DISREPUTABLE PRACTICE

which the people of the South are presenting, is the efforts of some to sell them imitations for the real Stimmons Liver Regulator, because they make more money by the imitation; and they care little that they swindle the people by selling them an inferior article. It's the money they are after, and the people can look out for themselves. Now this is just what the people are doing, and merchants are having a hard time trying to get people to take the staff they offer them in place of Stimmons Liver Regulator—which is the "King of Liver Medicines," because it never fails to give relief in all liver troubles. Be sure that you get Stimmons Liver Regulator. You know it by the same old stamp Z on the package. It has never failed you, and people who have been persuaded to take something else have always come back again to The Old Friend. Better not take anything else but that made by J. H. Zealins & Co., Philadelphia.

BRIEF MENTIONS.

Picked up and Put in Shape from the Town and County.
—The "State" of Oxford is overwhelming Democratic.
—Some of our young people have organized a Tennis Club.
—Messrs. Edwards and Winston shipped a car load of tobacco fines to South Carolina Wednesday.
—An advertisement in the PUBLIC LEDGER will bring you good returns as 3000 people read it every week. Try it.
In order to reduce his weight He purchased him a wheel; Before he'd ridden it a week He fell off a good deal.
—Some important steps are being taken for the erection of a new Methodist church, which are of an encouraging nature.
—After being subject to the knife the past season the oyster now goes to the shore only to be taken in. His case is a hard one.
—H. E. Overton, of Fishing Creek, set out tobacco on Saturday. We expect he is the first man in the county to stick a plant.
Man wants but little here below, But finds it isn't best, Because so many other men Are after all the rest.
—Mr. G. A. Gritecher, the cabinet maker and upholsterer, now occupies the old Crawford store. He is turning out some neat work.
—If the calamity howler is not heard much just now he may be waiting to see which way the Presidential cat is going to jump.
—The men who are trying so hard to force an out and out gold standard on the country are in great danger of being caught between the bampers.
—On Friday night the 17th the Methodist ladies will have a dime sociable at the residence of Dr. J. B. Williams. Don't forget the date as it will be a pleasant affair.
—R. T. Blackwell, of Oak Hill, has a turkey that laid an egg some days ago that was 6 inches long. Mr. L. Thomas, of Oxford comes to the front with a twin hen egg, but it was small.
—The editor thanks Mr. A. M. Moize for a beautifully gotten up invitation to attend the annual commencement of the Fairview Institute and Commercial College at Gibsonville, N. C.
—Luther Russell has become a member of the no mustache club, and no longer twists the silky locks as he left them on the floor of the barber shop to be trampled upon by the feet of men.
—Dr. B. K. Hays, who has thoroughly equipped himself as a physician and surgeon, has hung out his shingle in Oxford, and is now occupying the office next to the Episcopal church.
—United Commissioner J. K. Wood has been kept quite busy this week trying offenders against the United States for illicit distilling. It seems that Deputy Marshall Moore has been on a regular hustler for some days.
—We are persistent in working to build up and increase the trade of Oxford, and we ask every business man to extend us their patronage in advertising and Job Work. We are sorry to say that some of them do not do it.
—Messrs. Hugh Skinner, Henry Buell, Leak Landis Fred Crews, and Dr. T. Booth and Mrs. G. Durenbury, and Misses Annie Booth and Mary E. Gregory attended the splendid German at Henderson on Wednesday evening.
High, diddle, diddle,
The poor's in the middle,
And they won't get out of it soon;
Goldbugs langhs to see them in such a fix,
But the silverites will knock them out in 96.
—Mr. Lee Pitchford purchased the stock of W. J. Pitchford & Son on Friday last for $1,000. He is closing it out at cost. The truly faithful are now enjoying their temporary headquarters for a while and are still happy.
—The Supreme Court has decided that Ewart, elected Judge of the Western Criminal Court by the Legislature, is entitled to the Judgeship and Judge Jones appointed by Gov. Carr will have to vacate.
—P. H. Faulkner, of Fishing Creek, had a horse to run away with him Saturday evening when going home on a stack of fodder and come near killing him. Dr. Morris was called in and we hear is getting on as well as could be expected for the close call he had for his life.
—As to people congratulating each other over the new weather, the very trees are speaking themselves and the flowers sending forth an amount of sweet odor. We are also glad to congratulate Oxford upon the re-election of Major B. S. Royster and the admirable Board of Commissioners.
—The Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary will give a Poverty Party and Lunch, on Saturday evening from 5 to 10 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. H. G. Cooper. It promises to be a unique and elegant entertainment that will furnish keen enjoyment for all. The Public are cordially invited. Admission 10 cents. Don't fail to attend.

