Agricultural Bee, Goldsboro, N. C.
Columbus Weekly News, Whiteville, N. C.

Each of the above-named papers are requested to keep the list standing on the first page and add others, provided they are duly elected. Any paper failing to advocate the Ocala platform will be dropped from the list promptly. Our people can now see what papers are published in their interest.

JUDAIZING.

MR. EDITOR:—Many of the early Christians, during the days of the Apostles, and afterwards, were given to Judaizing—that is, they were loth to part with the old forms of the Jewish synagogue, and ought to bring back the Church under the domination of the Jewish ritual. Once and awhile we see these Judaizing Alliancemen popping up in the party papers warning their brethren against the danger of voting against their old party. The Republican party is the grandest old party of freedom and advanced ideas, and you must not leave that, or you will fall into snares and quicksands. The Democratic party is our only hope of political salvation, and if it is defeated all is lost. So each, according to his party prejudices, sets up an onerous bait for his own party and an ominous warning against the other. The party press jumps on these sweet morsels, snatches its lips, and sends the writer off with a puff. Alas! poor Yorik!

We wish to call attention of the public to some few facts. The most of these writers seem not well posted in the politics of the age in which they live. If they were better posted they would think differently, no doubt. Each one takes up the old partisan refrain and asserts, "you can't blame us; those other scoundrels did it;" while the facts and the records show that every time one dipped into the dye tub, the other dipped into the ink vat. Go to the record. The excruciating clause on the greenbacks, Democrats and Republicans voted for it without a protest; the funding act, both alike, no protest; the credit-strengthening act, both alike, no protest; the national banking act, both alike, no protest; the granting of public lands and subsidies to railroads, both alike, no protest. The Democrats repudiated this. The repeal of the tax, both alike, no protest; the demonization of silver, both alike, no protest. So you may go on to the record, and find that both parties have their share in passing those laws which we complain. Not only at both parties are fighting tooth and toe-nail to prevent any measures for their repeal.

We have some few Congressmen who are doing their best, but not as partisans. The party in power at the time can only be held to account in proportion to the votes cast by each party. Measured by this rule they are both "deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked."

There is another point to which I wish to draw attention. These zealous brethren never put in any proviso. You must stick to your party, saint or devil, witch or fiend. Not if they will endorse the demands of the people. That is never mentioned. Not the party in danger, but the Alliance is in danger by not sticking to party. This is too bold-faced and foolish for an intelligent man to consider. If you don't stick to your party, it will hurt the Alliance. Where does the most danger rest? In sticking to a party which repudiates every demand and which assisted in bringing every grievance upon the country, now complained of, and which to day is standing doggedly determined to grant nothing except by force of the voting power, and which is booming men for the Presidency and for office hostile to every right of the people, or tell these gentry plainly that we know our rights and we are going to maintain them, God willing.

Yes, but you will bring on negro supremacy and radical rule. What of that? Are we not all under bondage to certain capitalistic tyranny, passed and voted upon and now sustained by both parties alike? Soon to be upon material equality with the negro. White and black alike are now under the same bondage, growing worse every day. We don't intend to crouch under the party lash that thrift may follow fawning, but we are going to keep in the middle of the road and vote for no man who does not favor the rights of the people as expressed in our demands. This is the way to get them. To adopt any other way is whistling to the wind. This is the road of safety. To take any other road will lead to danger and snares.

W. R. LINDSAY.

APPEAL FOR ASSISTANCE.

Brother Samuel T. Jones, a worthy member of Suggsville Alliance, No. 127, having lost his horse, valued at $140, his condition in consequence and owing further to the failure of his crops and sickness among his family, is really distressing, and merits assistance from all Alliance members. In consequence whereof we, the committee appointed by Suggsville Alliance to solicit subscriptions, do call upon all brethren throughout the State to contribute something for brother Jones' assistance, and forward the same to John E. W. Sugg, Snow Hill, N. C.

J. M. KARSADDEN,
ABNER EASON,
WM. HASE, Committee.

HOW TO SECURE REFORM.

First, keep up our work in the Sub-Alliances, and never miss a chance to say a good word for the Alliance.

Second, put our best men to the front, men that are brave enough and big enough to stand up before the world and declare that by the eternal we will have justice, and then we must stand by them when they take such a bold stand.

Third, we must put our demands in the ballot box, and then our strength will soon be felt, and as soon as our enemies see that we will not surrender, they will only be too glad to come to time.

W. A. VANN.

ELECT MEN.

