Things that Happen in Town and County Boiled Down.

—Read administrators notice of J. W. Daniel and be governed accordingly.

Mr. Thos. Winston was confined to his home three days last week with sore throat.

—T. T. Hicks, Esq., of Henderson, will address the Democratic Club of Salem Saturday night, Oct. 26th.

—Farmers are requested to read the advertisement of good land for sale by R. Y. Yarboro of Louisburg.

Mrs. Thos. W. Winston had the misfortune to lose her splendid pony last week. It died with the colic.

—It is said that a Third partyite drifts toward office as naturally as a puddle duck does toward a mud hole.

—We are sorry that we are forced this week to leave out several correspondents, but they will appear in our next.

—You can save money by buying fine ladies and childrens shoes of L. E. Wright as he is overstocked with that kind.

—On Wednesday, W. O. Bobbitt, of Fishing Creek, W. W. Hart, of Oak Hill, and C. J. Adecock, of Berea, were among the visitors to this office.

—Landis & Easton have just received another lot of Jackets, Caps, and Cloaks. All their garments are perfect fitting ones and this lot excels them all.

—The members of the Lend a Hand Circle are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. J. Y. Paris on Saturday October 27 at half-past three o'clock.

—Bear in mind that the county candidates and other prominent speakers will address the people at Berea Thursday, Nov. 1st, and at Oak Hill, Friday Nov. 2nd.

—Lost - A pair of gold-rimmed spectacles, between the Methodist Church and R. S. Williams' gate. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at this office.

—Mrs. R. H. McGuire has opened a Boarding House in Richmond, where our people will enjoy home comforts when they visit that city. Read advertisement elsewhere.

—L. E. Wright is selling grown ladies shoes at 50c, 75c, and $1. A. A. White cloth at 6c. Mens' Bay State Shoes just come in at $1, $1.35, $1.75, warranted. All wool dress goods at half price. Oct 21-1m.

—The live confectioner and fruiter, Mr. T. W. Jackson, keeps always on hand a fresh and choice assortment of California fruits, along with an elegant assortment of confectionaries. His store is headquarters for good things. Read his advertisement.

—There lives in Granville county a father and daughter who only reside ten miles apart that have not seen each other since the war. The strange part of it is there is no estrangement in the family and the daughter says she would not know her father if she met him in the road.

—Our friend and townsman, W. A. Wilkinson, has entered the tobacco trade of the live town of Winston, and all business entrusted to his care will receive prompt attention. He is well and favorably known to our people and we bespeak for the firm a good trade from this section. Read advertisement in another column.

—We are glad to see that Mr. B. S. Robertson of the Holt Manufacturing Co., in Alamance Co., who Mr. Joseph Daniel, in his resume of the politics in the Fifth District, put down as a protectionist and would vote for Settle is a mistake. Mr. Daniel says in the News & Observer that he will vote for Graham and that he voted two years ago for Williams.

—Every candidate on the Butler ticket in the Granville Reformer is blowed this week, by one man, judging from the way they read, and signed by different non de plumes. They are seatt red over that sweet-scented sheet like patent medicine advertisements. It would have been the right thing to have had two of them signed by Rev. William Royster and Bill Crews as they are doing the blating for the fusion part of the ticket.

—The Chapel Hill correspondent of the News and Observer, of Oct. 22nd says: Mrs. Willie Watson died Saturday night, and will be buried today at Mt. Pleasant, one of her husband's churches. She was Miss Tazwell Parham, daughter of Mr. A. C. Parham, of Oxford. Mr. Parham had paid frequent visits during her last sickness since July. She leaves one little girl four years old. She died peacefully. The comforts of the gospel which Mr. Watson has preached from the word to others are now his in his loneliness.

—Mr. J. Crawford Biggs is one of the marshals at the State Fair this week. Quite a number of our people are taking in the Fair.

—L. E. Wright has a competent milliner who has run a dress making and millinery store combined. She can advise you as to cutting and trimming dresses. Also trim you a neat, stylish hat; come in and give her a call. Oct 21-1m.

—The news from Graham is cheering and he will be elected. He completely annihilated Settle in the Republican stronghold of Stokes county and made scores of friends. He will certainly get a fine vote in old Stokes. Hurrah for Graham. Work Democrats!

—Died, at the home of his parents, Oct. 21st, 1894, Caddie T. Wheeler, a little turned of 14 years. In his death his parents feel special bereavement, and call to us for special sympathy. He was converted and united with the church at Stem only about six weeks before his death, for which event he was ready.

—The canvass in Granville is progressing finely. During the past week Hon. Thos. Mason made two splendid speeches, one at Creedmoor and one at Knap of Reeds. Capt. S. A. Ashe, the old true blue Democrat, spoke at Stem and Tar River. He also spoke in Oxford Monday night to a most appreciative audience.

—The gifted and talented young Tragedian, James Young, of Baltimore, Md., who in a short time has become a great favorite with the people, supported by a splendid company will produce "Richard III," this Thursday night, and "Hamlet" tomorrow night, at the Opera House, to the great pleasure of our people.

