Sale of Land.

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER of sale conferred upon me in a Deed of Trust executed on the 13th day of June, 1893, by A. H. A. Williams and Sue B. Williams his wife, and duly registered in mortgage book 37, page 294, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Granville county, default having been made in payment of the debt secured thereby, I shall sell for cash, by public auction to the highest bidder, at the courthouse door in Granville county, N. C., on Monday, the 16th day of July, 1894, at 12 o'clock, the real estate described and conveyed in said Deed of Trust, to-wit: That tract or parcel of land on Raleigh road near the town of Oxford, known as the Cartwell Grove place, adjoining the lands of H. C. Herndon, R. Broughton, Bullock & Mitchell and Strong Hunt. For accurate description, reference is hereby made to said deed of trust. Said tract contains about 30 acres. This June 14, 1894. A. A. HICKS, Trustee.

LOCAL LINKS.

Things that Happen in Town and County Boiled Down.

—If you would just rush the right growler while this country would be all right. —Coley Gill, of the Salem section, has 4 pigs 56 days old that weigh 51 pounds a piece. —Capt. A. S. Peace has been confined at home some days on account of a severe cold. —Mr. A. S. Hall has gotten his fine horse back from the training stable at Raleigh. —Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Council have gone to keeping house in the cottage in front of the Presbyterian church. —Senator Ransom will address the Confederate veterans in Windsor at their annual reunion on the first Thursday in August. —The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jackson, who has been sick several days with malarial fever, is greatly improved. —Mr. S. V. Ellis showed us on Tuesday, a hen egg that weighed 34 ounces. Dr. Marsh and Col. W. A. Bobbitt will take notice. —The Teachers Assembly is now in session at Morehead City and a goodly number of people from Oxford and Granville are in attendance. —Unless your envelope states the number of days you wish your letter held, the postmaster by a new ruling will hold it thirty days instead of ten. We trust our Town Fathers will take up promptly the suggestion made last week in our columns about horses running at large on the streets and stop it. —Don't forget that Dr. J. E. Wyche will spend the month of July in Oxford, and all in need of his services will do well to call early and make engagements. —L. E. Wright will move the A. Landis & Sons' stock of goods July 1st, and is offering a great many of the goods at half price now, as he has not room to put them. —We were glad to meet in our office Tuesday, Mr. G. D. Pittard, much improved in health. On Friday last he was taken quite sick, in Oxford, and suffered greatly. —The old reliable Dr. C. D. H. Fort, is still plugging away at his old stand, always ready to fill the vacant cavities of your teeth as well as extract them without pain. —As usual our people contributed largely to the dinner that will be given at the Orphan Asylum today. The people of Oxford and Granville county have always been liberal in their donation to the Orphan Asylum. —Last week the pet dog of Mr. R. S. Ustry became rabid and took the rounds biting quite a number of dogs. He returned home when Mr. Ustry discovered his condition and shut him up in his coal house until he died. —Mr. F. M. Woody, of Sassafras Fork township, was in Oxford Tuesday with a load of tobacco. He was driving two mares with three mule colts following them. Two of the little fellows were twins. It was the first time we ever saw twin mules. —There is more truth than poetry in this floating item: "My boy," said a father to his son, "treat everybody with politeness, even those who are rude to you. For remember that you show courtesy to others not because they are gentlemen, but because you are one." —About 50 of our citizens joined the Baptist Sunday School excursion from Durham to Chase City, Va., on Tuesday. They report a very pleasant time. The excursion was composed of two of the Baptist Sunday Schools, and filled 10 cars. Verily it was a happy crowd. —The severest storm of the season passed over Oxford Wednesday afternoon about 7 o'clock. The rain came down in torrents, accompanied by hail. During the time lightning struck the Minor warehouse, tearing off shingles and weather-boarding. The damage is slight. —At a business meeting of the Granville Grays on Monday night Rey. Ernest Thacker was elected chaplain, Mr. W. L. Mitchell, caterer and J. R. Day, assistant. The boys are making preparations for the encampment at Morehead City, beginning the 10th of July. —Newspapers are like railroads, in the respect that it costs just as much to carry dead heads as it does the fellow who pays full fare. The trouble with us is that we have to contend with dead beats who sponge on those who have the manhood to subscribe. Just such dead beats are the first ones to criticize the editor. We know men right in our midst who are able to take the paper that make it a regular business to read other people's paper.

—Just as we go to press we learn that the Town Commissioners have dispensed with the services of Gran Hunt.

