

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

AND SOUTHERN FARM GAZETTE

A Home Weekly for
The Carolinas, Virginia, Georgia, and Florida.

FOUNDED 1882 AT RALEIGH, N. C.

Vol. XXX. No. 48.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1915.

$1 a Year; 5c. a Copy

Provide a Convenient Kitchen for the Good Wife

AFTER she began her recent "model kitchen" contest we prevailed on Mrs. Hutt to have some photographs of her own kitchen made, believing they would be interesting to all our women readers.

about it is that the cost of properly equipping the kitchen is so very little as compared with the cost of properly equipping the farm. A good range will not cost much—unless you buy it from a traveling agent—

A CONVENIENTLY ARRANGED KITCHEN—MRS. HUTT'S (SEE ARTICLE ON PAGE 14)

One view of her kitchen we are presenting herewith, while another photograph taken to the right of this view is given on page 15. It is easy to see that not many steps are wasted in this kitchen. Part of the range is to be seen on the extreme left, then the sink is right at it, and then right at the sink is the work-table with every needed cooking utensil or convenience handily in its place above or below.

As will be seen from our editorial, "Practical Southern Chivalry" (which we had written before this photograph came in), The Progressive Farmer is just as anxious to get good equipment for Mrs. Farmer and the girls as for Mr. Farmer and the boys. And the fortunate part

DON'T FAIL TO READ—		Page
Great Books Inspire Farm Boys and Girls . . . . .		4
How I Made My Best Paying Crop . . . . .		6
Helpful Ideas for Hog-killing Time . . . . .		7
Livestock Special Next Week . . . . .		12
Practical Southern Chivalry . . . . .		12
Uncle John "Mirates" on the Joys of Hog-killing Time . . . . .		12
Get the "Dictionary Habit" . . . . .		13
Resolve Now to Have a Library . . . . .		13
What Texas Coöperative Marketing Associations Are Doing . . . . .		13
Mrs. Hutt's Kitchen . . . . .		14
Great Meeting North Carolina State Farmers' Union . . . . .		18

and waterworks will cost much less than you probably think; while as for the score of little time and trouble-saving contrivances in this photograph, a few cents apiece will get most of them for your life-comrade and helpmeet.

The Progressive Farmer believes in economy, as everybody knows, but we also believe that there is no truer economy than that which saves the strength, health and happiness of the wife and mother. See if you can't lighten her work and lighten her heart by making her kitchen a little more convenient.