

THE PUBLIC LEDGER... ISSUED WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS...

GRANVILLE COUNTY ALLIANCE... For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court...

DEMOCRATIC TICKET... For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court...

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC TICKET... For State Senate, G. L. ALLEN...

EDITORIAL NOTES... The plutocrats are on top. The poor people indeed among the Philistines.

County politics becomes livelier day by day. The Alliance question does not enter so much into calculations as one might think.

Democrats of Granville bury all difference and let us come together with a united front against the mongrel crowd that will not hesitate to take our liberties away from us if they should get into power.

A new and rich mine of mercury has been discovered in Austria. At present this article is very expensive, but we can predict with entire confidence that in a few months it will be much lower than it is now.

There has never been a time when the hopes for Democratic success were brighter than they are to-day. The harvest truly is ripe and all that is required is for the sickle to be applied by the husbandry of Democracy and the victory is ours.

Senator Vance told the people in his speech at Raleigh, that 150,000 men owned four-fifths of the wealth of the country with its 65,000,000 people! That is as bad as the situation of affairs in Ireland, about which there is always so much sympathy.

The Collector has at last been appointed and William Wallace Rollins is the fortunate man. Ex Collector Eaves, Mr. Price said, was incapable of performing the duties of the office, but it is well known in North Carolina that he is one of the two great (?) leaders of the Republican party.

It is the duty of every Democrat in the county to rally around the Democratic banner and enlist in the fight against the black element that have no interest in the cause of good government. If you want to see negro county commissioners, negro clerks, negro solicitors, negro judges, negro congressmen why stay away from the polls and you will have to suffer the consequences.

Many of North Carolina's old soldiers are in a needy and suffering condition. It is true, steps are being taken to provide a Soldier's Home; which is a noble work and should appeal to the gratitude, sympathy and pockets of every one who can forward the movement. It is also true that the State pays a small pension to the old veterans, but this is a very small amount.

Now TO THE POINT. If you are in need of a Wagon Platform, Drag or even a Buggy, you cannot do better than call on me. And if you want any kind of repairing, dog-dog, whether wood work, blacksmithing, painting or trimming, I am confident that it will be dedicatedly to your interest to come to see me.

Use material unsurpassed by any one in this place, if not superior. Any work entrusted to me will receive prompt attention. Satisfaction guaranteed both as to work and price.

Work for your town! Whether rich or poor, work. When the world knows that the people of a town are working it will come to the rescue and give a mighty lift for the up-building and development of that section.

The Republicans in this county are represented as being actively engaged in seeing that the negroes are registered; sending around colored men for that purpose.

If we cannot win in this campaign then we can never hope to win at any time in the future. Let there be a clean sweep from Congressmen down to Constable.

In three or four of the Southern States the Farmers' Alliance has revised its dreams, says the New York Times. It has become an irresistible power; it has borne down all opposition; it has become the Democratic party itself.

We like to hear Brother Webster talk good Democratic doctrine as is set forth in the following pertinent paragraph concerning our able nominee for Congress in this District: "While Mr. Williams, the Democratic nominee, was not our personal preference before the convention, we want to see him elected and shall do all in our power to secure his election."

Our farmers are gathering corn and sowing wheat. Mrs. E. L. Harris is in Baltimore, visiting her parents. Dr. S. H. Connelly has rented out his fine farm on Farmington.

Mr. E. G. Morris who lost his grainery and stables by fire last spring, commenced to rebuild. Brer. Brower failed to meet Capt. Baily at Wilton on Monday.

We are gratified to be able to improve the paper: first, because it gives us increased patronage, and secondly, because we desire to give value received and to furnish our patrons with a paper in keeping with the advanced position and progress of our county and town.

We desire to thank our friends for the liberal patronage and ask for our enlarged paper a continuance of their confidence and good will. We shall do everything we can for the cause of good government and for the upbuilding of our town and county.

The Semi-Weekly PUBLIC LEDGER in its increased size is the cheapest paper in North Carolina at the low price of $2 per year, 6 months $1 and 3 months 50 cents.

We put the price of subscription down to the lowest possible figure for the character of paper we furnish the public.

OXFORD, N. C., August 27.—I take pleasure in declaring myself a candidate and doing so I most earnestly solicit the support of every one whether white or black rich or poor, young or old; whether Democrat or Republican, Prohibitionist, or Independent; whether in favor of waterworks or what not.

I assure you that if I am honored with your vote, I will work for the interest of every such one. In other words, I will prove to you that I am the right man in the right place.

Thankful for past favors and soliciting a continuance, I am yours ready to serve, B. F. TAYLOR. P. S.—My shop is next to the new Alliance Warehouse, in the rear of Messrs. Owen, Barbour & Smith's and J. F. Edwards' hardware stores.

GRANVILLE COUNTY.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE AND ITS INTEREST PROTECTED.

What is Going on in Different Sections as Gathered by the Public Ledger Reporters—Views of Correspondents, &c.

STOVALL NOTES. Mrs. I. H. Davis is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Seay of Blackstone, Va.

