

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

A brief outline of the doings of the different Christian organizations throughout our State and country—Personal points, etc.

The fall session of Wake Forest College opens Sept. 1st.

We are glad to hear that Rev. Dr. A. E. Owen, of Portsmouth, Va., is convalescing.

Rev. C. S. Farris and wife of Orlando, Florida, are spending the summer in Dolonia.

Rev. A. D. Hunter and family, of Greenville, returned to Raleigh from Asheville on Saturday.

Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, of Greensboro, has received a call to the pastorate of the church at Wake Forest.

Rev. Dr. N. B. Cobb, of Cary, was in Raleigh on Thursday last on his way to his appointment at Middleburg.

Rev. J. F. Fletcher, is being prospected in the mission work in Ashe county beyond his most sanguine hopes.

Rev. A. D. Hunter, of Greenville, preached for Dr. Nelson of the First church, Asheville, on last Sunday night.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. Dr. R. R. Overby, of Belcross, is this week with Rev. J. F. Tuttle in a meeting with the church at Creswell.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. H. T. Williams, of Margarettsville writes: "We dedicated the new house of worship here on last Sunday."—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. George J. Dowell, of Williamson, expects to help Rev. J. W. Rose, of Johnston county in a meeting during the month of August.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. H. A. Brown informs us that he and Rev. S. F. Conrad and Rev. C. C. Haymore will organize a Baptist church at Germantown on the 29th inst.—Winston Daily.

Good news reaches us about the work of Rev. J. A. Smith, of Fair Bluff. The people hold him in high esteem, and the work of the Lord prospers in his hands.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. C. A. G. Thomas, after preaching to his people on Sunday last, bade them good-bye on Monday morning and started to points in Rockingham county, N. C.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. J. E. Hutson, the distinguished Virginia revivalist, has just closed a fine meeting with New Hope church in Mecklenburg county, Va. The Lord has greatly blessed this good man and his work.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. A. W. Price preached at Alma last Sunday morning. A collection taken up to aid in building a church in the place of the one destroyed by lightning in Laurinburg a few weeks ago amounted to $105.—Robesonian.

The "Sunbeam Society," of the Southside church, of Birmingham, Ala., raised during twelve months $139.05. This shows what the little tots can do for missions, if some lady in each church will only organize them.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. R. W. Cridlin, of Hanover county, Va., takes charge of the Southside Female Institute at Burkeville, Va. We have known Bro. Cridlin for years, and have always looked upon him as one of the best men for any position.—Biblical Recorder.

An interesting series of meetings has just closed in the Southside Baptist church at Birmingham, Ala. Pastor P. T. Hall was aided by some dozen Baptist preachers, who preached once or twice each. There were thirty-two additions to the church.—Biblical Recorder.

A new Baptist church has been organized at Chadbourne, N. C., with thirteen members, and has called Rev. T. J. Cobb to preach to them once a month. This little church starts out to build a house of worship, and to secure Brother Cobb for two Sundays in a month as soon as possible.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. D. A. Glenn, of Marvin, Va., has about finished the beautiful new house of worship, and hopes to dedicate next month. Bro. Glenn is a fine preacher and a faithful pastor. His father, Bro. J. Glenn, of Sugar Grove, N. C., is in his eighty-first year, but still reads the Recorder.—Biblical Recorder.

Rev. W. L. Wright preached seven days at Ephesus, in Person county, beginning July 5th. He preached, as but few men can, the pure gospel of Christ. Twenty-four persons professed faith in Christ. Nineteen joined the church. Bro. Wright is a humble man of God, and to know him is to love him much.—J. H. Lamberth, Roxboro, July 16, 1889.

I expect to go to Palestine early next winter and shall therefore be unable to fill any evangelistic engagements after Christmas. Pastors with whom I have such engagements will please make other arrangements. If any of your readers think of visiting the holy land any time soon I would like to correspond with them, as I am getting up a party to go.—H. M. Wharton, Baltimore, in Biblical Recorder.

At no time, and under no circumstances, will I permit one of my hands to aid in degrading what the other has lost in seeking to uphold—the honor of my native State. Were I to affix my signature to the bill I would indeed be ashamed to let my left hand know what my right had done. I place the honor of the State above money, and in expressing that sentiment I sincerely voice that of thousands of brave and true men, and of good and devoted women of the State.—Francis T. Nicholls, Governor of Louisiana. These are brave words from the Governor in his message vetoing the lottery bill.—Biblical Recorder.

The Farmers' Alliance Warehouse

For the Sale of Leaf Tobacco. DURHAM, N. C.

The stockholders are composed of Alliance men only. The Warehouse is operated by men of experience. Have the best lighted, best arranged and best equipped warehouse in this country for the sale of your tobacco. Have the good will and hearty support of all buyers on the market. We sell your tobacco for one-half the auctioneers' and weighmasters' charges that are charged by the other warehouses here, the charges being the same for all, whether members of the Alliance or not. We furnish empty hogheads and tierces to those desiring to ship by rail, at short notice, and make liberal advances on all tobacco in hand. Our Manager keeps thoroughly posted as to prices of tobacco on all inland markets, and when desired will give you the information as to where, in his judgment, is the best market to sell any grades of tobacco you may have.

The Alliance Warehouse enterprise here has been in successful operation since the 5th of February, 1889, declared dividends to the stockholders and at the same time has saved thousands of dollars to its patrons by reduced charges.

We are in a position to guarantee the farmers as much money for their tobacco as they can get elsewhere, and by hard work, economy and close application to business we intend in the future, as we have in the past, to make the Farmers' Alliance Warehouse a grand success.

On all matters pertaining to the sale of leaf tobacco, address JNO. W. POPE, Manager, Cor. Main and Great Jones Sts., Durham, N. C.
