

LIVESTOCK SPECIAL

THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

AND SOUTHERN FARM GAZETTE

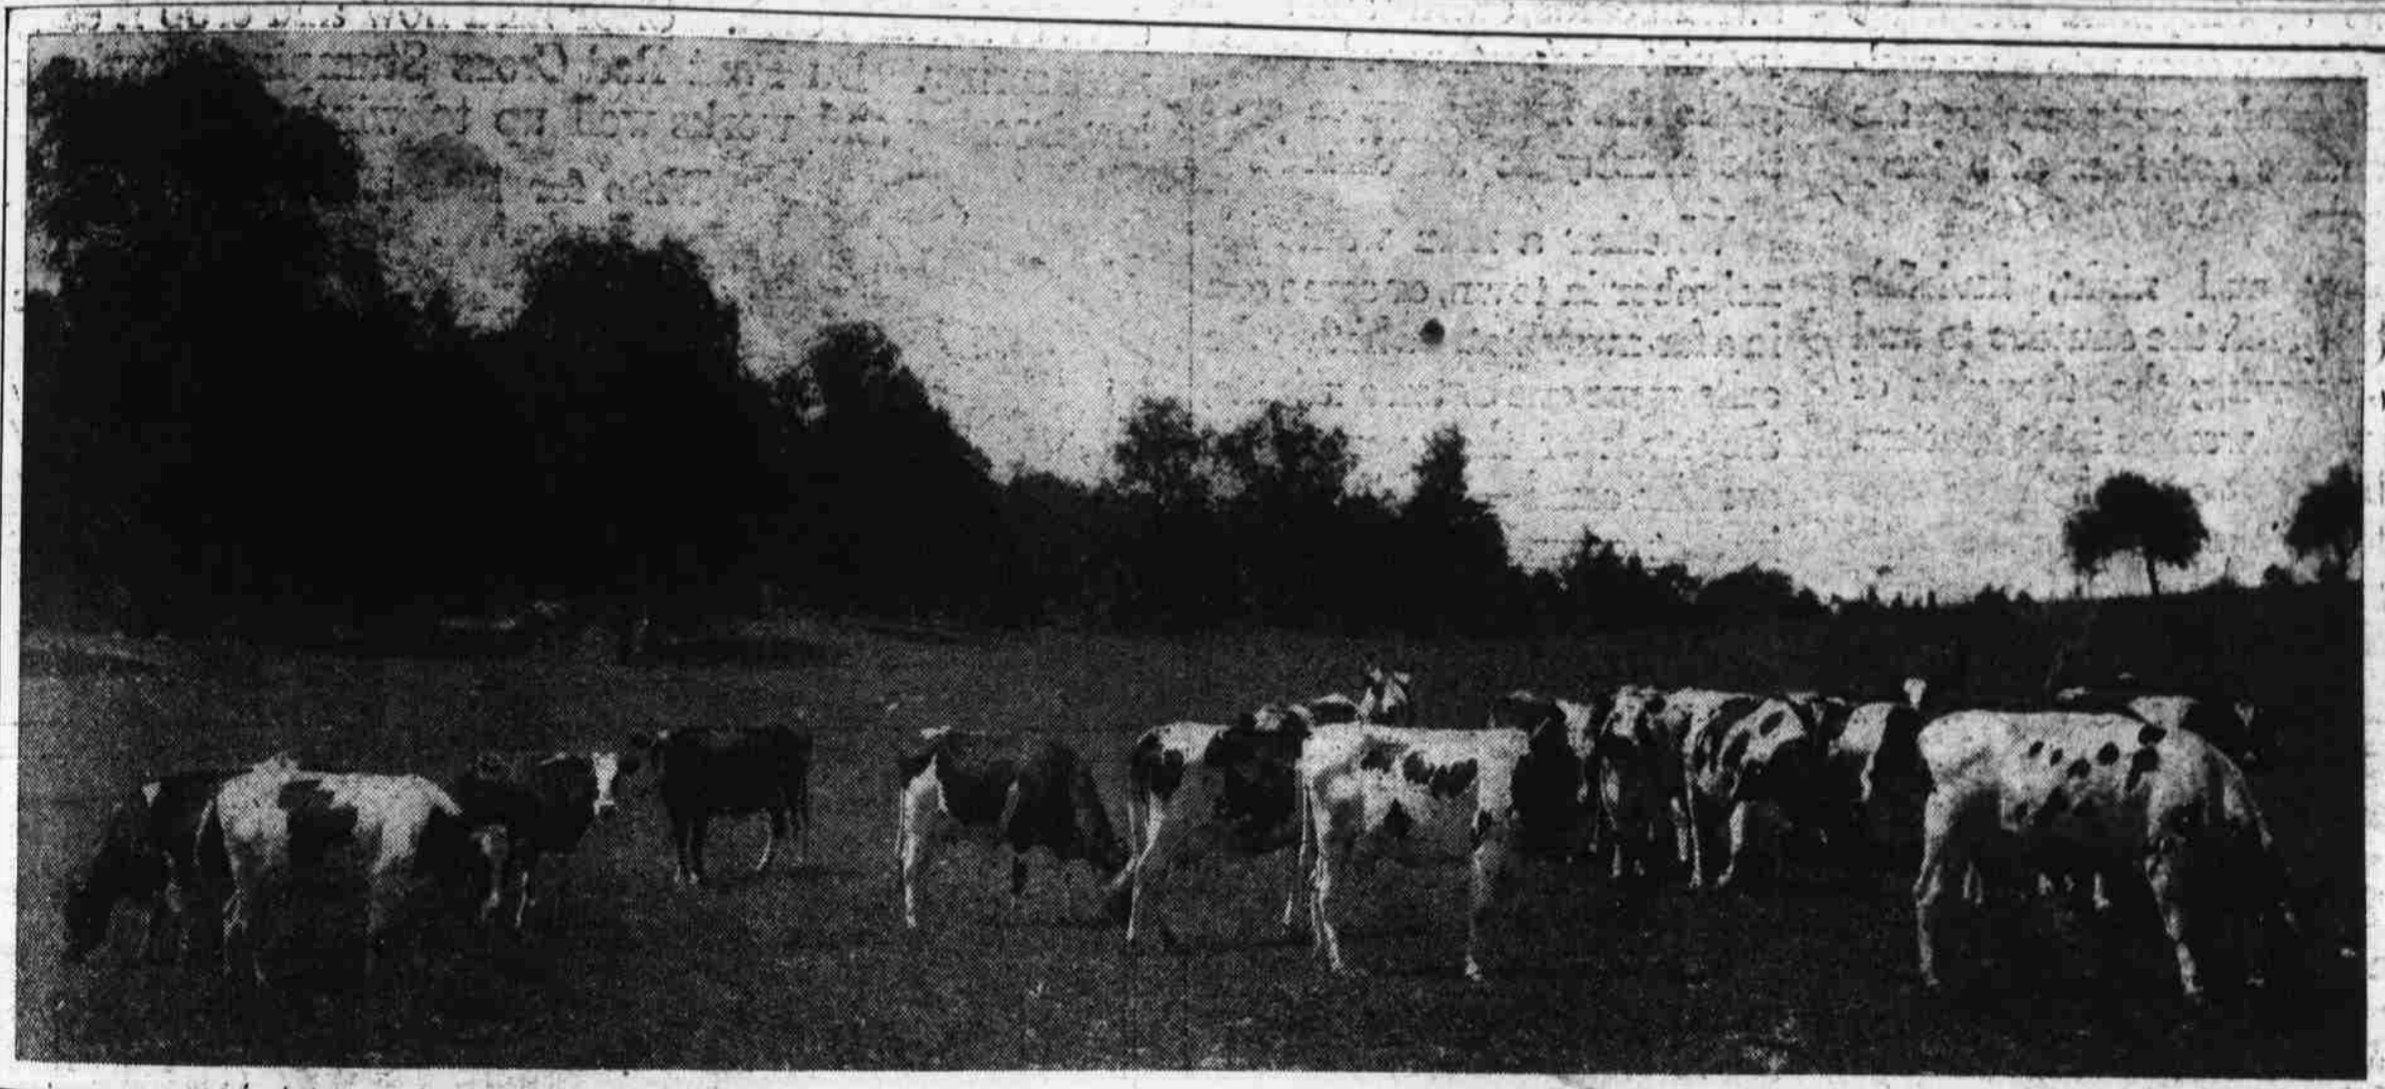

A Farm and Weekly for
The Carolinas, Virginia, Georgia, and Florida.

FOUNDED 1886, AT RALEIGH, N. C.

Vol. XXX, No. 49.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1915.

$1 a Year; 5c. a Copy

HOLSTEINS ON FARM OF W. H. NEWMAN, WOODSTOCK, VA.

DON'T FAIL TO READ

	Page
Livestock Markets for the South	3
Twelve Things to Do in December	4
How to Know a Good Dairy Cow	7
How Heavily Should the Farm Be Stocked?	6
Sheep for the Southern Farmer	6
How to Know a Good Beef Animal	5
Five Cows and Independence	8
How to Begin in the Hog Business	9
Fifty Years of Successful Livestock Farming	10
Winter and Summer Pastures for the Central and Lower South	12

DON'T FAIL TO READ

	Page
"The Eye of the Master"	12
Make Your Rental Contracts Now for 1916	14
Stay Out of the Livestock Business Unless You Mean to Give Animals Proper Care	14
What the Other Fellow's Going to Do Next Year	14
The Best Review of Rural Credits Problems	15
December Suggestions for the Housewife	16
Little Christmas Gifts at Small Cost	17
South Carolina and the Marketing Problem	20
Some Common Diseases of Livestock	22
Financial Side of Hog Production	23

A GROUP OF PRIZE-WINNING HEREFORDS