plete history of so memorable a day, including mingling of hearts and voices-local preposall details and incidents, would be quite be- sessions, individual preferences, every thing yond our power in the brief time allowed us that might withdraw the mind from the one procession, and every statistical item both of versal feeling of opposition to the party in arrangement and proceedings-but the sketch | power might have a hearty, loud and unaniwould still be altogether imperfect. For how were it possible to transfer to paper the real- it will reach every corner of the land-it will immense concourse as one man-and which, mingle with the rushing sound of the Missismore than the array of banners or the pagean- sippi waters, and blend with every breeze try of processions, constituted the real ele- that sweeps over the plains of the South; N. ment of subsistence to the mighty gathering, England will echo back the voice which the prompting the eloquent harangue and the re- Empire State shall prolong, and Pennsylvasponding shout—the deep enthusiasm of word | nia take up the flying sound until the note of and look with which friend greeted friend, or which, diffused in silence like a palpable presence over the vast assemblage, imparted a feeling of solemnity and grandeur blended in unison with the idea of a Nation's majesty. It seemed as though the people themselves city. It was like the gathering of the clans had met in their legitimate attitude of sovereignty, to vindicate the Constitution and the Laws, and to rebuke the presumption which, seated in high places, had used delegated power as though it were a self-derived author- cases, for once fell short of the reality. The ity, forgetting the dread allegiance due to the | Committee of Reception sat night and day sacred charter of American freedom.

Delegations were in attendance from every State. From Thursday evening until yesterday noon, the tide, augmented continually by fresh accessions, set steadily towards the Reception Room at the Eutaw House, where names were registered and lodgings assigned the city. New England came in force-from the banks of Kennebeck, from the green hills son, and the sound of her voice was like to the coming pageant. thunder, as it mingled in the blended acclaim of the congregated host. From the plains of Monmouth and the battle fields of Trenton and Princeton and from regions adjoining, came an earnest crowd bearing the veiled image of New Jersey, and with mute eloquence against the violence which had done outrage to her honor. The Democracy from Pennsylvania gathered from every valley of the Keystone State-from our sister city of Philadelphia, from Pittsburg, Lancaster, Uniontown, from Carlisle, York, Chambersburg and other towns of the interior-marching under the banner of the Hero of Tippecanoe, whose favorite name, sounding through the Alleghany heights, and along the valleys of the Susquehanna, the Delaware, and the rocky battlements of the Monongahela, has aroused an enthusiasm which nothing can

Ohio was the first in reaching the city thro' her Zanesville delegation-an evidence of zeal which she will be eager to repeat at the polls in due time, and one which benefited her well since she claims the Farmer of North Bend as her son and citizen. Indiana, mindful of her own history and of HIS services who once protected her in the days of her infancy, stood forth in a strong delegation of manly youth. Michigan held not back, but with Illinois and Missouri, gave stout hearts and warm ones to join in the proud fellowship of the national communion. The spirit of Kentucky, noble and generous, as it displayed itself at Harrisburg, mingled with the aggregated elements of patriotic ardor gathered from all quarters of the Republic. From Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina, delegations came, fewer in numbers than from the more contiguous States, but all animated by that feeling of a common enthusiasm which constitutes a bond of brotherhood between Whigs in all quarters of the Union-and prepared to join with their brethren in the solemn pledge about to be entered into before the eyes of the whole country. North Carolina, eager to vindicate her claim once more to the glory of being a Whig State, and to give a token of the spirit with which her name will be redeemed next fall, poured forth a powerful detachment of her chosen youth; while the Old Dominion, from the wide extent of her territories-from highlands and lowlands-gave up her noble sons, who came with the song of Virginia's Deliverance on their lips, to receive in turn congratulating shouts from the congregation of their countrymen. The delegation of Virginia was estimated at fifteen hundred strong. Delaware, as in the days of the Revolution, marched gallantly to the rendezvous, and once more the Delaware and Maryland lines stood side by side, united in a common cause. Our neighbors from the District were with us too, in great force.

