This is authentic, and confirms previous accounts that the garrison at Tampico had been withdrawn, and the place left defenceless. It seems a very strange proceeding, says the " Charleston Mercury," unless Santa Anna considered himself sure that the whole force of the invasion was to be directed upon San Louis Potosi. He was of the opinion that all the officers of the preceding Legislature were bound to attend at any subsequent Session, and notwithstanding they may not be re-elected, they were certainly entitled to mileage, as well as the per diem for the time they did attend. Some remarks, of the some purport, were made by other Senators, when the vote was taken and the

On the first point, the Committee were unanimousmocratic party in this City, to show his (Mr. F.'s) want of economy of the Public Funds. He said he was, however, happy to find, by the unanimous vote of opinion, that while the present tax of five hundred dollars was never intended by the Legislature as of the Senate on the Resolution now before them, a a prohibition, it had nevertheless in fact operated as disposition to do justice and to pay to Mr. Page a mch ; and as a Revenue measure, it was both necesmantum meruit for services rendered to this House at sary and proper, that there should be a reduction of he opening of the Session ; and as the debt to Mr. the tax imposed. GENERAL REVIEW.

nummer in a few days

On Friday last, the two Regiments of this County assembled in this City for Inspection and Review.

Gen. D. S. CRENSHAW was the Officer in command Lot at his solicitation. Gov. GRADAN, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, reviewed the Troops, accompanied by his Aides. The whole Staff made a fire display; and we have heard the General's Aid, Col CLARKE, particularly complimented for.

Mr. Dancy, from the Committee on Education, reeported, with sundry amendments, the bill to reduce his efficient and prompt services on the occasion. Tax on Billiard Tables ; when Mr. Flemming, of Yancy, said as a majority of the Committee on F-lu-cation, had determined upon a reduction of the tax on Billiard Tables, and had also reported an amend-

Mr. Washington said, that as a member of the This body meets next Monday We will keep Judicinty Committee as well as the Committee of ar readers advised of the projectings. We hope Education he concurred in the views of the gentle to employ a special Correspondent, but the arrangements are not yet completed.

CIRCUMSTANCES ALTER CASES.

We have forgotten, if we ever knew, who has the credit of having first given currency to this ange aphrism. We believe it is not found in totulem verbas, in Sonowov's Proverbeidant it was known, probably, before his day. It is certainly known as a truth in ours, and is properly appreciated, by this time, in our own Senate. An exemplification of its force ocsurred in that body, last Saturday.

A Resolution was on its second reading, allowing to James Page, the Democratic Doorkeeper of the Senate last Session regular pay for one day's service at the beginning of this Session, and also his mileage in coming from home to Raleigh, to wait at the door, until the Senate was duly organized --True, he was & candidate for re-election, and came for that purpose; but it was maintained by his friends. that that made no difference. He was an otherr of the Senate until another was appointed, and as such, was entitled to his pay for services performed until his successor was chosen. It was getting on swimmingly, when Mr. FRANCIS called for the Year and Nays. This meant something-nobody knew what. The Democratic Senators rubbed their eves and looked at Mr. FRANCIS, and then they looked at each other, as much as to say - what does all this mean 7 Mr. Wilson at last rose, and evidently expecting to catch something, begged to know of the Senator from Haywood what was in the wind now? Was not this a proper Resolution ? Was not Mr. Page Senate, and obliged to perform his duties until his come from home, and performed his duty as Doors of service will existe - Hilliboral Recorder fore, to be pail ! PUBLIC SENTIMENT.

It will rejoice the '.eart of every true Whig to men that the Hon GLORGE E. Babbern, Scoretary of the Navy under President Hannison, Las ber elected by the Legi lature of the State of North Caroling to be a Senator of the United States to fill the vacancy in the Senate occasioned by the resignation of Mr. HATWOOD, -National Intelligeners

The reader will find in the Letters of our special We observe that several of the Papers of the "Reporter, the particulars of the election of the Hon. State announce that J. J. Finch has been elected" GEORGE F. BADGER and the Hon. WILLIE P. MANGUM as the Senators in Congree-from, North Carolins - We cannot sufficiently express our high gratification at this result so honorable to the Legislature so acceptable to the people, so full of promise of usefulness and distinction to the Old North State. The re-election of Mr. Manpun was expected as a tout-ter of course. But some Whige have bared, and the Locofoca party have hoped to be desentions in the Whig ranks in regard to the auccessor of Mr. Haywood. So many names of good and true and well qualified Whigs had been mentioned, that it might well be supposed that there would be some jarring among their friends. But when the name of George E. Balger was presented all dimentities vanished, and a united front was presented. Mr. Badger had erpreasly declared that he was not a candidate, and even his most intimate friends did not know, (and perhaps do not know yet,) whether he would accept or declin the office if tendered to him. He was not in Raleigh from the commencement of the session until after his election. Under these circumstances, his election is most honorable to him, and not less honorable to those who looked above all personal preferences, all local considerations, in the leading desire to send to the Senate the great intellect of the State, in the peron of one whose privates virtues fit him to illustrate her character, as his talents qualify him to repre ent her sovereignty .-- Fayetteville Observer.

SENATOR BADGER.

The election of this gentleman to the U.S. Senate, s hailed with universal joy by the W higs of the nation. Mr Balger, as a lawyer and a statesman, has long ago acquired an elevated fine. During his brief term in other as Segretary of the Navy under the Harrison Administration, he proved hunself an able Gabinet office, and an honest and independent public man. His accession to the Senate will be a aduable addition even to the number of emment Whig statesmen who now adorn its councils, and sustain the principles in which the prosperity of our country is involved - Kichmond Republican.

We are much gratified in being enabled to state, that on Friday, the Hon. George E. Badger was e-lected to the Senate of the United States, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Wm. H Haywood. The superior ability of Mr. Badger, his suavity of manners, and his gealous advocacy of Whig principles, will enable him at once to take a bigh stand in the Senate. We do not know that a more judicious selection could have been made. Ati our readers will be glad to learn that the Hon Willie P Mangum has been elected for six years successor regularly took the keys? Had he not from the 4th of March next, when his present term
