THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER, NOVEMBER 10, 1887.

MY ANGEL MOTHER. U LIEUT-JHI There's a land beyond the river, Where the skies are ever fair, And I have an angel mother, Who is waiting for me there ; She went o'er the silent waters, At the setting of the sun ; And I know that she is happy. For the Christian's course is run.

In that land where she is waiting For the ones she loved on earth. Sin and sorrow never enter, But eternal joys have birth. Where the loved ones gone before us, Wait and watch beside the tide-For the friends they left behind them. On the river's earthly side.

When the solemn summons calls us To the mansions of the blest. We shall lose our earthly sorrows In a sense of blissful rest. There eternal peace and quiet, Fills the heart forevermore ; And no pain can ever enter On the river's further shore.

To a fairer land than this, For my heart grows weary waiting For my angel mother's kiss.

Goldsboro Argus: Mr. Levi Strickland, we understand, has fifty or sixty bales of cotton in his fields under water. This gives some idea of the extent of the damage from the freshet.

It is planted from 1st April to 1st June. The grain makes better meal than corn, and the fodder is excellent food for stock. It is a valuable crop and should be given a trial by our farmers. This year Mr. J. R. Barnes, J. W. Lee. D. L. Barnes and Jno. Whitley, all planted it and is No. 3. pleased with the experiment. They will try it again next year on a larger scale. and recommend it to the farmers of the county.

Horn made 1,200 and Mr. Lattimore made 800-The wheat sown this fall No. 6. is growing off very hopefully, but there is much yet to be sown.——A Shelby farmer, on three measured acres of light land, with $3.93 worth of fertilizer compost, made this year 126 1-4 bushels of measured corn; this at 60c per bushel, with $10 worth of fodder and tops, made $86.90 total. The No. 8. peas raised paid for the cost of the fer tilizer. Mr. John A. Ware also made on the same tract 170 gallons of evaporated molasses on nearly one acre; also on three-eights of an acre he made 57 gallons of molasses.

Asheville Citizen: Mr. Burnett Woody informs us of a distressing family tragedy which occurred in Meadow Creek township, Mdison county, on on Wednesday night last. Daniel Harvey was stabbed and killed by his son Carolina today. Joseph. It appeared that the parties No 10. means farmers can give and receive all occupied the same room. The elder Harvey had been engaged in a wordy Dam, American Miss (Imported). An extra fine quarrel with his wife during the afternoon, which was renewed after they went to bed. The son, who had gone to his own bed, irritated by the noise of the continued wrangle, rose saying he would not stand it any longer, went to his fathers bed-side, plunged a knife three times into his body, and went out of doors. The father sprang up and followed his son, declaring that he would kill him; but directly stopped, and called to his son to help him, saying "you have killed me." The son assisted him to the house and then made his escape. Durham Recorder: This morning Mr. William Garrett, of this county, and who lives about eight miles from Durham while standing in the front door of Lockhart's warehouse, dropped dead. He was picked up and carried to the shop of Mr. Willis Mangum, who is an undertaker, and there shrouded and encased in a coffin. He was about 70 years old, and left home this morning with a load of tobacco, accompanied by a little negro. He had not been sick for many years, and at no previous time had he showed symptoms of heart disease.----We understand that a general invitation will be extended to the Masons of the State to take a part in the ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner stone of the Court House November 10th. State Chronicle: One of the best evidences that North Carolina is attrrcting attention the world over is the fact that a gentle-man from Congo Free State, South Africa, was in Raleigh last week desiring to ascertafn if he could secure and ship to South Africa, creosoted, to withstand the ravages of the white ants. The reputation of Pomona Hill Nurseries is such that many agents going out from Greensboro, representing other nurseries, try to leave the impression that they are representing these nur-series. Why do they do it? Let the public answer.

Charlotte Democrat: 66,708 bushels wheat, 30,513 bushels bats and 1,068 bushels rye were thrashed in Iredell county during the present year, according to the report of thrashers; but the Statesville Landmark thinks that correct returns would run the wheat up to 75,000 bushels, and other grain in proportion;

Hillsboro Recorder: Corn is selling here at 40c per bushel and dull sale at that. We think our county has become self-sustaining as to corn and wheat. We hope we can continue so. Chicago corn cribs and smoke houses are entirely two far from home and we hope our farmers will not be in a hurry to rush their surplus grain into market.

Reidsville Times: Bull frogs have been catching chickens in the county of cotton factories and spindles. An old colored woman in Alamance hearing a racket among her poultry, was surprised when she went out to search the cause, to find a big bull frog hold ing on to a juvenile chicken's head and the old hen or maternal ancestor fighting the frog for dear life.

Asheville Advance: One of the saddest accidents that we have been called upon to chronicle for many a day, occured on Smith's mountain, two miles northeast of this city, evening before last. A little son of Mr. Dock Hudgins, aged five years, while roasting chestnuts was so terribly burned that he died yesterday morning. His mother was also badly burned about the hands in attempting to extinguish the flames from her burning childs clothing.