—Mr. W. P. Whitaker, the clever representative of the News-Observer-Chronicle, was among the visitors to this office Wednesday.

—On Monday while Mr. Jack Chappel, of the Bethel section, was stacking up his wheat in a pen he fell off and broke one of his arms. Dr. S. D. Booth was summoned who on arrival set the broken limb. We are glad to learn that Mr. Chappel is getting along very well.

—Mr. S. C. Southerland, of Durham county, and Miss Mary C. Rogers, of Oak Hill, were married on Sunday last by Squire R. E. Booth, of Shoo Fly. It was a runaway match, he having captured her at church almost from under her father's nose. He was a lover boy.

—At Morrisville Wake county, on June 19, two daughters of Sheriff Page were married at the same time —Miss Cora Page to John C. Cooper of Rowan county, and Miss Lary L. Page to Julian E. Johnson, of Paducah, Ky. They are the sisters of Mrs. James A. Robinson, of Durham.

—Sunday morning next at the Methodist church, at 11 a. m., the pastor will preach on the subject of "Woman work for Woman." Let all the good women be present, as the pastor has a special message for them. The men need not stay away as the sermon will be of interest to them as well. A cordial invitation to all.

—The remains of W. A. Bullock, a worthy young colored man, who died in Richmond on Sunday, was brought to Oxford on Monday. He was a native of Granville and was very popular among his race. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and the interment took place Monday afternoon under the auspices of that order.

—Where, oh where is Lazarus Meadows? He went—where? Billy Browne says that he thought he had given no bond, and under the mountainous circumstances that he, Billy, had no right to hold him (the said Lazarus) and he told him to go, and he went, and a distant echo answers, "where?" Now the question arises who "hoodooed" our friend Billy Brown.

—We learn through the papers that the Trustees of Wake Forest College prepared resolutions calling for the immediate cutting off of the State appropriation to the University. This Trustee John C. Scarborough, who is State Superintendent of Public Instruction, sharply antagonized. The resolutions were modified. Mr. Scarborough was absent when the vote on them was taken. Mr. A. S. Vann voted against them.

—We are informed that Mr. J. M. Hobgood says that he did not mean to convey in his recent speech at Sunset, the impression that he preferred Dave Spencer and Wash Bridgers to white Democrats, but says he preferred them to war. It seems though, however, he does not object to negroes holding office over white people in Granville county, as he does not ask for a correction of that part of his speech.

—We learn that the Thiridites will hold a conclave at Sunset, on Saturday. We take it that there will not be any Democrats present this time and they will have things their own way. We also take it that our friend Mr. J. M. Hobgood will be on hand and tell his few followers the great benefits to be derived by negroes holding office over white people, expressed on a former occasion that he did not object to negroes holding office.

—Whenever you meet one of these smooth tongue, cautious individuals, who is afraid to express an opinion you can invariably put him down as everybody's man and will sooner or later vote either the Third party or the Republican ticket. He may pretend to be a good Democrat, but is really worse than a mugwump. Do away with your deceit you humbug and be a Democrat or Rad one, and by all means do not play with the demagogues of the Third party.

—The Weldon correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says: Captain W. H. Kitchin was here Monday, en route to Louisburg, to take part in a Third party meeting. When asked by me what he would do should the Third party people put up a candidate for Congress in this district who favored government ownership of railroads, Sub-Treasury and other wild Populistic ideas, he said he would see him in the infernal regions before he would vote for him. The truth of the matter is Captain Kitchin is as good a Democrat today as he ever was, but he is trying to delude himself with the idea that he is a Populist. He will soon pull out of the uncongenial company, bossed and whipped into line by Butler, and then the "fur will fly."

CLOSING EXERCISES.

Miss Hettie Minor's Commencement Thursday Night Last.

The closing exercises of the most excellent school of Miss Hettie Minor was in every sense of the word a brilliant success. The spacious chapel of the Orphan Asylum was filled with an eager audience knowing that the music and recitations on the programme would be carried out in a most successful manner. Their anticipations were not disappointed. The music was of a highly creditable and enjoyable character, and so were the recitations and other parts of the proceedings. Everybody seemed delighted as manifested by the applause which was genuine. Medals were awarded to Master Jack Booth and Miss Julia Ustry for exemplary deportment and to Miss Julia Minor for highest average.

Rev. J. B. Hurley in a pleasant and appropriate manner delivered the two former and Capt. John A. Williams delivered the one to that most promising little lassie Miss Julia Ustry.

