

Democracy Offers You All Real Reform!

CONVERTS TO DEMOCRACY.

Enthusiastic Meeting of Cleveland-Carr-Williams Club.

The Cleveland-Carr-Williams Club of Oxford had a glorious meeting in the Opera House Friday night.

Capt. J. A. Williams delivered a rousing speech in his usual eloquent style; O. R. Smith made a hit with a talk that was both sensible and humorous, and J. W. Hays made a few excellent remarks about the Democratic party and the political situation.

Arrangements were made amid much enthusiasm for the grand rally of Democrats of Granville in Oxford next Saturday, November 5. The necessary committees were appointed, with instructions to go immediately to work and use every effort to make the occasion a magnificent success.

The usual call for names of those who desired to join the Club was attended with sensational results.

Applications for membership came from J. K. Wood, who has been prominent in the Republican party of this county for years, and from B. F. Person, a member of the Third party since its organization. They were received into the Club by an unanimous rising vote.

We welcome them in the ranks of genuine reformers!

Will Go to Georgia.

Rev. W. W. Walker, who has been the rector of St. Stephens' church for five years, announced Sunday to his congregation that he had received and accepted a call to a church at Americus, Ga., and would leave for his new field of labor December 1.

This information was received with much sorrow by his flock, and the entire community will greatly regret to part with this able, good and popular gentleman.

A Little Boy's Dream.

Willie Holloway, little son of W. S. Holloway, told his father Sunday morning of a dream he had the night before.

He dreamed, he said, that he was riding in a buggy and drove over a bridge that shook terribly and looked like it would tumble down at any minute and could not possibly stand much longer.

He asked a man who was standing nearby who built that bridge, and the man said:

"Dalby and Peace!"

Declared an Outlaw.

Two Durham justices of the peace have issued a "notice or proclamation" which reads as follows: "Whereas, Proof has been made before us by the oath and affidavit of J. W. Hamilton that Henry Rogers has, in this, Durham county, North Carolina, committed the crime of burglary (a felony); and that the said Henry Rogers flees from justice, conceals himself and evades arrest and the service of the due and usual process of law, he, the said Henry Rogers, is hereby proclaimed and declared an outlaw," etc.

The Globe gives the following description of the man: Henry Rogers is about as black as a negro can be, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, weighs about 130 pounds, has a large mouth with protruding lips, and has a rather coarse voice. He is a desperate character, active and alert.

W. F. Miles, Milesville, N. C., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm and find it to be all that it is recommended to be."

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE PASSING LOCAL EVENTS OF THE DAY.

What is Transpiring Around and About Us, in Town and County--The Movements and Doings of People You Know, Etc.

—The political world is in a whirl.
—Have your printing done at the Ledger office.

—By all means do not forget Coroner Renn on election day.

—Capt. J. B. Hunter is making a success of the Richmond Market Journal.

—Carr, Aycock, Staples, Douglass—the Big 4 at the Democratic Rally next Saturday.

—What's the use of voting for the third of a man when you can vote for a whole one?

—Mr. Settle denies that he said "Mr. Cleveland's election was almost a certainty."

—All of our pastors gave their respective congregations the benefit of good sermons Sunday.

—The drought is having its effects on the wells in this neighborhood. Water is getting a little scarce.

—The little daughter of our townsman, Jno. Webb, calls the Thirddites "the Giddy Band." Pretty good that.

—A little child of Norwood Dunstan, colored, fell into a fire Friday and died that night from the injuries.

—Prof. J. C. Horner had a basket of the finest Irish potatoes we ever saw, exhibiting them down town Saturday afternoon.

—There are several new bicycles in town. These machines are growing in popularity with our people of all ages and pursuits.

—Fleming and Lyon, Thirddites, went to Berea Thursday to speak. It is reported they had only five Thirddites to hear them.

—The Horner School Glee Club, assisted by other talent among the cadets, have in preparation a minstrel performance to be given soon.

—A telegram was received Tuesday by Capt. J. A. Williams announcing the death of Mrs. Henry G. Williams, which occurred yesterday at her home in Wilson, N. C.

—All true men should not forget the legislative ticket. The laws of the State are made by the Legislature and they will be good or bad according to the political complexion and ability of the members.

—Lieut. Shipp has returned to service in the United States Army, and Capt. T. W. Jones, of the Tenth U. S. Cavalry, has been assigned to duty in connection with the North Carolina State Guard. Capt. Jones is a native of Asheville.

—Five days from today millions of ballots will be shoved into boxes—men will exercise their glorious privilege as citizens of a free government—and Democracy will win a good victory which will redound to the good of the whole people!

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church very successfully entertained those who visited the Manse Friday evening, and the affair was a delightful one in every way. The supper was an excellent one and was enjoyed and praised. The money receipts were good.

—We asked Dr. Dalby last week if he was not chief of Gideon's band of Granville county, and he has not answered. Now we ask him in plain language if He Is Not The CHIEF of Gideon's Band for Fifth Congressional District?

