

ALLIANCE NOTES.

[Members of the Alliance, when writing to us, will greatly favor us if they will always give the No. of their Alliance. We have given the sixth and seventh pages of our paper to the exclusive use of the Alliance. Use them, brethren. For all official orders, rulings, notices, &c., the brethren will examine these pages.]

—1,508 Alliances up to date.
—All seals ordered up to date will be forwarded from this office by the end of this week.
—In answer to inquiry, we will state that the Alliance seal is only used in official business.

—Grant's Creek Alliance, of Rowan county, have finished their Alliance hall, and it will be ready for occupancy so soon as the seats are put in.

—There will be a meeting of the Wake County Sub-Business Agents at the court house in the city of Raleigh on Friday, February 8th, by order of the County Business Agent.

—State Business Agent, Capt. W. A. Darden, is now prepared to furnish the Alliances with "Trade Cards" at twenty-five cents per hundred. Address orders to W. A. Darden, Raleigh, N. C.

—Roanoke Alliance, No. 819, Martin county, by resolution, requests that the State Business Agent furnish County Agents with monthly price lists of supplies, such as meat, sugar, coffee, flour, molasses, &c.

—Bro. E. F. Champion, Secretary of Union Springs Alliance, writes that the lodge is in fine working order, and that the membership most heartily endorse the resolutions of the State Alliance, passed at the last annual session.

—On January 12th, Beaver Dam Alliance, of Johnston county, was entertained by C. F. R. Cornegay, Vice-President of the County Alliance, in an able and interesting address, which, our correspondent thinks, will result in great good.

—Bro. R. A. Hardy, writing from Essex, Halifax county, says that Essex Alliance, which is one of the best in the country, is ready to "tackle" the guano trust, and refuse to buy a pound, if the Alliances of the State will join them in the tussel.

—The sub-business agents of Davidson county are earnestly requested to meet Bro. J. W. Uphurch, County Business Agent, in Lexington court house on Monday, the 4th day of February, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for consultation upon business matters of importance.

—Straw Pond Alliance, No. 580, Sampson county, having worked up all the available material of the community, have gone to work to better the condition of the membership. By unity and co-operation they have already been greatly benefited and are greatly encouraged.

—Bro. H. E. Thompson, of Stan-tonsbury Alliance, Wilson county, writes to say that his Alliance is progressing finely and that the membership may be depended upon to aid in every good work which has for its object the improvement of the condition of the farmers of the land.

—Bro. Francis Joyner, Secretary, writing from Chocowinity, N. C., says: "Allow me through THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER to call the attention of the Secretaries of Beaufort County Alliances to Sec. 3, of Art. VI, of the Constitution, and ask their compliance therewith, as a matter of importance to the order."

—At the last meeting of Mingo Academy Alliance, No. —, Sampson county, it was agreed by the membership that immediately upon the discovery of a case of hog cholera, the owner of such animal will see that it is immediately closely confined, and if said animal dies it is to be buried or burned to ashes.

—The attention of all Alliance men in North and South Carolina and Virginia is called to the advertisement of Bro. J. C. Klutts in to-day's PROGRESSIVE FARMER, headed "Stolen." Brethren are requested to read the description and keep a look out for them, and communicate any information to J. C. Klutts, Clear Creek, Cabarrus county, N. C.

—Deputy Organizer, A. L. Cherry, of Lincoln county, reports Alliances organized as follows: On Dec. 1st, North Brook Alliance, with W. A. Thompson, President, and T. P. Jenks, Secretary; Jan. 2d, Orleans Alliance, with W. C. Childers, President, and S. J. Thompson, Secretary; Jan. 3rd, Laurel Hill Alliance, with P. W. Rameur, President, and John E. Hoover, Secretary.

SECURE A HOME!
Building Lots Only $30 Each!

The undersigned takes this method of informing the public that he is prepared to sell building lots at Asbury, N. C., only six miles from the city of Raleigh, on the North Carolina and the Raleigh & Augusta Railroads. Persons who take advantage of this opportunity and build at Asbury will have the benefits and advantages of the city without any of its expenses. The trains on both roads, going East and West, make regular stoppages, morning and evening, and it is only a matter of ten or fifteen minutes ride between the two stations. The lots, which are 30 feet front by 210 feet deep, are sold at the small price of $30.00 lot. The lots are going rapidly and those who wish to purchase should make application at once to Lots donated for schools and manufacturing purposes.

Farmers, Look to Your Interest!

Improve Your Lands Permanently, at Small Cost, and in a Short Time.

Use Oyster Shell Lime at the rate of from 500 to 2,000 pounds per acre broadcast and harrow in.
Can be used with great benefit in the furrow under cotton at the rate of 300 pounds per acre in connection with 20 to 30 bushels cotton seed.

The cheapness and facility for procuring this wonderful renovator of the soil should make it one of the first objects of the farmer to obtain it. I am prepared to furnish FRESH BURNT SHELL LIME, in any quantity, at shortest notice, in bulk and sacked.
Thanking you for past favors and soliciting a continuance of your orders, I remain,
Very truly,
W. D. STYRON,