The good order that prevailed and the close attention given to the proceedings throughout proved that the entertainment was enjoyed by the large crowd present.

A Good Plan.

Greensboro Record says: So much has been said about this man and that man's claims for United States Senator that several plans have been suggested for eliminating the question from the canvass.

Why not authorize the opening of a box on the day of the general election where every Democrat can express his preference for Senator, and then let every man abide the result.

Where is there anything wrong about such a plan? Much has been said about the "will of the people," and this is the best way to get at it.

We Object.

In last week's issue of the Granville Reformer, the editor paid a high compliment to Mr. James Cozart, the first deputy under Sheriff W. S. Cozart, and totally ignored the good Sheriff. We have no objection to his complimenting Mr. James Cozart but we do object to the discrimination made, from the fact that it tended to show that friend Brown ignored the man that appointed him a deputy sheriff, who is really his superior officer.

We have great respect for our clever Sheriff and take pleasure in coming to his rescue by giving him credit for being Sheriff of Granville county.

Messrs. J. T. Cozart and J. W. Brown are his subordinates, and have performed their respective duties no doubt to the satisfaction of their superior officers, who watches well over the affairs of the office if he does not spend most of his time in town.

An Angel Now.

The spirit of little Janie, the 17-months old daughter of Major and Mrs. Bev. S. Royster, passed up to the realm of everlasting bliss on Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock, after a few days illness.

"A bursting flower in the spring of life, with but the first sweet fragrance of its promised loveliness" has been plucked from the arms of its parents on earth and borne by angels into the Garden of God to bloom in immortal beauty.

She was an unusually bright little girl, sweet and good, possessing winning smiles, and was the pet of the neighborhood.

The burial took place on Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock at Elmwood Cemetery, conducted by Rev. J. S. Hardaway. As loved ones, and the large number of sorrowing friends, stood around the little casket until all that was mortal of the dear child was laid in the cold damp earth amid a bed of roses that lined the grave, they could not think of her as dead—only transplanted to bloom in the Eternal Kingdom.

May the comforting influence of the Divine Being enable the afflicted ones with cheerful hearts, filled with love for God say— "By thy hand the boon was given, Thou has taken but thy own; Lord on earth and God of Heaven, Evermore, Thy will be done."

It Stands Well at Home

MOVEMENTS OF PEOPLE.

Coming and Going of Friends and Strangers.

—Dr. E. T. White visited Danville, Va., this week. —Miss Nonie Hunt is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Fred Day, at Winston. —Capt. Charles Elliott, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting Oxford this week.

—Miss Carrie Hobgood attended the Wake Forest commencement last week. —Mr. Frank Landis, the drug tourist, is spending a few days in Oxford.

—Mr. W. H. Osborn, of Greensboro, spent a few days in Oxford this week. —Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reed are now enjoying the refreshing sea breeze at Morehead City.

—Messrs. C. J. Bobbitt, W. C. Curran and W. W. Brummitt invaded our sanctum on Saturday. —Messrs. T. M. Washington and U. H. Cozart, of Wilson, spent several days in Oxford this week.

—Mr. Crawford Biggs, who has been teaching school at Radford, Va., arrived home on Saturday. —Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mitchell and daughter, are in New York City, where they will remain some time.

—Mrs. Mary Williams, of Franklin county, visited her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Taylor during the past week. —Dr. N. M. Ferrebe and family, of Portsmouth, Va., arrived in Oxford Tuesday to spend the heated term.

—Mrs. John W. Hays returned from a visit to her son, Dr. J. M. Hays, at Greensboro, on Tuesday night. —Mrs. Geo. T. Winston and son, Henry, are the guest of Judge and Mrs. R. W. Winston, on Horner Heights.

—L. P. Wortham and A. L. Lyon, two excellent colored school teachers of Granville, dropped in to see us on Monday. —Mrs. L. E. Amis, who has been sick some days, at the residence of Col. J. S. Amis, we are pleased to note is improving.

—Mrs. J. H. Hall and children, of Bynum, N. C., who have been on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Willie Howell, have returned home. —Mrs. Thos. Jeffreys and children, of Rocky Mount, are on a visit to her parents home, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hobgood are happy.

—It was a pleasure to us to meet in our office on Monday, Mr. Addicus Morris, of Wilton, one of the good men of Granville county. —Messrs. Leroy Elliott and Bully Elliott, of Cornwall, shed the genial rays of their countenance in upon the "old man" on Monday.

—Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Cannady, accompanied by Misses Helen Cannady, Mary and Nellie Curran, left this morning for Morehead City. —Capt. C. P. Powell went to Richmond, Va., on Monday, for medical treatment and returned Thursday, greatly benefited.

—Miss Louise Henneman, of Spartanburg, S. C., is the guest of Miss Nina Horner. They were at Harvard University, Boston, together. —Two sterling Democrats, Dr. R. W. Hobgood, of Sunset, and Capt. Geo. B. Daniel, of Satterwhite, paid their respects to the editor on Tuesday.

—Mrs. Moore, of Chase City, Va., accompanied by her charming niece, Miss Ada Galloway, were the guest of Mrs. R. Broughton several days the past week. —Mr. T. A. Baird, of Key West, Fla., an old Granville man, is on a visit to relatives in the county. He is the great uncle of our townsman, Mr. Jos. M. Baird.

—Mr. J. D. Brooks returned from Richmond on Monday with his little son, Charley. It is a source of joy to us that the little fellow stood the operation like a man, and he will gradually get well of his malady. He was affected with kidney trouble.

—Mrs. C. S. Kay, of Alexandria, La., is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. U. Faucette. Our older citizens will remember Mrs. Kay as Miss Annie Smith, who was associated with Mr. and Mrs. Faucette when they so successfully conducted the Oxford Female Academy.

—Mr. A. W. Graham visited Washington City, Baltimore and Boston during the past week. He is certainly a mover on wheels, and in case he is nominated for Congress he will be a hummer on getting votes, and will be certain to sidetrack Mr. Settle.

—Miss Levey, of Richmond, Va., is visiting the Misses Kronheimer.

—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Archie Lyon, of Lyon.

—Mr. A. M. Nobles, of Selma, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Winston.

—Messrs. A. A. Lyon, of Lyon, and T. H. Bullock, of Stem, called on the editor Thursday.

DOWN WITH MUGWUMPISM.

Let us Stand by Our Principles and Dare Maintain Them.

If some of the leaders of the Democratic party in Granville county show their preference for rank Republican negro politician over deserving Democrats and other worthy citizens as appearance indicate, and General Apathy should be the result in the coming campaign Democracy will not stand much show against Republican and Third partyism. Let the negro boss politician, Gran Hunt, brilliant services be dispensed with by a Democratic Board of Commissioners, among whom is some of the recognized leaders of the party in the county, and let some Democrat get the $18 per month. We feel sure they could find some one in the line of the party that would be able to perform the onerous duties assigned the great emblem of dogmatic Republicanism. Down with him and up with a Democrat.

If the Board are hugging the thought to their breast that the Republican sinner will repent, and they be able to use him, ignoring those who have fought said Gran Hunt at the polls, they will be greatly mistaken. Even now while drawing Democratic money is working with might and main to secure the nomination of a Republican for an important office in the county, which he has a perfect right to do.

The trouble with the Democratic party in Granville county is because the leaders ignore party workers and bestow favors and other prerequisites upon those who make them believe that they hold the balance of power in their respective localities. A way with mugwumpism as it has almost ruined the Democratic party, and let us stand by our true colors, and fight boldly like Republicans do, for the principles which we espouse.

We opine after the election is over you will hear this same Gran Hunt bragging to his Republican friends how he pulled the wool over the eyes of Democrats and soaked down in his pockets $18 per month of good old Democratic money, while at the same time was hard at work for the Republican party and negro rule. Take the case, gentlemen!

Healthy Children

come from healthy mothers. And mothers will certainly be healthy if they'll take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nothing can equal it in building up a woman's strength, in regulating and assisting all her natural functions. It lessens the pains and burdens of child-bearing, supports and strengthens weak, nursing mothers, and promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment.

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and bracing nerve, a guaranteed remedy for woman's ills and ailments. In every chronic "female complaint" or weakness, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Delicate diseases, affecting male or female, however induced, speedily and permanently cured. Illustrated book sent sealed for 10 cents in stamps. World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Obedied the Summons.

On Sunday last Mrs. Mary F. Fuller, relic of the late W. F. Fuller, died at the residence of her son, Mr. J. N. Fuller, at Berea. She had been in declining health for over a year, and when the Master called she was ready to go.

She was the daughter of the late Thos. P. Taylor, of Person county, and had one sister living near Kittrell, who has reached her 79th year, who was able to attend the funeral. She leaves two sons, Messrs. L. J. and J. N. Fuller, both well-known business men of our county.

The remains were deposited in the old Fuller homestead grave yard near Kittrell on Monday.