WINNABOW, N. C.
To get recognition we must elect men to office who will stand firm on the Alliance platform, then let us lay aside all partisan spirit, watch and pray and beware of the leaven of politicians, which is hypocrisy. They come to us in Alliance clothing, but inwardly they are Wall street men. "By their fruits we shall know them," provided we read Alliance literature, such as THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER and National Economist and learn what their fruits are; then when we see a man, regardless of his pledges leaning to the money power, let it be his last term.

J. P. COX.

BOYETTE, N. C.

If we ever get relief, financially, it must come through and by legislation. Let the Alliance and all other labor organizations read and study the reform literature, and keep themselves posted, and act together as a unit upon the reform movement. Let us cast our votes in the future for true and tried reformers, and not for men who have to be pledged to our demands, contrary to their own selfish interest.

We must let the partisan press and the politicians take care of themselves, while we must study out the needs of the country for ourselves, and act accordingly. This, in my opinion, will, in five years, give us a government for and by the people, with equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

LEVIN WATSON.

FOR A NEW PARTY.

TAYLORSVILLE, N. C.
I will give my opinion of how the Alliance and friends of reform may receive recognition and enforcement of our principles. I have never voted a shylock ticket, neither will I ever vote one. Please allow me to say that there is no way through a Wall street party. 30 years experience ought to convince the biggest fool on earth of this fact, and a Wall street party is all that we have had for 30 years. Then I would suggest a People's party with a platform of equal rights to all and special privileges to none. We all must unite in one grand party and work like Turks to elect our men. The Farmers' Alliance and other labor classes can not afford to vote with a Wall street

THE PUBLIC VOICE.

How may the Alliance and the friends of reform best secure the recognition and enforcement of our principles?

(A given space in this column will be devoted weekly to answers to the above question, from the friends of reform. In order that the largest number may have a hearing, we must ask that you do not write more than twenty lines. Sign your name to your answer. Now let us have your sincere and honest views.)

"HOW TO VOTE."
DALLAS, Gaston Co., N. C.

My answer to your question is as follows: First, vote for no man unless he be honest and reliable. Second, fully qualified. Third, and will pledge himself unreservedly to stand by and support the Ocala platform.

J. F. LONG.

A NEW PARTY.

I believe that we can best have our demands enacted into law by organizing a new party and voting for the same. This is the opinion of one who has always voted a Democratic ticket, but one who will vote for his country in the future.

A. J. HUDSON, JR.

STAND FIRM.

I answer by united and energetic action. "Everything for the cause and nothing for men." When we engage men to work for any cause or purpose, we want those who will remain true and steadfast in their professions and actions, and not those who will, under any circumstance, act in concert with the enemy.

In my opinion the only safe and wise course for the Farmers' Alliance to pursue is, not to follow partisan newspapers and partisan leaders, who think more of party than they do of the Alliance, and whenever they have the opportunity will go for party against the Alliance.

C. H. BROWN.

SYCAMORE, CAL.

First, keep up our work in the Sub-Alliances, and never miss a chance to say a good word for the Alliance.

JOHN L. LEPLER.
LET THE PEOPLE VOTE FOR LAWS.

LOVELACE, N. C.
Will you let an old fool of sixty years say a word among the wise and noble? I want to say that I am a grandchild of the Revolutionary fathers; have not given but one vote since the surrender and that was the first election after the surrender, and the reason why I quit was, I saw to my satisfaction that the two parties were aiming for the spoils; in other words they were for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many; and as a fool, as I am, I always believed in equal rights to all, and stand on that to-day. Now, how shall we get it? Here is the plan of a fool:

First, put all of the place officers out and elect a new set from the President down to a constable.

Second, when the State or National law-making bodies get up a bill let the Supreme Court decide whether it is constitutional or not before it is enacted as a law by the body. Then let the Governor of the State and the President of the United States issue a proclamation for all laws passed by the bodies, State and National, to be voted for or against by the people. Then the people will make their laws. If ratified by a majority, let it be a law; if rejected, then no law. And let the Governor and the President issue their proclamation the day the law shall go into effect. By this means we can have a government of the people, by the people and for the people, and then the people will have reform.

S. S. GOFORTH.

LETTER FROM HALIFAX.

AURELIAN SPRINGS, N. C.
MR. EDITOR:—With your permission we will say a few words for Aurelian Springs Alliance. In the first place, while we are not so strong numerically, as we once were, what we have is pure gold; what we have lost was only gross, and did not count for much, though every man with one or two exceptions, say they are going to stand by us when we come to vote for our demands, partisan papers to the contrary notwithstanding. We are on the up grade since the coming in of '92, as we have received several new members, with applications for next meeting. Our corps is getting lively, and the politicians will have to throw on more dirt to keep us under in November. We have contributed to the proportionate fund, and hope every Alliance in the United States will do likewise. What we need most in our order is education.

