

ZEKE BILKINS.

Another Row, But Peaceful Once More—Geo. Washington's Narrow Escape.

"Hello! Mr. Editor." "What can I do for you this morning?" "Nothing much. I'm as happy as a pig in a creamery. Me an' Betsy have had another row, but peace once more reigns over the land."

"What was the row about?" "Oh! that is not important. I said that all politicians were liars. Betsy said she knew one that wasn't."

"I asked her who it was. She said George Washington. I told her that if George had lived in this day he would have fell from grace like a chunk of lead."

"That made Betsy mad. She thinks there never was such a man as George Washington, an' I reckon they have been purty skase. Betsy says she used to think more of me than she did of General Washington, but says I am not as truthful. She says that when we got married I promised 'to love, serve and obey her.'"

"I reckon I promised 'to love, serve and obey her.' I reckon I promised 'to love, serve and obey her.' I reckon I promised 'to love, serve and obey her.'"

"I think it was the other way. Betsy did the promisin', but I have had to do the obeyin'."

"Glad to hear that peace reigns once more. I suppose politics are not mentioned now a-days."

"Oh! yes, we talk politics same as ever, but we are thinkin' the same way now. We have declared our independence, an' nothin' is left now but to drop the vote in the slot, an' see it counted. Betsy says there aint no use in quarrellin' about these things, for it wouldn't do for everybody to think an' vote alike. I'm glad they don't, but they ought not to fall out an' be a neighborly over politics. The devil is to blame for all that. People ought to read both sides an' study matters so they can vote intelligently. Me an' Betsy take all the party papers. We don't believe a good many things they publish, but we read them an' see how they do lie all the same. Betsy says the man who gets mad over politics an' won't speak to his neighbors who vote some other ticket, an' won't read both sides, stands a mighty poor chance of gettin' to Heaven. If he does go there he will try to raise a row over the tariff or force bill or government ownership of railroads before three days. Betsy says some of the plutocratic politicians will try to get to Heaven with their pockets full of rotten eggs, but I guess they will get left."

"Yes, no tickets will be sold to such people. Disorderly persons will not be allowed on the great train bound for eternity."

HELPING THE REPUBLICANS.

After doing many inconsistent things our Democratic friends have about capped the climax by beginning a great campaign in the interest of the Republican ticket in this State. We have news from several localities in which work has been done by Democrats. They are telling the negroes and some white Republicans that they "should stick to their party by all means this year, for they never did have such a good chance to elect their ticket. Is there anything that the moneycrats will not do to defeat reform? "Where are we at?"

THEY'VE GOT HIM.

It is now in order for the Democrats to get John H. Williamson, colored, to write a long letter telling why and how everybody ought to vote for Cleveland. He is now "one of 'em" For some time he has been running for Congress, presumably at the expense of Congressman Bunn. He was thus acting as a Democratic annex to defeat Mr. Stroud, People's Party candidate. But John has gone a step further. The last issue of his paper, the Gazette, rejoices over the fact that the Democrats and negroes won a victory in Florida and Georgia, and wonders of the Democrats will carry out the promises made to the negroes (John was thinking about acres of land and a mule while writing that.) Below will be found other clippings from the editorial columns of the Gazette. Some of them are rather vague, but it is plain that John is paving the way for the "brother in black" as the Democrats style them, to vote the Democratic ticket. Of course John is not doing all this work in the interest of the Democratic party just for fun. The Gazette says:

"It is a pleasure to us to know that the way is open for our support of many very excellent gentlemen on the Democratic ticket. This support, however, will be given the men and not the Democrats."

"The Democrats seem to have carried Florida. The dispatches state that large numbers of negroes voted that ticket. We hope that this may secure them some protection from lynching and 'Jim Crow Car' indignities."

"Many of our colored voters feel very kindly toward some of our local Democratic nominees, and unless the canvass takes on the old time bitterness they will secure many of their votes."

"As regards the local tickets nominated in this county, the Gazette is not committed to either. All we want is good local government, and we shall support such men as we are led to believe will secure to us this end. Many of the nominees of all the parties are good men and true, and we heartily think that we cannot fail in making good selections. We are truly glad that conditions are such that the personality of the candidates must determine the contest."

