THE REGISTER. PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY, BY WESTON R. GALES. TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1840.

Amidst the festivities of the 4th, we have not had time to prepare an answer to the "Standard's" last article, in relation to Gen. SAUNDERS' votes in Congress; but the task is only deferred.

FOURTH OF JULY. Notwithstanding the apathy complained of in some parts of the country, our National Jubilee was celebrated in this City, with the liveliest demonstrations of patriotic feeling.

At Sun-rise, pursuant to custom in this community, Religious services were performed at the Presbyterian Church, of a character well becoming the devout offerings of a free people to the Author of all their blessings.

ALABAMA. A gentleman, recently from this State, expresses the opinion most confidently, that Alabama will go for HARRISON. He is willing to back his judgment, too, by laying a wager on this result.

Will the Editors of the "Richmond Whig" do us the favor of transmitting by Mail, a number of their Daily Paper, of the date of 24th June, as we have a particular use for it.

MESSRS. BROWN AND STRANGE. Our two Senators, after holding on long enough to their seats, against the will of their constituents, to pocket their pay during this protracted Session of Congress, have come forward at this late hour, and tendered their resignations, to take effect at the meeting of our next Legislature!

TRUTH IS MIGHTY. The "National Intelligencer" of the 3d inst. contains an Address to the People of North Carolina, from our Representatives in Congress, Messrs. STANLEY, WILLIAMS, DEBBERT, and RAYNER, in reply to the recent communication put forth by Messrs. Montgomery and Hawkins, assailing Gen. Harrison's character and conduct.

THE NEGRO CASE. How the Van Buren papers wince under this affair, and well they may. They now pretend to deny that Mr. VAN BUREN knew any thing about the introduction of negro witnesses; but the record stamps falsehood on the suggestion.

SUB TREASURY BILL. This great measure of "deliverance and liberty" as the Humbergers call it, has, it will be seen, passed the House of Representatives, and is now a law of the land. This bill, which places all the money of the country in the President's power, has been thrice rejected by Congress, and yet such is the immense influence of Executive power, that the President has succeeded in forcing it on the country, in spite of the wishes of the people.

HARD MONEY COUNTRIES. We were surprised to learn from Rev. Mr. MALCOM'S interesting account of his late Travels in India, which is for sale by Messrs. Turner & Hughes, that "the Government's share of Rice crops, (the Farmer's chief of only crop) is, on an average about fifty per cent! But the mode of collection causes the cultivator to pay about three-fourths of his crop."

ECCLESIASTICAL. Rev. GEORGE W. FREEMAN, D.D. Rector of Christ Church in this City, having tendered to the Vestry thereof his resignation, and the same having been accepted, his connection with the Congregation will terminate with the close of his Ministerial year, in August next.

CONGRESS. EDITOR'S CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, June 28, 1840. The Senate was not in session to day. The House of Representatives were in session from 10 o'clock until far into the night.

WASHINGTON, June 29. On Saturday last, the House was in session on the Sub-Treasury Bill, until Sunday morning—not taking the bill from Committee, but allowing several members to make Speeches of one hour and a little more, each.

WASHINGTON, June 30. The House adjourned last night at 11 o'clock, and this morning, as soon as the House met, and the question was announced from the Chair, a dozen sprung to their feet, some to call the Previous Question, and others to continue the debate.

WASHINGTON, July 2. In the Senate, yesterday, the bill to insure the more faithful execution of the laws relative to the collection of duties on imports, was again discussed; but no question was taken on it.

WASHINGTON, July 2. The bill for extending the charters of the District Banks until the 4th of July, 1842, was taken up and discussed in a very disorderly manner, and without coming to any decision on it.

The official papers lately communicated to Congress by the President in relation to the Maine Boundary, carry on their face a strong probability of a happy issue of the long-continued misunderstanding on the subject between Great-Britain and this country.

The Vice-President announced to the Senate (as is usual) that he should be absent for the remainder of the present session. To-morrow, of course a Presidential pro tem. will be chosen.

The bill to regulate the pay and emoluments of pursers of the Navy was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading. The bill to insure the more faithful collection of duties on imports, was further discussed, but not decided upon.

WASHINGTON, July 4. The Senate, yesterday morning, elected Wm. R. King, President pro tem. He received 23 out of 29 votes. He was accordingly conducted to the Chair, and made a suitable address.

WAKE FOREST, PLEASANT GROVE ACADEMY. I was present at the examination of the Young Ladies of this School, which took place last week. It was numerously attended, and every thing passed off according to the Wake Forest style of doing things—satisfactorily and delightfully to all.

After the Examination was closed, JAMES B. SHEPARD, Esq., according to previous invitation, delivered an Address to the Young Ladies. Of this effort of Mr. S.'s I shall say little, as I understand that it has been applied for publication, and will probably appear in print.

Upon the whole, the day was one of interest and gratification. The people of Wake Forest are an intelligent, hospitable, noble-hearted community; and this Institution they have established, well, I have no doubt, soon become, as it certainly deserves under the care and management of Miss RICHMOND, a popular School—a pride to the Forest and a light and blessing to all who shall enjoy its advantages.

DUPLIN COUNTY.

At a meeting of the Citizens of Duplin County, held at the Court House on the 13th of June, 1840, an motion of Benjamin Oliver, John Carr, Esq., was called to the Chair, and James Gillespie and George Smith appointed Secretaries.

In all well regulated Republics, it is the privilege of the people to assemble together, consult for their common good, and redress such grievances as may be operating against them: And whereas, this country is now suffering all the evils growing out of a deranged currency, which derangement has been brought about by the improper action of the Chief Executive and his minions.

Resolved, That we will use all honorable and fair means to prevent his re-election. Resolved, That Levi Woodbury, a member of the President's Cabinet, and present Secretary of the Treasury, by retaining unfaithful Sub-Treasurers in employ, after their delinquencies were discovered, has subjected himself to censure, and may properly be called a "particeps criminis," in the delinquencies.

Resolved, That John Tyler, of Virginia, is a sound politician, an honest man, and a friend to equal rights; therefore entitled to our support for the Vice Presidency. Resolved, That John M. Morehead, of Guilford, is a true Republican of the original stamp, and a suitable individual for Governor of North Carolina.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Wilmington Chronicle, and other papers friendly to the Whig cause in this State. On motion of Mr. Kinnair, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Wilmington Chronicle, and other papers friendly to the Whig cause in this State.

Resolved, That the Annals of Printing, by Samuel Johnson, Clerk and Master of our said Court of Equity, the second Monday after the fourth Monday in March, A. D. 1840. SAM. JOHNSON, C. M. E.