FRIDAY GERMAN CLUB.

A most enjoyable German was given at the Friday German Club at Armory Hall on the evening of the 3d. Mr. J. C. Biggs, the skillful leader, was particularly happy on this occasion in making popular leads. The music, which was furnished by the Italian band, of Raleigh, was good and added much to the inspiration of the dance. The attendance was large and every one present entered thoroughly into the enjoyment of the evening. It was a subject of remark that there were not less than six beauties of State reputation present, yet in such a galaxy of beauty it would have been impossible to say which those six were. The following couples were present:
Miss Booth with B. Crump; Miss Whitaker, of Littleton, with J. C. Biggs; Miss Huzhes with W. I. Skinner; of Wilson; Miss Skinner with Rich'd Gregory; Miss W. Skinner with Dr. T. L. Booth; Miss Hughes, of Fayetteville, with M. M. Jordan; Miss Britt with H. L. Skinner; Miss Wyche, of Henderson, with M. Poote; of Henderson; Miss Stevens, of Henderson, with Henry Strause, of Henderson; Miss Landis with Wade Britt; Miss Leach, of Littleton, with Harry Williams; Miss Newland, of Charlotte, with C. J. Gregory; Miss Black-nall, of Henderson, with N. P. Strause, of Henderson; Mrs. Purwell, of Henderson, with W. E. Massenburg, of Henderson; Miss N. E. Gregory with H. P. Buell; Miss M. B. Gregory with T. M. Washington, of Wilson; Miss Nannie Gregory with Oscar Gregory; Miss Watts, of Portsmouth, Va., with C. H. Easton; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cooper; Mr. and Mrs. J. Sidney Hunt; Miss Williams with P. C. Graham.
Stags—Kit Cheatham, of Henderson, E. Clavasse, of Henderson, Phil Hawkins, Fred J. Crews, Thornton Lanier.
Meet Me There.
The senior class in Elocution from Francis Hilliard School, assisted by the classes in vocal music and in the Delsart system of expression, will present Lord Tennyson's poem, "The Princess," as dramatized by Miss Houghton at the Opera House on Friday evening, May 10th. The play will include the dainty lyric interludes found in poems set to appropriate melodies by S. Livan, Cowen, Tosti, and Barby. General admission 25 cents. It will be a splendid entertainment, and we advise you to go and see it.

SCUFFLETON ELECTION.

The inhabitants of Scuffleton were up by the time day broke on Monday morning hard at work for the respective candidates for Mayor of that thriving suburb.
The contest was between Dr. C. D. H. Fort, our excellent dentist, and Mr. A. A. Bryant, who for two years has held the scale of justice in his hand. He proved to be too sharp a worker for the tooth man, who holds a high place in the dentist world, but is nowhere in running for Mayor against a man who it is said never slept a wink during the supposed warm contest.
Dr. Fort was even worse beaten than Dr. Taylor in Oxford, because it is said Mr. Bryant, being a shrewd politician, formed a combination with a wire-worker, who is familiarly known as Strong Hunt, by promising him if he would throw his dead weight for him he would see that he captured the plumb of Chief of Police. It has been mooted since the election that Strong Hunt will not accept the office, having declined in favor of that prince of office-holders, our friend Ed. Brown, owing to the fact that Dr. Taylor had been horribly squelched in Oxford and he would not get the Chief of Police place, as Jim Kenn has a cinch on it.
Friend Bryant is all smiles now and even beats bigger than ever and says he had Dr. Fort because he did not want him to lose any time from the large practice he has built up, and besides he was so nicely fixed up over the Bank of Granville he decided it undoubtedly the best place for his future prosperity.

OXFORD "STATE" DEMOCRATIC.

