The Big Racket Store Is receiving this week the handsomest line of Dress Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats and notions of all kinds you ever saw. D. T. Swindell has been in New York for ten days selecting those goods and we say that we have the cheapest line of fine goods ever opened in Raleigh. The Big Racket Store always leads in low prices but never follows. When you hear of anything cheap you may be sure that you can find it at the Big Racket. D. T. Swindell goes North about ten times a year and by having the cash to buy with he can always find bargains, and he never fails to do it if the thing is a real bargain. We have thousands of bargains all the time but our space will not permit us to mention them, but we will tell you this, when you come to Raleigh, don't fail to come to the Big Racket for it will always pay you. We have people to tell us every day that when they came in, they did not intend to buy a thing, but they find the goods really so cheap that they buy them. If you want to buy anything come to the Big Racket Store and if you don't want to buy come to the Big Racket Store anyhow. You are always welcomed. Will give you a list of a few of our bargains next week at the Big Racket Store.

Salem trains make regular stops twice daily each way. SEE WHAT Mrs. Joe Person's Wash Will Do--Chronic Bilious Colic. A New Departure. As a family medicine for general use I consider Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy ahead of anything I have ever seen; we try it for everything, on man and beast, and like a good friend, it is always ready to help us. I was a frequent sufferer from severe attacks of colic; at such times, I would take a big dose, a wineglass and a half full, which always gave me immediate relief, and its continued use has entirely cured me of the trouble. Being a farmer, I frequently have accidents among my stock. On one occasion I poured some of the Wash on a hog which had been badly bitten and torn by dogs, and the places were alive with vermin; as soon as the Wash touched the affected parts the vermin would leave and there was no further trouble. I have saved two valuable head of stock by an application of the Wash, and, unlike other things usually used, it is perfectly painless. I think all farmers who own stock should try this great remedy. In such cases, it is worth its weight in gold. If all knew the worth of your Remedy and Wash, I do not think you could supply the demand. ARCH. C. WOODY, Bethel Hill, Person Co., N. C. Address: MRS. JOE PERSON, Kittrell, N. C.