How strong must be that feeling of enthusiasm which thus drew together from such all tempers, habits, pursuits-various in their scribed on the reverse, "Harrison and Ty house, the office-and all at a sacrifice of perother as brethren, to plight with hearty good Gen. Harrison's career closing with the and trimmed. will the mutual hand of fellowship, and to Presidency, and bearing the words-" The blend all thoughts and feelings in harmony rising of Harrison." on the great subject which they met to con- The members from BUNKER HILL, mous utterance. This voice has gone forth, roll through vallies far and near, and reverto one of triumph and victorious joy. The concentration of such a multitude from various points, it may well be supposed, created no small bustle and excitement in our when the fiery cross sped from hill to hill among the Highlands, and every true heart responded to the summons. Estimates of expected numbers usually exaggerated in such with the names of Whig householders before them and found incessant employment in distributing the new comers among our hospitable citizens. The spectacle presented by our streets yesterday morning was of the most exciting and exhilarating kind. The day before had been in the hospitable houses of Whigs throughout | cloudy, and on Sunday night a heavy rain fell; but the morning of the Fourth of May opened brightly, and the sun rose in a cloudof Vermont, from the Valley of the Connect- less sky. From various points the delegaicut, where the echoes of triumph yet linger, tions moved at an early hour with banners prolonging the shouts of recent victory so no- and music to take their allotted positions in bly achieved there-from gallant Rhode Is- West Baltimore street. Each detachment land, her sister in glory-from the bosonis of as it passed on was greeted with shouts : the the Old Bay State, where Independence leans | windows were crowded with ladies who lookupon his spear and looks towards Faneuil ed with delight upon the scene to which their Hall; from town and city and rural abode own presence, with waving handkerchiefs and they came, an ardent band, bringing with fluttering veils, gave a bright adornment .them the unconquerable spirit and steady pur- The marching of the innumerable divisions, poses which never yet have ceased to char- the array of banners, the galloping of the maracterize the descendants of the Pilgrim Fa- shals to and fro, decorated with gay sashes, the sounds of music answering to music, and The Empire State gave forth her sons, from of shout provoking shout-all imparted life the shores of Erie to the waters of the Hud- and enthusiasm and gave a happy beginning

THE PROCESSION The Procession was led by Captain James O. Law, Chief Marshal of the day, and an aid on each side on horseback. He had appointed five assistants; they were Messrs. James H. Melliken, Washington Booth, appealing to friends and brethren for justice | Charles H. Winder, Levi Fannestock, and J. W. Osborne. A fine band of music immediately followed the Marshal, playing Harrison's March, as composed by Professor Deilman. Then came the President and officers of the BALTIMORE CITY DEL-EGATION, bearing a large white banner on a frame, with the following appropriate inscription from a new and popular song: 'The people are coming from plain and from moun-

To join the brave band of the honest and free Which grows as the stream from the leaf-sheltered

No strength can restrain it, no force can retain it, Whate'er may resist, it breaks gallantly through, And borne by its motion as a ship on the ocean Speeds on in his glory-

OLD TIPPECANOE The iron-armed soldier, the true-hearted soldier, The gallant old soldier

OF TIPPECANOE!"

An Eagle was represented at the head of the inscription, and beneath it was a barrel of "hard cider."

INVITED GUESTS. A number of barouches followed, containing the invited guests of the Convention, in the first of which we observed the Hon. DANIEL WEBSTER, of the United States Senate, and his Honor, SHEPPARD C. LEA-

KIN, Mayor of the city of Baltimore. Next to the carriages, and on foot came the SUB-COMMITTEE OF ARRANGE. MENTS, the HARRISON CONVENTION and the CENTRAL COMMITTEE, distinguished by sashes and appropriate badges, expressive of their official position in the duties of the Convention.

The above composed that portion of the line resting on Baltimore street, which, as it passed down, was joined by the delegates

NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

It was preceded by the State Banner, with the motto-"Crescit sub pondere virtus." The delegation was larger than was anticipated, and admirably did the fine body of men which represented the "Granite State" sustain their distinctive appellation.

