TOWN AND COUNTY.

THE PASSING LOCAL EVENTS OF THE DAY.

What is Transpiring Around and About Us, in Town and County.—The Movements and Doings of People You Know, Etc.

—W. P. Lyon, of Wilton, honored us with a visit on Tuesday.

—Let Oxford go to work to secure the Training School for girls.

—A good quality of asbestos has been found in Granville county.

—Our esteemed friend, Mr. R. W. Harris, of Henderson, called to see us on Tuesday.

—Mr. W. D. Jenkins is now at Ferrell, Nash County, where he will engage in the cultivation of tobacco.

—In our issue gotten out on Tuesday a mistake in the date occurred. It should have been 1891 instead of 1890.

—During this month we have added 76 subscribers to our list. Business men would do well to make a note of this.

—Mr. A. S. Peace has greatly improved his residence on Raleigh Street. He has had it repainted and a new roof put on it.

—The Legislature of West Virginia, New Jersey, Nebraska and Illinois have passed resolutions condemning the Force Bill.

—We are glad to chronicle the fact that Mrs. S. L. Howard, of Berea, who has been quite sick for sometime, is rapidly improving.

—Tuesday was a red letter day for the PUBLIC LEDGER. We booked 23 subscribers and the cry is still they come. Many thanks friends.

—Mr. Alex. Wilkerson, of Averett, Va., and Mr. G. W. Pittard, of Adoniram, called on us Wednesday and subscribed to the PUBLIC LEDGER.

—Senator Allen has introduced a bill to appropriate $1,000 to the Colored Orphan Asylum located near Oxford.

—Our young friends Messrs. Hays & Wilson of Brassfield, had some of their good tobacco at the Meadows' on Tuesday and sold for 24½, 24½, 45, 31, 18¼ and 10¼.

—Col. W. F. Beasley, who is well known all over North Carolina as a staunch friend of the Orphan Asylum and Soldiers' Home, paid us a visit on Wednesday.

—Takes "the cake." Mr. J. B. Parham sold at the Alliance warehouse tobacco of 3,000 hills which weighed 891 pounds. Hurrah for Parham and Granville county!

—Mr. W. Raker, of Raker city, called to see us on Wednesday. The mining interest is on a boom in Northern Granville. Mr. Raker leaves in a few days for Pennsylvania in the interest of the mines.

—Rev. Woodson Walker, the most able rector of St. Stephens church, treated his large congregation on Sunday with a most able sermon on "Individualism." It was full of wisdom and was listened to with marked attention.

—The Power of magnetic girls has long been understood. Lifting six men on the palm of the hand is, of course evidence of great power, but how many girls have raised men into the seventh heaven of happiness with a glance of the eye alone.

—The amiable and pleasant W. J. Badgett paid us a visit on Monday. He is so well pleased with the PUBLIC LEDGER that he subscribed for another copy and sent it to another county. That is the way to do farmers, stand square up to your county paper.

—Judge W. A. Peffer, editor of the Kansas Farmer, has been elected United States Senator to succeed the dirty Ingalls. Hurrah for the Farmers' Alliance and may it grow and expand until this whole country will be one grand organization working in the interest of the whole people.

—The body of a colored man was found in the woods near Trinity church, just over the line in Person county on Saturday. It proved to be a negro who did not have good sense and it is believed froze to death, as the coroner's jury failed to find traces of any violence upon the body.

—Some of the smaller young ladies gave a candy stew on Friday night last to the boys at the residence of Mr. W. A. Davis. It was a most pleasant occasion. As Col. Overby with his band was on hand and dancing was indulged in until 11 o'clock, when they all bid good night to Mr. and Mrs. Davis with many expressions of thanks for their hospitality.

—The new county of Badger as proposed by the bill introduced by Senator Freeman yesterday is designed to be composed of parts of Wake, Harnett, Franklin and Granville. We trust our Representatives will fight this proposition to take more of our territory to the bitter end, as we are opposed to any such a scheme.

AROUND GRANVILLE.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE AND ITS INTEREST PROTECTED.

What is Going on in Different Sections as Gathered by the Public Ledger Reporters.—Views of Correspondents, &c.

WILTON WHISPERINGS.
Our community was sadly shocked at the death of Mr. D. L. Moss, one of our most prosperous young farmers. This sad death occurred the 29th of Jan. of typhoid pneumonia. Mr. Moss was a young man of untiring energy, a good, progressive farmer and a kind, obliging neighbor. He leaves a young wife and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Death loves a shining mark.

Again has the grim monster visited the same family and claimed the father of the household, Mr. Jas. Moss, on the morning of 26th at 2 o'clock, passed this noble man over the river. He was a man of sterling worth, always strict in business and never was known to speak harshly of any one; a man of few words, a kind, indulgent father, a good neighbor and one of our most worthy citizens. Mr. Moss leaves a widow and several small children to mourn their sad loss. He was subject to heart disease, and this and the sad loss of his son caused his death. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved ones. W. P. L.

THE ROAD LAW.
As the Legislature is revising many of our laws we hope it will consider the Granville County Road Law which has been a source of confusion and dissatisfaction for the last two years. It has been a puzzle even to the courts and lawyers. Our roads have had less work done on them than ever before. With the eighteen year old boys exempt we are minus about half of our hands; at least it is true of this section and some of our road sections have less than a half dozen hands on them. It may be wrong for a minor to work on the roads, but they do more traveling, especially at night, than any other class of people.

We hope this matter may receive some attention. It is not always wisest to legislate too many new laws but sometimes legislate out some of the old ones that have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. Our present system may work very well around town but in the country it is a signal failure and is enough to make every intelligent man curse, either expressed or understood.

