

LIVESTOCK SPECIAL.

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

AND SOUTHERN FARM GAZETTE

A Farm and Home Weekly For the Carolinas, Virginia, Georgia and Florida.

FOUNDED, 1886. RALEIGH, N. C.

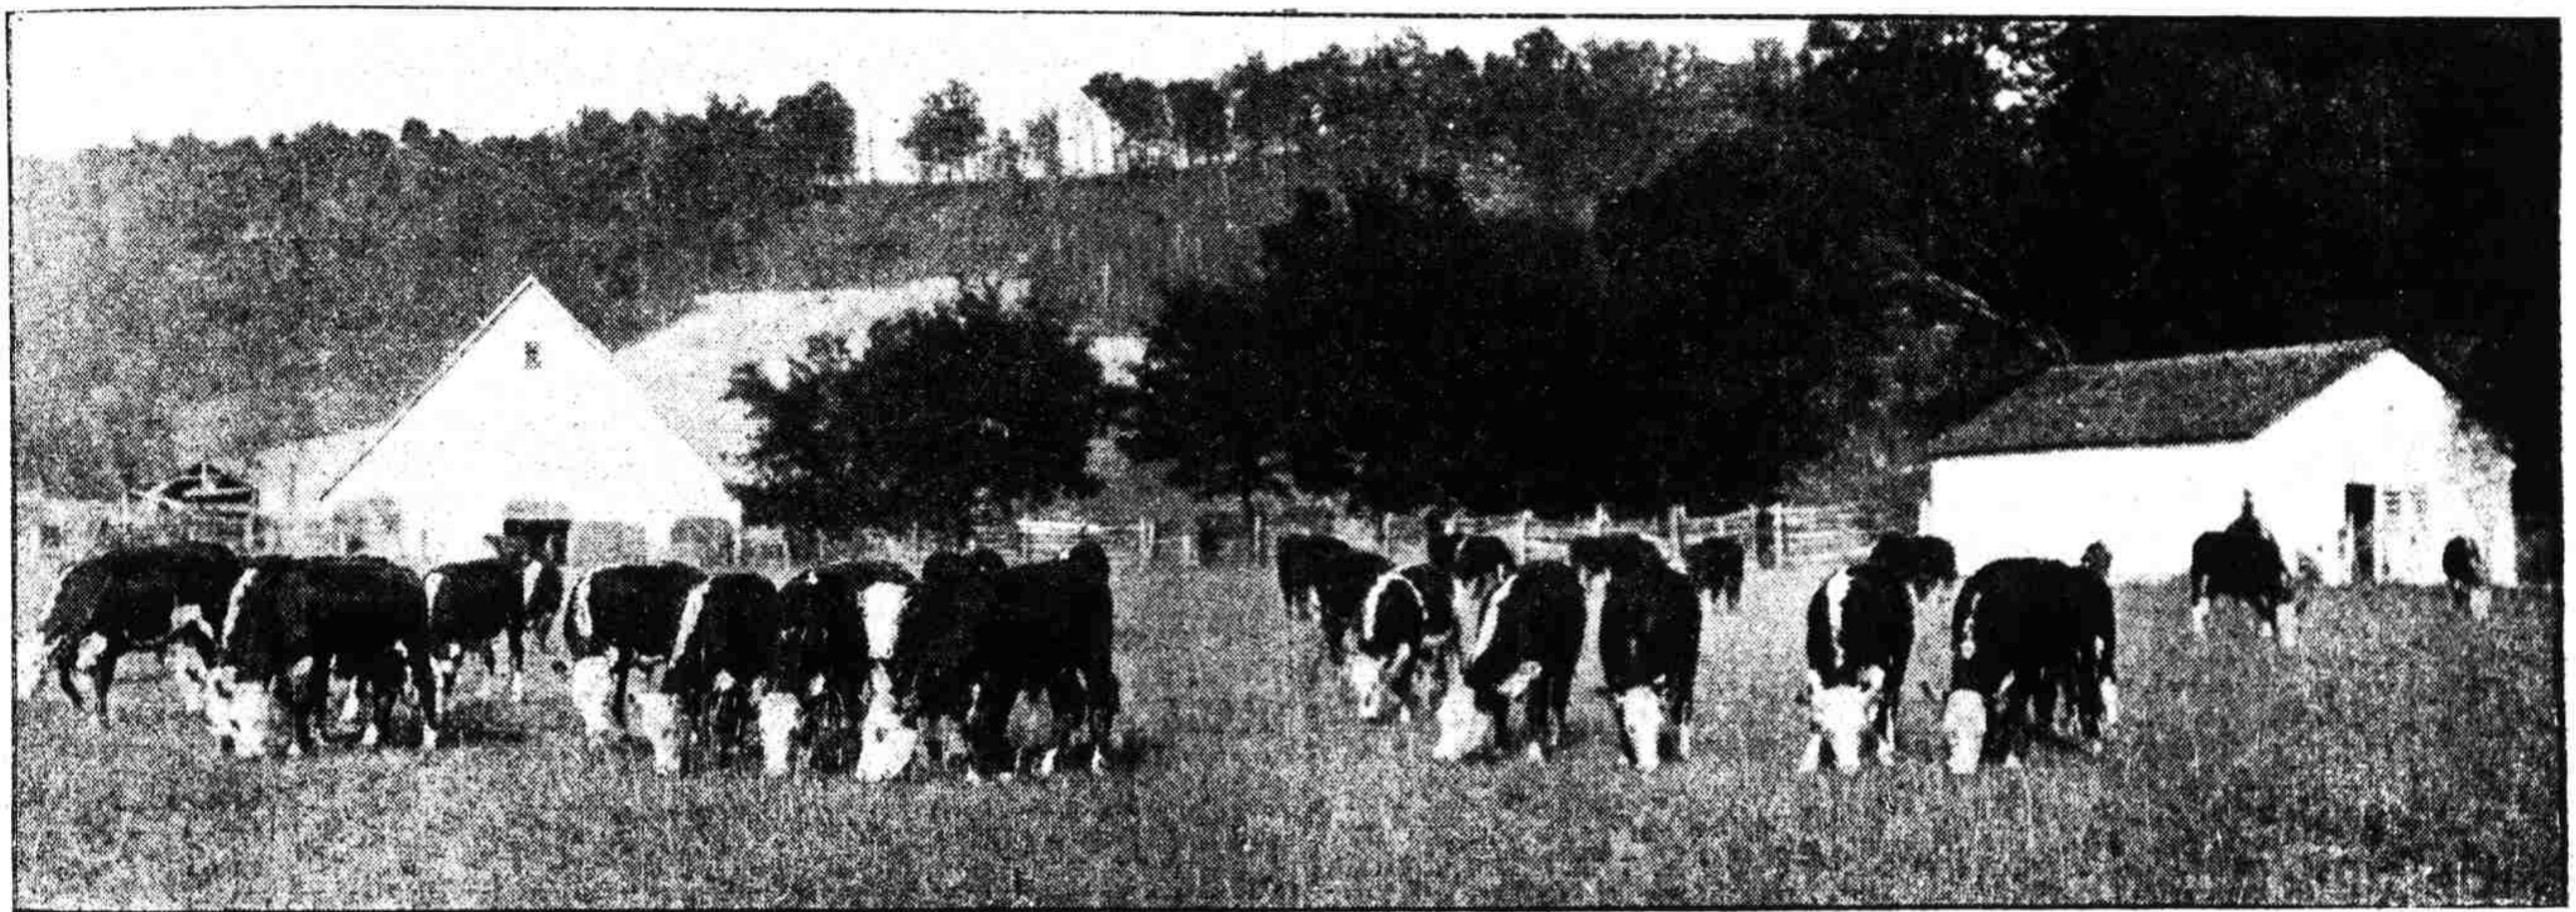

Reg'd U. S. Pat. Office.

Vol. XXVIII. No. 45.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1913.

Weekly: $1 a Year.

A HERD OF HEREFORDS ON A TENNESSEE PASTURE.

FEATURES OF THIS ISSUE.

Angora Goats—What an Enthusiast Has to Say for Them	25	More Letters on Race Segregation—Various Views of Readers	17
Common Mistakes in Feeding—Some Things We Have Yet to Learn	18	Profits from Beef Cattle Feeding—Several Sources of Profit	20
How to Select Breeding Stock—Things the Beginner Should Consider	26	Pastures for the Hill Country—Bluegrass, Herdsgrass, Bermuda, White Clover and Lespedeza	6
How to Care for the Stallion—Various Ways in Which He is Mistreated	27	Rations for Livestock Farmers—Something Growing the Year Round	8
How Dairying Pays—A Northern Dairyman's Experience in the South	19	Sheep in the South—The Best Paying of All Farm Animals	21
How to Raise the Dairy Calf—Plain Details of Care and Feeding	10	South Carolina State Fair—A Great Agricultural Show	29
Hog Cholera and How to Treat it—Fake "Cures" Exposed and the Serum Treatment Explained	22	The South's Supply of Protein—It is Abundant and Within Reach of All	6
How the Dairyman Can Get the Cows He Needs—Accurate Testing and Careful Breeding Necessary	10	Thanksgiving Preparations—Mrs. Hutt's Weekly Letter	14
How to Market Butter—Good Quality and Neat Appearance Bring Good Prices	19	The Horse the Southern Farmer Needs—A Horse Heavy Enough to Pull Modern Implements	3
How the Creamery Helps the Farm Woman—An Interesting Story by One Who Knows	15	What It Costs to Raise Mules—About Half What It Costs to Buy Them	8
Keeping the Livestock Healthy—Good Care and Right Feeding the Main Things	12	Why the South is a Livestock Country—Because It is a Great Feeding Producing Country	16
		$150 in Hogs—What May Reasonably Be Expected of Such an Investment	5

JERSEY CATTLE ON FARM OF FELIX WILLIAMS, VILLA RICA, GA.