LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE PASSING LOCAL EVENTS OF THE DAY.

What is Transpiring Around and About Us, in Town and County--The Movements and Doings of People You Know, Etc.

A "half-pint" is said to be the best bait for suckers. Much dissatisfaction with our present mail arrangements is expressed.

Both the Episcopal and Methodist congregations are taking steps to put up new church buildings.

When a young man gets "stuck on himself" he is not likely to adhere with promising results to anything else.

It is now thought that the O. & C. L. station will be located on New College street in the rear of the Osborn House.

Most of the Oxford dry goods merchants have agreed to close their stores at 7:30 p. m., except Saturday nights, during the summer months.

Dr. Pat Booth now looks exceedingly comfortable in a new buggy as he visits his patients. We are pleased to know that he enjoys a lucrative practice.

Maj. J. A. Bullock, the surveyor, is plating the new cemetery, and lots are now being offered for sale.

The list takers will begin their work on the first of June and the work will continue for twenty days. On the first of July the books will be closed and those not listed will be liable to double tax.

The Center is a winner on high averages. A. J. Dickerson averaged $27.50 on Wednesday and J. H. Stem sold 1,207 pounds and pocketed $179.80.

Papers have been signed for the Barlow Minstrel Company to appear at the Opera House the night of August 30. The "Breezy Time" Co.—one of the best farce-comedy concerns on the road—has a date in November.

Whenever you purchase anything from those who advertise in this paper if you would tell them that you saw their advertisement in these columns it would greatly benefit us, and assure yourself of polite attention.

The Board of Magistrates will meet in joint session on the first Monday in June for the purpose of electing a Board of Commissioners and a Superintendent of Public Schools and to levy taxes for the next year.

A good break of tobacco yesterday and prices were up and great satisfaction expressed by sellers.

Hon. George W. Sanderlin was in Oxford Thursday and delivered an address before the Horner School.

One of the colored wags got the following off on two of our excellent physicians some time ago:

Dr. Sam Booth is always in a hurry, His horse is always lame;

Dr. Pat Booth is never in a hurry, But he gets there all the same.

Mrs. Betsy Emory, widow of John Emory, died in Brassfield on the 22nd of May, in her 94th year. She was doubtless the oldest lady in the county, and is a sister of John Perry, of Dutchville, who has reached the 92nd mile post in life's journey.

An aged darkey called at the Keeley Cure Institute a few days ago. "You are not a drunkard, are you, uncle?" said the doctor, in some surprise scanning the tidy-looking old fellow.

The Board of Magistrates for Granville county will meet on Monday for the transaction of important business. The taxes are to be levied, a Superintendent of Public Instruction and a Board of Commissioners are to be elected.

This latter is a question of great importance. The Board of Commissioners have considerable responsibility on their hands, and duties that require judgment, common sense and business qualifications to perform in an acceptable manner.

Itch on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by J. G. Hall Druggist, Oxford, N. C.

Nice lot of Flowers and other goods just received at Mrs. J. T. Britt's Millinery Store. The ladies are invited to call.

One of the best known, most successful and highly respected farmers of Granville county is Mr. B. T. Winston, of Adoniram.

This is a splendid record, and one that probably cannot be matched in the State. Mr. Winston has prospered by firmly adhering to the cash rule, and the example is one our farmer friends generally might follow with profit to themselves.

PERSONAL SAYINGS.

OF PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF THE TOWN.

Brief Mention of the Movements of You Friends and Acquaintances who Visited You and Whom You are Visiting.

Mr. A. A. Gordon and two sons, of Berea, called to see us Monday.

Mr. W. T. Adams, of Dutchville, passed a few pleasant moments with us on Saturday.

J. P. Royster, who has been clerking at Creedmoor, has gone to Birmingham, Ala.

Misses Mollie Lanier and Lucy Hobgood are at home from their respective school rooms.

Senator G. L. Allen, of Wilton, and Esquire M. L. Coley, of Greens, were on our streets Wednesday.

Mr. E. Haithecock, of Hickory, was in Oxford on Saturday on his way to Williamsboro, Vance county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Daniel, of Dean, Mrs. W. J. Royster and Miss --, Hobgood were in town Friday.

Messrs. Buck Williams and John Couch, who have been attending Baltimore Medical College, are at home.

Mrs. Sue W. Edmondson, who has been on an extended visit to Goldsboro, has returned and is at Mr. G. K. Hundley's.

Willie Clement, who is now running on the passenger train between Keysville and Raleigh, spent several days at home the past week.

Mr. B. L. Duke, one of the millionaires of Durham, and Col. E. D. Steele, of High Point, were among the visitors to Oxford on Monday.

Mr. C. G. Jeffreys, one of the polite clerks of Mr. J. T. Bullock at Mt. Energy, was in Oxford on business Wednesday and dropped in to see us.

Messrs. Pennybaker and Hendricks, two energetic business men of Virginia, Va., took in the commencement at the Oxford Female Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott, Mrs. A. J. Averett, and Mr. A. A. Overton, of Clay, and T. S. Ragsdale, of Adoniram, were pleasant visitors to this office on Wednesday.

Mr. J. F. Cole, of Satterwhite, placed upon our table on Saturday, a basket of really the finest strawberries we ever saw, for which we return our sincere thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hester and Miss Lillie Bullock, of Hesters, were among the visitors to Oxford Tuesday. We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Hester in our sanctum.

We had the pleasure of a visit on Wednesday from one of our best countymen, Mr. B. D. Howard. He seemed to be in good spirits and looked as though he enjoyed life.

Dr. P. G. Pritchard and son of Centre Grove, Person county, were in Oxford Friday and spent a short time in our sanctum. The doctor informed us that he sheared four sheep last week and the wool weighed 22 pounds.
