-We are sorry to learn that the la grippe has invaded the Orphan Asylum and that Dr. Dixon has his hands full in looking after the children.

-Mr. J. G. Bowling, one of the excellent auctioneers at the Centre warehouse, who has been quite sick with the grippe, is now able to be out again.

-We see it announced that Mr. T. B. Eldridge, of the Lexington Dispatch, will soon resume the publication of the Darham Daily and Weekly Globe,

D. Parham, of Vance. He carries his age | tiary. well and noted a great many improvements in Oxford since his last visit.

-Mr. W. B. Cash, one of the prominent farmers of Tally IIo township, was in town Wednesday laying in a full supply of farming implements of all kinds. -Mr. John Bullock of the Banner warehouse, and Mr. W. O. Bransford, ene of our leading tobacco buyers, are out after several days confinement in trying to dispense with the grippe. -We return our thanks to our young friend Mr. Earnest Amis, for the Trade Edition of the Jacksonville, Fla., Times-

During the conversation one remarked about being left-handed, and it turned out that all three of us were left-handed. When shall we three meet again?

-We are requested to state that no such Alliance as Ledge of Rock is in existence in the county, and that the meeting held last week in Tally Ho township, to take some action against the County Medical Society, was a citizens' meeting, largely composed of former members of regular organized Alliance.

-The stone work on the sidewalk of Ruleigh street will soon be completed.

- Mr. J. M. Norwood, our enterprising Cigar Manufacturer, has removed his factory over the Oxfoad Book Store. -()ur excellent Dentist Dr. C. D. H.

Several speeches were made by different members of the bar upon the life and character of their late associate. We will publish the resolutions in our next issue provided the bar has no objections.

Superior Court.

Judge Armfield on Tuesday passed sentence on Jordan Pritchard, colored, who was convicted on Saturday of murdering Daniel Mosely, colored. He was sentenced to be hanged on Friday March, 7th, 1890, between the hours of 9 a.m., and 4 p. m. Prichard's counsel appealed to the Supreme Court.

BYNUM ARRAIGNS REED.

He Accuses the Majority of Purposely

Blocking Legislation. Last week during the excitement in the House, as soon as partial silence was restored Mr. Bynum, of Indiana, said, after claiming the floor on a question of personal privilege: "I propose to stand here in behalf of the rights of my constituents. I represent on this floor a constituency equal in intelligence, equal in patriotism" A Republican. "They are not here." [Laughter.]

Mr. Bynum. "They are here in my person; and gentlemen may stand here and sustain the arbitrary, the outrageous, the damnable ruling of the Speaker; but so far as I am concerned, so far as the people I represent are concerned, we shall not be silenced or gagged on this floor. You. sir," pointing to the Speaker, "have violated more than any man on this floor parliamentary rules and parliamentary practice. You may consummate what you have un ertaken to do. You have the power, backed by a mob on the floor of this Ho. se." This provoked cheers on the Democratic side and hisses from the Republicans.

The Speaker, "Gentlemen will please -E. T. Puryear sold a load Wednesday refrain from the expression of their

Mr. Bynum. "They may as well refrain. The people of this country are witnessing with Bullock & Mitchell for 281/2, 39, 48 these proceedings. They have spoken through the press of the country and they have spoken in condemnation of these proceedings, which will bury you, sir, beyond the hope of resurrection. Men have tried to consummate such proceedings be--R. T. Brinkley sold a load with Bulfore. At the hour of midnight a Federal Judge made a ruling which perpetuated the Republican party in power, but his name is now forgotten. More than that, this proceeding is in keeping with the practices of your party; it is in keeping with your action when you stole the Presidency; it is in keeping with the proceedings of the Republican party in the State of Montana. Proceed in this matter, sir; proceed in this matter."

The Speaker (sarcastically). "The gentleman has arisen to a statement of a question of personal privilege, and he is now stating it."

I want now to enter my pro test. I dispute the right of the Speaker to record in the journal of the proceedings of the House any direction or order that I or any other member may not make. "It is the journal of the proceedings of the House, by the Constitution, and not the journal of the proceedings of the Speaker of the Houes. You have no more right to inject anything into the journal than any individual on the floor has. You have gone forward. You have usurped power. You have mutilated the records of the House in order to carry out the scheme you have deliberately gone to work to carry out. Deliberately, I say, because you went forward day and night to vamp up some feeble show to sustain your views. "No tyrant ever ascended a throne who did not attempt to make some feeble show of title to amuse the people when he had agained possession of the kingdom. You, sir, have attempted to vamp up some feeble show to sustain your outrageous rulings, to amuse the galleries and to amuse the people, while you consummated and carried out the behest of the chairman of the Republican national committee to turn out the representatives of the people elected to seats on the floor, and put in men who were not only not elected, but who did not command the respect of the constituents they seek here to represent. Now proceed in this matter, but in the language of the immortal Emmett, we propose to dispute every inch of ground, burn every blade of grass, and the last entrenchment of liberty shall be our grave." The Democratic side burst into cheers, which were answered by derisive laughter from the Republicans.