Bro. J. M. Mewborne was with us on the 15th inst. His speech was highly spoken of by all. He opened some of our eyes on the Sub-Treasury, new features that I and "Old Advocate" had not seen before. After Bro. Mewborne Bro. E. A. Moore said some things for us to think over and not oppose; and last, but not least, our noble Senator, Bro. W. E. Bowers, was called out and made us all laugh until we felt like eating something when he got through, which we did. After feeding, we went to our respective homes, feeling we had all been benefited, and that it was good for us to be there.

I will close, Mr. Editor, for fear of the waste basket. I never fail to say something for your paper at every meeting.

Fraternally,
W. M. MARTIN, Sec'y.

CAUSE OF LAMP AND OTHER EXPLOSIONS.

PROSPERITY, N. C.
MR. EDITOR:—I see from your issue of the 23d that on the 16th an explosion of gas at the Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, killed one man and fatally injured two others. The gas was generated by pouring benzine on certain works in the dome (seemingly a tight room) of the building. The benzine being very volatile, soon impregnated the air of the room with its fumes to a sufficient extent to make it very explosive, as much so as if the room had been filled with gun powder. Consequently, when a lighted lamp was lowered into the room by one of the workmen, an instantaneous explosion followed, with the above result.

It is not the oil itself that explodes, but the gas generated by the oil. All coal oils are volatile, and consequently explosive, the declarations of those who sell it, that it is non-explosive, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Some years ago a merchant in Philadelphia, in order to convince a customer that his oil was non-explosive, lighted a match and threw it through a bung hole into a partially filled barrel. He might as well have thrown it into a pile of gun powder. An instantaneous explosion and a fire that consumed the building followed. Many cases illustrative of the dangerous properties of the gas generated by coal oil could be given, but the above will suffice.

In the same way, it is the empty spaces in lamps that usually cause explosions. The wicks in such cases are generally too small, permitting the flame to trail down the wick until the gas on the inside is reached, when an instantaneous explosion follows. Consequently, if the people were better acquainted with the dangerous properties of coal oil, most, if not all, of the horrible burnings we read of could be avoided.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Call of the National Committee of the People's Party for Mass-Meetings on the Last Saturday in March.

The National Committee of the People's party of the United States, acting in conjunction with the following: C. H. Van Wyck of Nebraska; C. W. Macune of Texas; M. J. Branch of Georgia; J. H. Powers of Nebraska; R. M. Humphrey of Texas; L. D. Laurier of Louisiana; Marion Cannon of California; T. H. Maguire of New York; J. H. Williams of Kansas; L. L. Polk of North Carolina; Pierce Haskett of Missouri; M. M. Garrett of Illinois; John Seitz of Ohio; Mary E. Lease of Kansas; Anna L. Diggs, District of Columbia; Anna Debbis, Texas; A. P. Parksen of Florida, and Ben Terrill of Texas, representatives of a certain meeting of members of the various organizations of this country, held in the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the 24th day of February, 1892, respectfully submit to the people of the United States the preamble and platform of the conference of said labor organizations of our nation held on the 23d, 23d and 24th day of February, 1892, in the city of St. Louis.

We urge that all citizens who support these demands shall meet on the last Saturday in March next, in their respective towns and villages and hold public meeting, and ratify these demands, and take steps to organize preparatory to electing delegates to a national convention, and we call upon all duly qualified voters of the United States who are in favor of these principles, and of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President on the above platform, to send delegates to a convention of the People's party, to be held in Omaha, Neb., July 4th, 1892, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

The Executive Committees of the People's party in each State is charged with the duty of promulgating the call, and of fixing the time, place, and method by which the said delegates shall be chosen. The basis of representation shall be four delegates from each Congressional district, and eight delegates from each State at large, making the total number 1,778.

We call upon all citizens of the United States to help us to make our principles triumphant. We believe that if the voters neglect their duty this year it may be impossible in any future canvass to protect the rights of the people and save the free institutions of our country. The voters must protect themselves; they can expect no one else to defend them. In the name of the rights of the people, the homes of our land, and the welfare of all future generations, we call upon all honest men to come to our support in this great contest.

H. E. TAUFENBERG, Chm'n.
ROBT. SCHILLING, Sec'y.

For the committee appointed by the mass convention.
BEN. TERRILL, TEXAS,
H. M. HOUCKS, South Dakota.

AGAINST THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY.

