PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

A NEW SWINDLE

which the people of the South are presenting, is the efforts of some to sell them imitations of the real Simons Liver Regulator, because they make more money by the imitation; and they are little that they swindle the people in selling them an inferior article. It's the money they are after, and the people are just what the people are having a hard time trying to get people to take the stuff they offer them in place of Simons Liver Regulator--which is the "King of Liver Medicines," because it never fails to give relief in all liver troubles. Be sure that you get Simons Liver Regulator. You know it by the same old stamp of the Red Z on the package. It has never failed you, and people who have used it have always come back again to the Old Friend. Better not take anything else but that made by J. E. Zeller & Co., Philadelphia.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Things that Happen in Town and County Boiled Down.

—Read the new legal advertisements which appear in today's paper.

—Dr. Capehart, owner of a great fishery at Avoca, Bertie county, says that last Friday at one haul of his seine 1,700 shad and 400,000 herring were taken.

—Cashier Holland of the Merchants and Farmers' National Bank of Charlotte, N. C., is a defaulter to the sum of $60,000; his stealings have been going on for years.

—We are requested to state that the witnesses for A. A. Lyon in the contested election case of Crews vs. Lyon can get their pay by applying to Mr. Chas. Crews, Register of Deeds.

—Be sure and attend the "Flower Cantata" at the Opera House on Friday night if you wish to spend a pleasant evening. It is for the benefit of the Methodist church. Admission 25 cents to any part of the house; children 15 cents.

—The Seaboard Air-Line is doing a nice thing by those who want to attend the Baptist Convention by offering half rates to everybody. C. J. Voorhees, one of the clever passenger agents, was in our town Monday looking after the interests of his road.

—Mr. John Meadows, who loves to hunt and fish, was linking down to it like a man a few mornings ago in his garden when four of his tobacco friends happened to pass by and all said, "why, John, you can't find any bait on high land; you will have to get down in the bottom to find worms."

—The Democrats greatly enjoy the discomfiture of State Treasurer Worth, who had to "get off his high horse," in the matter of declining to pay the penitentiary warrants. His position was absolutely untenable, as he soon discovered, for the fusionists who knew anything about law went back on him.

—A reporter is reliably informed that Rev. Dr. W. S. Black, husband of the lamented and kindly "Aunt Mary" of the "Bright Jewels," is to marry again. The wedding will be solemnized on April 30th. The bride's name is Mrs. Bryant. She is a widow who lives in Northampton county.—News and Observer.

—The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal church will hold a sociable at Mrs. Roger Gregory's on Thursday evening, May 2d, from 8.30 to 11 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended by the ladies to all their friends to be present. Each one is requested to bring 10 cents. Refreshments will be served and an entertainment provided.

—Considerable comment has been made as to what store will become headquarters for the apostles of fusion since Mr. W. J. Pitchford made an assignment. Starvation Bill Royster really looks downcast and lonely as he cannot now stand around the stove and spout his wisdom to the edification of the truly faithful. He is a winner on wind.

—Governor Carr appoints Col. Roger O. Gregory, of Granville county, and R. W. Alston, of Warren county, commissioners on the part of this State to assist in running the boundary line between Warren, Vance and Granville counties, in North Carolina, and Mecklenburg county, Va. They are, in accordance with law, to meet at Warrenton April 25.

—The Episcopal church at Stovall on Wednesday afternoon was the scene of a beautiful marriage. Mr. C. L. Lewis led to the altar Miss Lucy Thorp Gregory, daughter of Capt. Arch. Gregory. Rev. J. M. Horner performed the ceremony. The church was tastefully festooned with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis took the train for the home of the groom in Moore county, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

Lost His Horse.

Mr. A. D. Frazier, of Oak Hill township, came to Oxford Monday evening with a load of tobacco and put his horses in the stables at the warehouse and fed them leaving them all right. Next morning early he went to feed them and to his great astonishment found his best horse dead. Mr. Frazier thinks he must have dropped dead as the animal was perfectly well the evening before. This is quite a loss to this excellent farmer just at the commencement of his crop.

Look Out

for breakers ahead when pimples, boils, carbuncles and like manifestations of impure blood appear. They wouldn't appear if your blood were pure and your system in the right condition. They show you what you need—a good blood purifier. It carries health with it. All blood, skin and scalp diseases, from a common blotch or eruption to the worst scrofula, are cured by it. It invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood, and rouses every organ into healthful action. In the most stubborn forms of skin diseases, such as salt-rheum, eczema, tetter, erysipelas, carbuncles, and kindred ailments, and with scrofula in every shape, and all blood-taints, if it fails to cure, you have your money back. And that makes it the cheapest blood-purifier sold.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

The Baptist Church Thronged With Fair Women and Gallant Men.