Mr. Lewis B. Gregory, of Henderson, is on a visit to his father, Mr. A. H. Gregory.

Miss Lallah Jackson, of Mocklenburg county, Va., is a guest of Mrs. Col. W. L. Taylor.

Miss Mary and Ida Seay, of Lunenburg county, Va., are guests of Miss Bessie Gregory.

Mrs. W. K. Jenkins has been called by telegram to the sick bed of her daughter Mrs. Dyer in Halifax county, Va.

Mr. M. A. Gregory has been invited to deliver an address on "Stock Raising in North Carolina," at the next State Fair.

Miss Nannie Wilson left a few days since, for Dallas Texas, to make a visit to her brother, Dr. Wm. R. Wilson, of that city.

The PUBLIC LEDGER is read with much interest by our community, and its semi-weekly visits are looked forward to with much pleasure.

Master Willie Carrington, son of Mr. T. R. Carrington, who met with the misfortune to break his leg by falling from a wagon a few weeks since, is improving rapidly.

The fishing season for the fall term is about commencing now, when tackle can be used very successfully in the adjacent stream of Grassy Creek, catching forty pounds of fish in two and a half hours, with hook and line.

Mr. Uriah Cutts, one of our most industrious and prosperous farmers, lost a barn of tobacco by fire, a week or two ago on Friday, and by the following Tuesday evening he had another barn finished in the place of the old one, and filled with tobacco ready for curing.

We heard a few days ago of a drove of foxes attacking a man and his horse near the line of Person and Granville counties, and might have seriously or possibly fatally injured both, but for the timely assistance of a neighbor who happened to be passing in that direction.

Mr. Frank Wilson, a worthy man and thrifty farmer of this neighborhood, was much annoyed by the deprivations of a mink upon his poultry, and concluded that he would no longer be subjected to such an annoyance, if the mink could possibly be apprehended. So by the aid of his dog he ran him to his den nearby and finding it very difficult to catch him in his castle, he thrust his arm full length in the hole of the den, caught the mink by the head and choked him to death. This was indeed a dangerous venture.

WILTON ITEMS. Our farmers are gathering corn and sowing wheat. Mrs. E. L. Harris is in Baltimore, visiting her parents.

Dr. S. H. Connelly has rented out his fine farm on Farmington, and also on Oxford his home.

Mr. E. G. Morris who lost his grainery and stables by fire last spring, commenced to rebuild. Brer. Brower failed to meet Capt. Baily at Wilton on Monday.

We are gratified to be able to improve the paper: first, because it gives us increased patronage, and secondly, because we desire to give value received and to furnish our patrons with a paper in keeping with the advanced position and progress of our county and town.

We desire to thank our friends for the liberal patronage and ask for our enlarged paper a continuance of their confidence and good will. We shall do everything we can for the cause of good government and for the upbuilding of our town and county.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

The new store, being built by S. C. Vann, Esq., on his lots in the "burned district" will soon be completed and ready for occupancy.

Our townsman, Mr. C. D. Britt, was tendered the nomination for the Legislature by the R-publican Convention of Franklin but he declined. He preferred to continue to serve the public acceptably in the post office here.

People in this vicinity were never busier than at present. The unusually large crop of cotton is requiring the employment of every available hand to save it. Large crops of fine tobacco have just been cured, and the prospects for money in Franklin is greatly improved.

The fall session of the Male School here opened Sep. 22nd, Prof. C. N. Fimmel, of Morgantown, W. Va., is principal. The trustees and the public are to be congratulated upon securing his services. We are determined to have a first-class school here. The female school is doing unusually fine work under the supervision of that excellent teacher Mrs. L. V. Morris.

On last Thursday September 25th, Mr. A. J. Morton, led to the hymenial altar Miss Lucy L., daughter of J. W. House, Esq. The attendants were J. H. McGhee and Miss Belle House, T. J. Wright and Miss Hallie Jeffreys, A. M. House and Miss Tom Cottel, J. T. Jeffreys and Miss Sue Wright, W. D. Kerney and Miss Mollie Hill, J. W. Strother and Miss Laura Sandling, J. T. Jeffreys and Miss Dora Sandling, E. H. Evans and Miss Manda Cape. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Wellons. The many friends of the bride and groom wish for them long life and much happiness.

Scrofula All His Life. I consider my cure by S. S. S. one of the most wonderful on record. I had the worst type of Scrofula from my infancy until I was 23 years of age. My whole young life was embittered and made miserable by the loathsome disease. I not only suffered from the Scrofula, but was so marked that I was ashamed to associate with, and was avoided by my playmates and fellow workmen. I tried every known patent medicine, and was first and last attended by more than a dozen reputable physicians, but in spite of all, the disease continued to grow worse.

Mr. Frank Wilson, a worthy man and thrifty farmer of this neighborhood, was much annoyed by the deprivations of a mink upon his poultry, and concluded that he would no longer be subjected to such an annoyance, if the mink could possibly be apprehended.
