sad incumbance son once becomes delighted with that vio- disgraceful confusion, of sanguine conflicts then, the young mind is once infected with upon his happiness, no accession which lent sort of excitement which springs from between man and man, and between party the baneful delusion, that the spring of has been added to his fame, no matter how scenes of agitation and contention, it be- and party; the hall of Legislation is frequentman's best comforts and hopes arises, with- splendid, will certainly deliver him, for he comes as essential to his happiness, as is ly a theatre of disgraceful scrambles for vicin the tumultuous arena of political conten- has deserted public life, and is consequent- respiration to the functions of life, that the tory; public measures are viewed through a tion, all the sober pursuits of life will at ly bereaved of that measure of artificial ex- time will necessarily arrive, when this pas- distorted medium, and their excellence is once assume a sable and repulsive hue; citement with which it constantly buoyed sion must yield to the claims of business, estimated, and consequently their ultimate the sinews of exertion will be relaxed or up his feelings. He is not able to seek of family, or of advanced age, and that then fate decided, not according to the measure severed, and the usual instruments of suc- comfort in the engagements of the Bar, for a painful void will be experienced, which of good which they are calculated to render cess, and the sanctioned sources of instruc- he will have lost both his relish for such nothing beneath the skies can fill. The to the country, but by the nature of the tion will be contemptuously thrown aside. exercises and his ability to perform them. soothing endearments of kindred affection, source from which they happen to spring. The more especially does this burning pas- And he is totally unfitted for the extraction the balmy counsels of true friendship, and | Can it be rationally presumed that any counsion for politics weaken the energy, and of comfort from the private sources of hu- the sacred ministrations of genuine virtue, try will enjoy an expanded and healthful chill the professional ardor of the young man entertainment, for they will appear will all glance from his estranged heart, degree of presperity, the sweets of an unvotary of the Law, for when he once con- vapid to his taste and loathsome to his feel- without leaving even a transient impression molested repose, or a permanent stability tracts a thirst for that boisterous but tran- ings. This will be the inevitable condition behind them, and instead of reaching an of character and purpose, when the laws sient notoriety which frequently follows of the individual who has not secured a age of soft and serene repose, his declining which are passed for the preservation of proscribes the pages of Coke and of Black- life.

return again to the dusty labors of the clos- College career to the showy but ephemeral of a Country atmosphere, when suddenly men of the nation, after he has been prodi- thus descend upon the whole surface of of looking upon power and station as the gally flattered by the people of a district, human pursuits. The charms of positive only objects beneath the circuit of the sun, and enjoyed a succession of brilliant noti- virtue will be diminished, in consequence which are worthy of a place in the fond reces in the the most popular journals of the of the public mind being seized with a gard of man. It has its origin in the same day, for perhaps one brief effort which false conception and with a false estima- principle we are habitually prone to concost but a few moments of deliberation, and tion of the true accomplishments of man. demn so unsparingly in the governments of the easy labor of garnishing anew a few For while the national taste is vitiated by the elder world. Yes, we may decry the ideas extracted from the political text book a principle of wild and unregulated devo- people of France and of England, on ac-Tucken, Professor of Law in William & Mary of his party. For he quickly institutes a tion to the means of political agrandize- count of their fondness for pageantry and comparison between political and forensic | ment, the citizen will not be valued for the titles, as liberally as we may choose; but Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, in the disease for which they reputation. The one is earned with facili- solid splendour of his productions in litera- this is a passion which burns with as inty and despatch, is brisk and animated ture, for the depth and diversity of his at- tense fury in the American bosom, as it whilst it does endure, and is sure to ex- tainments in learning, for the brilliancy of does in the bosoms of any other rational Sin: An accidental meeting with a friend of yours pand the heart of its possessor with false his discoveries in general science, for his beings on the surface of the globe. The has determined me to offer you the acknowledge- conceptions of his own importance; the beneficent inventions in the sphere of me- passion for titles may be concealed on this other is the reward of diligent research chanical ingenuity, for that profound pene- side of the Atlantic, under the mask of a teen years ago I was left by a most malignant fever and persevering study, and though solid tration into the sources of agricultural different form; but it nevertheless does exwith a diseased liver, a disordered digestion, and a and durable, when it arrives, is so silent wealth, which will enable him to abridge ist in the fullness of its vigor. It is but the constitution in ruins. My Physicians permitted me in its progress, as rarely to reveal its ap- the labors and multiply the productions of blossom, too, of that appendage to a monto hope that with care and prudence I might drag proaches by a sudden introduction to a the farmer, nor for the bright exemplifica- archical government, which, of all others, tions of the whole catalogue of moral vir- is least congenial to the simple tastes and By a premature participation in the tues. No: these grand ingredients in the affections which are the life of a Republic; became acquainted with all that indescribable mise- charms of political fame, many of the sum of human happiness will appear as and unless it should be speedily restrained al, grew upon me, though less rapidly than in most usefulness, which have ever dawned upon compared with commanding popularity and the saving spirit of reform, which originalconstant use of the most approved remedies the pro- minds which illumine the halls of Federal indebted for its birth to a superior capaci- and unwieldy as that of Britain.