Doubtless they get up beautiful weddings elsewhere, but even strangers acknowledge that Oxford church weddings generally have a charm and impressiveness that are seldom found elsewhere. This was illustrated on Thursday afternoon of the 18th inst. in the marriage ceremony of Miss Lonia, the accomplished and petite daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Currin, to Rev. W. C. Tyree, the beloved and talented pastor of the First Baptist church at Durham, at the Baptist church in Oxford. No marriage could have been more impressively celebrated and in the beauties of its accessories and all that goes to make such an occasion fascinating it has not been excelled by any wedding for a long time.

There were many gathered outside to get a glimpse as she went to the bride, who is universally esteemed. The galleries of the church as well as the lower floor were crowded and the motion and flutter of hundreds of flower-decorated Easter hats and bonnets, with pretty and expectant faces beneath, made the body of the church even more attractive than the pulpit with its cluster of fragrant-scented flowers, lit up with soft, mellow lights, rendering the scene entrancing.

The organ, presided over by Mrs. H. M. Lanier, at the approach of the wedding party, ushered forth in a sweet strain Mendelssohn's march, suggestive of the coming festivity.

The bridal procession was first led by the ushers—Capt. Willie Landis, Col. W. B. Ballou and Dr. F. W. Hancock, of Oxford, and Mr. Averett, of Danville, Va. The waiters were Miss Janie Averett, of Danville, Va., with Dr. J. P. Massey, of Richmond, Va.; Miss Carrie Hobgood with W. D. Currin; Miss Nellie Currin with Roy W. Hobgood; Miss Cora Tyree, of Durham, with Rev. E. B. Hatcher, of Richmond, Va. Miss Mary Currin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. B. L. Tyree, of Durham, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Currin was given away by her fine-looking father, Rev. J. S. Hardaway performed the ceremony.

After the marriage Rev. and Mrs. Tyree left for Durham where a reception was tendered them the same evening by the ladies of the church of which the groom is pastor. The Durham Sun of Friday says the reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tyree, last evening at the Baptist parsonage, by the members of his church was a most happy occasion, blended with all of the rosy dreams of love and appreciation for the esteemed couple.

The parsonage was brilliantly illuminated and handsomely decorated. From 9.30 to 12 o'clock there was a continuous stream of our citizens going and coming, who tendered their congratulations upon such an auspicious marriage. The bride and groom never looked more happy, and they received their visitors in the parlor, amid a decoration of palms, ferns and lovely flowers.

J. J. Ward met the callers at the front door and ushered them into the fascinating surroundings, where Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Battle and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Norton received them and introduced them to the bride and groom. They were then taken in charge by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Cole, who ushered them into the dining room, where was spread a choice collation upon a uniquely arranged table. Here a coterie from some of Durham's fairest buds of womanhood, in a graceful manner, served chicken salad, pickles and other light viands with ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyree were the recipients of a long list of beautiful, valuable and serviceable presents, attesting the esteem in which they are held by their friends.

The editor of the Sun witnessed the following in connection with the reception:

A very laughable incident occurred the night the reception was given the First Baptist church pastor. Two married men, to be in fashion, desired to wear dress coats, and they had but one coat between them. But they were both there, and they wore that same coat. One came out and met the other on the sidewalk, and under a tree, the coming-away visitor met the going visitor, and then there they made an exchange, and that same dress coat went back again carrying in its arms the other married man who did not have it on when he started from home, and his plain coat encircled the other fellow as he went on home. Their wives were with them, and they laughed and laughed over the sidewalk toilet those married men made. We know this is so, because a Sun reporter passed along that way when it happened.

Roxboro Bank Robbed.

ROXBORO, April 22.—Between Saturday afternoon and this morning the Farmers' Bank was robbed of all the money on hand. The robbers entered through a window, opened the safe, took 80 pounds of silver, and greenbacks and then closed it as it had been. There is no clue whatever, but the general opinion is the work was done by some expert. Unfortunately the safe did not have a time lock.

ELEGANT GERMAN.

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lynch.

The grand German Friday evening last complimentary to Mr. W. D. Lynch and his accomplished bride, was an elegant affair in the history of social events in Oxford never to be forgotten.