—The revival at the Methodist church closed on Sunday. Quite a number of professions were made. Rev. J. B. Hurley was assisted by Revs. J. S. Hardaway and Ernest Thacker. One of the largest congregations that ever assembled in the church Sunday night was present, and Rev. Ernest Thacker, the able pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached a grand sermon.

—The incendiaryism sown by the Populists is bearing fruit. In Pasquotank on Monday a Republican shot and seriously wounded a Democratic registrar. The News and Observer comments as follows: The shooting of the Democratic registrar in Pasquotank county is the legitimate result of the incendiary advice given by the Caucasian, the Progressive Farmer and the Winston Republican. They have sowed incendiaryism; they are now reaping blood.

—It seems that Butler's Second Messiah "Zackuel" Garrett, in Vance, was not a winner if he did come to lead the poor farmer into promised prosperity. Boss Butler ordered him to come off the Legislative ticket and the Messiah and his followers to be sure to vote for the negro for Register of Deeds. Well the clock has called time on the Messiah and the scent of Guano is now stilled in the land. May the great Messiah rest in peace and may the great whangdoodle not mourn for the great loss it has sustained. Comfort our friend John Morgan in all we implore.

—Rev. Leak, the colored preacher of Raleigh, orated at the Court House Tuesday night for co-operation. We wonder if he is not for fusion for Levenue only? He must be if he is a true Republican, and can afford to leave his flock at the mercy of the devil and go out at the order of Butler and ask the negroes to co-operate with the miserable sinners who want to bankrupt and ruin this country for the sake of a few paltry dollars. Our friend Coley Gill was present and heartily applauded the Leake who we believe is making a hole in the campaign fund of the Third Party.

GRANVILLE COUNTY ALLIANCE.

How we Apples Swim--Loaves and Fishes to Feed 5,000.

On Thursday, the 11th inst., a meeting of the Alliance of Granville County was held at Sunset. It had been largely advertised, and was well known all over the county. It was to be an imposing affair. The faithful were to be strengthened, and the doubting were to be made to doubt no more. All who were the least bit lukewarm among the faithful were to be presented with such a grand display of numbers and enthusiasm, that they would fall in line and shout, "great is the Third party County Alliance of Granville!" Now be it known that some short time previous an immense meeting had been called to meet at Dexter, and eatables and delicacies had been prepared for the immense crowd of the five thousand or more which was expected to attend. But on the time appointed, "the floods came, and the rain descended, and beat upon that to wn," and though "the supper was waiting, the bridegroom tarried and came not with his guests." Hence this occasion was to be a scene of such magnificence that all recollection of past experience was to be obliterated.

The memorable day came. The sun shone in all his splendor. The winds sang a sweet cadence o'er the hills and da'es of Sunset. The birds sang their sweetest, and nature left nothing undone to make the occasion a grand success.

The men who had the interest of the meeting at heart left nothing undone on their part. Everything to tempt the palate of man was prepared and in great abundance. Such men as Charles Traylor, who had not been known to carry as much as a pone of corn bread to church meetings, revivals or associations in forty years, ransacked their larders and prepared their best viands. The day was at hand, and the feast ready. But the bridegroom tarried, and when he came, lo and behold! he had only twenty guests all told, and exact, eight Alliancemen. Sadly and slowly, as o'er the grave of a lost hope, they held their services, Peace pronounced the benediction and they dispersed to their homes, sadder and sorer men. But our provident friend Traylor gathered of the fragments two big baskets full. "And so mote it be."

Thanks to the Ladies. We wish to acknowledge our thanks to the ladies who so kindly assisted us in decorating the stage, and furnishing ornaments to contribute to the success of the speaking of Senator Ransom. We need no testimonial, except the fact that it was so nice, that Senator Ransom expressed a desire that this tribute of the love and beauty of Oxford should be extended as a gift of those same offerings to Mrs. Ransom. The flowers were expressed to Mrs. Ransom. Add our thanks.

J. A. REYN, E. L. BOBBITT, J. M. CURRIN.

Cure for Headache. As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at J. G. Hall's drug store.

Important to Registrars. A recent opinion, from the Attorney General of the State, to one of the citizens of Oxford, contains the following opinions, which Registrars will do well to note, and may be safely guided by:

If the judgment in an infamous case reads "Guilty, judgment suspended on payment of cost," the party may be safely registered.

But if the sheriff was ordered to take the prisoner in custody until the costs were paid the party is disqualified from voting.

If a minor is convicted and sentence passed he is disqualified from voting, as the mere fact that he was a minor does not alter the case in any particular. He is forever debarred from voting.

The Discovery Saved His Life. Mr. G. Callouette, Drugist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with la grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at J. G. Hall's drug store."

FOR SALE. I have two young mules, a good horse, fine cow, 2 horse wagon and harness and engine and boiler, which I am anxious to sell. B. S. ROYSTER, Oxford, N. C. Oct 19.

—Mrs. J. C. Fleming, Mrs. Theodore Aiken, and Misses Kyle and Lillie Fleming and Miss Bettie Hester, of Lyons, were in Oxford Saturday on a regular shopping tour.

