LOCAL LINKS.

Things that Happen in Town and County Boiled Down. -Mrs. A. W. Ellington, who has been quite sick some days, is much improved. -Another little girl is just now the center of attraction in the home of Mr. John Webb.

-The morning train from Durham arrives in Oxford now at 11:28 a. m. instead of 8:30. This change does away with the lay over of three hours in Keysville, Va.

-The names mentioned in connection with the nomination for Sheriff in Granville this year by the respective parties are: E. T. York, Democrat; John W. Lawrence, Third party and A. S. Carrington, Republican. For Superior Court Clerk: W. A. Bobbitt, Democrat; J. M. Sikes and C. M. Rogers, Republican, and A. J. Dalby, Third party.

-On Wednesday last as Gran Hunt, the deep-dyed-in-the-wool negro Republican, who by consent of a regularly elected Democratic Board of Town Commissioners, was cleaning up Main street, a buzzard flopped over and rung him off. It was a strange coincidence! Yes, very strange and a rare one for the buzzard to strike the scent and ring the bell on the "old chestnut" of Democrats trying to make capital out of throwing Democratic money to a rank-poison Republican that should go to a member of their party.

-The little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Green, of Stem, died on the 11th inst. We extend our condolence to the bereaved parents.

-J. T. Wiley wishes to inform the public that he has a full line of pure whiskies, brandies, wines, etc., for medicinal and other uses. The best and coldest beer can always be found at his place.

-The school formerly taught by Miss Hettie Minor, now in charge of her mother, Mrs. Julia B. Minor, will have their closing exercises in the Asylum chapel this (Thursday) evening. All are invited to attend.

-Thursday about noon an alarm of fire was sounded and it was soon found out that the stable of Capt. T. D. Clement was on fire. A large crowd gathered and notwithstanding their efforts to subdue the flames the building was burned to the ground.

-Miss Lizzie Jackson, of Raleigh, granddaughter of the late Governor Jordan M. Worth, is to be married in that city on the 26th inst. to Mr. Haywood White, of the Southern Associated Press, and now residing at Washington, D. C.

-Turn backward, oh time in your rapid flight and give us a pure and unadulterated Democratic town administration, devoid of mugwumpism. How can Democratic leaders, head and foot of the Democratic party in the county, get the consent of their minds to give office to a rabid, fire-eating negro Republican is beyond the conception of those who are fighting for pure Democracy.

A BIG TIME EXPECTED. Celebration of St. John's Day at Oxford June 22nd.

As next St. John's Day falls on June 24 which is Sunday the celebration of that great day in the history of Masonry will take place at the Asylum on the 22d of June.

This will be a red letter day for Oxford and for the Asylum as we expect an immense crowd in attendance. A large audience of the fair daughters of Granville and adjoining counties in North Carolina and Virginia will be present.

The Asylum is so well and so favorably known that we need hardly write anything at length in recommending it to the public. The spacious grove in front of the Asylum will afford room for the large crowd expected. Mr. Lawrence and his accomplished wife seem to be carrying on the work there in the most satisfactory manner. He is fully devoted to his duties and is making a success as Superintendent. The site of the Asylum is most excellent. It is a delightful and most healthy location.

The people of Oxford and Granville we are sure will turn out to see the Masons and distinguished visitors. Gov. Carr and staff and many other distinguished visitors will be present. Col. John R. Webster, of Reidsville, is the chosen orator of the day. Other speeches will be made by prominent speakers.

SENATOR VANCE'S BODY. His Wife and Son at Odds Over Its Last Resting Place.

An Asheville, N. C., special says: The widow of Senator Zebulon B. Vance came to Asheville Wednesday and had the body of the Senator moved from the Vance family plot in the cemetery, where it was originally buried, to a plot she had bought the day the Senator was buried. Charles N. Vance, son of the Senator and his Private Secretary during life, arrived in Asheville Saturday and had the body again disinterred and reburied in the family plot. Young Vance declares that it was his father's dying request that his body should be buried in this plot, which the Senator had bought and beautified during his life, and that his first wife's body (young Vance's mother) should be placed beside him. Mr. Vance says he is determined that his father's wishes shall be obeyed if the law has to be evoked in order to carry them out.

The plot of ground to which Mrs. Vance had the Senator's body removed is the hill top, the most beautiful and commanding spot in the cemetery, and her object in placing the Senator's body there was the fitness of the site for erection of a great monument to the Senator's memory by the people of the State. Mrs. Vance is a Catholic and when it was found that the Senator was dying a priest was about to perform the last sacrament, when Charles N. Vance interfered. Senator Vance was a Protestant, and it is said, had requested that none of the rites of the Catholic church be allowed over him. Young Vance said he would permit his father's body to be removed to the plot secured by Mrs. Vance provided his first wife's body be placed beside the Senator's, but this Mrs. Vance declined to agree to. It is not known what steps Mrs. Vance will take when she learns what has been done.

Come Again, Billy. Friend Billy Brown, of the Granville Reformer, calls us down on our estimate of the crowd at the Opera House on June 4th to hear Col. Harry Skinner speak. We are still right, and ask the editor of the Reformer how in the world he can put 1500 people in a building that only has a capacity of 720. The other 780 must have been in your mind's eye or hanging on the outer wall, or else you were seeing double at the time you estimated the assemblage. We know you are great on claiming everything but we have got you this time. We will gladly give our neighbor a handsome chromo of Col. Harry Skinner if he will demonstrate to our "Town Dads" how they can seat 1500 in the auditorium, gallery and on the stage of the Opera Hall.