If you cannot give us a better system we would much prefer the old law with less taxes and better roads which is nearer in keeping with the present hard times. WALNUT GROVE.

BULLOCK ITEMS.
Miss Mary Carrington is on a visit on a few days to Mrs. Wm. Gregory of Stallville.

Mr. John Royster, of Buchanan, took the train here this week to attend court in the train.

Miss Janie Morton left this week for Stems to visit her aunt Mrs. Edward Boothe, of that place.

Mr. Thomas Nelson was in our town this week on his way to Oxford on a visit to a tooth carpenter.

Rev. Carr Moore, of Townesville, filled the Presbyterian pulpit at Stallville on Sunday. It is indeed a treat to hear one of his excellent sermons.

Mr. Robert Hester, Jr., has been on a visit to his father who has been quite sick. We are always glad to welcome back to our neighborhood the young men who have been raised in our midst.

Mr. Harry Davis who has been engaged in railroad contracts in Georgia, has been on a visit to his family in this community for some weeks past. He only returned to his work last week much to the regret of his many friends.

The gentlemen from New Jersey who have been hunting at Mr. Thos. Carrington's place were so much pleased with North Carolina that they decided to go further South and see more of our State so they left on Monday's train for Salisbury, N. C. En route to Salisbury they stopped in Oxford for a few hours and they expressed themselves highly pleased with your city. TRUMP.

SALEM TOWNSHIP.
We of the South end of this proposed township make no objection to this move, provided the Legislature allows us to connect ourselves with Oxford both as a voting precinct and a school district.

The large number of private schools in Granville county indicates a lack of harmony between the public and private schools, and since the parties running the private schools pay a large per cent. of the taxes for public schools, we hope the Legislature will not impose further burdens upon them by increasing the taxes.

We believe that if the board of education were abolished and two white men selected from different sections of each school district (so that in case of disagreement the money might be divided and

Gov. D. G. Fowle pardoned Messrs. Cross and White, the President and Cashier of the wrecked State National Bank. He did it on the recommendation of a large number of the best people of the State, including the judge, jurors and solicitor, and a large majority of the General Assembly now in session; also upon the recommendation of Senators Ransom and Vance.

The Greensboro Female College is in a more prosperous condition than it has enjoyed since the war. There are about one hundred and twenty boarding scholars and quite a number of day scholars.

Dr. Dixon, the new President, is immensely popular with the young ladies, who declare he is "just too sweet for anything."

A Norfolk dispatch says: The damage to Elizabeth City by the passage of the act of the North Carolina Legislature preventing residents, as well as non-residents from dredging is immense, closing several large opening factories and throwing out of employment twelve or fifteen hundred men, women and child.

GRANVILLE SUPERIOR COURT.

His Honor Judge Boykins Presiding.—The Grand Jury, etc.

The Superior Court convened on Monday, His Honor Judge Boykins presiding. It is a matter of great pride with North Carolinians that our Superior Court bench is well adorned with such able, pure and incorruptible gentlemen.

Among our Judges his Honor Judge Boykins occupies an enviable position. His charge to the grand jury was a good one, being clear, intelligent and easy of being comprehended by the jury. His voice is pleasant and his manner of delivery natural and attractive. We will find much work on his hands during our Court.

Capt. E. S. Parker, the new Solicitor, is a most excellent gentleman and an able prosecuting officer. Those who know him best like him most, as he possesses the genuine qualities of nobility of nature. His ability as a lawyer is universally conceded. He is a typical North Carolinian and just such a gentleman and patriot as our State delights to honor.

The grand jury is made up of good material and will be sure to bring offenders to justice if they find proof sufficient. It is composed of the following gentlemen:

A. S. Carrington foreman; Charles Mayes, A. C. Parham, Wm. Goss, J. A. Jones, W. L. Hunt, R. W. Hobgood, J. E. Howell, S. M. Daniel, C. N. Lawrence, J. G. Hall, J. P. Atkins, Jno. W. Lawrence, B. I. Breedlove, L. Y. Jeffreys, A. P. Harris, R. S. Wilson, J. P. Stallville.

The Sheriff, assisted by Mr. J. A. Taylor, with Mr. Leroy Elliott as crier of Court, is running his department with great ease and efficiency. Capt. W. O. Bobbitt of Fishing Creek, has charge of the grand jury room, and is an old wheel horse in that capacity. The following cases have been disposed of:

W. Z. Sharp, white, who raised a check given him by Hundley Bros. & Co., plead guilty to the charge of forgery and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Andrew Fuller, for stealing some number, was convicted, and will wear striped clothes for one year.

Tony Clay acknowledged the theft of a pocket handkerchief, and got one year in the pen.

State vs. Street Henderson, assault; not pros.

State vs. Ed Lewiston, assault; not pros.

State vs. E. G. Glenn and Walter Faulkner, for burning sedge; verdict not guilty.

State vs. Antony Marrow, Jr., disturbing worship; not pros.

State vs. John Malone, retelling libelous without license; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Mary Kinton, the young white woman charged with infanticide, was released from custody yesterday afternoon. She had been in jail for three or four weeks. The grand jury did not find a true bill.

State vs. John Clayton, larceny; not pros.

State vs. John and Lydia Allen, larceny; verdict—John Allen not guilty, Lydia Allen guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Richard and Agnes Roberts, larceny; not pros as to Roberts; verdict of guilty against Agnes Roberts; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Alfred Richardson, abduction; not pros.

State vs. Wm. E. Garner, forgery; verdict of guilty; sentenced to the penitentiary for three years.

State vs. Lum Peace, assault with deadly weapon; verdict of guilty; sentenced to the county jail for twelve months.

State vs. Andrew Fuller; larceny; verdict of guilty; sentenced to one year's confinement in the penitentiary.
