LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE PASSING LOCAL EVENTS OF THE DAY.

What is Transpiring Around and About Us, in Town and County--The Movements and Doings of People You Know, Etc.

—Buck Stem, the small man of the Meadows Warehouse is now confined to his home with the gripp.

—Lent commenced on Wednesday and services were held in the Episcopal Church morning and night.

—Rev. Walter Patillo was a delegate to the St. Louis Convention and was on one of the important committees.

—We call the attention of our readers to the several legal notices in this issue. Several lots of land are offered for sale.

—Miss Mary Currin will celebrate her 15th birthday to-night, with a party tendered by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Currin.

—Be sure and not forget the Sacred Concert this Friday night at the Presbyterian Church. A splendid program will be rendered.

—Dick Jeffreys, the negro who escaped from jail and was recaptured, is at large again, having given the guard at the work house the slip.

—If you need spectacles or eye-glasses go straight to John Hall's drug store, as it is headquarters for these goods. Read his advertisement.

—Another big break Wednesday, and all our six warehouse pleased their patrons with prices. Oxford is a regular hummer, on high averages on all grades.

—Mr. J. C. Hundley begins to feel the weight of years. His household has been recently blessed with another young man who is now no doubt making himself heard.

—“Red Fox,” (J. A. Crews) is on a chase around the county after the silver dollars. He says the taxes must be paid and is giving our people every opportunity to do so.

—The PUBLIC LEDGER is now rapidly increasing in circulation, and we tell our warehousemen and business men that it is a first-class medium to reach the farmers of the county.

—We learn that the bridge across Big Island creek, near H. T. Gill, Esq., is badly out of repair and is said to be unsafe. Where are the supervisors, that they do not look after it?

—Mr. Eugene Crews, who is the peer of any auctioneer in the State, sold 400 piles of tobacco on Tuesday in one hour and fifteen minutes. There is no discount on the Banner as being the place to sell tobacco.

—Mr. James W. White has a very important announcement to the gentlemen in another part of this paper. Read what he says and act promptly if you wish a first-class suit of clothes or pants made up in splendid style.

—Fed Satterwhite, colored, was up before Mayor Hicks on Tuesday charged with stealing $20.00 from Mr. W. E. Stanly, a farmer, who sold tobacco on our market. He was bound over to court in a bond of $100.

—The ladies are pleased to announce that they will have the assistance of several accomplished musicians from a distance as well as some of the best home talent, at their Sacred Concert, Friday night. Admission 25 cents. Concert will begin at 8 o'clock. Refreshments in Lecture Room.

—Read Job Osborn's advertisement—Nineteen subscribers since our list since our last issue. The PUBLIC is a hummer now.

—The congregation at Salem Church have purchased a new organ from Mr. W. Frank Blount, general agent of North State Music Co. It has been placed in the church, and Miss Mamie Parham has been chosen organist with Miss M. Hunt assistant.

—Ex-Governor Holden died in Raleigh on Tuesday at the ripe old age of 74. His life is well known to the people of North Carolina, and ranked among the brainiest men of the State. He was a great friend to the laboring men, especially the printers. May he rest in peace.

—Mr. D. G. Deverish, the energetic secretary of the Modern Tobacco Barn Co., and his book-keeper, Mr. Carpenter are now nicely fixed up in their down town office in Herndon Block No. 4. Mr. Deverish has just returned from a three weeks visit to Georgia looking after the interest of the company in that State.

—Our esteemed friend, Mr. J. N. Fuller, of Berea called to see us Tuesday. He is high up for the extension of the Oxford & Coast Line to connect with the Lynchburg & Durham, via. Berea, and says his people will contribute their share towards it as the road will run through 8 miles of Walnut Grove township.

—The members of the Baptist congregation are determined to have a new church edifice and have obtained an option on the vacant lot adjoining the Masonic Lodge. This is a splendid location and a $10,000 church on it would add a great deal to this part of our beautiful town. It is now in order for our Methodist friends to move for a new church building as they need one badly.

—We regret to learn that Oxford will lose one of its highly esteemed and popular citizens in the person of Capt. J. A. White, agent of the R. & D. R. R. He goes to Durham and takes charge of the company's business at that point. We congratulate Capt. White upon his promotion and wish him every success possible as he is in every way worthy of the confidence imposed in him by the railroad authorities.

—A Landis & Sons are now receiving new spring goods and are naturally offering splendid bargains in every branch of their immense store. We feel if you really wish to save money why A. Landis & Sons is the place to do it, so we urge every one to take advantage of the rare bargains now offered by this most reliable firm. Read the change in their advertisement as prices are announced that will suit your pocket book.

