

THE WEEK'S NEWS.

Little news last week except that mentioned editorially.

Gen. Stoessel, defender of Port Arthur, allowed to resign from the army instead of being shot.

The coroner's jury investigating the Jellico dynamite explosion brought in a verdict charging the railroad with criminal negligence.

William J. Bryan, in a speech at Nashville, Tenn., declared that "it might not be wise two years hence" for any party convention to endorse him.

State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner is most prominently mentioned as the successor of the late Dr. McIver. The election of a president will occur in January.

Reports from a large section of the North Carolina cotton territory indicate that the crop is very short. The excessive wet weather caused the forms to drop.

Negro Republicans in the Third Virginia District are indignant at the action of the "Lily Whites" and will bolt the white ticket and vote for one of their own.

Paul O. Stensland, defaulting president of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, reached Chicago, was arraigned, pled guilty of embezzlement, was sentenced to Joliet and began an indeterminate period of incarceration. The rioting in Atlanta is over, the citizens' committee being in full control of the situation and places of business resuming operations.

The tropical hurricane last week was terribly violent at Pensacola, hurling shipping from the bay on to land, destroying the wharves and doing property damage of $5,000,000, with some loss of life. The wharves and elevator of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad were washed into the bay, that road's loss being estimated at $1,000,000. In Alabama thirty miles of track was washed away, and at New Orleans and other gulf points enormous damage was done.