With the present election law and with the Republican State ticket as an annex, also by voting a large number of negroes, the Democrats may defeat the People's party and put the State under negro rule. This is a remote danger, but not impossible. We ask our Democratic friends to remember the dark days of '76 and stop and think before they endanger the prosperity of the State. But we wash our hands of it all. If the headstrong Democratic leaders turn the State over to the negroes by voting with them or by getting the negroes to vote with them, then they must and shall be held responsible."

GOOD NEWS FROM THE WEST.

The Cleveland electors in the States of Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, North Dakota, and Minnesota have been withdrawn. In four of these States it was by demand of the National Democratic Committee. Speaking on this subject, with reference to Kansas, we find in the News and Observer of the 13th the following:

LETTER FROM CLEVELAND—HE EXPRESSES GRATIFICATION AT THE SITUATION IN KANSAS.

TOPEKA, Kansas, Oct. 12.—Charles K. Holiday, Secretary of the Kansas Democratic Editorial Association, received the following letter from Grover Cleveland in reply to a message from the association: "I assure you that the guarantee you give that Kansas will not support by her electoral vote the iniquities of the McKinley tariff bill is most gratifying. Nothing could be more encouraging than to see Kansas break away from the partisan bonds that have so long and firmly held her and turn to the support of a principle which promises prosperity and contentment to all our people and a fair chance to those who have long been under the rule of unjust taxation for the benefit of a hard taskmaster. Truly yours, GROVER CLEVELAND."

From the last clause of this letter of Mr. Cleveland it is evident that he approves breaking "away from partisan bonds" and turning to the support of a principle which promises prosperity and contentment to all our people," etc., and when we understand that these withdrawals are all in favor of the Weaver electoral ticket, all this is quite significant.

ANTI-CALAMITY HOWLERS ARE HOWLING CALAMITY.

They Out-Howl the Howlers

The Charlotte Observer no doubt sees defeat ahead, for it howls worse than any calamity howler this side of Howlersville. Just read this: "The Mecklenburg Times of last week said: "If all the people should forsake the trained physicians of the land and follow after quacks, it would not be more foolish than to disregard the teachings of the wise and good statesmen of the nation, and follow demagogues and shallow politicians."

This is the humiliating part of the whole business—the part that makes a thoughtful man blush for his fellow-men. The wise and good statesmen of the State and Nation have fallen before par. If Judge Badger were living to-day he would have less influence with the Third party in Wake county than the fellow Tonnoffski. If Governor Graham were alive he would find Buck Stroud, of Chatham, a bigger man in the Fourth Congressional district than himself. Men who have heretofore been understood to have good sense have forsaken the standard of Ransom and Vance and enrolled themselves under the banner of Otho Wilson, a bullet-headed anarchist, and of Marion Butler, who has the countenance of Guiteau, and is not worthy to be believed on oath. Peter Phillips, a green goods purchaser, and Green Steele, who 'knows not and knows not that he knows not,' have supplanted H. C. Jones and Armistead Burwell in public confidence in Mecklenburg county and Lee Lowe and Charlie Gibson have come to be greater men than H. D. Stowe and W. E. Ardrey.

So we go and may the Lord have mercy on us."—Charlotte Observer.

Tindall Alliance, No. 236, Union county, resolve to vote for the best interests of the country, and will vote for no man or party that is against the St. Louis platform.

THE SHERIFF WITHDRAWS.

According to some of our exchanges, Mr. A. B. Peeler, People's party candidate for Sheriff in Cleveland county, has withdrawn from the race. He gives as a reason:

"I have evidence of the unholy trade that has been made by Butler and Exum to sell the State to the Republicans for $50,000. I have the best reason to believe that a corrupt bargain exists between the leaders of the People's party and the Republicans whereby the rank and file of the People's party is betrayed into furthering the plans of the Republican party. My heart revolts against such treachery and corruption, and I will not allow myself to be made a party to any such movement."

He then declares his intention to vote the Democratic ticket, from Grover down.

