COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

The Granville County Democratic Convention is called to meet in Oxford Friday, August 8th, 1890, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and for the various county offices, and such other business as may come before the Convention.

On Saturday, August 2d, 1890, Primaries will be held in each township, and I request that each Chairman of Township Executive Committee call a meeting of the Democratic voters of his township at the usual places and convenient hour of the day to select delegates to the County Convention. E. T. WHITE, Chairman Executive Committee.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The President authorizes the statement that he did not write the letter to the Grangers about the tariff.

New York will certainly have to take in Brooklyn to keep its chest measure while Channcey Depew is away in Europe.

Did the Radicals who voted to pass the Force bill ever hear of the Australian boomerang that hits the fellow who throws it.

The Republican Senators are understood to have intimated to Speaker Reed that it will not be necessary for him to shoot. They will come down.

Frye Having got his subsidy bills through the Senate with a good prospect that they will pass the House, more fat will have to be fried out of the tax-payers to pay the subsidies.

Let it be said to Brower's shame that he voted against the amendment to the election bill which provided that the law should apply to all States equally. This amendment would have killed the bill, because the Republicans South haters did not want it in their own country. Let it be to Brower's everlasting dishonor that he voted to pass the election law, which will put Northern bayonets at the ballot box in North Carolina. The people will rebuke such treachery.—Western Sentinel.

A MODIFICATION.

The Progressive Farmer greatly modifies the attack made on Senator Vance last week.

Quoting from editorial of last week Progressive Farmer says: "This makes us say that Senator Vance is an enemy to our people. That was another slip of the pen. We meant to say, and repeat it now, that Senator Vance has placed himself in the attitude of an enemy so far as the Sub-Treasury bill is concerned and we are going to stick to it until convinced to the contrary by Senator Vance or somebody else. But he would be a great fool who would say that Vance has always been an enemy of the people, or that his position on most other questions had been antagonistic to the interests of the people of this State. The editorial also goes on to state that Colonel Polk, editor of the paper, was not the author of the attack, but that the writer of it was the assistant editor, a man named Ramsey. It also declares that Polk is friendly to Vance, and was in no way responsible for the editorial.

BROWER IN A BAD FIX.

Last week the Republicans, we learn from the Greensboro Patriot, tried to hold a convention at Dobson in Surry county, Brower's county. On counting noses it was found that the anti-Brower men were in a majority, and the convention was postponed. On the following Monday, the Brower men thought they were on top and concluded they would have the convention. An anti-Brower man raised a racket, when the chairman floored him with a chair and the convention forthwith adjourned sine die.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY ABOUT WILLIAMS.

Capt. Williams, of Granville county, otherwise known as "Baldy," is going to represent this district in the next Congress, without the shadow of a doubt.

He is patriotic and public spirited, and when he goes to Congress, as he will do next fall, he will look after the interest of North Carolina and the Fifth district with watchful fidelity. He is not the man to sit quietly, as John Brower has done, and allow an infernal law directed against his people, to pass the House. He can be relied on to serve his people not only faithfully, but with splendid ability.

As a public speaker he is concise, clear-cut, forcible. His information is extensive and accurate and he handles arguments in a masterly manner. He will be a power on the stump.

He redeemed Granville from the radicals six years ago when he was elected to the Legislature and he will carry Granville for the Democracy this year by a rousing majority.

He is an active Farmers' Alliance man and the farmers of this district will rally to him with an enthusiasm that has not been known since Vance stumped these counties in 1876.

He will be elected by not less than 2,000 majority.—Western Sentinel.

Mr. A. H. A. Williams, of Oxford, is the Democratic nominee for Congress in that District. He seems to have easily got in. Oxford is in "luck." The candidate for Judge and the new President for Greensboro Female College, and the candidate for Congress are all from that progressive and fortunate town of some 3,000 or 4,000 inhabitants. Mr. Williams is a native of Nash county, and is a brother of the late Capt. Samuel A. Williams, who was once a candidate for Congress in the Raleigh District and Presidential Elector. Mr. A. H. A. Williams is a very energetic, pushing man of affairs, and is active as a politician. He will make a live and earnest campaign, and will probably beat Brower or whoever opposes him. He is a man of practical talents, intense earnestness, and will make a useful member of the House. He served a short time in the Legislature. We wish him a great victory and expect him to obtain it.

SENATOR VANCE.

It seems that while the letter of this gentleman to Mr. Elias Carr, President of the Farmers' Alliance at first created an impression that the members of the Alliance would take grounds against Vance, the sequel goes to prove that such is not the fact, and the sober second thought shows that the Senator is being endorsed by members of the Alliance in public meetings as will be seen by the following extracts: The Halifax county Democratic Convention composed of 99 delegates 77 of whom were members of the Alliance passed two sets of resolutions Monday endorsing Senator Vance and his course. The Warren county Convention composed largely of members of the Alliance passed the following: That the Democratic party of Warren county most emphatically endorse his course in the United States Senate, and recommend him to the next Legislature as above all men the most suitable person to succeed himself." Richmond, Anson, Robeson and Craven Conventions composed mostly of farmers in and out of the Alliance endorse Vance's course in Congress. In the Richmond county convention a member of the Alliance introduced a resolution strongly endorsing Zeb Vance's course which was warmly supported and adopted by a rising vote. The Monroe Register, the organ of the Farmers' Alliance in Union county says: Occasionally one hears rumors of a movement to defeat the re-election of Zeb Vance to the Senate, but it is a hard matter to find any Democrat who will admit that he opposes Vance. No man should be elected to the Legislature who will not support Vance.

The Maxton Union pays the following glowing tribute: Senator Vance is the biggest, brainiest, broad gauged statesman in the South, and his manly and characteristic letter to Mr. Carr adds twelve more stars to his honored brow. "I think," said a leading Alliance man to the editor of the State Chronicle, "that if every measure advocated by Senator Vance since he has been in the Senate had been adopted, there would now be no need for the passage of the Sub-Treasury bill."

THE SUB-TREASURY.

Perhaps the Democratic members of Congress who have denounced the sub-treasury plan will discredit the Democrats of Wayne county, North Carolina, who declare in their platform: "7. That we favor the abolition of the national banking system, and the substitution of a better system that will take the control of the money of the country out of the hands of the few, a system that will give us an elastic and flexible currency, one that will contract and expand exactly with the annual products of the country, thereby furnishing a just and fixed measure of their value, and that the sub-treasury bill lately introduced in both Houses of Congress comes more nearly effecting this than any other measure yet offered, and that we approve of and endorse said bill."