MASSACHUSETTS. The delegation from the Old Bay State was alike imposing for the strength of its numbers and the high respectability of those arrayed undor its numerous and significant banners. It comprized about a thousand delegates. It was preceded by an elegant banner borne by the Boston members, having a view of the city of Boston with the motto-" We are where we have ever been, and ever mean to be.' The various sections of this Delegation were distinguished by banners with appropriate devices and inscriptions. On the first remote points such a multitude of men-of of these was the figure of "Fame," and inlocal peculiarities, and diverse in their opin- ler." This was followed by one representions on different matters-summoning each ing "The Book of Laws," and on the refrom his individual business-some from the verse, "Honor to the Majesty of Laws." plough, others from the shop, the counting Two richly finished silk scrolls, one representing the "Constitution of the United sonal convenience-how deep and strong, we States," and having therefrom a sentence repeat, must be that feeling which could thus in letters of gold-the other the "Constitubring together so many men from such dif- tion of Massachusetts," with a sentence their Liberties the People must do their sure which no honest man need regret."- fer upon ! No: a district of this great Re- with a banner bearing those two words only, by six horses. Upon the roof, a banner was large gilt Eagle is at the cap of the banner. public was without its delegates. Represen- were very numerous, and were cheered with displayed, inscribed "Laurel Mountain Cavaliers-the western buckeye was seen bug." On the next was represented a quanof yesterday's proceedings, as full and accu- the dweller on the sea shore saluted the hear- on the other side the pithy expression, "Buremembered that Mr. Buchanan in the course of a speech some time since, exclaimlike all the other sections of the Union, isnot well pleased with that political theory which would begin its practice by the reduc- za for Old Tippecanoe." tion of the price of labor. A banner followtion the living spirit which quickened the berate from mountain to mountain. It will ed, with the device of the Sword and Balance, bearing the motto-" Equal rights | tar of the Key Stone State-Good for 4,000 and equal justice." Amongst others we noticed banners with the following inscriptions-" Glad tidings for the people;" " Union for the sake of the Union; " Success to our cause." The device of an Arm her banners having a variety of devices .remonstrance and indignation shall swell in- and Hammer, with the motto-" Strong On the front banner was "Adams Co. Pa. arms and stout hearts."

The Massachusetts delegation was accompanied with a remarkable fine band of music which came on with them, and whose performance excited much admiration.

RHODE ISLAND.

This gallant little State, who came with 'victory yet green upon her brow," was well represented. Her sons moved on with an elastic step under the folds of her State her ancient principles."

CONNECTICUT. Connecticut, too, has but recently added a new leaf to her laurels, and on the present occasion was represented by a goodly numthe National Confederacy.

A fine band of music occupied the interval in the line, and was followed by the delegation from

gation. Almost every one of her numerous of the delegation we recognized its Chairman, J. N. REYNOLDS, Esq. The eyes of the spectators appeared to sparkle with new interest and pleasure as the long line passed before them-" the observed of all observers." The cry of "rescue" is in the shouts of her sons-we know "she can"-we hope 'she will"-may we live to write "she has!" The motto on the armorial banner, consisted of the words-" New York-The ebbs and flows of whose single soul are tides to the rest of mankind."

The wronged New Jersey next appeared, and with the free air and fearless port of men, who know their rights and dare maintain them, followed that banner which they have preserved in the hands of the undismayed defender of their rights, their worthy Governor. The State Banner bore the significant inscription-" The next impression of her broad seal will be respected." very elegant banner represented a fac simile of the seal of the State, over which were the words-"Our State sovereignty shall not be violated." Around it-" The Great Seal of the State of New Jersey." We cannot doubt but that it will make a due impression in the fall. PENNSYLVANIA.

The delegation from the Key Stone State was immense, and presented a scene that in itself would dignify the name of a procession. Its approach was indicated by a large white banner, on which was inscribed "KEY STONE STATE. It is acoming." Then followed the "Philadelphia City and County delegation," with a banner signifying the same, and another rich one bearing the arms of the State.

Another banner had on it a ship with the sentence above--" Labor is Wealth;" and below--" Don't give up the ship." In the rear of the Philadelphia members was carried a transparency, being a full length-portrait of Gen. Harrison, encircled by the words-" Honor be to him who defends our Homes and Friends." On the reverse it stands-" This transparency was displayed in Philadelphia in 1813, by the people, after the defeat of Proctor by the Gallant Harrien masse offered honor to the victorious sol-

York County was fully represented, and the delegation was preceded by a banner with the characteristic sentence-" The White Rose of Pennsylvania defends the fair fame of Harrison."

From Schuylkill County a large number were present; their banner-" W. H. H .-in War, the soldier and his sword." reverse-" Harrison and Tyler."

The Dauphin County delegation exhibited in elegant banner, on one side of which she announced her principles as " First for Jackson; First for Harrison. Always honestshe gave up Cæsar for Rome, and now to the aid of Rome she calls the Cincinnatus of handsome flag, bearing the motto-" When the West." On the other side was " Pro our country calls, obey-Cincinnatus.