Now many of our readers are interested in this matter. Mr. Peeler makes serious charges against Messrs. Exum and Butler. If they have done what Mr. Peeler says he "has evidence of," the public ought to know it. He has made the charge, and justice to all demands that he give the facts. If his charges are true, the People's party leaders are not to be trusted. If they are not true, if he cannot prove beyond a doubt that they have received $50,000 and "sold the State to the Republicans," then he stands convicted by his own testimony. Mr. Peeler must prove this or stand disgraced before the bar of public opinion. Now is his chance. If he is successful he will be the biggest man in Cleveland county. Let everybody hold their breath until Peeler is heard from. THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER is always ready to expose fraud, and offers its columns to Mr. Peeler to publish his alleged evidence. If anybody has sold North Carolina to any political party for $50,000 or any other sum, we want to publish the facts.

"DISOBEYING ORDERS."

The Atlanta Journal of the 12th had an editorial on the negro question, of which the following is a part:

"The recent election in Florida and in this State demonstrated the fact that the colored vote in the South can no longer be depended on to obey the will of the Republican managers. Thousands of negroes in Georgia voted the Democratic ticket in the face of positive orders from the Republicans for them to vote the Third party ticket, and in Alabama a large section of the Republican party, composed of the black voters principally, has refused to obey the ukase from Washington to fuse with the People's party."

This is more Democratic proof that the negroes have joined that party in many places. They will do it in North Carolina, unless all signs fail. Now that the negro is out of the way—divided up about equally between the three leading parties—everybody can safely vote for principle this year and hereafter. This is the best thing that has happened since 1776, when our people declared themselves free from British tyranny. Let it go on.

MISSED THEIR MARK.

The Virginia Sun gives a glowing account of Gen. Weaver's speaking in Richmond. It says many converts were made. With a few exceptions the behaviour was good. The Sun tells the following about the eggging:

"There was only one little contretemps, and that was sufficiently amusing. A couple of eggs were thrown into the hall through an open window, and did the following execution: One grazed the head of a young man who went there uncommitted, and who now says that 'hens forth' and forever he will cast his vote against a party whose strength is maintained by such dirty means. This egg expended its force in the shirt-front of an unfortunate policeman who was doing his duty like a man. The other egg struck a distinguished Judge on the head, and ricocheted among the reporters, generously distributing its white and yellow among their papers and in their clothing, which made them ejaculate, 'thank heaven, it's fresh.' This ovation fusillade missed the People's party altogether, but singled out the old parties with unerring precision."

SENATOR STEWART.

The papers from the West bring glorious news about the growth of the People's party in the North west. There is practically but one party there now—that is the party of reform. The Alliance Independent has the following about Senator Stewart and the brave fight he is making on principle:

"Senator Stewart, Republican, of Nevada, has been one of the bravest and ablest advocates of the free coinage of silver. Now he proves himself to be one of the men who will stand by principle rather than party when he is forced to choose. He is making speeches for Weaver. In a speech last week he said: "Harrison was an enemy to silver coinage and would, without question, veto the measure whenever Congress passed it. This being his conviction regarding free coinage as the measure above all others his State and country need to restore their waning prosperity—he would be false to principle, false to his country and false to his people if he did not urge the Republicans of Nevada to repudiate Harrison and vote for General Weaver."

STATE NEWS.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate learns that Bishop Duncan will preside at the next session of the North Carolina Conference if place of Bishop Haygood.

A boy named Chas. Euliss, aged about eighteen years, was caught after having broken in the store at Swepsonville Saturday night, says the Alamance Gleaner.

Danbury Reporter: Very near all the tobacco in Stokes has been housed and most of it cured. The crop is a fine one and will be near or quite an average in pounds.

Walter Stewart was cut very badly in the hand on last Sunday evening by Sam Parks, colored. The little negro was severely whipped by Lace Byrd, says the Bakersville News.

Henderson Gold Leaf: Not guilty is the verdict of the jury rendered in the case of the State against James S. Poythress, charged with manslaughter, which came up yesterday.

The Elizabeth City Economist-Falcons says it has been reported that dead bodies and other indications of a shipwreck have been found on the beach at Whale's Head, Dare county, north of Nag's Head.

