

Job Printing
In Different Colors
At the Right Price!

PUBLIC LEADER

Our Readers
Should Trade With Our Advertisers!

VOLUME IX--NO. 3.

OXFORD, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1896.

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY
and everyone needs it at all times of the year. Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the liver active. You must help the liver a bit, and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, the RED Z.

A GEORGIA CRACKER
May be a very tough customer. We extend to say. But we do say that MARVIN'S CRACKERS. LUNCH MILK. XXXX SODA. CALIFORNIA FRUITS. KNICK-KNACKS & C.

JACKSON'S
Are the Best in Oxford
Tenney's
NEW YORK

We are selling goods for cash, at cut prices so that people call us "Cheap John."
A full stock of Fresh Garden Seed just received.
JOHN P. STEDMAN,
Manufacturing Druggist.

Here's Greetings To One and All!

Paris Bros.
Have moved into Their new store Next door to Cooper's Bank Building, And have started The New Year With new zeal, New energy, New Goods, and They want New customers. All of their Old customers Are invited to Call and see them At their new store. Fall and Winter Dress Goods, Capes, Wraps, &c., Are going Mighty cheap To make room for Their Spring Stock.

A FEW BITES.

Little Minnows of News Caught in the Stream of a Week's Happenings
—Judge Coble was a class mate of our townsman, Mr. John Webb.
—If you should be interested we call attention to several legal advertisements in this issue.
—D. J. Gooch has a large lot of seed Irish potatoes for sale. Call on him when you need them.
—Mr. S. H. Brinkley, near Tar River, killed two pigs a few days ago that weighed 710 pounds.
—Capt. Powell is to be congratulated on having finished putting new shingles on his house on College street just before the last rain.
—Mr. J. J. Faber, of Norfolk, Va., has opened up a photograph gallery over the old Grandy store on Main street. Read his advertisement elsewhere.
—Do not forget the fact that E. H. Crenshaw & Co. are nicely located in the old Parry store on Main street and are fully prepared to sell you goods at the lowest figures.
—The horses of Mr. Mandy Chapman (Buffalo Bill) ran away on Tuesday, throwing him out of the buggy and stunning him for some time. Fortunately for him he was not badly injured.
—The old reliable J. D. Brinkley, who is with you all the time, continues to turn out work in the highest type of the photographic art along with fine crayon work. His work stands the test, and his prices are reasonable.
—Mr. W. N. Weston and Miss Annie Fowler, of Charlotte county, Va., eluded the watchful eye of the young lady's parents and came to Oxford Wednesday evening and were married by Rev. J. Ernest Thacker at the Osborn House. The happy couple returned home the same night on the freight train.
—Mr. C. Y. Hill, of Virginia, came to town with a number of horses Monday. He traded them all once before the middle of the week, and a part of them twice. It is expected he will become round-shouldered before reaching his home on account of the heavy pocket full of silver he now carries.
—A bear hunt is in order every night now. If he had received all the shot intended for him he would be a veritable lead mine by this time. He must also be a bear of strong nerves or he never could have survived the war whoops that attended his course from Tom Hicks' house to the Jordan place about midnight Tuesday.
—There will be a dime social Friday night, Jan. 31st, from 8 to 10 p. m. at Rev. J. B. Hurley's College street. Everybody cordially invited to come and spend a pleasant evening. The ladies will give a unique programme; also something to tempt the appetite. Remember the date and let's have a big crowd. Only ten cents.

—The Slab Town section of Brassfield is becoming noted of late in the pugilistic line. Another encounter took place Wednesday between Corbett and Sullivan, and Corbett in the person of a Mr. Allen won on the first round, while Sullivan (a Mr. Davis) suffered the loss of some blood. It was a regular old fist and skull fight and no damage was done so we learn.
—The many old friends of Mr. E. G. Puryear in Oxford and Granville county will deeply regret to learn that he is numbered with the dead. He died in St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22 of diphtheria. He was the son of our esteemed county, Mr. W. H. Puryear, of Oak Hill, and was 39 years of age. He leaves a wife to mourn his demise. To the bereaved family we extend our sympathy.
—Chief Renn on Wednesday night succeeded in arresting James Burton, colored, one of the late alleged white cappers of the Virginia section. In this case there are 11 other defendants. This is the case that caused so much excitement in that section in November, when the white ears went to an old colored woman's house, whipped her and set fire to the house. It was an outrageous affair and the perpetrators of the crime ought to be brought to justice.