WHEREAS, The American Tobacco Company has formed a trust on the bright grades of tobacco, thereby damaging our trade; and whereas, we do know that common grades of tobacco are high and the prices should be as good now as they were before the trust was formed; therefore, we do know that it is not over production that is the cause. Therefore be it

Resolved, By Red Oak Lodge, No. 542, that we ask the merchants of Rocky Mount and Nashville not to buy any tobacco from the American Tobacco Company; that we pledge ourselves not to trade with any merchant who will not agree to co-operate with us in breaking down the trust.

2. That we send a copy of the same to the County Alliance and urge them to endorse it; that we send a copy to THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER, the Rattler and the Farmers' Advocate for publication; that we ask the County Alliance to appoint a committee of three to wait on the merchants of the two above towns with a bill like this; that as many as will not sign it, they report their names to the next county meeting, so that every Lodge may know the name of every merchant who will not co-operate with us in helping to break down the trust.

J. I. EVERETT, Sec'y.

LETTER FROM FORSYTH.

PINNACLE ALLIANCE, No. 2014, Culler, N. C.

MR. EDITOR:—Having seen a short communication in your paper, claiming to represent Pinnacle Town Alliance, we desire to say through your paper to all whom it may concern, that we know of no such legal organization, nor do we know how there can be any legal organization there, as it is only one mile from Pinnacle Sub Alliance; and furthermore, the material out of which they propose to organize, have proved themselves disloyal to the State Constitution and our Rules of Order which we with us. The pretended organization is mainly composed of expelled, dismissed, and seceded members. Will the authorities grant them a charter, allowing them to receive into the Order ineligible persons, men, women and children? If so, they would be well suited. As they have openly denounced the Constitution and Rules of Order, some of them saying it is wrong, another saying he could write a better one. Now we would ask some good Alliance brother, is there any use of a constitution, or obligation, if we have no respect for them or ourselves?

"A hint to the wise is sufficient," so beware! remembering, "All is not gold that glitters." Numbers are no mark that men the right have found. The few were saved in Noah's ark, and many millions drowned."

Fraternally yours,
G. W. HUNT, Sec'y.

SOLID FOR POLK.

Mt. Carmel Alliance, Moore County, Takes a Concessus of Opinion.

MR. EDITOR:—Last Saturday, at our regular meeting, one of our trust members wanted to find out how the members stood for President, so he requested all the Hill men to stand up, but to get no response. He then asked all the Cleveland men to rise and one responded. He then said that he wanted to know if there was any Polk men in the Lodge, if so he wanted them to rise, and every member present, as quick as thought, rose to their feet. The number present was 23, and I have seen eight others who wish to be in that number, and I don't believe that we have one man in 544 that is for Hill, but I think that every man would be for Col. Polk.

W. D. WALL, Vice Pres't.

AN APPEAL.

MR. EDITOR:—At a regular meeting of Lone Star Alliance, No. 1,192, held Saturday, the 6th day of February, 1892, a committee was appointed to draw up an appeal asking help to pay the loss sustained by Bro. Jos. R. Ellis, who had the misfortune to lose by fire, on the 4th day of last month, his cook-room, table ware and cooking utensils, a large shelter and farming implements, also about three hundred bushels peanuts. His loss is estimated at about $500, but has received help from his neighbors and brethren of the Order. Bro. Ellis is a member in good standing with this Alliance. He has a wife and ten children, and his loss is greatly felt by him, being disabled by the loss of one leg in the service of his country. We hope each Secretary and President of the Sub Alliance will present this appeal to their Alliance and contribute a small amount to his relief. An amount thankfully received by him and this Alliance. All contributions may be sent to our Secretary, R. H. Parker, Wiggins X Roads, Gates county, N. C.

STOKES COUNTY.

SANDY RIDGE ALLIANCE.

WHEREAS, We the officers and members of Sandy Ridge Alliance, No. 1,900, in session this day, Feb. 9th, 1892, do Resolve, That we go on record as endorsing our noble President, L. L. Polk, in all his actions and patriotic work throughout the entire country, and hereby tender him our respects for his manly fight for the rights of the masses.

2. That we unanimously endorse the Ocala platform, and especially the Sub-Treasury plank, and also the proceedings of the late meeting of the National Council, held at Indianapolis, and that we urge upon our brethren everywhere to show the same unanimity, and that we tell our enemies when they attack our leaders, they attack us and our best interests, and what we believe to be the best interest of the majority of the people of this great country.

3. That we will press these demands upon the public servants of this entire nation until we get entire relief from the onerous and oppressive burdens that the politicians have piled upon us.

4. That we will not support any candidate of any party unless he first endorses and stands squarely upon the Ocala platform.

5. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER for publication and all respectively do copy the same, that they to the right may know everywhere how we stand.

JOE HAM MEYER.