Raleigh Visitor: There are now 215 convicts in the penitentiary. Of these 115 will be sent in a few days to the farms on the Roanoke, thus reducing the number to 100, the smallest in twenty-three years.

The good people of Jefferson are sorely afflicted with typhoid fever. There are several cases reported, and one of number, is our friend, T. J. Hackler. Hope they may all recover, says the Boone Democrat.

Charlotte Observer: If this drought had continued much longer there was danger of some of the gins having to shut down for the want of water. In several places already the people are hauling water some distance to run their gins.

Goldboro Argus: The fish shipments from Morehead through this city by express over the A. & N. C. Railroad every day, are truly immense and surpasses anything of the kind in the history of the fishing interests of that section.

Asheboro Courier: Mr. J. C. Steadman, a brother of W. D. Steadman, of Asheboro, died at Tillery, in Halifax county, September 25th, 1892. He was buried in Chatham county at Asbury church. He was the youngest of nine children.

Our attention has again been called to the high rate of insurance imposed in New Berne. As far as we can find out the charges are higher here than anywhere and double and triple in many places as abundant facts show, says the New Berne Journal.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Ada Manufacturing Company, held last night, Col. John L. Brown was re-elected president, for the ensuing year, and Mr. John J. Gormley was re-elected secretary and treasurer says the Charlotte News.

The P. A. Demens wood working plant was sold by receiver Lock Craig on Thursday. Lewis Maddux and J. M. Campbell were the purchasers, the following prices being paid: Plant, $13,600; lumber, $3,200; mules, wagon and stock, $1,200. Total $17,000, says the Asheville Democrat.

Kinston Free Press: Mr. J. W. Russ' mill, located about three miles from here, was burned down last Saturday about one o'clock. There were 1,500 cords of wood and about $100 worth of lumber destroyed, the total loss being about $2,000; no insurance.

Two rivals for the hand of a young woman met in the road the other day and came near fighting. One, aged 72 years, said that he (the latter) was too old to marry, and should retire in favor of the youth of 72. But the 78-year-old boy got her, says the Shelby Review.

Red Springs Comet: The corn and hay crop in this section will be very large, but cotton is cut off considerably. Mr. Cope killed an otter in the incorporate limits of Red Springs on Tuesday morning. And any amount of squirrels are killed every day around town.

Sanford Express: Mr. Sandy Campbell, of Carthage, happened to the misfortune of losing his hotel by fire on last Tuesday night. It caught from the kitchen. Nothing was saved except some bedding. Mr. Campbell was at Greensboro attending Federal Court at the time.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. C. W. Cathey, of Steele Creek, was relieved of a fine horse, saddle and bridle Wednesday night. His stable was entered and he was robbed to the above extent. A negro man who was loafing about the place in the early part of the afternoon is suspected of being the thief.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: At Perquimans court last week to colored women, named Martha Holley and Leah Nixon, were convicted of poisoning Mrs. Mollie Nixon by placing "Rough on Rats" in her food. Nixon was sentenced to be hanged on the 5th of December and Holley was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The parties all reside near Winfall.

Shelby Review: We learn that an important step looking to a great improvement at Cleveland Springs is being taken. Messrs. Wilkinson and Fore, the owners, propose to organize a joint stock company with $100,000 capital and erect a mammoth modern hotel and otherwise improve the property.

Statesville Landmark: Tuesday while Mr. J. Turner Goodman, of Chambersburg township, was threshing clover a spark from the engine caught in some baled cotton near by and thirteen bales were consumed. Mr. Goodman had been holding the cotton for two years waiting for a rise in the price.

Norwood Vidette: Gus Turner, colored, who lives on Mr. H. C. Turner's plantation found in the harvest field last spring, an old Spanish coin made in the year 1773. On one side was engraved: Dei. Gracia, Carolus. III. and on the other was, Hispan. Et Ind. Rex. F. M. M. 2 R. and bearing two pillows and a crown.

Bill Brogdon, who lives on Little River, was out horse-back riding Sunday afternoon. The horse became excited over something and ran away. He ran under an apple tree and a limb of the tree struck Mr. Brogdon in the face, just under the left eye and cut a very painful gash in the lower lid, says the Durham Sun.

