OXFORD, N. C., . DEC. 14 1894.

Is fusion dead? No, and it is the duty of Democrats all along the commence the battle for 1896.

An exchange aptly remarks: Let the newspaper stand by the town and let the business men stand by the newspaper, and let us make our home as famous as possible.

Let not vain man get too gay over the report that comes from Paris that there will be a reduction in the size of ladies sleeves. The swelling will simply break out in a new place.

Although the mongrels have captured North Carolina, the great heart of Democracy beats true just the same to its principles and stand ready to battle against demagogues and negro rule ag. in.

The Oxford Tobacco Market cannot be excelled on high averages on all grades of the weed. Our buyers are first-class and hold large orders, and our warehousemen are reliable, engergetic, and take pride in making tobacco fetch the cream of the market.

Prof. Logan Howell, principal of Goldsboro Graded School, and Dr C. E. Taylor, President of Wake Forest College, had a controversy about State aid to the University. Mr. Howell charged Dr. Taylor with having received free tuition at the University of Virginia. This Dr. Taylor and the Biblical Recorder denied. Prof. Howell then wrote to the secretary of the University of Virginia who confirmed his statement. Two of the scoundrels who have raised sums of money in the United States under pretense of prosecuting the claims of alleged American heirs to estates in England have been awarded a small portion of the punishment they deserve in a sentence to twenty months' imprisonment at hard labor by a London Court, the Judge remarking as he passed sentence that they had been engaged in about as vile a conspiracy as man could concoct.

Carolina is 20,841, as given out by the State Board of canvassers, and Chief Justice Faircloth's vote is 145,997, while Chief Justice Shepherd's vote was 126,447. It shows the hour they were born. that fusion did not fuse says the Charlotte Times. In 1892 the vote votes more than this, which is not such a tremendous gain after all.

when a girl who has taken an engagement ring from a man kicks and put back the State ten years. him she must return the ring or come to the scratch and marry him. He holds that no woman has a right to ring a confiding man in in that way, give him the grand bounce and retain the plunder.

Some people are finding fault with Cleveland because he did not say something about the election in his message to Congress. We do not blame him as he did more to bring about the result than all the other combine forces in the Democratic party. Mugwumps will defeat the party every time it antagnizes the gold bugs interest.

Better times will come says the Mecklenburg Times. Improvements may be slow, but it must come at last. Every man ought to do his utmost to hasten its coming. Work for prosperity. Work for home and native State. We have always felt the deepest sympathy for the poor and oppressed among our people. We have no dearer hope or aspiration in life than to be instrumental in removing this opposition and uplifting the toiling masses of our people. Now that hope of doing this by legislation is temporarily cut off we must look in other directions.

The Democratic party, says the Gastonia Gazette, has given the State good, even the best governline to pull themselves together and ment, Can the dominant element govern it as well? Can it govern the State at all? We shall see. A dog once chased a train. He showed his teeth, and barked, and clawed the earth and kept up well for a long distance. In fact he came very near catching the train. Other passengers were amused at the chase but one took it more seriously. When asked why he was so solemn, he answered that he was much troubled in wondering what the dog would do with the train if he caught Shavings are coming into demand | it. Well, the "incapables" have got for bed and mattress filling, and the the State. What will they do with Wisconsin planing | mills have | it? The future is full of interest.

A CHEERFUL VIEW.

The South is really better off than the Middle States or the great West -has actually suffered less. Manufacturing interests are on the upward grade. The indications for farther developments are propitious and hopeful. North Carolina is as well off as any Southern State. People who travel in other States to the South of us say that our State is much better off than some others, says the Wilmington Messenger.

Let us all try to take as cheerful a view of the situation as possible. Let us cultivate a more hopeful spirit. Let us strive to keep up heart and hope, and cease to preach the coming of disaster and tribulation. The future may have in store many threaten them by the growth of blessings not now visible. Let us all try to help each other in the struggle for life, and do for North Carolina all that in us lies.

As to North Carolina this may be said: of all the States it has possibly the best climate. It has great resources, and offers many and extraordinary advantages to capitalists and home seekers. It has been in the very van in the race of progress for some years. It has to-day more factories than any other Southern State. It makes the finest tobacco grown on the continent, and has lands that will make a bale of cotton to the acre. If the party to be in power in January-the combination-have any wisdom, any patriotism, any understanding of the real situation, any knewledge of what North Carolina really needs to help her on in the ways of development and prosperity, and concern for their own personal welfare, and the wel--The fusion majority in North fare of their own supporters, they will not enter upon a revolutionary, wildcat course that will paralyze all industries, drive away all capital and cause the people to curse them and

POPULISM IS ANARCHY.

It is only a few days since, says Philadelphia Times, in reviewing Populist power in several of the Western States where that party have gained control of the Executive and Legislative department of the government, we demonstrated that Populism was anarchy. There has been no instance of the control of a State Government by Populists that has not resulted in general lawlessness, universal disturbance of values, interruption of business tranquility, the impairment and destruction of credit, and the dissemination

We have now another pointed illustration of the fact that Populism is anarchy in the record made by pretender Kolb, of Alabama, who although beaten by 20,000 majority in his second contest for Governor of the State, has taken the oath of office as Chief Magistrate before a Justice of the Peace, and from his home at at Birmingham has delivered his pretended message to the Legislature. Had he simply claimed that he was Governor of the State, and that he was battling for his rights as the choice of the people for the Executive office, none could have complained of his efforts to win office for himself; but he not only assumes to be Governor of the State but in his pretended message he proclaims lawlessness throughout the Commonwealth, and urges positive disrespect of law by the sworn officials of the State. He publicly advises those who levy and collect the taxes of the State to refuse to perform their offices, and thus bankrupt the Treasury and bring the whole government of the Commonwealth into anarchy. As a majority of the counties of the State have Populist local officers, including tax collectors, he hoped by his appeal to them to plunge the State into utter lawlessness and destroy its credit, as has been done by Populist Governors in Kansas, Colorado and other Western States.

Fortunately the Legislsture of Alabama is not controlled by the Populists in either branch, and a stringent law has already passed the Senate, and will doubtless pass promptly the popular branch, imposing the severest penalty for the very offenses that Kolb advises his followers to commit, and if they attempt to obey his demand by refusing to collect taxes, every local officer who shall be guilty of disregarding the law and failing to perform his duty, will be promptly and severely punished. Stripped of all its disguises Populism is simply anarchy and the sooner the people of the country understand it the sooner will they escape the grave perils that Populist sentiment throughout the land. There is no law that can give any man in this country a dollar without earning it, and whether it shall be cheap and dishonest, or whether it shall be honest and command its value in dealing with the world, a man must earn his dollar before he can obtain one. Prostituting the currency and demanding that the government shall furnish a sure living for every idler of the land is the logical outgrowth of Populism, and it means the subversion of law and order, the destruction of values, the overthrow of property interests, and general convulsion in every industrial, commercial and financial circle. Every honest man of every political faith should set his face against the growth of Populism as he would against pestilence. It means lawlessness, destruction and the overthrow of every hope of national prosperity.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles crippling of the benevolent, humane for sale by J.
