

VOLUME IX---NO. 15.

OXFORD, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1896.

B. F. KRONHEIMER,

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

BIG CUBAN VICTORY

Low Prices Now on at Paris Bros.

It is a source of great pleasure to the average good citizen to hear that the Cubans have gained a decided at everyone needs it at all times of the Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the we have but little to tell or readers Liver active. You must help the Liver a bit, in a local line this week. and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIM-

Mr. C. Himrod, of Lancaster, Ohio, SUSS "SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR broke a case of Malarial Fever of three years' standing for me, and less than one bottle did the business. I shall use it when in need, and recommend it."

Be sure that you get it. Always look for the RED Z on the package. And don't torget the word REGULATOR. It is SIM- P. Stedman-MONS LIVER REGULATOR, and there is only one, and every one who takes it is sate to be benefited. THE BENEFIT IS ALL IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for Billousness and Sick Headache; both are caused by a sluggish Liver.

J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

For Easter

6 bunches bananas, 3 boxes oranges, 4 barrels apples, at Jackson's,

Tennev's

Vanilla Chocolates, Chocolate French Almonds, Bon Bons and Chocolates, As-sorted Chocolates, Chocolate Creams, &c. His mother-in-law came upon the

-The County Commissioners will meet next Monday. and night. -Rev. J. Ernest Thacker has re--Read sale of land by L. C. Edturned from Louisburg where he wards, commissioner. -The old Gilliam residence is to with 16 conversions and some 40 rebe improved by making the second consecrations. story higher pitch. -"An Evening in Dixie," at the

-Owing to the down poor of rain, columns of your county paper. -Sam Littlejohn, who stands high as a barber and good colored citizen, -Be sure and not forget "The will open a barber shop of his own MONS LIVER REGULATOR, the RED Z. Evening in Dixie," at the Opera in a few days in the old Crawford House Tuesday evening April 7th. drug store on Main street. We wish him success.

-The answer to Shoe Strings' questions by Nicholas in last week's of wink.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Shaw are residence lately vacated by Dr. J.

A FEW BITES.

Little Minnows of News Caught in the Stream of a Week's Happenings

get spring goods the cheapest, why of the town. read the advertisements in the PUB-LIC LEDGER.

ford, and occupies the Hicks house address on this occasion will be de firm to you in another column. on College St. -Rev. R. T. Vann occupied the dresses will be delivered also by pulpit of the Baptist church on Suns White. The public are cordially inlay night, and preached a most ins teresting sermon.

-A Western man whipped his scene and threw a kettle of boiling day

-Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates, Presiding Oxford, N. C. Elder, will occupy the pulpit of the Among the leading commercial in-Methodist church Sunday morning dustries that give tone and stability before the public of this and the

-Mr. J. K. Wood has added a handsome hearse to his undertaking

livered by Tazwell L. Taylor. Ad-

department.

to our business interests and stamps surrounding counties and Capt. Wil-Oxford as a good place to secure bar- lie Landis has inherited the talents held a very successful meeting, with 16 conversions and some 40 reis particularly prominent. This and wide as one of the first class dropped in to see us Wednesday. house which has gained such a firm merchants of Oxford. Such a firm

FASHION SUPREME

Dry Goods Emporium.

-We get out a 5 page paper this hold upon the public favor occupies has all the dash, courtesy and acweek, and we ask you to read the a handsome store room, which is commodating spirit coupled with the Opera House next Tuesday evening advertisements, and seek first the stocked to overflowing with an ex- sound judgment and knowledge of bargains offered you through the cellent assortment of men's, youth's their business which guarantee suc-

and children's Clothing in all the cess. We mean what we say when new and popular styles, and in the we tell our readers that these are selection of which may be seen the live, wide-awake young gentlemen vast amount of experience which and we heartily congratulate the Mr. Kronheimer brings to bear upon public on having such a firm in our his business. These goods are all midst to cater to the public taste. the products of the most celebrated Their large advertisement tells that manufacturers, and here one may be they have got the enterprise and -Our community will be sorry to assured of receiving the best in every push and will always be found in Hunt. issue should have been wind instead part with the able Rev. J. Ernest instance, while the price is invaria- the front rank. They have in their

Thacker, who has received and ac- ble but extremely low. employ Mr. John Haskins, one of the The Gents' Furnishing Department rising young gentlemen from the cepted a call to the Stuart Robinson Memorial Presbyterian church at also maintains his high reputation as neighborhood of Stem, a section keeping house. They occupy the Louisville, Ky. He will preach his the criterion of style, and all that is from which the merchants of Oxford last sermon on Sunday next, greatly new and desirable are on display in draw large patronage, and our friend to the regret not only of his congre- varied and enticing profusion. It is Haskins being extremely popular Wednesday.

