

FARM BUILDING SPECIAL.

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

AND SOUTHERN FARM GAZETTE

A Farm and Home Weekly for the Carolinas, Virginia, Georgia and Florida.

Reg'd U. S. Pat. Office.

FOUNDED, 1886, AT RALEIGH, N. C.

Vol. XXVIII. No. 24.

SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1913.

Weekly: $1 a Year.

"OUR HOMESTEAD REARED ITS WALLS FROM THE WAYSIDE DUST ALOOF, WHERE THE APPLE-BOUGHS COULD ALMOST CAST THEIR FRUIT UPON ITS ROOF."

FEATURES OF THIS ISSUE.

ABOUT FARM BUILDINGS.

- Barn Plans and Pictures—For Both Small and Large Farms 8, 14
- Better Farm Buildings—by Prof. Daniels Scoates 3
- Buildings for Poultrymen—Houses and Trap-Nests 20
- Concrete Floors—Their Advantages and Defects in Stables. . . 3
- Four Things the Farmhouse Needs—By Prof. M. E. Sherwin . . . 6
- Have an Architect Plan Your House—Why He Can Save You Money 5
- House Plans—Floor Plans of Houses of Various Types 5, 7
- How to Mix Concrete—The Coming Building Material 6
- The House From the Woman's Point of View—Some Suggestions by Mrs. W. N. Hutt 10

- Tenant Houses—A Simple Plan and a Remodeled House 7
- Outbuildings—How to Build Silos, Milk-House, Smokehouse, Implement Shed, Corn Crib 16, 17
- Roofing Materials—A General Discussion 17

OTHER FEATURES.

- June Garden Work—By Professor Massey 4
- Race Segregation in the Country—Why Whites and Blacks Should Live in Different Neighborhoods 13
- Timely Livestock Notes—By Dr. Butler 14
- Chances for Co-operation Among Farmers—Some Waiting Opportunities and Some Great Plans 18