The groom is very popular having lived here all his life, and his bride, Miss Alice Kingsbury, is the daughter of Dr. T. B. Kingsbury, editor-in-chief of the Wilmington Messenger, an eminent citizen of the State who has many devoted friends in Oxford. She too is well known to our people and greatly admired and esteemed for her many charms of person and manners, qualities in which she is rarely gifted.

Of course therefore many not in the habit of attending Germans turned out to be present at this affair, and a marked and complimentary to the newly married couple.

The ladies of Oxford attired in the best of taste and looking prettier, if possible, than ever, along with attractive gems from other places, we opine never spent a happier evening nor has the Armory ever been graced by an assemblage of more beautiful ladies or more gallant gentlemen, all in the happiest mood and evidently enjoying to the utmost degree the festivities of the evening.

There was a large number of spectators present. The following couples participated in the German to strains of splendid music furnished by the Raleigh band:

J. Crawford Biggs leader, with Miss Mary E. Gregory, H. L. Skinner with Miss Nannie Whitaker, E. R. Graves, of Richmond, with Miss Annis Hughes, C. H. Easton with Miss Annie Booth, W. H. Britt with Miss Lucy Williams, Edward G. Landis with Miss Francis, H. G. Williams with Miss Essie Watts, of Portsmouth, Va., T. Lanier with Miss M. B. Gregory, C. J. Gregory with Miss Irene Grimsley, Paul C. Graham with Miss Laura Newland, R. T. Gregory with Lottie V. Britt, Thos. Horner, of Henderson, with Miss Fannie Landis, Col. B. Crump with Miss Fannie Skinner, I. P. Buell with Miss Nellie Skinner, I. Davis with Miss Fannie Gregory, M. J. Jordan with Miss Nannie Martin, of New York, O. Gregory with Miss Lula Biggs, Mr. Shepard, of Suffolk, Va., with Mrs. J. B. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dusenbury, Mr. and Mrs. Sol. W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith.

Refuses to Take His Own Medicine.

One of the old red-hot Thirderites of Fishing Creek talking to one of his neighbors in Oxford on Tuesday said he could not lend money at 6 per cent.; that he would invest it in land rather than take that low rate of interest. His neighbor told him he must be a "pretty fellow. Did not your fusion legislature pass that law and were you not in favor of it?" He answered "yes, but I will not lend out my money for that low per cent.," and this man has money to lend out. Now isn't he a genuine reformer, in a pig's eye, with a style over it? He is not willing to take the dose he helped to prepare for his neighbors under the guise of that great demagogic word "refrain."

Quiet Home Wedding.

The marriage bells continue to ring out in Granville, where on Monday last, this time young friend Mr. J. C. Satterwhite, of Satterwhite, weds Miss Sallie Hunt, one of the admirable young ladies of the Enon section who possesses many charms. The ceremony took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. R. P. Hunt, Rev. R. H. Marsh officiating, witnessed by many friends of the contracting parties.

The attendants on this auspicious occasion were N. J. Puckett with Miss Addie Hunt, Gus Hobgood with Miss Lizzie Holway, R. P. Hunt with Miss Lillie Puckett, M. S. Satterwhite with Miss Nettie Hunt.

Shortly after the nuptial the bridal party left for the home of Mrs. E. F. Satterwhite, mother of the groom, where a reception was tendered in honor of the joyful event. The supper was a sumptuous one and greatly enjoyed by all present.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Satterwhite with the hope that their wedded life will be one of peace, happiness and prosperity.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of St. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me. He procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. G. Hall.

GRANVILLE SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Leander L. Green, Presiding--Cases Disposed Of.

Granville Superior Court convened on Monday, with Judge Green on the bench.

All the jurors were promptly on hand, and Clerk J. M. Sikes, assisted by Mr. J. W. Brown, drew the grand jury, as follows: W. S. Holloway, foreman; L. N. Caviniss, Reuben Bullock, W. C. Peed, Rowland Gooch, Robert Clark, G. B. Buchanan, Lee Minor, S. J. Currin, Junius Mangum, D. W. Eakes, S. T. Lyon, S. J. Jones, W. B. Glenn, W. P. Allen, L. A. Royster, W. W. Brummitt, R. M. Pittard.

Judge Green's charge to the jury was plain and of a practical nature, and consumed over an hour in delivery. He is fair and courteous to the lawyers and witnesses.

Solicitor Bynum was on hand, looking after the interest of the State with ability and zeal. He is proving himself to be a fine prosecuting officer, and got through with the State docket Tuesday.

Sheriff Cozart is assisted by Messrs. J. T. Cozart and Coley Gill. J. B. V. Tunstall has charge of the grand jury.