—Our sanetum was invaded Saturday by a bevy of most attractive maidens from Stems, in company with Mr. D. G. Bullock. They were Misses Lucy Ferrabow, Ada Bullock, Hettie Bullock, Rosa Bullock and Minnie Bullock. We do not believe any section in Granville can produce five handsomer young ladies than those that graced the PUBLIC LEDGER office on Saturday.

Again Mad--Poor Waller. John A. Waller could not get the nomination for Senator from the Pops therefore he kicked out of harness and declared himself an independent candidate and went before a committee of Democrats and tried to get them to endorse him. The Democrats could not see it and he is again mad. Johnnie wants office and he will ever be found kicking if not put up for something. Probably Boss Butler has given him a sugar teat to suck in the way of a promise of something in future. The Pops ought to nurse the baby well as he is very cross and fretful and will be forever squalling if he is not well fed.

Death of Mr. N. E. Cannady. It is with sadness that we chronicle the death of Mr. N. E. Cannady, of Brassfield township, which occurred at his residence on Monday, 22nd inst. Mr. Cannady was about 83 years of age, and his death resulted from general debility, caused more immediately by a fall.

He was a man whom the people had trusted for half a century or more. He had been honored by every office in the county to which he aspired, and served in the Legislature one or more terms. He was a man of more than ordinary ability and his counsel was much sought by his friends and party. He was a safe advisor, a sound friend, an earnest advocate of right, a great leader, a good citizen and a loving and affectionate parent. Peace to his ashes. The good he has done will live after him, and is a precious heritage to his many relatives.

LAND. I have for sale in Warren county, several valuable tobacco, grain and sugar farms which can be bought at a real bargain. These farms contain from 100 to 6,000 acres respectively. H. A. FOOTE, Warrenton, N. C. Oct 26.

Clay Comments.

Mrs. L. M. Pitts and Miss Bessie Overton spent Sunday in Oxford.

Mr. J. W. Daniel, of Clarksville, Va., visited this place the past week.

Miss Ada Grissom visited her home near Kittrell Sunday accompanied by the writer.

We regret to announce the illness of Mr. Sim Tippet, and wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Jeff Averett, accompanied by his family and sister, Miss Pattie, of Enon, visited Mr. D. C. Averett and family in this vicinity Sunday.

One of our school boys don't think it is any harm to love one of the scholars. He says it makes him study harder. Well, "Dennis," I don't know; probably it does. We hope you much success in it any how.

Where, oh! where is Leopold! We hear it rumored that one of our young men will soon enter upon the sea of matrimony as his barque in finetrim. He anticipates a joyful trip along the path of life. So mote it be. We wish him a happy voyage through life. As I do not want to get in as bad a fix as Leopold did I will not call any names nor tell the time:

What has become of "Old Daniel Tucker," the Creedmoor correspondent that used to give such newsy and spicy items from that section? Write again "Dan" we have an "Aiken" heart that loves to hear from that section—one who has been overcome by the sweet angelic smiles of one your enticing young ladies. We would like to hear also from "Good Times" at Duteville, and "Hard Times" of Knap of Reeds again.

On Tuesday, Oct. 16, at 2:30 o'clock Mr. Robt W. Clay, one of our best citizens and consecrated christians passed beneath the shadows from this veil of tears and world and misery to a world of happiness and bliss far above the skies where there is no pain, no death, no farewell greetings to our dear loved ones. He was taken sick about one month ago and summoned Dr. Morris, who called in Dr. Cannady, of Oxford. They held a consultation and decided that they would like for Mr. Clay to go to Raleigh for medical aid. Mr. Clay accompanied by his wife went to that city and remained several days and returned home to his many friends and relatives no better. He continued to grow weaker and weaker until the afternoon of the 16th when he was summoned up higher and made stronger in Lord Jesus Christ by the faith that had sustained him many years. Surely this section has lost one of its best citizens, society one of its best supporters and his family a dear love one who has ever been a loving brother and consecrated husband. All of his brothers and sisters were present at his death except one who resides in Texas. He leave two brothers and three sisters to mourn his death. They too are all traveling onward to their home above where they can grasp the hand of their dear husband, brother, father and mother who have crossed over the river. His remains were deposited in the family burying ground the 17th to sleep the sleep of the righteous until the resurrection morn when he will arise in glory. Rev. J. S. Hardaway, assisted by Rev. J. A. Stradley, of Oxford, conducted the burial service in the presence of a large assembly of friends and relatives. The following friends of the deceased acted as pall-bearers: J. P. Edwards and Willie Landis, of Oxford, J. W. Daniel, of Clarksville, Va., C. P. Hester, M. E. Allen and T. J. Brummitt of this section. We tender to the family of our deceased friend our heartfelt sympathy, and trust they may so live as to meet him again in a far brighter world this.

SHOE PEGS. —Butler has put up W. A. Montgomery, Democrat, for Supreme Court Judge in place of ex-Judge Connor, declined. We wonder if Montgomery is the right kind of a Democrat to decline too?
