

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

AND SOUTHERN FARM GAZETTE

Reg'd U. S. Pat. Office.

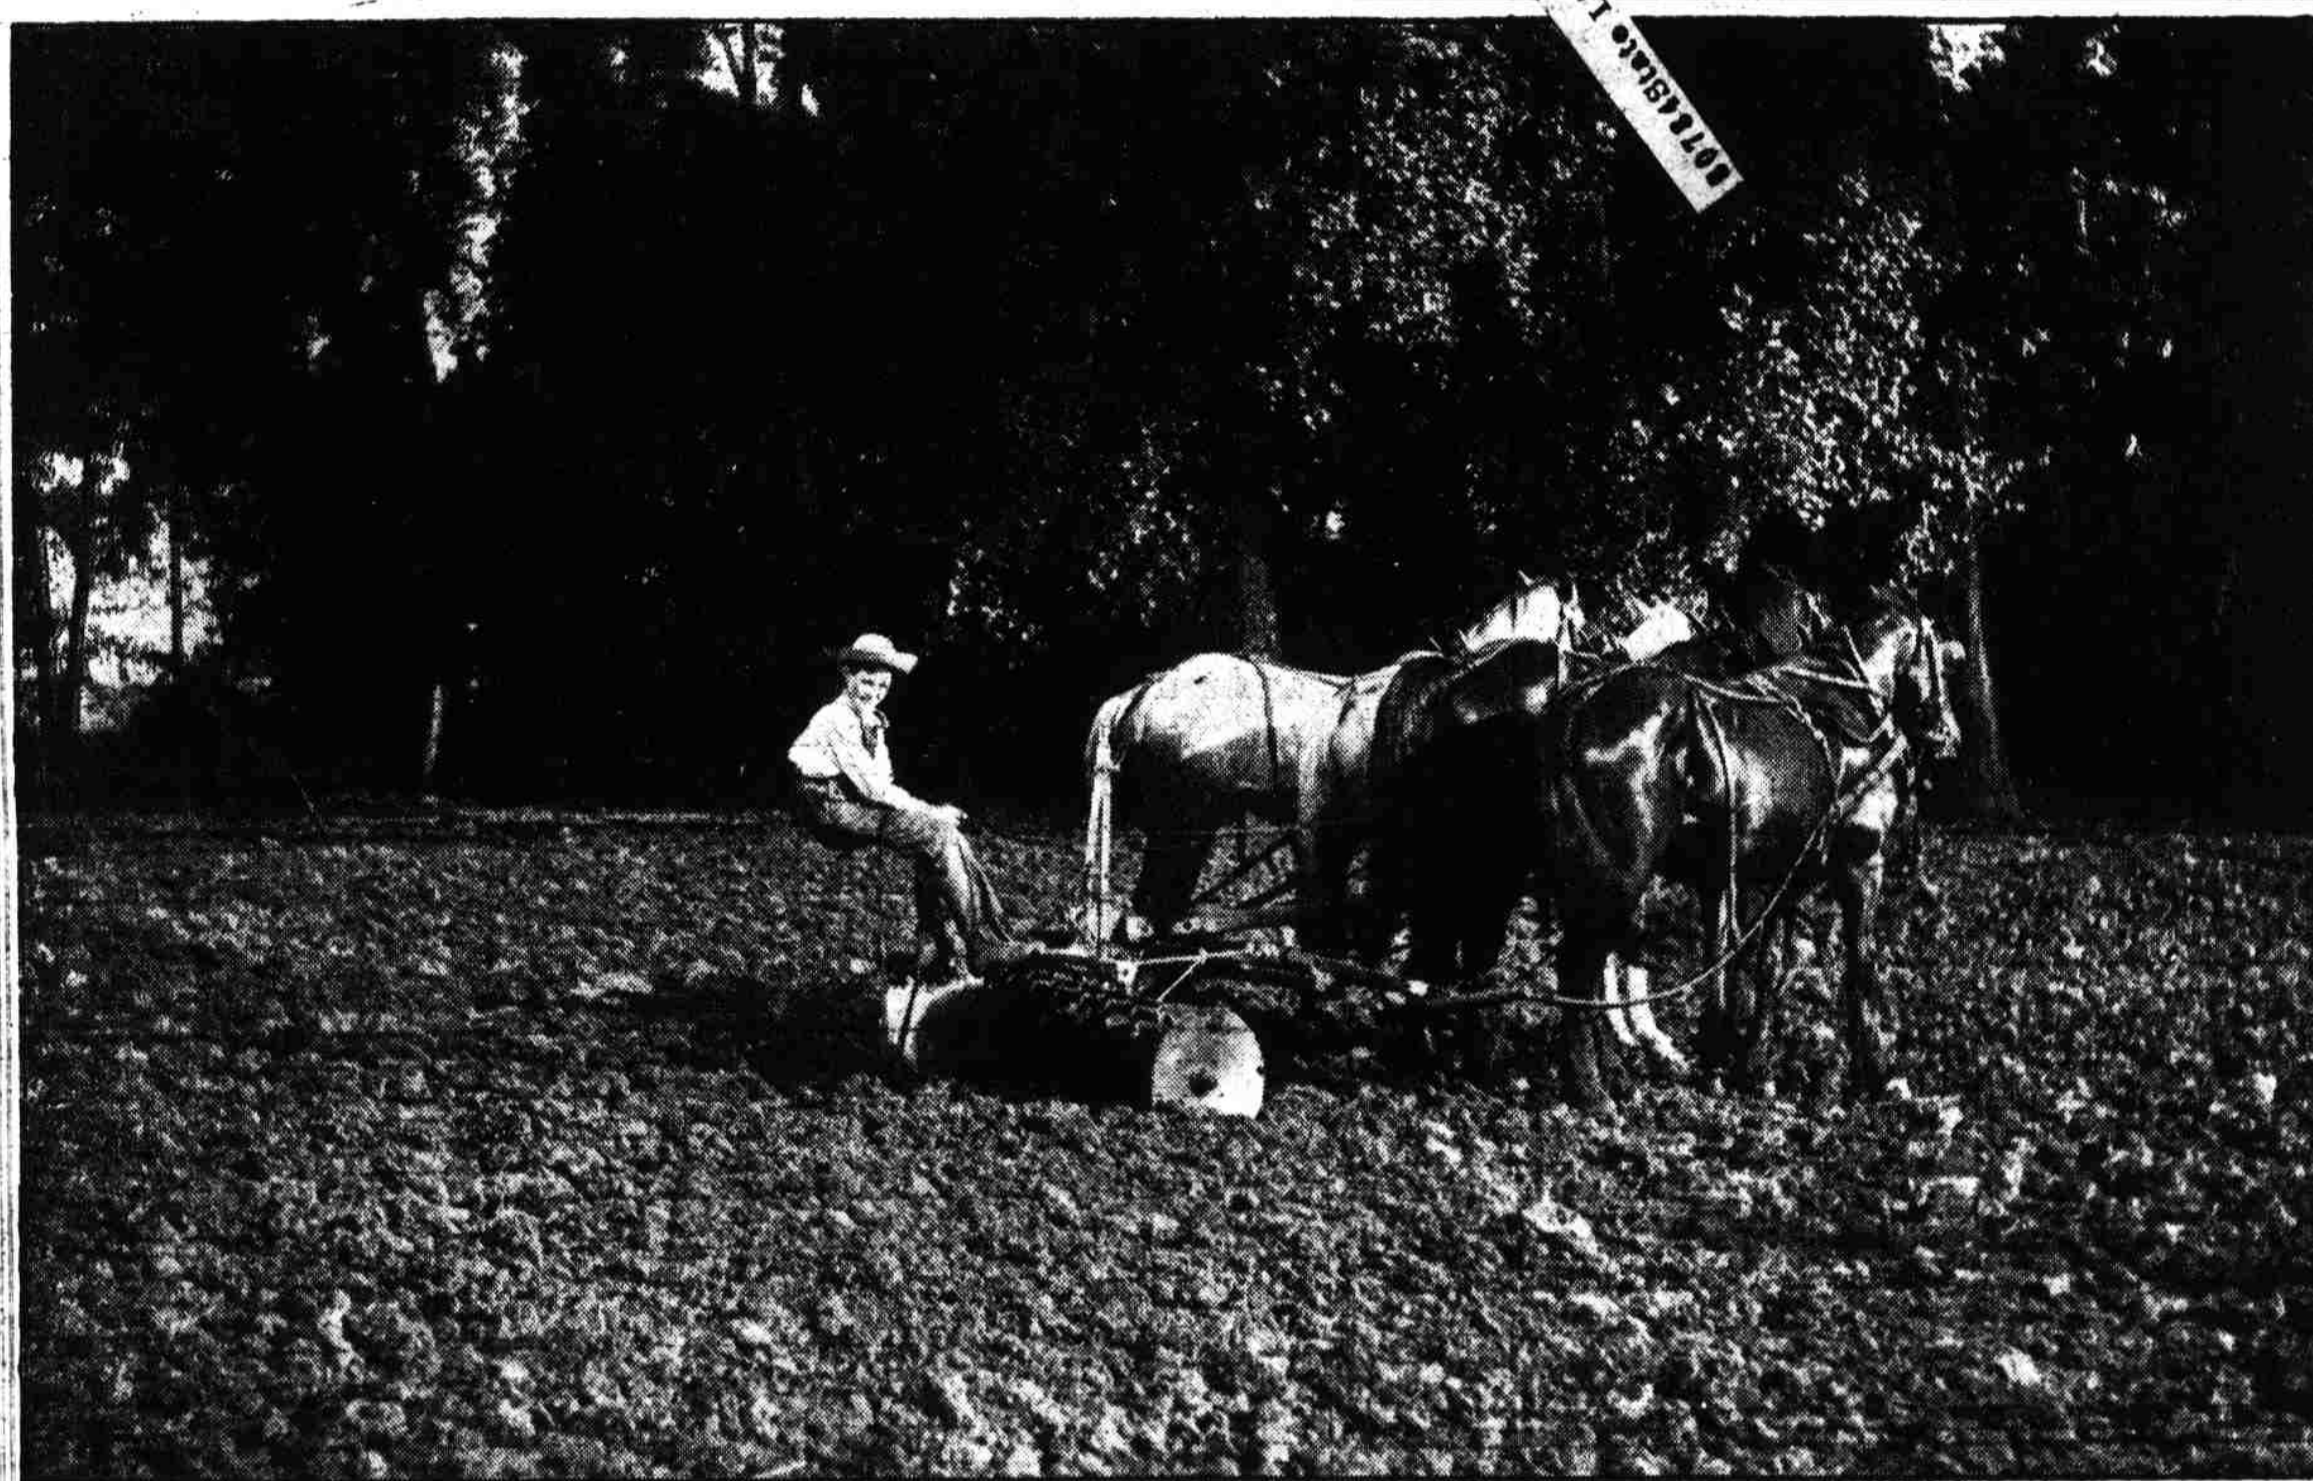

A Farm and Home Weekly For the Carolinas, Virginia, Georgia and Florida.

FOUNDED, 1886, AT RALEIGH, N. C.

Vol. XXVIII. No. 30.

SATURDAY, JULY 20 1913.

Weekly: $1 a Year.

A Twelve-Year-Old Boy Running a Four-Horse Disk Harrow

These pictures show Hubert Nelson, of Svea, Minnesota, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. A. O. Nelson doing work which explains "Why Western Farmers Make More Than We Do and Work Less." (See Mr. Poe's article on page 11.)

Twelve-Year-Old Hubert Nelson Running Two-Row Corn Cultivator.

FEATURES OF THIS ISSUE:

Buying Livestock by Mail—Dr. N. S. Mayo's Views	12
Congressman Lever's Message—What the Agricultural Committee of the House of Representatives Proposes to Do	6
Farmers' Union Notes—Letters From Mr. Wright, Mr. Green and Mr. Dabbs	14
Grades of Oak, Chestnut and Pine Lumber—How They are Classified and Priced	5
Paint—A Neglected Essential of Right Living—Mrs. Hutt Contrasts the South With Other Sections	8
Southern Cattlemen's Association—A New Organization Which May Do Much for the Industry	12
South Carolina Views on Race Segregation—Interesting Letters on This Great Question	18
South Carolina Farmers' Institutes—To be Held on the Farms This Year	15
The All-Cotton Farmer's Point of View—Where It is Fundamentally Wrong	3
Uniform Size of Cotton Bales—How Farmers Stand to Lose a Dollar a Bale on Their Cotton	10
What Professor Massey Says—Answers to All Sorts of Inquiries	3
Why Corn "Fires"—Either Excess or Deficiency of Moisture May be the Cause	7