HOLSTEINS
 Purebred Registered
HOLSTEIN CATTLE
A Holstein Owner's Assets. When a man buys a pure-bred Holstein-Friesian animal he acquires more than flesh and blood as property. Something more than size, weight and individuality, breeding, and the highest standard of productiveness. He shares the beneficial influence of the Holstein-Friesian Association, its financial soundness, its mighty prestige, its progressive exploitations, its annual prize offerings of $22,000 and its effective $25,000 yearly publicity, all of which combine to make a wonderful asset. It is this truthful exploitation of the foremost dairy cattle, together with their genuine merit which has since 1868 raised the average auction price of Holstein cattle by $105 per head. Investigate the big "Black-and-Whites."