solicitude of a true friend, against the most with as much ease as he can part with his tive degree insufferable, is looking forward fell scourge, political ambition! distant approaches of one fatal passion cloak after having emerged from a passing with tremulous eagerness, to a place in the which now bestrides every cherished pur- shower, and return with fresh alacrity and Hall of National Representatives, to a situ- flows from this propensity, the continual suit of this country, with a grasp as relent- confidence to the path of forensic pursuits. ation in one of the Cabinet departments, or strife of parties for the ascendancy in matless as that of the tyrant of the grave, and But if professional acquirements shall have in the Diplomatic service of the Country. ters of government. There is no public with a power of injury as deadly as the ex- been neglected previous to an entrance in- Every decent citizen is panting for some vice which scatters in its train a more desohalations of the Upas. I refer to that uni- to political strife, these prolitic sources of post of public preferment and profit, and lating tribe of evils, than this. By its bane. versal appetite for political promotion, power and wealth will probably be forever those who have not been sufficiently fortu- ful influence and operations, the tears of which is now seizing within its clutches, deserted. For it is the peculiar nature of nate to obtain any other post are posting widowhood and of orphanage are caused to every age, rank and condition of life .- political duties and engagements, to relax their way with a provident share of speed flow in torrents for the shed blood of those Against the entrance of this insidions and the usual discipline of the mind, to disorder to the Republic of Texas. Politics, indeed, public men who fall in single combat, for perilous propensity, you should guard eve- its habits, to weaken its energies, and to appear to swallow every other interest, and some transient spark of irritation, struck out ry passage to the heart, with the same dis- inspire an invincible disrelish for the min- the whole surface of the Earth seems to by the momentary heat of discussion. The trustful vigilance which you would exert, ute researches and jejune labors of the be covered with Politicians, as Egypt once complexion of all the private relations of zing the School, to make their intentions known as in repelling a viper from your bosoms; for Law, and for every other duty which re- swarmed with locusts. Very few seem to life, is frequently changed entirely; fathers vain will be the attempt to reach a perma- quires much severity of thought. If, un- rely for respectability and happiness, upon are alienated from sons; brothers are torn nent professional renown, whilst the springs der these circumstances, a person should the certainty of filling up the measure of from each other's fond embrace; friends are of action are influenced by this fell mania. be compelled to abandon the exciting, inci- their social and domestic duties. Very few converted into implacable enemies; large Every such attempt will prove as vain as dents of the public scene, either by the de- appear to take refuge for consolation and towns and extensive neighborhoods are an effort to rise above the stars with the cision of the popular voice or by the claims support, in the agricultural and professional thrown into a state of sad and insufferable aid of a feeble wing; for there is no maxim of domestic duty, he is apt, in the future pursuits of Society. All are devoutly par- confusion; our annual elections, which were of inspired wisdom, that has ever yet en- stages of his life, to be afflicted with that ticipating in politics, without taking time intended to cleanse the springs of political tered the world, more obstinately true, hopeless spirit of despondency which will to consider, that this is an appetite " which authority from the dregs of abuse, are conthan that which declares, "that where the chiefly result from the absence of congenial grows on what it feeds," that when a per- verted into theatres of angry contention and the professed politician, he becomes wear- liberal supply of legal knowledge previous years will cover a dreary and unproductive life and property, and for the control and ied with the calm researches of Science, to his entrance upon the stage of public space. It is natural too, that he who has guidance of the conduct of man, are adoptstone, and gives his days and nights to the But this keen pursuit of the imagined fountains, and from violent sensations, ing, and when those upon whose decision Register of Debates, pants "to read his felicities and prospects of the political should be feebly moved by the tranquil are suspended the destinies of the Republic. history in a Nation's eye," resigns his heart scene, is not injurious to the interests of sources of human delight and happiness. are chosen, not upon the high considerations to the