OBSERVE THESE SIMPLE RULES

- The puzzle game is open to any man, woman, girl or boy except employees, or relatives of employees, of the Blackburn Company.
- Write words on one side of the paper only, numbering each word, 1, 2, 3, 4, etc. Write your complete name and address on each page in the upper right-hand corner. Use a separate sheet to write anything else.
- Only words in the English Dictionary will be accepted. Compound, hyphenated and obsolete words must not be used. Either the singular or plural of a word may be used but not both.
- "P-words" of the same spelling will be counted only once, but any visible part of an object can be named.
- All lists of words must be mailed by May 5, 1922.
- The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with "P" will win first prize, etc. Neatness, style and handwriting will not have any bearing in deciding the winners.
- Each answer received will be equally considered regardless of whether it is accompanied by an order or not.

- "P-word" participants may work together in answering the puzzle. However, only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Prizes will not be awarded to more than one of any number of people outside of the family, where several have worked together.
- The full amount of any prize tied for will be paid to each tied participant.
- The winners will be decided right after the close of the game, by the three following well known English Professors of Atlanta, who will use the largest single volume dictionary as a reference:
DR. W. F. MELTON, Professor of English, Emory University, Atlanta, Ga.
J. E. ROUTH, Professor of English, Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, Ga.
J. H. SMITH, Assistant Principal, Tech High School, Atlanta, Ga.
- Participants entering the game agree to accept their decisions as final and conclusive.
- The names of the prize winners and the correct list of "P-words" will be mailed to every participant who sends in a stamped addressed envelope.