Monday was without doubt the quietest election ever held in Oxford as the Democrats had everything their own way. A few of the old colored bellweather tried to rally the colored Republicans to support Dr. Taylor for Mayor, and by hard work managed to poll 60 votes, but it was an up-hill business for Big Five Hester and associates to do that. Mayor Royster walked off with a handsome majority and so did Commissioners W. L. Mitchell, J. M. Currin, J. B. Booth, J. C. Horner, J. G. Hall, E. T. White and J. F. Edwards.
The election was such a one-sided affair that a small vote was polled. Of course the present officers who have been very efficient will be sure to continue in office. We did not see a single white Republican or Pop taking any interest whatever in the election, which is not at all remarkable from the fact they saw there was no money in it for their breeches pocket.
The Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. G. Callouette, druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at J. G. Hall's drug store.

A Remarkable Cure for Rheumatism.

David Lewis, who has been afflicted all winter by rheumatism, is out again and all due to one of the medicines advertised in our columns. We know David has been a great sufferer and are glad to see him around again. For sale by J. G. Hall.

Two Bills—Starvation Bill and Billy Brown.

MR. EDITOR:—Our great statesman Bowling's Mountain, our Billy, Legislative Billy, Reformer Billy, and Everybody's Billy now holds six offices, namely: Deputy sheriff, auctioneer for the sheriff, Coroner, Enrolling Clerk, Magistrate, Deputy Clerk of Superior Court, and yet reports say he is not satisfied. In the event that Dr. L. C. Taylor is elected mayor of Oxford today he will be an aspirant for the office of Chief of Police with the probability of Big 5 Alex Hester, the colored political manipulator, as assistant. Wash Betts, the janitor of the court house, has instructions from the Sheriff not to allow any one in his office in his absence, and this morning while Wash was cleaning up the Sheriff's office in staked Starvation Bill Royster in a very pompous manner, and when requested to go out he would not budge an inch, declaring he had a right to be in there. Therefore Wash walked out and turned the key on Starvation Bill and he was for a short while a prisoner in the Sheriff's office, with Wash Betts playing jailor.
Starvation Bill in his own estimation is the greatest man that ever walked on the soil of old Granville with the least brains under his hat. But still he seems to have enough to be leader of the Douglassites in the county, since brains have become so cheap. VISITOR.

The Art of Looking Well.

To look well is the imperative duty of every woman. To do this is but simple if she will follow the crowd that daily throng Landis & Easton's store where the murmurs of the modes that float from there are so essentially up to date that they may in very truth be regarded as an encyclopedic of fashion in all the latest fads in millinery, dress goods, trimmings, &c., that women may consult with impunity.

Recognized his Old Partner.

Mr. Leroy Elliott and his two sons, Ben and Bully, were in town Tuesday. Old man Leroy was standing on the street and saw on old mule coming down the street, and when he got close by friend Elliott he recognized him and brayed. Mr. Elliott remarked to the gentleman he was talking to: "Do you see that mule? I owned him before I was married and he is about 35 years old." The mule had grown gray in the cause of plowing, and friend Elliott has grown gray in the battle of life.

Mr. J. W. Hays Lectures in Durham.

The Durham Sun of Wednesday says: A large audience greeted Mr. John W. Hays last evening at Trinity Church where he delivered a lecture before the Epworth League upon Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews. It was a very scholarly and profound discourse and thoroughly enjoyed by those present. He gave interesting facts about the authorship, the style of composition and the purpose of this book in the Scriptures.
Mr. Hays is a citizen of Oxford. He is an erudite lawyer as well as one of the purest and most scholarly christians in the State. Hope he will come to see us again.

Got on the Turf, But Scooped In.

Chief Renn arrested Tuesday Wm. Mayo, John Curtis and Robt. Bass, all colored for fighting and cursing on the streets and put them in the calaboose. During the night some one went there and broke open the door and liberated them. Next day Mayo walked in gave himself, while Bass and Curtis continued their way to Virginia and were arrested at Keysville. Chief Renn left Thursday and brought them back.
It was a high-handed affair in liberating the prisoners, and we trust those who took the matter in their own hands of liberating violators of the law will found out and put in Hotel de Starvation Bill for safe keeping.
Librarian Elington, Still.
"Paper Time" has won. Mr. E. D. Stafford, of East Bend, is just one notch further away from his coveted seat in the rooms of the State Library than he was before—if such a case is possible, Mr. Elington was built for State Librarian and he is Librarian.
Judge decided that the "Plaintiff was not legally elected and that the defendant may lawfully hold the office." So that settles Mr. Sanford's hopes and aspirations to live in an atmosphere of literature and "ancient and forgotten lore"—until September anyway. For the Supreme court meets again in that month and Mr. Stanford's attorneys of course took an appeal from Judge Starbuck's decision.—News and Observer.

