The first panie that has happened in this State.

The ruling passion is strong in death. A Georgia man who was supposed to be dead was asked by his son if he would have a drink. He nodded his head, took a big swig and is now all right again.

Congressman John E. Russell, of Massachusetts, is accompanied in al his campaigning by his wife. When he speaks she occupies a seat on the platform and is considered fully as shrewd a politician as her husband.

Wake up Democrats. There is but one way for the Republicans to sucasleep. To lose victory by supineness is not only a public disaster but it is also a personal disgrace.

Maj. Charles W. McClammy has announced his intention to run for the position of Clerk of the House, in case the next House is Democratic, a contingency on which the Democratic prophets are counting with considerable and with well founded Kinley monstrocity, it is but an in confidence.

General Belknap, died, it is ascertained, of fatty degeneration of the heart. He was a law partner of Col. John W. Cameron, formerly of Wilmington, and well known in North Carolina, of which State he was a native. His wife was also a Wil mingtonian.

W. J. Rogers, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the second district of the State, has tendered his resignation on account of ill-health; no other candidate will be placed in the field, as the district is largely Republican, and time does not permit a canvass.

The census bureau reports the ollowing populations: New Bern, Do you want the Republicans to N. Probably the largest number of ballots ever required to make a congressman was the voting in the re cent Democratic convention at Mem phis, Tenn., which lasted three days. Josiah Patterson, an able lawyer, was nominated on the 5,051 ballot. Patterson was a dark horse. He was a candidate for governor, but the Alliance vote knocked him out.