New Berne Journal: Contentnea Association of the Primitive Baptist Church will meet Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Sandy Grove church, Beaufort county. Died, Suddenly, in Warren, Pa., Oct. 5, 1892, Mrs. Eliza Allen Davies, wife of Dr. J. M. Davies—formerly of this place. The deceased was a sister of Mr. George Allen.

Haywood Richardson, a colored man living near Pleasant Grove church, had the misfortune to have his house burned last Friday night. He and his wife were away from home, and but for the timely arrival of a neighbor his six children who were shut up in the house would probably have been burned up, says the Rocky Mount Argonaut.

Oxford Ledger: A good many people were fleeced by gamblers with Orton's circus Saturday. They bit at that oldest of old tricks and biggest of swindles—"thimble ringing"—the walnut shells and little ball game. One young man lost forty dollars; several others who were older and had families and not too flush of wealth, were relieved of twenty dollars each, and numbers lost from one to ten dollars.

Charlotte News: The Charlotte Enterprise, a weekly paper edited by colored men, which has been blowing Mr. Brady's horn quite lustily for some time past, expired last Friday. Mr. A. A. Anthony, a workman at Mr. W. H. Allen's shop, had his hand badly cut in a moulding machine this morning. All the fingers on the left hand were more or less torn and the middle finger on the right hand was very badly lacerated.

Greensboro Record: A white man man by the name of Edwards, who was placed in the calaboose for being drunk and disorderly, yesterday afternoon tried to burn down the house. He set a book on fire and placed it among the blankets. The jail guard discovered it in time to extinguish the flames before much damage was done. The calaboose is under the jail and had the flames got a little headway the whole structure would have gone up in a few minutes, being of wood and very inflammable.

Burlington Herald: Burglars are working throughout the State and during the past week seem to have been paying their attention to Burlington. Saturday night the house of W. A. Hall was entered and about $150 taken and the house of Dan White was visited but an entrance was not effected. The houses of J. Alex. Holt and B. M. Cates were entered Saturday night by burglars. At Mr. Cates' they secured some $10 in cash and a watch. The midnight prowlers were again at large. Monday night several houses were visited. They entered the house of J. A. Thomas on last Wednesday night and secured $750 from the pockets of Mr. Thomas' pants, which were in his sleeping room.

MR. SIMMONS' DENIAL.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 15, 1892. EDITOR PROGRESSIVE FARMER:—My attention has been called to the following article in a recent issue of THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER:

"I CAN COUNT. Chairman Simmons, in a conversation with friends recently, is reported to have said: 'There are three ways to carry North Carolina Democratic this year. One is to assess the railroads and banks $100,000. Another is to put five hundred barrels of whiskey east of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. Failing in this, I guess I know how to count.'"

There is not a single sentence, line, word or syllable in this article which is true, or which has the slightest foundation of fact to support it. It is an invention pure and simple.

Of course, I presume it will give you pleasure to publish in the next issue of your paper, THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER, in which this article appeared, this statement with reference to its absolute falsity; and, that you will, in your own defence and vindication, promptly publish the names of the "Friends" with whom I am alleged to have held this conversation. Failing in this, the inference will be irresistible that some person having access to the columns of THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER have invented this story, and, for political purposes, knowingly published a slanderous fabrication.

Yours respectfully, F. M. SIMMONS. [The item quoted and denied by Mr. Simmons was published two weeks ago, but late as his denial is we give it publicity. Read it in connection with a private letter sent out by Mr. Simmons recently, which is published in this issue also.—Ed.]

THE LATEST NEWS.

Sparks from the Wires—Most Important Events Throughout the World for a Week.

ARON, Maine, Oct. 11.—The pulp mill here was completely wrecked by an explosion this morning. Ten persons were reported buried in the ruins. One dead body has already been taken out.

ANNISTON, Ala., Oct. 11.—At the "cake walk" of the Minnelulu lake last night a free fight took place, resulting in the death of Henry Adams and John Brooks, and the serious injury of a half dozen others.

