"Honest Money Clubs."

TO THE EDITOR: There is one cur-SUPERB. cent event on which the writer would like to make some remarks through your columns.

Senator Butler with considerable spread eagleism has called for the formation of what he is pleased to term "honest money club." Honest -Misses Nellie and Mary Currin money is the kind of money the metal spent several days the past week in of which, if melted, would still be stamped on the coin. Now, none but a bold, bad man would dare to call silver dollars honest money at Knap of Reeds, and Miss Scrappie the present time, for if melted they would be worth only a little over 50 cents each; that is a trifle over half the face value of the coin.