-If you wish to know where to gation but the other denominations to such houses as this that offer every with all classes particularly the lainducement in assortment, quality dies he is a tower of strength and -The laying of the corner stone and price, and deal liberally and adds largely to the sales of his em-courteously with every customer ployers of St. Luke's Christian church, col--Mr. R. C. Brown, of Danville, ored, will take place on Monday that form the busy center of every Miss Francis, of Baltimore, who is Va., has removed his family to Ox- next, commencing at 1 o'clock. The town. Read the message of this in charge of the millinery depart- Henderson, spent Sunday and Mon-

varied assortment of pretty things

Another Contest.

class in the department over which The students of Mary Potter Me- she so successfully presides. She is morial School and those of Hender- in need of no words of praise from

-Mr. E. N. Williams, of Moulton, April 3rd, beginning at 8 o'clock at the advertisement of Landis & Eas-Franklin county, was a pleasant the Opera House. Admission free, ton as it speaks for itself of the visitor to the PUBLIC LEDGER Thurs-but to avoid being overcrowded, we many bargains they are offering and day. He informs us that he lives are sending out tickets, and have the quality of their goods. We ad and paid this office a pleasant call.

They go Forward, of Course, The name Landis has long been -Mr. T. J. Crews, of Durham, was in Oxford Monday.

Clothler and Furnisher, Main Street, Is What Reigns at Landis & Easton's People That Move with the Times -- Is Hailed With Delight, and So is the -Major B. S. Royster was in Raleigh Monday on legal business.

THE TRAVELLERS.

-Mr. N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, was on our streets Monday. -Mrs. John Booth and son are on visit to relatives at Suffolk, Va. -Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Tyree, of Durham, were on our streets Friday. -- Mrs. Robt. Royster, of Durham, week.

--Miss Bettie Pittard, of Bullock, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John son, spent a few hours in Oxford position and sell to bargain seekers. Thursday.

-Mr. B. I. Powell, the silk drummer, of Baltimore, was in our town London, England, was in Oxford one pensing bargains to all who seek day this week.

-Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Owen, of ment, which embraces a large and day in Oxford. -Messis. D. N. Hunt and B. I and latest fads, stands strictly first-and were in Oxford Thursday. -Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, and riums and the proprietors are among vited to be present and witness the son Institute, will contest for a Demorest gold medal, Friday night, Ished and on a firm basis. But read Monday and Tuesday in Oxford. -Mr. R. C. Gully, of Franklinton, was an Oxford visitor Wednesday victory over their enemies, and so will they be glad to learn that the -Mr. Presley Rowland, of Vance, energetic firm of Paris Bros, next to Bank of Granville, have emblazened on their banner "victory over high prices and new spring goods that are trade winners." In the list of business houses in Oxford the firm of Paris Bros. is an important factor. This enterprise has steadily increased in prosperity and fame from its inception to the present time. They are located in the handsome visited Mrs. W. S. Hundley this new store room next to the bank which contains a fine stock of foreign and domestic dry goods, dress fabrics, linens, laces, underwear, hosiery, gloves, handkerchiefs, notions. and fancy goods which even delight -Dr. W. T. Cheatham, of Hender- a King to get down from his high Yes, he loves to dwell among the people even if he is compelled to look over many of their heads, but Josh says his handsome assistant, Harry Williams, is low enough to meet the -Mr. Lamont, a tobacco dealer of emergency and is a winner in disthem at Paris Bros.

The store is equipped throughout with every facility and Paris Bros. handle only the best quality of goods in each department and the stock Breedlove, of Salem, braved the mud and this is in every way one of our leading Dry Goods and Shoe Empostheir advertisement elsewhere.