Says Coffeyville, Kansas, telegram says: Emmitt Dalton was taken to Independence jail by Sheriff Callahan without objection being raised by the citizens. Wm. Dalton went along. Emmitt is better and it is now thought he will recover.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 11.—At the Galloway mines to-day a man named Dunn and his wife were quarrelling when Dunn's mother-in-law, Mrs. Dail, stepped in between them. She received a full load of buck shot in her head, putting out her eyes and tearing away part of her face. Dunn escaped.

PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 11.—George W. Cogbill, of the firm of Sommers & Cogbill, dealers in stoves and tinware, committed suicide this morning by cutting his throat with a pocket-knife. He was fifty-six years old, unmarried, and had carried on business in Petersburg for more than twenty-five years.

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 11.—Judge John W. Bennett, of Bottineau, a member of the Democratic State Central Committee several years and the Chairman of the Democratic State Convention, has announced his intention of supporting the Republican ticket on account of the Democratic fusion with the People's party.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 10.—The Democrats have gone into combination with the People's party on the legislative candidates, the object being to control the choice of United States Senator by the next legislature. They have endorsed each others nominations in twenty-six cases so far. The legislative nominations are not all made yet.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 11.—Last night the fact became public that C. T. Budchcke, one of the wealthiest grain merchants of this city, had committed suicide. The family managed to keep the affair secret until last night, though his body was found floating in Clayborne canal yesterday afternoon. Excessive drinking is assigned as the cause.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 11.—At three o'clock this afternoon the grand jury returned true bills against members of the Home-stead Advisory Committee charged with treason. True bills were also returned against H. C. Frick, John G. A. Leishman, E. T. F. Lovejoy, Henry Currey, Superintendent Potter, Otis Childs and Nevila McConnell—all Carnegie officials—Henry and Fred Pinkerton, Capt. Cooper, Fred Premier, and other Pinkerton detectives charged with murder and conspiracy.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 10.—It is reported by steamboat men who passed Lower Peachtree on the Alabama river Saturday night, that the landing was deserted. They learned that great excitement prevailed in the village because of trouble between whites and blacks; that a citizen named Johnson and his daughter had been shot and killed by the negroes and their bodies cremated in Johnson's burning house, and that the whites were all arming and preparing to fight. There is no telegraphic line to that point and the information has not been confirmed.

FATAL COLLISION AT SEA

SEATTLE, Washington, Oct. 10.—The Canadian Pacific Navigation Company's steamer Premier was struck by the steamer Collier Williamette in a dense fog off Whidby Island, about ten miles south of Port Townsend, yesterday afternoon. Four persons were killed or drowned and seventeen badly wounded. The steam tug Galia arrived here this morning with three of the dead, all of the wounded and the other passengers, after having spent several hours in an attempt to save from the wreck the body of an unknown passenger wedged in the wreck. The unknown passenger, a man about 40 years of age, is still in the wreck. An unknown passenger jumped overboard and was drowned. The casualties were all on board the Premier. The latter vessel left Port Townsend shortly after noon yesterday, bound for Seattle. The fore cabin of the Premier was smashed to splinters and the prow of the Williamette was jammed into the bow of the Premier. The receding tide left both stranded and still interlocked.

STATE OFFICERS ARRESTED BY FEDERAL MARSHALS.

MONTGOMERY, Oct. 10.—This morning two deputy United States Marshals went from here to Union Springs, the county seat of Bullock county, forty miles east, for the purpose of arresting Probate Judge Frazier and Circuit Court Clerk Pickett, on the charge of violating Section 515, Revised Statutes of the United States. These two officers, in conference with the sheriff, appointed the managers for the elections. The State law requires the appointment of three inspectors for each place of voting, two of which shall be members of opposite political parties, if practicable. The arrest of the two Bullock officers is because of their refusal to appoint the list asked for by the Third parties. The sheriff who sympathizes with that element was not arrested, as he was willing to accede to their demands. The arrests caused profound sensation in the little town and a large number of friends accompanied the prisoners to Montgomery. The arrested officers avow that the managers have been arrested in accordance with the law. They reached this city to-night and promptly gave bond for their appearance before a United States commissioner to-morrow.