ON A REGULAR HUMP.
Oxford Enjoys Large Breaks of Tobacco.
It is the same old story with a great big S as to the regular hump that the Oxford tobacco market has got on, and prices hold up well. Tuesday was a regular winner as our six large six warehouses were full to overflowing, and the sales were not completed until Wednesday afternoon.
The buyers were in their glory and the farmers smiled their sweetest smiles as bid after bid was put on each pile. The sales were of a lively order, the auctioneers being in fine trim and overflowing with wind. It is useless for us to say more as Oxford stand at the top round as a market, and will stay right there, always paying the highest averages for all grades.

—Five years ago," says Anga A. Lewis, Rind, N. Y., "I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and had been given up by my physicians. I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after using two bottles was completely cured."

GRANVILLE SUPERIOR COURT.

Commenced on Monday, Judge Coble on the Bench.
Granville Superior Court convened on Monday with his honor, Judge Coble, presiding. This is his first visit to Granville. He is conservative and dignified in manner, as well as a careful, painstaking student of the law. His charge to the grand jury was a plain and concise statement of the many offenses that come within the jurisdiction of the court. Solicitor Bynum and all other officers of the court are on hand and ably discharging their respective duties.
The following are the names of those who compose the grand jury: J. H. Lyon, foreman, J. W. Hart, G. Taylor, W. E. Cannon, R. E. Parham, J. M. Sherran, W. J. Overton, Thos. G. Taylor, W. E. Cannon, W. H. Puckett, Dudley S. Fuller, J. H. Long, L. L. Beck, Henry Dixon, Benj. O'Brien, G. B. Daniel, W. N. Critcher in charge of jury.
The following cases have been disposed of up to the time of going to press:
State vs. Crisp Wimshis and Charlie Bennett, affray; plea guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. Thos. Morris and Henry Satterwhite, affray; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. John Smith, alias J. W. Brown, larceny; jury upon question of insanity of the defendant; verdict, that the defendant is of sound mind.
State vs. Joe Williams, a. w. d. w.; guilty; 4 months in county jail.
State vs. Oscar Green, larceny; guilty.
State vs. Jaek Taylor, larceny; guilty.
State vs. Henry Thorp, larceny; not guilty.
State vs. Henderson Brodie, larceny; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. E. E. Lyon, Jessie Roberts, James Tilley, Pender Cozart and M. L. Coley, Board of Supervisors of Dutchville township; misconduct in office; not guilty.
State vs. Benny Hester, a. w. d. w.; guilty.
State vs. Frank Clay, larceny; guilty.
State vs. S. V. Morton and W. W. Hart, affray; Morton pleaded guilty; verdict as to Hart not guilty; Morton pays a fine of $20 and cost.
State vs. Frank Edwards, alias A. J. Dorsey, e. e. w.; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. Wm. Royster, bastardy; not guilty. This is the case that has been talked about so much, and when Mattie Harris was put on the stand she admitted such things as to cause the case not to be given to the jury. She is undoubtedly a hard one and if she has perjured herself should be promptly prosecuted.

