This Collar Ends Galls and Sore Shoulders

If you have horses or mules with galls or sore shoulders, you can heal them while they work. You can prevent your teams getting galled again. Simply replace the heavy, irritating, sore-producing leather collar with the LANKFORD HUMANE HORSE COLLAR.

This collar is made of sail duck. It is stuffed with oily cotton fibre. It absorbs sweat and impurities—keeps the neck cool and comfortable and free from irritation. A pad cannot do this, nor can a collar stuffed with hair or straw.

Price $1.25

This collar cannot sweeney. I guarantee it will heal and prevent galls and sore shoulders—that it will reduce the draft for the team. Easy to put on and take off. Will not pack or harden.

No Results—No Pay

Three million sold last year. Go to any dealer and ask for the LANKFORD Collar. Use it on the most stubborn cases. If it fails to heal them while they work, take back the collar and the merchant will refund your money. If your dealer cannot supply you, I will ship, charges prepaid, upon receipt of $1.25. State size wanted.
