CONSISTENT MARION BUTLER.

Reformers will Continue the Work of Reform, nor will we Soon Forget the Services of Marion Butler.

MR. EDITOR:-No man in North Carolina has made so gallant and brilliant a fight for the principles as set forth in the St. Louis platform of the Farmers' Alliance as that distinguished son of North Carolina, the Hon. Ma rion Butler, and no man in North Carolina has received more abuse from the plutocratic press. Now the question naturally presents itself to a man who is not blinded by partisanship, why is the press of North Carolina continually hurling red-hot anathema at the galant President of the North Carolina Farmers' Alliance. The press has claimed all the while to be the steadfast friend of the Alliance. Those who heard Mr. Butler speak in the recent campaign know he advocated nothing but the St. Louis platform of the National Alliance, the three great living issues that are now pressing for solution, to wit: Finance, Land and Transportation. Old par ies failed to adopt single Alliance demand in their national platforms. Now, in the name of honesty, equity and justice, what other consistent course could the President of the North Carolina Alliance have pursued? We reformers claim and know he was consistent. If the political press are friends of the Alliance, why don't they advocate Alli ance principles and cease slandering men who are advocating them? No, gentlemen, the political press of North Carolina or of the United States are friends of the Alliance, but they are its bitterest foes. They are fighting Allance principles with all the shrewd chicanery known in modern American politics And American politics, says that eminent divine, Dr. Talmage, have sunken to such a low depth that there is nothing beneath. We reformers have reached the point where we don't believe for one moment anything we read in the plutocratic press in regard to our leaders, for they have shamefully abused almost every man in the reform move ment; and in numbers of instances lives, whose characters are as pure noonday sun, and worst of all, some of for price list to W. H. Worth. them are continuing their abuse even since the election.

EDWARD BANKS. THE GREAT REFORMATION.

Those who get discouraged and com plain at the slowness of the progress of this movement, do not comprehend its magnitude and the tremendous possibilities with which it is fraught.

Economic justice means the abolishment of poverty and crime. It means a realization among men of a Christian civilization. Under its benign influence the spirit of avarice, which is the king of all evils, would be bred out of the race in a few generations.

A spirited and enterprising people like those of America, possessing civil and religious liberty and economic justice, with the vast and inexhaustable resources of a continent like this, would soon produce a type of manhood and a state of society of which God Himself would be proud. It is each man's duty and the transcendent pleastion of this end. - Monitor.

National bankers claim that it don't pay them to buy bonds and take ninety per cent. back in national bank notes, in compliance with the National Bank Act. If it don't pay them, who does it pay? It is an expense to the government and a detriment to the people. If it benefits no one it should be repealed at once. - Council Grove Courier.

Thanks to the brother for the view he is now taking. If politics, or any other cause has thrown any brother, or Alliance, off from the Agency, we beg you to lay it all aside, return to the work and let us do all we can to advance the interests of the Alliance. The use of Alliance credit has saved big sums to the members, and they should protect that credit at all hazards.