people, and solicits some political the individual alone. It has at the root of It is reasonable to believe, that the tender of integrity, ability and patriotism, but uppost at their disposal. And should his our national strength like a canker at the notes of friendship will fall unheeded upon on the ground of absolute and uncompromwishes be crowned with success, what root of the rosebud. It disturbs the that ear, which has long been accustemed ising devotion to the interests of a particuthen? Why, his next aspiration is, to ac- stream of public health and happiness in to the din of the Court-yard and of the lar party. When this most baneful evil is quire extended celebrity, by some striking its fountain springs. For the youth, who Muster field, to the boisterous discussions so prevalent in the community, the vilest display of eloquence in the councils of his are sent to the Colleges and Schools of of the Hall of Legislation, and which has miscreant may sneak into power, and de-Country. If his ambition is gratified in the country, will be quickly tempted by been wont to drink in no blissful music, but liver to the country those rules which are this aspiration also, we may then be pre- the perception of the universal weight and the shout of victory at the close of a suc- to bind the action of the present generation, pared to bid a long, and perhaps eternal consideration which springs from political cessful campaign. Indeed, it would be as and of prosperity. be good-a general assortment of Knit Shirts and farewell, to every rational prospect of pro- popularity and influence, to grow restless unnatural to expect such an individual, to Drawers-Shirt Bosoms and Collars, ruffled and fessional eminence and utility. For that under that wholesome discipline which is reap satisfaction from the smooth and quiet plain-Tennant's celebrated Stocks, adapted to all youthful student must be composed of stern imposed by scholastic authority, and to pleasures of private life, as it would be to necks-Victoria Cravats, Gloves, Suspenders, Pock- and inflexible materials, who is willing to resign the most precious moments of their anticipate pleasure for the habitual resident > et, and to gather renown at the slow pace productions which frequently emanate from enclosed in the cave of a hermit. This consuming rage for political promoand applauded by the most distinguished A blight of incurable inefficiency will tion has its origin then, in the circumstance made tolerable, but not comfortable. I rarely ate power and influence, in the public Coun- the other to the redundant flowings of a its force and fervor, is growing like an in- upon the public ear, will totally lose their sinuating and fatal epidemic, and as a ne- significancy and their terrors, and when of almost every day, was incapable of any exercise men, combined with unfailing dexterity in If you are anxious to realize the tenden- cessary concomitant of power and place, it bad deeds are actually committed, there of thought or feeling. A peevish impatience of ex- debate, is sure to impart to those who cy of this despotic passion to absorb every has inspired our people with an ardent thirst will be no sting and no pang imparted to Two years ago I met with your Anti-dyspeptic have been previously trained in the con- other consideration in life, watch the road for show, pageantry and ostentation. It is the authors of them, by the just and honest pointed Commissioner of Affidavits for said Pills, and confiding in the accompanying certificates tentions of the bar. It should be the first which leads to your political Metropolis as natural that these disastrous results should censures of the public. Territory, by Gov. Dudler, agreeably to the 21st of respectable gentlemen whom I happened to know, object of every generous youth, who as- whilst the Legislature is in session, and flow from such a pernicious source, as it is Chapter of Revised Statutes of North Carolina, of I took them according to directions. The result is pires to solid and imperishable fame, to a observe how it will be thronged with pasmass an extensive stock of professional sengers of every grade of fortune and of genial warmth of Spring. Thus a spirit of is nothing else than the lust of individual knowledge and experience, to settle the every shade of character, who are eagerly extravagance is engendered, fortunes are domination. In seeking the gratification of will tell you that be has never seen my strength or habits of life upon a firm and immovable ba- wending their way to this focus of all eyes, squandered, characters are impaired and individual prejudices, and the promotion of spirits flag, or my elasticity of mind or body fail for sis, to draw largely from the most approv- of all hearts, and as many would have it, ruined, and the primitive tastes and habits a moment. For this it gives me pleasure to say ed fountains of intellectual light, and to of all wisdom. Mark the keen anxiety of the