—G. Dusenberry succeeds Capt. J. A. White as agent of the Western Union Telegraph Co. and the Southern Express Co. in Oxford. Percy White, who had charge of the office here for his brother, will go to Durham, and Charley Best will attend to the business for Mr. Dusenberry.

—A gentleman from Reidsville says Captain Williams did Settle up completely in the Western part of the district. Certain it is that the North State, Republican organ and Settle's warm friend, is mighty quiet about the joint debates, and doesn't cheer up poor Tommie with even a kind word.

—It is the duty of every true man who is in favor of genuine reform to go to the polls and vote and work until sun down on Tuesday against Republicanism and Gideonism. Will you do it? For the sake of your homes and firesides we beseech you to give one day's unceasing work for their protection.

—The Reidsville Review last week had a column of compliments to Oxford as a tobacco market and a coming city of North Carolina. It also gives an account of the Williams-Settle debate there, and says Capt. Baldy enthused the Democrats and he will receive the solid white vote of Rockingham county.

—Our worthy friend, W. E. Stem, one of the progressive young farmers of Stem, and Miss Mary D. Davis, one of the fair daughters of Tally Ho, were married on Wednesday at the residence of the bride's mother in the presence of a large number of friends, Rev. V. A. Sharp officiating. Our best wishes attend Mr. and Mrs. Stem through life.

—As the election will be over on Tuesday, and everything will settle down, we want to remind you that you cannot do better than to sell your tobacco on the splendidly lighted floor of the Minor Warehouse. It is given up that the old stand-by, Rufe Knott, will make it bring the top of the market if any man can. Try the Minor with a load and you will surely go again.

—A good Democratic lady of Fishing Creek township, a weeks ago, traded J. F. Usry a yearling. When she read the piece in the PUBLIC LEDGER last week about our starving trying to publish a Democratic newspaper in Granville after the election, being a kind-hearted woman said: "If I had thought that yearling was going to hurt Free Usry I would not have traded with him for anything."

—Who would have thought that J. F. Usry would be seen on the streets of Oxford driving a wagon containing eight black Republican voters, and he the only white man in the vehicle? That was one of the sights of the Thirddites procession here yesterday. Oh! but the enemies of the Democracy are getting down to it, ain't they? My countrymen, this is the man who says "that Britt must starve in Granville after the election publishing a Democratic newspaper."

PERSONAL SAYINGS.

OF PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF THE TOWN.

Brief Mention of the Movements of You Friends and Acquaintances who Visited You and Whom You are Visiting.

—Rev. J. M. Horner preached at Henderson Sunday.

—T. W. Winston is quite sick and is confined to his bed.

—Mr. Briar, of New York, is at Stovall to spend some months hunting.

—W. P. Lyon, of Wilton, dropped in to see us Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jeffreys, of Grissons, were in Oxford Friday.

—J. H. Carver, of Roxboro, is connected with the Alliance warehouse of Oxford.

—Miss Bettie Jordan has returned from a visit of some weeks to Chattanooga, Tenn.

—Mrs. Thos. W. Winston, who has been very sick, we are pleased to hear is rapidly improving.

—Percy White has gone to Durham, where he takes a good position in the R. & D. R. office.

—Rev. Carr Moore occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and night.

—M. Oppenheimer has removed his family to the residence on Bell street next to that of Capt. Wm. H. White.

—Mrs. Baldwin and daughter, Miss Nettie, from Winston, are here spending some time with Mrs. R. I. Devin.

—Miss Sadie Jones has returned from a short stay at Richmond, Va., and is again the guest of Mrs. W. J. Boykin.

—W. C. Reed, D. C. Hunt and J. D. Bullock left Tuesday to attend the Rocky Mount Tobacco Exposition.

—We had the pleasure of meeting on our streets Monday, Mr. Charles Burnett, a prosperous business man Hester's.

—Mrs. John Bragg, accompanied by her bright little son and Miss Lucy Ferrabow, one of the attractive young ladies of Stem, was in Oxford Friday.

—J. T. C. Norwood, of Stovall, called to see us on Friday. He informed us that the Thirddites in his section were wearing shuck badges. One of them asked him to put one on, and he replied, "If I cannot be corn I will not be shucks."

—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blackwell were in Oxford Tuesday. Of course, the old gentlemen honored us with a visit. He kindly informed us that when we "run short of something to eat on account of advocating Democratic principles just call on me and I will divide with you."

—Our young friend, J. M. Sears, of Fishing Creek, was happily married on Wednesday, November 2, 1892, to Miss Hattie L. Green, of Tally Ho township, by Dr. R. H. Marsh. We wish Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sears all the blessings and happiness that this world can afford.

—Died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julia Minor, at 3 o'clock Thursday morning, Mrs. Emily H. Allen, in the 77th year of her age. A most estimable lady has gone to her reward. The burial will take place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral will be from Mrs. Minor's residence.

Public Speaking.

A. W. Graham, N. B. Cannady and others will address the people at Creedmoor Friday, November 4, and at Jones' store Monday, November 7. All are invited.