QUERY FOR JETER C.
Butler's Organ asks Him a Pertinent Question.
Editor Hal Ayer of Maryann's organ, the Caucasian, takes Senator Pritchard to task on his statement made in the Senate in the Hill, Butler, Pritchard colloquy, "that North Carolina is a Republican State and the Republicans would carry the State with an honest election."
The Caucasian in commenting hits Jeter a hard blow as follows: "If this is Senator Pritchard's opinion why should he want co-operation in the coming campaign. We have an honest election law now and the next election will probably be fair. If the People's Party shall co-operate with any other party during the coming campaign, it will be on the basis of the resolutions passed at the silver convention held here September 25th. The People's Party cannot co-operate with any party unless such party is willing to co-operate on principle and to advance a great cause."
Hit them Again Caleb!
It is well established fact that the deputy marshals and United States Commissioners under Carroll are making themselves odious in the Durham division and a wave of indignation comes rolling up as to the conduct of these officials under a so-called Democratic administration. We endorse every word of the following paragraph taken from a scathing article from the pen of C. B. Green, Esq., the able correspondent of the News & Observer at Durham:
"The dissatisfaction with the revenue service in this section is so great that the best citizens are almost ready to join a rebellion. It is not, and should not be, understood, that good men are ready to condone the violations of law, no matter how odious that law may be, but it is the pretended execution of the revenue laws of which good men complain, if half that is being told about how cases are worked up, and how the United States government is being fleeced, and how innocent men are being prosecuted for the sake, then the government ought to send a detective here to enquire into the doings of some of its officials."
Keep the ball rolling friend Green until Marshal Carroll is forced to bring about a radical reform in his department, which is worse than under Republican rule, and is now doing more than all other agencies combined to heap odium upon the Democratic party. Let the fee system be abolished.

Do not wear impermeable and tight fitting hats that constrict the blood-vessels of the scalp. Use Hall's Hair Renewer occasionally, and you will not be bald.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

NEWS OF THE WEEK BOILED DOWN.
What is Going On In and Around the Capital of the Nation.
613 6th St., N. E., WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—We were pained to see in the PUBLIC LEADER of week before last a notice of the death of J. P. Kennedy. He was the youngest of a trio of brothers, who ably served Granville county as ably and usefully as any three she ever produced. He differed from his older brothers in that his ability lay not so much in the line of public life, as in the quiet and example of a model home. He was an excellent farmer, and had, from a worn out and unfruitful soil, produced a model and well arranged farm. He was always sure that what he undertook was founded on fact and good judgment, and then pushed it with a vim to success. He was a man of good business judgment, indomitable energy, and of much more than ordinary intelligence. He was a safe counselor, and many went to him for advice and were benefited thereby. He was slow to accept an innovation, but when once satisfied of its worth, would give a warm endorsement. He was successful in all his business ventures, because he used the proper care and forethought in planning them. His energy was only limited by his physical condition. He served his country in an official capacity, always with perfect satisfaction, because he brought to bear the same painstaking attention as he exhibited in his own business. He served in the late war, and his record of soldierly bearing and personal bravery is perfect. He was a consistent church member, yielding to the church of his choice a strong influence, liberal means and personal effort. As a farmer, business man, neighbor, public official, soldier, and head of a family, he united the virtues which made him excel, and won esteem, admiration, and love in all. He is the last of the three links in the chain of family made, to bind in ties of safety the destinies of his country, and with the snapping of this band, the interests of public and private business affairs of its people are greatly weakened. We sympathize with his family and neighbors in their loss.
Congress is not doing much but introducing bills. Nearly 5000 have been introduced in the House, and about 1500 in the Senate. Most of the House bills are private pension bills, and some are even nonsensical in their latitude. Mr. Pickler introduced one which provides that no soldier who ever obtained a pension, whether by fraud or otherwise, shall have it taken from him. In fact it virtually pensions every soldier, or any other in any way connected with or dependent upon him. By a strange oversight he failed to provide for a mother-in-law of a soldier. Possibly he will introduce that as an amendment, if it ever comes up for consideration. All this pension talk is made to catch the soldier vote in next election, and is exactly on the line of the hue and outcry made on the same subject just before the close of Cleveland's first term. In fact one may read the speeches on that subject then and now, and he will be struck so strongly by the similarity that he will be tempted to believe them the same.
Senator North Carolina, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I suppose this will be one of his strong points in the next campaign. Butler has talked himself to death in the Senate. He has worn Col. Polk's speeches threadbare already, and that mixed with Teller and Stewart's long-winded speeches in the Senate, has introduced a bill to cut down the salary of all government employees one-third, to pay the deficiency. This, of course, is "scusin Congressmen and sich." I