The Great Tobacco Market.

You just ought to have been in Oxford and on the breaks Friday last. There was really a fresher of tobacco. Knott & Cooper, two of as good warehousemen as can be found on this terrestrial hemisphere, had built strong levees at the Minor to catch the most of it. But it was no more than a flood of tobacco. The flood gates were opened by Gene Crews, about 9.30 and the mill commenced to grind and every one who had tobacco had almost as many of the silver wheels as could be looked for or wanted, and hurrahs for K. & C. was heard everywhere.
During this time enough of the weed had passed K. & C.'s to completely drown out Lyon, Thomas & Co., a firm which probably has gained reputation more rapidly for the last year than any ever associated together in Oxford for the purpose of handling the farmers' tobacco, and you might have seen tobacco in every nook and corner of the mammoth building. And then it was that the fun began in earnest—Crews and Washington and Washington and Crews alternating; Gene and Tom and Tom and Gene until every pile in the old Meadows had been disposed of at even more than the most fastidious had anticipated. And we came to the conclusion if the firm was small of statue they had large, feeling hearts for the poor farmers and one could not do better than to sell with Lyon, Thomas & Co. The overflow was even so great at the Meadows that long before the mill had ceased to grind Bullock & Mitchell were submerged with the golden weed as usual, and prices kept heading up at every pile and grandmas smiled.
Going just across over to Booth & Hunt's we supposed we would find the freshest somewhat abated, but lo and behold they were inundated irrevocably by the Indian plant, not in its rude state but shining so brilliantly and gold-like that we came near thinking they must be gold bugs if they did hand out the silver wheels as the old man would say. Booth & Hunt were the last bidding on many piles, going anywhere from two to six dollars per hundred, and it continued Gene and Tom and Tom and Gene until the floor was cleared.
The near way in company with ex-Sheriff Crews and Wesley Y. Jones, Esq., and did not visit the Johnson. Will find out about Willie soon when visiting the city and you shall hear from him. We are expecting nothing less from him than a Johnstown. LEOPOLD.

Could Not Stand It.

A certain Judge holding court in a Western county was trying a man for larceny and must have had the Legislature on the brain at the time. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty and the Judge sentenced him to the Legislature for 12 months. The man arose and said: "Judge, please change the sentence to the penitentiary as that is a better place to go to than the last Legislature."

The Horner School.

We are in receipt of an invitation from the Franklin Literary Society of the Horner Military School at Oxford to attend the 44th annual commencement Friday evening, May 31, at 8.30 o'clock. The session this year has been a successful one, and the school has been composed of a manly set of young men. The final address will be delivered by Mr. Joseph Daniels, editor of the News and Observer.

Indignant People.

At the municipal election in Concord three white men voted for a negro for an office, and some of the whites become greatly incensed and there were murmurs that they ought to be punished. Down here some of our black hearted rabid-foaming-at-the-mouth—Douglassites "Thank God that they can vote for a negro." The pompous and brainy leader of the "noble order of Douglassites" in Granville is a black negro and is looked up to as a great vote winner.
Pleasant Entertainment.
The young ladies of the Caliopean Society at the Oxford Female Seminary gave a most pleasant entertainment at the Opera House on Monday evening to a good audience.
They produced with much effect the "Song of the Spheres" in two parts, composed by the accomplished Miss Bettie Jordan, who is very successful in getting up entertainments of high order. Each one of the young ladies rendered their parts with grace and ease. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Society.
Agreeably Surprised.
"I had a very severe cold on my lungs that caused much soreness and gave me considerable uneasiness in regard to the result," says Mr. T. E. Smith, of Billerica, Mass. "A local druggist called my attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and on his recommendation I gave the remedy a careful trial. The result surprised me; I recovered entirely in three days." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. G. Hall, druggist.
