

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The State Convention Closed on Friday.

Oxford had within her borders last week that noble band of King's Daughters, under the leadership of Mrs. W. S. Black, who were handsomely entertained by our citizens. The convention was held in the Presbyterian church and the proceedings were of a most interesting character, and were largely attended by the ladies, who have their heart in such work.

The following taken from the Oxford correspondent of the State Chronicle shows the work accomplished by this noble band of women and other personal mentions:

Reports from various circles show that during the past year $2,921.00 was expended for the relief of distressed families, and various other charitable causes, and the good which has been accomplished by this is beyond calculation. This is really only a very small part of the work that has been done, and of which no report has been made to the State Convention.

Rescue Work, reported by Mrs. Hayes, showed that the Rescue Circle of Raleigh had accomplished great good in obtaining homes, employment and proper protection for young girls left without natural support, and much remains to be done on this line, and it is hoped that the friends of orphan girls, &c., will not remit their labors, as eternity alone can show the good accomplished in this way.

The order now numbers seventy-five Circles in the State, fifteen of which are in Raleigh doing the King's service.

After considering invitations from various towns and cities in the State it was decided to hold the next convention in the town of Statesville.

Miss M. E. Carter, of Durham, N. C., was elected State Secretary by acclamation—a most excellent selection.

Mrs. Judge Clark, of Raleigh, was elected Assistant State Secretary, Mrs. Hayes having declined the position.

The headquarters of the order for the State will be in Raleigh as heretofore.

At 8:30 p. m., after the conclusion of the Convention, Friday evening, the "Lend a Hand" Circle and the people of Oxford tendered an informal reception in the Presbyterian church, which was very much enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served at 11:30.

During this reception another circle of King's Daughters was organized, consisting of 7 or 8 members, of which Mrs. Lanier, organist of the Presbyterian church, was made president.

The general results of the meeting were of the most gratifying nature. Each member of the order will return home fully inspired with new zeal for the work and it is fully believed that the coming year will be the most successful of all in the history of the Daughters of the State.

The King's Daughters were all profuse in their thanks for the hospitable manner in which they were entertained by the Daughters and friends, each vying with the other in entertaining the visitors. Every delegate had a home in which she was well provided for, and each left the grand old town with the most kindly feelings for all the good people of Oxford.

We desire also to express our profound thanks to Mrs. Lanier, organist of the Presbyterian church in Oxford, and to the charming young ladies from various choirs who sang so sweetly on this occasion. We especially make mention of Mrs. S. W. Parker, Mrs. Cherry, Miss Alice Jones, Miss Laura Cordon, Miss Finlaytor, teacher at the Orphan Asylum, and others, whose names are not remembered.

The thanks of the Convention are also due to the noble King's Sons, Dr. Wyche and Mr. Lyon, who so greatly aided the ladies in the work. The writer is not unmindful of the kind hospitality of Dr. Williams and family.

Make Me a Populist.

Stop for a moment, O Time, in your flight, Make me a Populist, just for tonight; Let the black flag of despair be unfurled, Darken the lights in this giddy old world; Give me a whirlwind of trouble and strife, Curtain with darkness the bright side of life; People the future with phantoms of woe, Feed me on crow, mister, feed me on crow.

Pause, Father Time, and throw open the gate, I am so weary of feeling first-rate; Pasture me out where the pickings is short, Scourge me with hunger and hear me cavort; Teach me to sit in contentment all day, Howling "Refawm!" while my neighbors make hay;

Fill my flat head with swift-moving wheels, Then I shall know how a Populist feels. —Nebraska Journal.

Look at the size of the ordinary pill. Think of all the trouble and disturbance that it causes you. Wouldn't you welcome something easier to take, and easier in its ways, if at the same time it did you more good? That is the case with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest in size, the mildest in action, but the most thorough and far-reaching in results. They follow nature's methods, and they give help that lasts. Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headache, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

"If we can't cure your catarrh, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing, we'll pay you $500 in cash." That is what is promised by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Doesn't it prove, better than any words could, that this is a remedy that cures Catarrh? Costs only 50 cents.

Attention.

As trustee for Owen, Barbour & Smith, I am expected and required to collect all claims due them. Mr. Smith is in charge of the business and will receipt for all paid on the accounts. All owing said concern will please give their prompt attention. A. A. HICKS, Trustee. mch17-tf.
