LOCAL LINK.

Things that Happen in Town and County Boiled Down.

—Mr. J. D. Brooks is now located in the old McGuire stand.

—We are glad to learn that the health of Hon. Baldy Williams is improving.

—Daventry, the greatest of contortionists is with Boyd's Modern Minstrels.

—Read the land sales of Mr. H. T. Watkins and Mr. John W. Pittard in another column.

—You are right, Jim Robinson, hustle, bustle and muscle will give poverty a tussle.

—There was enough snow fell on Tuesday night in Oxford to nearly cover the top of a tin roof.

—L. E. Wright is selling small size Kid Gloves at 25cts, suitable for small ladies and Misses. nov16.

—We give our readers a large amount of matter concerning the late election this week as it is all the go.

—The Chrysanthemum Lunch given by the ladies of the Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon was a success.

—The Third party lost at nearly every precinct in the county except Wilton, where they gained eight over the vote of two years ago.

—Let the newspaper stand by the town and let the business men stand by the newspaper, and let us make our homes as famous as possible.

—Mr. J. G. Hall, left Thursday for New York, on an errand important to little folks, that of buying a nice line of Christmas goods and toys.

—Mr. E. G. Morris, who has some of the finest cows in the county has placed on our table two pounds of the best butter we ever put on a biscuit.

—There will be no need of railroad tickets now. The pops have carried the State and the railroads are theirs. All rides are free. Populism is a glorious thing.

—Mr. J. R. Buchanan was a true blue fusionist as he voted for Bill Crews and J. H. Mayes, colored, for the Legislature instead of the Third party candidates.

—We have seen no Democrat that is cast down by the defeat. All say they are better Democrats than ever, and are already picking their flints for the next round.

—Rev. Edward Benedict, Rector of St. Stephens Church, has tendered his resignation to the vestry which has been accepted. He is an able and consecrated minister.

—Mr. M. T. Clayton, who has been doing business at Sunset, has removed to Oxford and is occupying the old Cooper store on the corner of College and Hillsboro streets.

—Dr. A. J. Dalby informs us that he is elected Senator from this district by 800 majority and that he received more votes in Person than Dr. Merritt did two years ago.

—We would be glad to have the aid of our friends in the county and town in extending the circulation of the PUBLIC LEDGER. Granville county ought to and can sustain a good paper.

Our friend Billy Brown, it seems, is not satisfied with one office. He hobs up seriously and announces himself a candidate for Sergeant at arms of the State Senate. Success to you Billy.

—There is a mighty good crop of Democratic seed left in the county that is sure to bear an abundance of fruit after a two year's trial of the two parties which laid aside principles for office.

—Don't fail to see Boyd's Modern Minstrels at the Opera House next Friday evening, Nov. 16. The company includes such well known comedians as Arthur Rigby, Bert Vernon, Harry and Prince and a host of others.

—Don't miss seeing the grand street Parade at noon of Boyd's Modern Minstrels and hear the Grand Free Concert in front of the Opera House, Nov. 16. Seats for performance now on sale at Kronheimer's Clothing Store.

—As the election is over and everything is settling down we trust our correspondents will renew their pleasant visits from their respective localities. Send them along as we are always glad to publish what is going on among our people.

—L. E. Wright has this day bought out the entire line of Armstrong Cater, and Co's drummer's samples of new and latest styles of Millinery at reduced prices, and can now sell you Ladies and Misses stylish hats at low prices. nov.16.

—Mr. Bowman, the great horse man of Richmond, Va., called on the editor Wednesday, and informed us that he would be promptly on hand with a nice lot of horses court week. He will sell at auction on the day advertised. See his advertisement elsewhere.

—The excellent piano tuner of Manly B. Ramos & Co., of Richmond, Va., will be in Oxford in a few days and all orders left at the Osborn House will be filled. This will be a fine opportunity to have your instruments put in first class order.

—At Kinston on the 12th Chas. H. Brown, attorney, was shot by Geo. Waters, witness, through the throat. Brown may recover. Brown accused Waters of false testimony, and Waters called Brown a liar, and Brown knocked him down with a chair, then Waters shot Brown, says News and Observer.

—Miss Sadie Whitford, America's youngest Tragedienne, supported by Max Von Metz and capable company will hold the boards at the Opera House, two nights, Nov. 26th and 27th. Remember the dates and go out and enjoy pleasant evenings. Her repertoire is Romeo and Juliet, Lady of Lyons, Bride of Messina, and Ingomar.

