

ALLIANCE MEETING.

The Work Done by the National Convention Yesterday.

President Polk Talks About the Alliance in the Northwest—Sectionalism Being Abolished—Resolutions Adopted.

[Atlanta, Constitution, March 20.] The convention of the National Alliance which was called by President L. L. Polk, met yesterday morning at the Alliance Exchange.

President Polk called the meeting to order, and without delay the delegates commenced their labors.

Several matters of great importance were discussed. It was, however, decided to appoint a press committee, who should give out only such information as was considered proper.

The convention held three sessions during the day, only adjourning long enough to take their meals. It was nearly eleven o'clock at night when they concluded business for the day.

Early this morning the convention will go into executive session again, and it may be tomorrow or even the next day before they finally adjourn.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

It was learned from the press committee that the following resolutions were adopted during the day.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 19, 1890.—Whereas, at New Orleans, in September, 1889, a conference was had between prominent representatives of the cotton growers of the south, and members of the cotton exchanges in the United States, an agreement was entered into which was to take effect on the first day of October thereafter fixing the tare on cotton covered bales at sixteen pounds, and on jute covered bales at twenty-four pounds, which was satisfactory to Alliance men.

And, whereas, by the opposition of several important cotton exchanges, this agreement was rendered a nullity. And, whereas, we invited the cotton exchanges of this country to a conference on this same subject at St. Louis on December 5th, 1889, which they refused to notice by letter or otherwise.

And, whereas, our president, Colonel L. L. Polk, recently urged upon these parties to express their wishes or plan for an adjustment of this question, at a meeting to be held in Atlanta, Ga., March 19, 1890, and only one reply was received with encouragement and that from Mr. James Tobin, of Augusta.

And, whereas, after a careful consideration of the whole subject in all its phases, we, the presidents and accredited representatives of the State Alliance of the cotton section, in conference assembled in Atlanta, Ga., March 19th, 1890, do unanimously reaffirm the equity and justice of our demands on this subject; and we do, therefore,

Resolved, That we urge the Alliance men of the cotton States to stand by the action of the St. Louis supreme council on the use of cotton bagging or any other fiber than jute, and that each Alliance man be, and is hereby instructed to deposit said cotton-covered bales in warehouses, to be provided, and with liberal advances, as can be had thereon, and to allow said cotton-covered bales there to remain until the demands made shall be complied with.

Resolved also, That your National and State officials do hereby pledge their utmost ability and unceasing efforts in behalf of the people to obtain full and fair facilities for marketing their cotton.

L. L. POLK, President N. F. A. and I. U.

W. S. Morgan, Ark. S. M. Adams, Ala. W. I. Vason, Fla. L. F. Livingston, Ga. T. S. Adams, La. G. B. Dimes, Mo. S. B. Alexander, N. C. E. T. Stackhouse, S. C. S. D. A. Duncan, Tex. R. W. Coleman, Miss. J. P. Buchanan, Tenn.

THE GROWTH OF THE ORDER.

President Polk knows more concerning the condition of the Alliance throughout the country than any man in the South, and when questioned as to Alliance matters, he said:

"Although the growth of the Alliance in the South has been wonderful, the growth of the order in the Northwest has been still more phenomenal. In Kansas, great strides are being made in the right direction, and the organization has more than doubled since the St. Louis convention."

"On what lines are they working?" "The farmers of the West, although they are not troubled by any particular grievance such as the jute bagging oppression of the South, still have great obstacles to overcome. They feel the effects of the reduction in prices and they find it almost impossible to make a living profit from their products. They are trying to break the combination of the buyers, and I have no doubt they will succeed."

"One feature of the National Alliance assures me above all else of its success. It is killing out sectionalism, and building up a national spirit which will be a benefit to the whole nation."

Resolved, That the representatives of the cotton States, here assembled, do assert that the compound lard bill now pending in congress is unwise, special, and class legislation, and will increase the burdens of one class of producers and only benefits a monopoly that by no means manufactures a pure article of hog's lard, and members of congress are hereby most respectfully and earnestly requested, to oppose the passage of said measure.

It was also resolved that the above resolution pertaining to national legislation on the compound lard bill shall be printed in the National Economist and be placed on the desk of each Senator and Representative.

The action taken in regard to the manufacture of cotton bagging resulted in the following:

Resolved, That our president, L. L. Polk, instructed to assure the brethren in the cotton States that the outlook for the manufacture and supply of cotton bagging is much better than for the past year and will probably be equal to the demand.

THE FERTILIZER TAX.

A Suit Begun for Testing its Constitutionality—The American Fertilizer Company the Mover.