The business at this term of the Court is light.

The following cases have been disposed of up to Wednesday evening: State vs. Henry Lewis, a. w. d. w.; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Bud Holeman, a. w. d. w.; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Robt. Wilkinson, a. w. d. w.; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Bob Troller and Walter Duke, gambling, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. W. A. Champion, disposing of mortgaged property; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Sol Hester, guilty of simple assault; 30 days in jail.

State vs. Jim Jones, larceny; guilty; 1 year in penitentiary.

State vs. William Hobgood, larceny; guilty; 4 months in jail.

State vs. Henry Curtis, bastardy; not guilty.

Alfred Miller vs. R. W. Lassiter, adm'r of J. M. Haggie; judgment in favor of plaintiff.

At chambers Wednesday before Judge Green the motion to vacate the former order in the case of Lawrence Holt against Southern Furnishing Company requiring certain parties to testify in said suit in Greensboro on 29th was overruled. The amount involved is some thirty thousand dollars. Ex-Judge Winston represented plaintiff Holt and Messrs. Dillard and Scott, of Greensboro, appeared for the defendants.

The New Law.

The new revenue and machinery act requires the assessors and list-takers of the various townships to meet on or before the second Monday in May and elect a chairman. This is re-assessment year for the state at large. The chairman of the assessing list taking board is also to act as chairman of the equalization board, which meets with the board of commissioners in July.

Home Comfort Range.

On Tuesday we had the pleasure of meeting in our office Mr. C. L. Bennett, one of the polite salesmen of the Wrought Iron Range Co., of St. Louis, Mo. He showed us one of the Home Comfort Steel Ranges, which are sold only from the wagons sent out by the above Company. This range is made of the very best steel and malleable iron, and cannot be broken by the roughest usage. It is beyond a doubt the best constructed and most convenient range we ever examined.

Messrs. Bennett and Gibson, who are very polite and clever gentlemen, are selling these ranges in Granville, and take pleasure in showing this great household necessity.

The Wrought Iron Range Co. is a very well known institution and wherever they have placed their goods they have given the greatest satisfaction. They were also awarded six premiums at the World's Columbian Exposition.

We call the attention of our many readers to the advertisement of this splendid range in another column, which contains certificates of a number of good people of Vance, and two in the local column from worthy gentlemen in Granville, who are using the Home Comfort Range.

OXFORD DEMOCRATS MEET.

Mayor Royster and the Old Board of Commissioners Nominated.

The Democrats of Oxford held quite a large meeting in the court house on Monday night and renominated the present excellent Mayor and Board of Commissioners for the third time, which is a guarantee of their fidelity to the trust imposed in them by the people of Oxford.

Dr. J. G. Hunt, chairman of the Executive Committee, called the meeting to order and J. Crawford Biggs was called to the chair and H. M. Shaw and J. T. Britt were requested to act as Secretaries. The temporary organization, on motion of W. M. Gulick, was made permanent.

Col. Bobbitt said that as this was a straight Democratic Convention, he did not want any kicking, as Oxford was Democratic, and was "one State" that could be carried.

There was considerable interest manifested in the nomination of Mayor J. C. Horner nominated both Major B. S. Royster and A. J. Feild and then the balloting commenced. The result was, Mayor Royster received 57, A. J. Feild 47 and R. S. Usry 2. When the vote was announced, Mr. Feild arose and moved that the nomination of Mayor Royster be made unanimous, which was done with a whoop.

On motion of Col. W. A. Bobbitt the old Board of Commissioners, composed of Dr. E. T. White, J. M. Currin, J. B. Booth, J. C. Horner, J. G. Hall, J. F. Edwards and W. L. Mitchell were unanimously nominated.

Mayor Royster was called for and in a graceful little speech thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him for the third time.

Dr. E. T. White, S. W. Cooper, W. A. Bobbitt, H. M. Shaw and J. F. Edwards were elected an Executive Committee, after which the Convention adjourned.

Now is Your Chance to Buy Shoes.

Every lady who is anxious to buy a good as well as cheap shoe now has the chance to select from 617 pairs of Ladies fine shoes left from the Landis stock, worth from $2.50 to $5.00, which will now be closed out at the enormously low price of $1 per pair. Come right along and get a pair before they are all picked over. These extremely low prices are only offered to the trade and not merchants by L. E. Wright. 4t.

WILTON, April 23, 1895.

The Home Comfort Steel Range bought of C. L. Bennett cooks everything perfectly with but very little labor. It is convenient and nice in every respect. I can't say too much in its praise. ap126.