—We regret to learn of the death of Mr. R. T. Elam, which occurred at his home in Mecklenburg Co., Va., on the 20th ult. Mr. Elam was about 75 years of age, and was until a few years ago a citizen of this county, where he was much esteemed for his high character and honesty of dealing with his fellow man. He leaves seven children and a widow with whom he had spent 52 years of his life.

—As the dispatches have stated, the Attorney General of Illinois, who, by the way, appears to be a man with good nerve and a keen nose for trusts—has moved to forfeit the charter of the six companies in that State combined together as the cotton-seed oil trust. It will be seen now which is the stronger, the State of Illinois or this trust with its capital of two million dollars.

—At the "golden wedding" of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brewer at Wake Forest 45 persons were poisoned by eating ice cream in which there were "ptomaines," a deadly poison. The village was for several days filled with the sick, among whom were five of the college faculty. Misses Willie Simmons and Lula Hunt were at the point of death. The escape of all from death was narrow.

—On the 2d inst., says the Raleigh News and Observer, a party in that city negotiated a loan of twenty-five hundred dollars on twenty-five hundred acres of land in Granville county, the tax valuation of which is four dollars per acre—actual value not less than ten dollars an acre. On the 8th, after the election, the party loaning refused to confirm his loan, and said he would not put out a dollar in North Carolina land.

—A great many people regard a newspaper as a free institution. When they want a free notice they of course brace the editor, but when it comes to help to sustain the medium that is trying to build up the town and county they are not able to subscribe or advertise. Some of them when they have any job printing will not even patronize it. We say that if we do all in power to build up our town and county and get out a paper that is a credit to our section the business men and others people of Oxford and Granville ought to appreciate this fact and more generally patronize the paper that represents and fights for the town and its welfare.

—North Carolina 4 per cent. bonds, which were selling at $100 Monday dropped to $98 Wednesday, a loss of $2, and our 6 per cents., which were selling at $126 dropped to $123, a loss of $3. This may not be due to the political slump in the State, but it is hard to believe otherwise when no such thing has occurred before and when it is remembered what kind of men will probably control our State affairs. We will not be surprised if our bonds fall to a much lower figure.

COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD.

They Met Thursday and Were in Session Until Saturday Evening.

The county canvassing board met at 12 o'clock on Thursday with the following members present one from each of the seventeen precincts:

S. F. Badgett, C. E. Lloyd, R. L. Bobbitt, Jas. B. Elliott, Herbert Gregory, G. H. Faucette, J. B. Parham, L. L. Crews, J. H. House, Chas. J. Bowden, Henry J. Robards, W. T. Allen, F. B. Wimbish, Jno. N. Watkins, E. B. Cozart, C. E. Fleming, J. W. Russell.

Organization was perfected by electing Mr. G. H. Faucett chairman and Mr. W. T. Clement secretary. In this connection it is due the chairman to express our approbation of the just and impartial manner in which he presided over the body during its three days deliberations.

After considerable discussion pro and con it was decided the returns be not opened until they were reached. Upon motion those precincts over which there were no contests, were first opened and counted. The following were contested by the Republicans: North and South Oxford, Salem, Bullock and Berea; by Democrats: Hobgood and Buchanan.

Mr. B. C. Sharpe, of Greensboro, Settle's brother-in-law, and T. T. Hicks, of Henderson, Col. L. C. Edwards and A. A. Hicks, of Oxford, represented the Republican-Populist candidates. Capt. W. B. Shaw, of Henderson, H. M. Shaw and J. C. Biggs, of Oxford, were retained by the Democrats.

After counting the uncontested returns, the board adjourned until 10 o'clock Friday. Promptly at that hour the board met and the contest over the validity of the returns of South Oxford was begun. It was voted that evidence relating to transactions prior to day of election be excluded. The contest over South Oxford was stubbornly fought. The day was an eventful one. Numbers of witnesses were examined. There were six allegations in the complaint. After consuming most of the day in hearing evidence, the counsel on each side addressed the board. Speeches were made by Messrs. Hicks, Sharpe, Edwards, W. B. Shaw, J. C. Biggs and H. M. Shaw, after which a motion was made that the returns of South Oxford be counted which was carried without a dissenting voice. Adjournment was then had until Saturday.

The Republicans having lost in this contest upon which they could make their strongest fight, introduced no evidence on the other contested precincts, but contented themselves with stating their objections. The contest over Belltown or Hobgood was next reached, the Democrats claiming that it should be thrown out on the ground that one of the pollholders was a candidate, but the board decided by a vote of 10 to 3 to count the returns. Buchanan was contested because the boxes had been tampered with and it was an evidence that there had been ballot box stuffing, so the board by a vote of 11 to 5 decided to throw out this precinct. It was Republican by plurality ranging from two to forty. The count was then completed and having announced the result from the court house door, the board adjourned sine die.