The contest about the fertilizer tax has culminated in an action for a mandamus, commenced by the American Fertilizer Co., of Norfolk, Va., against the State Treasurer and the Commissioner of Agriculture, to compel them to issue a license to the company, although it pays under protest.

The position taken by the company is, that the tax in question is not only unconstitutional, but that it is unjust and unequal in its operation, compelling small dealers to pay as much on a single brand as large dealers.

The company claims that a tonnage tax, of so much on each ton sold, is the only way to tax fertilizers, and dealers would not object to it.

The American Fertilizer Co. intend to contest the validity of the $500 license tax to the court of last resort, and in case they shall be successful, they intend to refund to each farmer who purchases their "Peruvian Mixture" this year, twenty-five cents on each and every ton purchased.—State Chronicle.

The LaCotte Statesman has the following to say about the National Vice-President:

"We don't know whether 'Kansas Ben' is red-headed or not, but we venture the prediction that this variety of Clover will be very popular in Kansas this year."

"The Statesman this week contains a portrait of the next Governor of Kansas—a soldier, farmer, patriot, statesman. The people of the State can safely trust him to knock out the rings, lop off the dead beats, purge the State house of corruption, and run the State government in the interest of economy, retrenchment and reform."

ALLIANCE NOTES.

[Always give the name and number of your Alliance, your postoffice and your county, plainly, when you write to the President, Secretary, Trustee, Business Agent or Chairman of Executive Committee of the State Alliance.]

—Sister Nettie Alphin writes from Richlands, Onslow county, to say that Adams School House Alliance, No. 179, is prospering, and that the order is flourishing all over that county.

—Swift Creek Alliance, No. 551, Wake county, has sent a resolution endorsing the action of Senator Z. B. Vance in introducing the bill for the sub-treasury plan, and ask that it be published in THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER.

—Bro. W. D. Herring, Secretary of Rosebud Alliance, No. 700, Wayne county, sends us resolutions endorsing the plan for the Alliance to secure and compile crop reports, believing that in this way the agricultural reports will be more accurate.

—Bro. H. M. Lloyd, Secretary of Rocky River Alliance, No. 254, Chatham county, writes that they now have 60 members, and still some are joining; that they have paid $67.50 to the State Business Agency and they expect to buy their supplies from our State Agent.

—Miss Artillie Brower writes from Pine Hill Alliance, No. 1,660, Randolph county, that they have contributed a small amount to the State Business Agency fund and have ordered their guano through the State Agent; that they all enjoyed Dr. Parker's speech at Kildes, recently, very much, and that "his person is so delightful to look upon that the girls lost much of what he said."

—Bro. Z. B. Hopson writes from Morgan Hill Alliance, No. 1,335, Buncombe county, to say that they meet regularly and transact their business and are getting together as one man; that when the old line politicians come around fawning on them for their votes, they expect to treat them as Diogenes did Alexander the Great.

Diogenes was a poor philosopher who went about the country carrying a tub in which he slept at night. The great monarch was taking a stroll one day and came across Diogenes who was engaged in mending his tub. The monarch said: "My poor friend, can I assist you in any way?" "Yes," said the poor philosopher, please get out of my sunshine." Bro. Hopson intimates that they are going to ask the politicians to "step out of our sunshine."

OFFICIAL.

All petitions or memorials to the United States Congress, from Alliances or Unions, should be mailed direct to our National Secretary, J. H. Turner, No. 511, Ninth St., Washington D. C. This is important for the following reasons:

2. Our National Legislative Committee, appointed at St. Louis, and whose duty it is to look after all matters presented by us to a legislative character, will thus be enabled to take cognizance of and give personal attention to the wishes of the brethren thus presented. The bill embodying the essential features of the sub-treasury plan as adopted by the St. Louis meeting, and which has been introduced in both Houses of Congress, is now being mailed as rapidly as possible to the Secretaries of all the Alliances or Unions of the country, together with other printed matter of an important character.

The matter thus mailed is earnestly commended to the immediate attention of the brotherhood.

Health! Health! Having been a great sufferer, from childhood, the result of protracted chills and indigestion, terminating in diseases of LIVER, KIDNEY and URINARY ORGANS, and having tried many remedies known to the profession with only temporary relief. After much experimenting, I succeeded in discovering a combination of vegetable remedies, which combination has proven a remedy for diseases of all the internal organs superior to any known in a life of suffering and practice of fifty years. As by it I have been restored from what seemed to be inevitable death to perfect health, without any other medicine, for those diseases over three years past. It also enabled me to travel all the winter of 1888 and 1889, in the mountains, in all kinds of weather, and eating any and everything set before me with impunity. It has since cured me of chills and prevented my taking "la grippe," and relieved those of the late epidemic who tried it. It is also proving valuable in many female diseases.
