

State Library

PUBLIC

LEDGER

VOLUME V--NO. 46.

OXFORD, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1892.

$1.50 PER ANNUM.

Removed

Next Door to

W. D. Lynch's

Jewelry Store

Main Street.

The very latest styles! Call and examine! Our Trimming Department is in charge of MISS IDA TRADER, a splendid trimmer from the famous Armstrong, Cator & Co.'s house in Baltimore. Call and leave your orders.

Fall Millinery!

Hats and Feathers.

Trimmings!

Notions

—AND—

Novelties.

Splendid selection in felts, in different shapes and colors. Don't fail to see them.

Our assortment in this line is attractive and of the latest shades and patterns. They should be seen to be appreciated.

A splendid line of Notions, composed of Corsets, Handkerchiefs, Stockings, Gloves, Zephyrs, etc. We ask your especial attention to this line of goods.

H. L. DAVIS,

Woodward & Lothrop,

Temple Dry Goods Store,

COR. BROAD AND ADAMS STREETS, Richmond, Va.

Orders from my friends in North Carolina will receive my prompt and personal attention.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE PASSING LOCAL EVENTS OF THE DAY.

What is Transpiring Around and About Us, in Town and County--The Movements and Doings of People You Know, Etc.

—It is still undecided who is elected—Williams or Settle. Both claim it.

—Rev. J. H. Hall will preach at Salem Thanksgiving Day, next Thursday at 11 o'clock.

—State Democratic Chairman Simmons says the Democratic majority in the State is about 43,000.

—It is rumored that one of Oxford's most prominent young men will soon wed one of the fair daughters of Georgia.

—Who will care for Dr. Dalby now? Why the Republicans, of course, as he helped them carry Granville county.

—Schemes to promote the prosperity of Oxford are now in order. Get to work in the old way—pull together and pull hard.

—Rev. L. R. Christie will conduct the service at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday at 3 o'clock. Lesson Romans 7 chapter. All men invited.

Third party of N. C.—here it lies, Nobody mourns and nobody cries. Where it has gone or how it fares, Nobody knows and nobody cares.

—Iron fire escapes are to be put on the main building at the Oxford Orphan Asylum. E. Hibberd, of Durham, has the contract.

—Our men are not happier over Cleveland's election than the ladies. The Oxford ladies rejoice with exceeding joy and they say so.

—Work on the new Baptist church is now progressing satisfactorily. It will be a most attractive and convenient edifice when completed.

—C. R. Lewis, has been appointed magistrate by Probate Judge, W. A. Bobbitt, in Salem township in place of Amos Dean, resigned.

—Chief Renn has his force at work on Hillsboro street, near Banner Warehouse. The Rock Crusher is at work and carts are busy hauling rock.

—While the Republican party was licked out of its boots in the recent election and lost its hat, Granville was collared by the Thirdite-Republicans.

—The last heard of Exum and Wilson was that they had telescopes turned on the State to see if they could discover the remains of the Third party.

—The returning board on account of irregularities threw out Wilton, Buchanan, Dement and Royster's precincts, but it did effect the result in the county.

—The question is now asked: "Will any Democrat go on the bonds of men who are directly responsible for the defeat of the Democratic party in Granville county?"

—Now for business, say our business men. All right. The political excitement will soon be over, and the success of the Democratic party opens the way for prosperity.

—It is now agreed that Halifax gets the Democratic banner presented by Senator and Mrs. Vance to the county giving the biggest vote. It is a handsome silken banner.

—We ask our Third party friends if the great tidal wave that passed over the country Tuesday, the 8th, was a "Democratic Lie." It was a stunner, and a paralyzer at that.

—The county officers elected will now have to get a move on them to secure bondsmen.

—The young men of Oxford will give a Cleveland and Carr german at Armory Hall Friday night. It is proposed to make it the grandest affair of the kind ever had in Oxford.

—Mr. John W. Fowlkes and Miss Sallie Lester, of Crewe, Va., were married at the Osborn House, on Tuesday, Rev. J. S. Hardaway, officiating. It was a runaway match.

—The Third party did not cut much of a figure in the state at large as a Republican Aid Society, but all the same it led to Granville having two negro Representatives in the next Legislature.

—The whole of the Republican-Thirdite ticket is elected in Granville county. How many Democrats will go on the bonds of the men who are directly responsible for the defeat of the Democratic ticket?

—Sheriff elect Cozart informed us that he did not ask a single man for his suffrage during the campaign. We have no fears but what he will make Granville a good officer, as he is a good citizen and a successful farmer.

—Married, on Sunday morning, near Clay, W. T. Currin and Miss Addie Tippett. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, pastor of Corinth, in the parlor of the bride's father, Sim Tippett, in the presence of a large number of friends.

—Mr. Pete Thorp, of Oak Hill, said before the election that he believed that there would not be a Thirdite vote at his precinct, but now says he placed a false estimate upon the good judgment and intelligence of his community.

Mr. N. B. Cannady is prominently mentioned in connection with the postmastership of Oxford. He is in every sense of the word a Democrat, and has always stood in the front rank battling for the perpetuation of Democratic principles.

Cleveland is elected, Harrison is rejected, And Simmons squashed the Gideon's Band; Weaver's badly left, His party's sore bereft, And the boys have buried Mary Ann. —Wilmington Messenger.

—North Carolina has 157 cotton mills and 541,961 spindles Georgia has 80 mills and 518,761 spindles, South Carolina has 57 mills and 513,898 spindles. Thus we see that North Carolina has 24,100 more spindles than any other Southern State.

—We had the pleasure of meeting in our office, Mr. W. J. Rogers, of Mt. Energy, on Wednesday. He is a regular mover in getting around among the farmers in the interest of the Alliance Warehouse and never deceives his friends on prices of all grades of tobacco.

—Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Eva Currin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Currin, of Oxford, and Mr. John Bailey Owen, of Henderson, Wednesday evening, November 23rd. The ceremony will be performed in the Baptist church, Oxford, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

—The case of young Claude Wilson, editor, or late editor, of the Wilson Advance, attracts much attention. It is said his mind is affected and that he wrote the threatening letter which was published there weeks ago as having been received from Gideonites. There are as yet no tidings of Mr. Wilson.

PERSONAL SAYINGS.

OF PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF THE TOWN.

Brief Mention of the Movements of You Friends and Acquaintances who Visited You and Whom You are Visiting.

—J. F. Rogers, of Richmond, Va., is on a visit to Oxford.

—Dr. W. W. Cozart, of Dutchville, visited Oxford Tuesday.

—C. J. Gregory, who has been sick ten days, is out again.

—Mr. Calvin Parrish, of Hillsboro, was in Oxford Wednesday.

—Dr. T. C. Pugh, of Baltimore, arrived in Oxford Monday morning.

—James I. Moore and C. D. Britt, of Franklinton, were in Oxford Monday.

—Mr. N. B. Cannady attended the funeral of late Chief Justice Merrimon.

—J. T. Strayhorn has been confined at home several days from sickness.

—The Misses Murray, of Berea, were in Oxford on a shopping tour Wednesday.

—Messrs. Leroy Crews, Fielding Knott and A. Barnett, dropped in to see us Thursday.

—Mrs. Alf Hobgood is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Jeffreys, at Rocky Mount.

—Mr. Milton Cayce, a prominent tobaccocon of Richmond, Va., is the guest of Mr. J. M. Currin.

—T. H. Collins, of Raleigh, is visiting his family, who are on a visit to Col. and Mrs. R. J. Mitchell.

—Rev. J. T. Edmondson, an able Baptist minister, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church Sunday night.

—Misses Lettie and Bettie Bullock, accompanied by Mr. Hal Hester, of Hester's, were in Oxford Wednesday.

—Miss Janet Fuller, of Raleigh, is at Horner School, attending upon the bedside of her young brother who is quite sick.

—Dr. J. M. Hays (has removed to his new and handsome furnished office, next to the Episcopal church. The interior finish of the rooms is very tasty indeed.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Chandler, of Buchanan, were in Oxford on Thursday. It was our pleasure to meet Mr. Chandler in our office. Also Mr. L. S. Royster, of the same place was on our streets.

—Wyatt Cannady, of Wilton; Pete Thorp, of Oak Hill; Leroy Elliott, of Seth; B. F. Frazier, of Whetstone; B. T. Winston, of Adoniram, and Abner Newton, of Cannady's Mill, were in town Wednesday.

—Dr. S. H. Cannady left Thursday for New York to take a post graduate course in medicine. He was accompanied by Mrs. Cannady, and will remain until 15th of December, when he will return and resume his practice.

—We had the pleasure of a visit on Thursday from our most esteemed friend, W. J. Badgett, who has been in bad health for a long time. "Old Rip" is almost himself again and we congratulate him upon his restoration to health.

—Rev. J. T. Edmondson and family, of Goldsboro, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Hundley on College street. Mr. Edmondson is on his way to Chincoteague, on the Eastern shore of Maryland, to accept a call.

—We had the pleasure of meeting in our office on Wednesday, Mr. D. W. Wheeler, of Hargrove, and Charley Williams, of Oak Hill.

—W. M. Broughton and Oscar Baker, of Westfield, Pa., brother and nephew of R. Broughton, arrived in Oxford Saturday. Mr. Broughton brought with him a very fine horse and buggy which he presented to his brother.

—Messrs. J. W. Timberlake, R. J. Hancock and Mr. Blankenship, manufacturers of tobacco at Lynchburg, Va., were on our large break Wednesday. They found that Oxford was climbing higher and higher. Bring your tobacco to Oxford if you want tip top prices.

—We met on our streets Wednesday a large number of our good farmers, among them were W. S. Lyon, of Berea, W. T. Blackwell, of Dexter, A. Morris, of Wilton, and W. H. Daniel, T. W. Pitchford, D. G. Hobgood, Chas. Cheatham and J. W. Wilson, near Oxford.

—The Henderson Gold Leaf well says: The election is over. Now for a work along a different line. The fall season is upon us, business is opening up with merchants and others and then another crop must be made and autumn is the time to begin preparing for it—by seeding small grain, breaking land and raising manure on the farm.

—The Republican calamity prognosticators are discredited. A whole week has elapsed since Grover Cleveland's election and there are no symptoms of the universal smash-up yet. The only big concern which has failed was the Republican-Third party combine which busted and assigned for the benefit of the people.

—Our tobacco market is a regular winner on prices on all grades of tobacco. Tuesday and Wednesday prices were stiff and advancing. Good wrappers are in demand and prices high. Do not be lead off by petty prejudice, but come along to Oxford where we guarantee you will be sure to get the top of the market.

—Governor Holt on Wednesday appointed James E. Shepperd Chief Justice of North Carolina Supreme Court, to succeed A. S. Merrimon, deceased. Judge Shepperd has for some years been associate justice of the court. He began life as a telegraph operator. He studied law and became prominent in his profession. The Governor also appointed Armstead Burwell, of Charlotte, associate justice, vice Shepperd, promoted.

HORSES FOR SALE CHEAP.

Two good work horses and a No. 1 mule. Apply to R. S. Williams, Oxford, N. C.

Anything in the vehicle line can be had at the right price; let us show you. aug26-tf OWEN, BARBOUR & SMITH.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 WALL ST., N. Y.