people will be most sadly corrupted. you have my thanks, and to add the assurance of rear upon the foundation of these attain- which pervades every circle in society, Is it to be expected, that the American prin- lustrious benefactors of the human race. ments, a durable and commanding struc- when the result of a political election is ciples alone are composed of such a stern Through the influence of faction, the imture of reputation, anterior to his entrance about to be made known; and observe the material as to resist and ward off the corupon the broad stage of political strife. - course of conversation in every group of rupting influence of this alarming and de- the most abject disgrace, after he had rais-The excellence thus acquired, like the persons in which you may chance to enter, structive passion? Some of the fairest, ed the character of his country to a pitch to expand, and generous fruits to grow ty politics of the country. The perpetual perished beneath the incumbent weight of thage, Hannibal was prevented, immediate topics of discussion with men of all pro- some pernicious propensity. The Lace- ately after the overwhelming success of fessions, during their intervals of leisure, demonian Republic was destroyed by the Cannæ, from receiving those supplies of are the prospects which indicate the down- introduction of overflowing wealth, com- men and treasure, which would have closfall of one Administration and the elevation bined with its consequent fruit, an inordi- ed, speedily and forever, the career of of another upon its ruins; the symptoms nate lust of gain. The Athenian Republic Roman power; and this circumstance cause which flatter one candidate for Congress perished by the united force and influence ed the shades of night to veil forever the with the hopes of success, and menace an- of the fondness of the people for luxury, and destinies of Carthage. other with the terrors of defeat; or the in- their insatiable thirst for Theatrical amuse- It has been predicted by a deep searcher which will enhance the value of his facul- | lar State will exert over the fortunes and signed to destruction by that universal popties who has been strengthened by the ex- destinies of an aspirant to the Presidency ular debasement, which flowed from the prevalence of luxury and sloth among the Every unfledged nestling in politics turns people. May it not be the sad misfortune attention for other matters of infinite mo- from the influence of his political acquisi- with an eye of solicitation to a seat in the of the future historian, to record the mournment to your future comfort and honor, tions. And a person thus situated, may State Legislature. Every politician of ma- ful fact, that the exciting hopes of this Repermit me to warn you, with the earnest divest himself of his political predilections ture age, whose character is not in a posi- public were crushed in the embrace of that

But there is another mournful evil which drawn his best enjoyments from troubled ed upon the arbitrary dictates of party feel-And even should good and pure men be elected to fill the highest seats of legislative responsibility in despite of the ruthless dictation of the spirit of party, yet we are not provided even then with any prevailing pledge, any satisfactory assurance, that the measures will be salutary and beneficent in their character; for good men are susceptible of the same transient impulses of passion and prejudice which invade the bosoms of others. And when influenced by the spirit of party, they may be so completely infatuated, as to believe that they are exerting their powers in the service of their country, when they are executing the most debasing requisitions of their party. They may elect incompetent and worthless men to administer the justice of the country, for the purpose of giving an ostensible demonstration to the world, of their ascendancy; and they may likewise pass unwholesome and pernicious laws; laws which will poison the fountain of justice, and paralyse the rights of the citizen, merely because they originate with their party. Every aspirant after popular favor, when the election has terminated adversely to his wishes, is almost certain to prefer the charge of corruption against his more successful rival. The most indifferent and praiseworthy acts of the public man are frequentand unworthy motives; and opprobrium and censure, being thus indiscriminately applied on all occasions to good and innocent deeds, as well as to those which are base This passion, too, instead of abating in and pernicious, will cease to grate harshly

> This spirit of party, however it may be disguised under the name of public s individual aspirations, it has covered with undeserved obloquy, some of the most ilmortal Duke of Mariboro' was reduced to 47-tf ability to contend with its most gifted men, fluence which an election in some particu- ments. And the Roman Republic was con- into the sources of political events, and