PERSONAL SAYINGS.

OF PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF THE TOWN.

Brief Mention of the Movements of You Friends and Acquaintances who Visited You and Whom You are Visiting.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parham, of Watkins visited Oxford Tuesday.

—Capt. John A. Williams spent several days in New York this week.

—Mr. Carrie Kronheimer has gone to Baltimore and will remain a month.

—Capt. A. S. Peace who was very sick last week, we are glad to see out again.

—Mr. J. T. Strayhorn was in Raleigh several days this week on legal business.

—Mr. R. W. Clay, the big hearted merchant of Clay visited Oxford Tuesday.

—Capt. A. W. Graham and Col. W. A. Bobbitt were in Raleigh Wednesday.

—Rev. and Mrs. R. I. Devin had as their guest last week Mr. F. T. Baldwin, of Winston.

—The great steamship king, W. P. Clyde, spent last week in Northern Granville bird hunting.

—Mr. W. P. Lyon, a staunch and true friend of the PUBLIC LEDGER, honored us with his presence on Tuesday.

—We are pleased to see at his place of business again Mr. W. W. Jones, after some days sickness from the gripp.

—Mr. W. Frank Blount, the gentlemanly agent of the North State Music Co., is spending a few days in Greensboro.

—Mr. J. L. Thomas, a veteran farmer of Person, accompanied by his two bright boys, were in town Wednesday and visited this office.

—The hospitable residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reed, on Friday night was the scene of a most enjoyable tea party tendered by them to a number of their friends.

—Oak Hill was well represented in our sanetum on Tuesday, Messrs. J. W. Adeock, R. W. Wilkerson, W. B. Adeock, R. W. Adeock and W. W. Hart, called to pay their respects.

—Mr. Leroy Elliott, accompanied by two of his sons, L. and R. B. Elliott, two prosperous young farmers and chips of the old block, were in Oxford Wednesday and called to see us.

—The President of the Oxford & Coast Line Railroad, Col. W. F. Beasley, the great American yarn dispenser, arrived in Oxford on Wednesday and of course, took possession of our easy chair for a while. He is an old, true and tried friend and always receives a warm welcome.

—Mr. A. G. Clements, of Stem, accompanied by his daughter, honored the PUBLIC LEDGER with a visit on Tuesday; Uncle Buck Peed, of Hargrove; A. A. Overton, of Clay and Addicus Morris, of Wilton and D. T. Jackson, of Dutchville, also called to see us.

—President A. H. Gregory, of the Granville County Alliance was in Oxford on Tuesday and called to see us. He is an enthusiastic Alliance-man and is down on the oppression of the farmers and laboring people by the monopolists and money classes who have controlled legislation and brought ruin upon a host of the people. He is a strong believer in pure Jeffersonian Democracy, the rock upon which the Alliance stands.

CURES

ALL DISEASES!

Consumption Cured. "I believe it to be one of the best medicines sold. The physician, two years ago, said my wife had consumption, both lungs affected. I have had to send her South for several springs to keep her alive, but since she has been taking Radam's Microbe Killer she has been right at home attending to her business, and is in better health than she has been in 20 years." "R. T. POOLZ, Cedartown, Ga."

Several Diseases Cured. "I cheerfully testify to the curative powers of your medicine. Having been a sufferer from weak lungs, bronchial affection and indigestion, after taking Microbe Killer all of the above symptoms have entirely disappeared." "Yours, etc." "THOS. L. DAVIS, "Janitor Howard Memorial Library, "New Orleans, La."

Asthma and Catarrh Cured. "I have been a sufferer from asthma and catarrh for more than two years past, getting most of my sleep sitting up in bed or reclining in a chair. I have used one Jug of Radam's Microbe Killer, and for the last three weeks have been sleeping naturally, soundly and sweetly as a child. I attributed my relief to the remedy, and heartily recommend it to any one suffering from asthmatic or catarrhal trouble." "Respectfully, "EDWIN R. MOORE, "Cashier in Bank of Adairville, Ga."

Mr. Radam's Microbe Killer Cures all Diseases by Removing the Cause. Send 2-cent stamp for 48-page circular and the Microbe War shows what disease is and what the remedy must be, and do, to cure it. Read it, circulate it and you will bless the discoverer for saving your life. Address RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER, Nashville, Tenn. Or J. G. Hall, Agent, Oxford, N. C.