Patria—Harrison and Tyler." beautiful banner, which attracted particular ly banner. This splendid ornament of the notice. On one side of the banner, the body procession contains forty yards of silk; its The motto of the standard was-" Not that of which was black satin, was a Log Cabin principal picture represents the Factory vil- she loved Cæsar less, but Rome more." in gilt, surrounded with thirteen stars, indi- lage including the river and all the prominent cative of the 13 original States; and attached | buildings connected withit. Its motto above to the Cabin, was a barrel of "hard Cider," was-" Protect American Industry," below and "The ball is rolling;" all also in gilt .- press, under which is a figure intended to reof Arms, and the inscription-" To preserve the lever; above is the quotation-" A presferent and distant quarters, and cause them therefrom in the same letters. A silk ban- own Fighting and Voting!" all also in The banner is trimmed in superb style by veyed a portion of its members in a complete | gold cord attached to gilt banner poles. Mr. "Log Cabin," built upon wheels and drawn A. C. Smith, we learn, was the painter. A shores of the Gulf of Mexico. The sons of goblet, overflowing with gold pieces; on the Fox skins, Buck-horn, with sundry implethe Puritans met with the descendants of the reverse, the words-" The Golden Hum- ments of husbandry, adorned the sides and roof of the Cabin, and boughs of green trees We propose to give below some account side by side with the Palmetto of the South, tity of mechanic's implements of labor, and decorated the top. The appearance of such rate as possible, although any thing like a com- ty mountaineer. There was a general com- chanan beware of edge tools." It will be esting to many as a curiosity in the way of of " Hard Cider" was placed in the rear of ed-" I would that the whole of New Eng- the Cabin, and a gourd was suspended by it. land might hear my voice." They appear A flag in front announced whence it came-

The Bucks County Delegation followed it with the banner, brief but expressive-Huz-

Lancaster County was preceded by a banner that announced herself as " The Gibralmajority for Old Tip."

Mifflin County with an appropriate flag, followed, and opposed to reducing the wages of the laborer Good and True-For Tippecanoe." and mechanic." On another-" Harrison the Conqueror of Proctor shall lead us to victory.

The Delaware County delegation carried a banner bearing the motto " Tippecanoe-No reduction of wages."

From Pittsburg the delegation was large, and consisted of substantial looking men, the iron of Pennsylvania. They carried a ban-Banner, representing an anchor hove, with ner consisting of a handsome painting repreplough in the foreground.

Mercer County was well represented. The banner of the delegation presented a likeness of Harrison, and around it-Our candidateber of her sons who had just reason to be Fort Meigs-The Thames-Tippecanoeproud of the station which she has perma- Wm. H. Harrison, the poor man's Friend.' a flag with the significant motto-"The libnently assumed among her Whig sisters of On the reverse- Our candidates -- Harrison erty of speech, if not the right of suffrage." and Tyler.'

comprised representatives from all the coun- sound the Alarm"-" Young Whigs to the ties. The banner borne in front had on it Rescue;" and on the reverse, "Under the The proud "Excelsior" of the Empire the arms of the State, and on the reverse the shadow of the throne, the throb of Liberty State met the eye in the van of the long line motto-" The first to adopt-the last to a- still beats on." of intelligent, enterprising, and patriotic bandon the Constitution." On another citizens which composed her numerous dele- banner was the motto-" Our Country-our rights." The New-Castle Tippecanoe counties was represented, and at the head Club had its appropriate banner, as had also the Sussex and Kent members.

The banner of the Kent County delegation had on it the "Blue Hen's Chickens"glorious war of the Revolution.

MARYLAND. and decorations. The Baltimore City Dele- the "Old Dominion" and its followers did gation, under the Banner of the State, with justice to the plains of the nativity of the galthe motto, " Religious Toleration and Pub- lant Harrison. lic Liberty," was in the van; they also carried an elegant banner representing the "Bat- large banner with the picture of the Balance, tle Monument."

followed, was distinguished by a large ban- | Upharsin-Thou art weighed in the balance ner inscribed-"Old St. Mary's-the adopt- and found wanting." On the opposite side ed land of Lord Baltimore, and now an the significant expression "Treasury Pap inadvocate of Old Tippecanoe." They were accompanied by a very neatly finished "Log Cabin." drawn by eight grey horses, and having a variety of tasteful decorations in ner, and lively green badges.