The official vote can be found in another column.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Currin, of Walnut Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Thales Turner, of Wilton, were on our streets Saturday.

—Mrs. J. M. Crenshaw, and granddaughter Miss Mattie Williams, of Wake Forest, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Thomas.

—Messrs. Wyatt A. Bradford, of Clay, S. D. Reed, of Stem, W. H. Waller, of Dutchville and J. Y. Smith, of Culbreth, called on the editor Tuesday.

A Traet For Oxonions.

It is with pleasure that we announce to our readers that Capt. Frank Cunningham, of Richmond, Va., widely known as Richmond's sweetest singer, has consented to sing in a concert to be given on Nov. 22nd, in the Opera House and will be assisted by some of our best home talent. All should avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this charming singer as he ranks among the best in the South.

Reserved Seats, 50; General Admission, 35; Children under 12 years old, 25; Gallery, 25.

The Concert will be given under the auspices of the Aid Society of the Baptist Church. Concert will begin promptly at 8 p. m.

They Were Married.

A few friends assembled last night about nine o'clock, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Royster, to witness the marriage of her daughter, Bertha, to Mr. N. L. Seaf, of Brooklyn, N. Y. At the appointed hour the bride and groom entered the parlor, and the solemn rite was impressively performed by Rev. B. R. Hall, pastor of Trinity church. The bride was simply and becomingly attired and wore a corsage of exquisite pure white rosebuds. Mr. Seaf, during his short residence in Durham, has made some warm friends, whose good wishes go with him and his popular young wife on their journey through life.—Durham Sun.

Thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey Pigs.

A good breed naturally turns what is good for it to profit and keeps it—nature is for it. A pig cannot help but be honest if well bred. He takes life easy, but all his time and all he eats is for his owner's profit. They say he pays the rent in Ireland. In this wretched country of ours his making is daily thrown away. If you want a thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey pig to improve your stock, or to raise cheap meat I can supply you from very fine litters, either Sex. Also a choice lot of cross-breeds on very fine stock. Call on me at D. J. Gooch's store, or write me to Oxford, N. C., for further particulars on Durocs

Yours respectfully, THOS. G. TAYLOR.

CAMPAIGN RANCOR.

Let it Cease as the Election is Over, and Be Friends.

It is one of the chief excellences of the American system that however hot and excited the citizen may become while a political battle is on—however thoroughly convinced he may imagine himself to be, that unless his side wins the country will go straight away to ruin, turns up smiling a few days afterwards, if ever so completely defeated, resigned if not content.

The men of the other party who were erstwhile deep-dyed demagogues seeking, as he puts it, the overthrow of everything good, and the elevation of everything bad, resolve themselves once more generally into kindly and courteous neighbors and friends. And the principles which he vowed and believed could not be held in abeyance a moment longer without involving everybody in dire disaster, he puts quietly away in camphor, so to speak, to be resurrected for like service when another campaign begins next time.

To get a fair comprehension of what a grand good thing this is let the reader imagine what the result would be if the rancors and heart-burnings of a political campaign, instead of being but skin deep, were continuous and chronic like cancer for instance. Political discussion goes on from year's end to year's end as in a country where the humblest citizen has equal voice with the proudest in determining its destinies is both meet and proper, but happily save for the few weeks preceding the elections, it is generally conducted with some regard for the feelings of our antagonists, decorously and for the most part in a kindly spirit.

We have referred to this circumstance as one of the excellences of the American system, and so it is, but let us not forget that it would be impossible were it not for the magnificence, the almost inexhaustible wealth of the land the good Lord has given us to dwell in. A winning party may be very bad and a losing one very good in such a land and the results be yet comparatively harmless. It gives us power to withstand the evil influences of almost any rule possible to such a people. It is the creation and the gift of God, and there is no potency in the vilest of partisan ascendancy to down us while we have its resources to draw upon.

But it becomes us to make an effort to husband those resources all the same. It especially becomes us in our political discussions between elections to bend ourselves to the up-building of a higher and more unselfish order of patriotism. And this work should begin in the public schools and be encouraged in every stage and walk of life to the end that the average citizen may ultimately become capable himself of distinguishing between the wheat and the chaff, and of intelligently employing with courage but without bitterness and excitement that greatest gift of freedom, the ballot, to secure for himself and his country at all times the service of the best officials and the dominance of the best policies.

FOR SALE.

I have two young mules, a good horse, fine cow, 2 horse wagon and harness and engine and boiler, which I am anxious to sell. B. S. ROYSTER, Oxford, N. C.
