OTHER STATES

Small Farm Wanted—If you have a low-priced farm in the South for sale or exchange, write at once with description and lowest price. John D. Baker, De Queen, Ark.

Cotton is King at Seagraves, Gaines County, Texas—Where they have no Boll Weevil, no Chinch Bugs and no Pink Boll Worms, and where you can raise from a half to three-quarters of a bale of cotton and from 30 to 40 bushels of corn to the acre. We are offering to sell the Spearman Farm Lands in quantities to suit the purchaser at from $10 to $18 per acre with a small cash payment and on long time and at a low rate of interest. If you are interested in acquiring a home for yourself and family where you can have an abundance of pure fresh water and a healthful climate, write a card today to W. A. Sobels, Gen. Agt., 8 Santa Fe Bldg., Seagraves, Texas, for a descriptive pamphlet giving full information about this country and the plan of purchase. This is a good country to live in, a good country to make money in and it is a good country to raise a family in. It is the coming grain and cotton country of the West.

Progressive Farmer Classified Ads Bring In the Cash!

Thousands of folks are making money by advertising in our classified columns. Don't you want to do the same thing? Read herewith what one of our cotton seed advertisers recently wrote us:

"Stop my ad. Am sold out of cotton seed. Have already returned orders for 1,000 bushels. I advertised in four other papers and received some inquiries through these, but not a single check with the first letter. The majority of the first letters from Progressive Farmer readers had checks attached to them."

SELL YOUR SURPLUS!

Someone else usually wants just what you have to offer, and you can very easily and cheaply dispose of it through an advertisement in our classified columns, it matters not what it may be. The cost for this edition covering North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, with 85,000 subscribers, is only 7 cents per word. Write your advertisement here and mail it to us.