Worcester County followed with a banner in in which this Morus Multicaulis Admin- of the Union. istration may winter;" on another "Sweep most ominous broom discovered itself at the by under the banner of the arms of the State, chinney top. On the branch of a tree on the roof of the cabin was perched a mountain eagle, which produced an excellent effect. The new made Howard District, victorious in their first election, carried a banner inscribed "The Young Whigs of Young Howard District the true blood of the Old Maryland line." On the other side was "No reduction of wages. A large "Log Cabin" from Sharpsburg here diversified the line; it was a most substantial one, built on a frame fixed on six wheels and drawn by eight beautiful horses, son." A relict of a time when the people from Washington County, and from a peep into the interior, their quarters were quite A man was seated on a barrel of "Hard from her lethargy."

Cider" behind; on the sides were a number from her lethargy."

VERMONT of skins of various animals; in one of the windows a hat without a crown was thrust; cooking utensils and farming implements, with tools peculiar to the labor of the log cabin occupants, abounded about it, and upon In Peace, the farmer and his ploughshare; the roof an oppossom was seen clinging to a On the branch of a gum tree. This was the favorite of the men, and a capital specimen it was. Carroll County also came in with a "Log Cabin" similar to those we have described. Talbot County Delegation was distinguished by an appropriate flag.

The delegates from Queen Ann's carried a

A large delegation from the Laurel Facto-In the same delegation there was also a ry followed, with a magnificent and very costwhen assembled in one body to hail each ner encircled with pictorial illustrations of gilt. The banner was splendidly decorated Sisco, it is suspended from a gilt spear across the top, the feather projecting at one end and The delegation from Fayette County con- the point at the other; this is supported by a statives were here from beyond the Mississippi, the deepest enthusiasm. Succeeding them Boys, from Fayette County, Pennsylvania, was a banner with the device of a golden head of the Mississippi Valley." Deer and Union."

A delegation to the sake of the cession from Ohio.

A large body of the cession from Ohio.

The next made the candid acknowledge- | ty, in which General Harrison resides, ful. ment-" The Whigs of Cecil-often beaten, lowed, bearing a beautiful banner, represent. never conquered." Another banner was inscribed-" Hard Cider, Harrison and Reform," and on the other side -- Retrenchment and Reform-No standing army of 200,000 miniature Log Cabin, about three feet in

A curious affair followed here, which was immediately preceded by a flag announcing that " Alleghany is coming." It was a huge attendance—the banners, badges, order of in order that one undivided, deep-felt and unirolled along by a number of the members of ing a demand of the surrender of Fort Meige this delegation; the ball was apparently a by Proctor, and bearing Gen. Harrison's rewooden frame covered with linen painted in ply-" Tell your General its capture will divers colors, and bearing a multitude of inscriptions, apt quotations, original stanzas, ders." and pithy sentences, which it was impossible to collect in consequence of the motion of the ball. We think there was other evidence yesterday, that "the ball is in motion."

The Cumberland delegation was preceded Adams County was largely represented, by an elegant satinflag, worked by the ladies of that town. On another flag of the same delegation was the motto: Buff and Blue-

Hartford, Cecil, Kent and other Counties were designated by their appropriate banners.

The Govanstown District displayed a banner representing a Log Cabin, with the inscription "General Harrison elected to the Presidency by the hard-handed yeomanty." And this closed the Maryland Delegation.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. The delegation from the tten miles square was numerous. The members from Washthe appropriate motto-" Fast anchored to senting Harrison and his staff, and on the re- ington headed the delegation with a banner verse a Log Cabin with Harrison at the representing the Capitol, and a motto, " Insensible alike to blandishments or threats.' A very beautiful banner having a painting of the genius of Columbia, and the inscription, " Columbia the sentinel of the Republic," was second in order. This was followed by

Georgetown came next, and exhibited a banner having thereon the appropriate sentences, The delegation of this gallant little State, | "As Sentinels on the Tower of Liberty we

> From Alexandria the delegation was large. Their banner, which was very beautiful, represented a figure on a pedestal, and bore the motto-" Public good our only aim." VIRGINIA.

Virginia—just fresh from the encounter in er be what thou now art"—a sentence to which she has added to her renown and giva name given to the Delaware Line in the en a new zest to the hopes of the American people, and to their confidence in her strength and ability-brought her own good welcome | tion to unite with their brethren in the distin-Our own State occupied, of course, a large with her welcome news. The delegation guished honors of a day that will ever be brilportion of the line, and was rich in devices was very large. In every respect the flag of

The Norfolk Borough Delegation bore a over which were the words of warning given The delegation from St. Mary's, which first to Belshazzar -- "Mene, mene. Tekel operative."

> From Hampshire County there was a considerable delegation with an appropriate ban-

There was a delegation quite numerous bearing a banner whose familiar motto esperepresenting a Log Cabin, and having the in- cially belonged to them-on the front an Eascription-" Harrison and Tyler-Worces- gle was painted among the clouds and letterter County is pledged to support Maryland." ed above "WISE's DISTRICT," on the reverse A portion of the Frederick City Delega- the hand in hand, with the well known extion occupied a well built "Log Cabin," pression which originated with Mr. Wise, drawn by six horses; on the side a placard and was so interestingly exemplified yesterwas suspended with the words-" The Cab- day-"The Union of the Whigs for the sake the Augean Stable"-for which purpose a This delegation was comprised in one bothe motto upon which was-"On Stanly! on.' SOUTH CAROLINA.

A similar deputation from this State took its place in the line, and hoisted the State banner in the cause. It bore the motto-' The Palmetto resists oppression."

The enthusiasm which has circulated like electricity throughout so large a portion of the Union has not been more thoroughly felt than among the warm temperaments of the sons of the South. Georgia, but a short time since avowing her apathy in the Presidential each wearing a set of bells. In this cabin we campaign, has felt the kindly influences of a learn that a delegation of forty came down renewed hope and sends forth her representatives to the Convention; while at home the name of Harrison is cherished as the talisman that is to protect the Union. Her banner bore the motto-" She has aroused

> Came next, preceded by her armorial stanlard and presented a goodly array both innumbers and appearance. The Green Mountain Boys who have ever proved the inflexible supporters of the doctrine of equal rights. received a hearty welcome to our city. We know Vermont and can rely on her, and in the language they have adopted on their flag, we feel assured that " The Green Mountain Boys will do their own voting and their own fighting."

TENNESSEE

Came with the sable weeds of solemn mourning on her flag, for one of her great and good men has just passed away. This token of respect to the memory of the talented and virtuous Hugh L. White, produced a deep sympathy of feeling on the beholder.

There was a full delegation from this also in gilt. The string of the door of the the words " Laurel Factory, Prince George's Standard bore the name of " Henry Clay" State, and larger than was expected. The Cabin was not drawn in. On the same side County, Maryland, May 4th, 1840." On the and the Latin passage " Tanto nomine nulwas 'Harrison, Tyler and true Democracy,' reverse a painting presents a screw and lever len par eulogium." It was no doubt a sides of the pictures, and the heads intertwined below great gratification to the gentlemen from are suppressed with the exclamation-" No Sub-Trea-On the other side was the Pennsylvania Coat present the President, and a laboring man at Kentucky to have the pleasure of meeting sury!" On the other side a rock, wave beaten, figurately sury to have the pleasure of meeting sury!" On the other side a rock, wave beaten, figurately sury to have the pleasure of meeting sury! their distinguished representative in the Senate, Mr. Clay, at the Convention, as it was to many others.

A band of music as in the order of procession, followed Kentucky, and preceded a large delegation from OHIO.

The banner of the State with the well-selected motto-" She offers her Cincinnatusato redeem the Republic"-led the pro-

A large body of men from Hamilton Coun-

ing Harrison at the plough; on the reverse a view of Cincinnati, the Ohio River and the landing. They also brought on with them a length, built of the "Buckeye," grown on the farm at North Bend.

A large banner was borne by the Muskin. gum delegation, to whom it was presented by the Hamilton County delegation, represent do him more honor than a thousand surren

The Convention received some addition to its members from this State under their common arms, and the motto " Sans peur

-sans reproche."

INDIANA. A very fine delegation was in attendance from the "Buffalo" State, whose sons have cause to know and to appreciate the gallantry of the man they have publicly honored. The flag was inscribed-" She will cherish in her manhood the defender of her infancy," MISSISSIPPI.

The banner of Mississippi, which preceded a liberal delegation, bore the motto-" Once more to the rescue-We honor him who gave up office for our sake."

A band of music here varied the procession: and it was followed by the delegation from ILLINOIS. The banner was inscribed "She will teach palace slaves to respect the Log Cabin; at the base-" The Prairies are on fire!" ALABAMA.

This delegation followed under the banner of their State, with the pithy motto-" She will soon renounce allegiance to a King." MAINE.

The delegation from Maine was very full A fine body of men supported the banner which bore the apt sentences " Her honor is our honor-her quarrel is our quarrel." MISSOURI.

From this State the delegates were not very numerous, but the few perhaps had warmer welcome. Their banner was inscribed-'Missouri remembers her early friends.' MICHIGAN.

The delegation was limited in number, but not the less welcome on that account. The banner had the motto-"Oh may'st thou evwhich we all respond, Amen.

ARKANSAS. From this State there was a small delegaliant in the civil annals of American History BALTIMORE CITY TIPPECANOE CLUBS

FIRST WARD. A Ship on wheels drawn by four grey horses. Their banner was a representation of Harrison on horseback, and on the reverse a copy of each side of the medal presented to General Harrison by Congress. SECOND WARD.

A banner bearing on the front a portrait of General Harrison; on the reverse a device illustrative of "the currency"-a ship in sea phrase "lubberly sailed;" a figure at the helm to represent the President and one at the quarter-the Secretary of the Navy. The latter gives the word, "Hard up Matty."

THIRD WARD. The front Banners represented a correct view of North Bend. Harrison, seated on a felled hickory tree with a sickle in his hand, is listening to the announcement of his nomination, as a friend is in the act of reading it from the Harrisburg Telegraph. The words, The Harrison nomination, are above the picture, and on either side, an eagle supporting the national ensign. Upon the reverse, a Log Cabin is painted, on the door of the Cabin, on which are the words: "To Let in 1841. The motto-" We will do our own voting and our own fighting.'

THE FOURTH WARD. This banner represented a beautifully painted figure of Liberty, her foot resting upon a "Sub treasury" chest, which a snake is entwining. The sword in the hand of the figure has penetrated the reptile's head and below it is the quotation, "We have scotched the snake; not killed it;" Above "Pro Patria Nostra;" on the reverse "Commerce, Arts and Manufactures."-Another Banner in this Ward bore the words, "No British Whigs, but real Hard Cider Boys;" on the reverse-"4th Ward Tippecanoe Club, Harrison and Reform, Spirit of '76.

THE FIFTH WARD. Displayed in the foreground of its banner a Log Cabin; in an adjoining field, Gen. Harrison by the side of his plough is sttending to the information of his nomination, which a friend imparts, who points to the Capitol in the distance. The motto above, "Cincinnatus of America;" and that below, "From the Plough to the Presidency." On the reverse of the banner the inscription, "Ever Invincible 5th Ward"-"Union for the Sake of the Union." THE SIXTH WARD.

This banner exhibited Harrison in command at Fort Washington; on the reverse his portrait in large, with the words, "Wm. H. Harrison, President of the Union, A. D. 1841. By the will of the People.

THE GERMAN TIPPECANOE CLUB. This company which was very large, was remarkaole by an elegant banner representing the armed shade of Herman, the deliverer of Germany from the Roman sway, extending his hand from the cloud in which the figure is partly enveloped, to welcome the deliverer of America, General Harrison. A Log Cabin is in the distance and an old soldier helping himself from a barrel of "hard cider" at the door. On the reverse of the banner the words, "Dentscher Tippecanoc Club in Baltimore. For in Formirt 1840. Harrison and Ver-

A handsomely painted Log Cabin well finished, with the usual associations. The motto, "In Hoc Vinces." On the back," 7th Ward Tippecanoe Club. No reduction of Wages.'

THE EIGHTH WARD. The front of the banner bore the motto, "Harrison and Reform," in the upper scroll, and beneath, the favorite one of " No reduction in the price of Labor."-The centre was occupied by a view of Federal Hill, with a variety of craft playing in the basin. On the reverse in the foreground, a snug Log Cabin, and a barrel of "Hard Cider" at the door. The Capitol was

THE NINTH, WARD. The advance of the banner of the 9th Ward discovered the interior of a Smith's shop, with the artisan at work. The motto-" No reduction in the price of warative of the Constitution; the American Eagle perched thereon. Inscription-" 9th Ward Tippecance Club-Harrison and Reform.

THE TENTH WARD. The banner was adorned with a beautiful fac simile of the medal awarded to the gallant defender of his country, by a grateful country's highest legislative assembly. On the reverse of the banner the epigramatic sentence, "The Administration say, "down with the wages of the labouring men;" the laboring men say, down with the Administration."

THE ELEVENTH WARD. The banner represented the Goddess of Liberty ex-(Concluded on 4th page.)