Marvin's	water over him. It was hot enough	day, He informs us that he lives	are sending out tickets, and have	the quality of their goods. We ad-	and paid this office a pleasant call.	Lyon Links.
Extra saited Crackers, Drummer's Lunch		lunder the shadow of Mr. John J.	lletta lew at Mr. Hall's and Mr.	rice you to take in the grand display	-Mrs. M. Oppenhamer, of Rocky	Mrs. L. Winston visited friends
Crackers, Mushroom Cracksrs, Knic knacks, &c,	-Mr. Geo. Fergerson is pulling	Carolina, and a truer Democrat	people who are interested in such	as it will be money in your inside	Mount, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. Kronheimer, on College street.	near this place the past week.
Finest Line	the throttle this week on the U. & H.	Inever fluttered. Here's to you friend	exercises and wish to attend.	pocket for white Landis says so.	the second se	Mr. and Mrs. Knott, of Stovall,
	Road in place of Mr. Watkins. It	Alien, and may you be able to fiddle	Respectfully,	Dana on Butler.	turned Monday evening from a visit	visited relatives near here Saturday
Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Cigars- Cigarettes, at	of heart disease caused by the win-	all the good Pops of your section	G. C. SHAW.	It is impossible not to quiver with	to Mr. and Mrs. Rom Parker at En-	and Sunday.
IAOKEON'E	some smiles of a facinating young	-Yesterday was indeed a great	A Distinguished Visitor.	emotion at the thought of the Hon.	field.	I will say to Hard Times do not
JACKSON'S	lady.	day for the lovers of beautiful and	Durham correspondent of News &	Marion Butler, the Populist Senator	-Mr. Robert East, Treasurer of	let getting off the old maid list stop
Next to Bank of Granville, Oxford, N. C		the ladies were out taking in the	Observer save . "Durham is always	from North Carolina. He stands	Halifax County, Va., was the guest	you from writing.
	Polk Miller, in aid of the vance Me-	different Millinery openings of the	proud to recall the good and distin	Tupon the mountains and lots has	of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Koller, Wed-	Mrs. K. Gooch and daughter, Miss morial rund, is ended. It was a	town. The display of elegant new	guished men who come and go in our	shing up to the top of the Washing-		Nettie, accompanied by the Misses
Gaudan Soods Gar.	approximates $1,000. Inclund now	patterns of spring bonnets and hats was simply immense, and the trim-	tleman mingled and commingled	ton Monument and turns plain and	-The Misses Landis, two fasci-	Franklin visited her daughter, Mrs.
17.1	amounts to about $2,000. At least	mings were just lovely and tasty in	with this people who has a warm	ornamental concentric flip flaps to	were the guests of Miss Fannie Lan.	H. N. Goss Saturday and Sunday.
den Seeds, Clover and	#1,500 is needed.	designs. Of course Misses Francis,	place in the hearts of the best people	the ground. He hangs from the	dis this week.	Some farmers in this section have Invitations are out announcing	Day and Kronheimers were in their	of this city. This man was no less	dome of the Capitoi with his stately		commenced planting corn. If they
Orchard Grass Seeds,	the marriage of Miss Susan B. Gulick, sister of our greatly esteemed	glory and had on their sweetest and entrancing smiles.	Mayor of that beautiful and thriving	1 1 1 1 1 1 1	iff for Dutchmille tompolin more	don't mind they will have it to plant cheap and reliable, at	townsman, Mr. W. M. Gulick, to Mr.	-While the Oxford market con-	town, Oxford. He is a gentleman	revolves between Washington and	among the pleasant callers at this	over again, for when the Easter rain comes it may wash some of it
-	Thos. B. Taylor, at the Church of	tinnes to rean the highest averages	current in his procession, law, let	this own motropolis of Honoroutt's
J. P. Stedman's.	Good Shepherd, Columbia, S. C.,	for all grades of tobacco, it is still	the domain of politics and is now	in an orbitt of elemental fire. Do	-Messrs. R. W. Adcock and J. B. Adcock, of Oak Hill, visited	UALENDONIE,
	Thursday morning, April 9, at 10:30.	handicapped to some extent by the non completion of the Oxford & Coast Line Reilroad expecially day	serving his fourth term as mayor of	not fuse, he cries to his prethren in	Oxford Wednesday, and were wel-
	While we were yet in the third	Coast Line Railroad, especially dur-	Oxford, Col. Royster is a most ge-	wisdom. Stick forever and forever	come visitors to our office.	Orange Oracles.
	month of leap year news comes from Kentucky that a license for the mar-	ing the point concone This word	nial gentleman, and it is always a	to the essential and immortal ratio	-Messrs. A. E. Bobbitt and Ira	Corn planting time is here.
Durham Marhla Works	riage of a boy of 15 to a woman of	would be a spielidid feeder to our	Thanks Caleb "you do us proud"	of 16 to 1. And all the tar and turpintine in the old North State	Burnett, of Wilton, John Stem, of	Mrs. Pattie Wilson, of Durham,
Duinam mainie worns.	40 has been taken out. It must be	aggents when we can that Orford	when you speaks so nicely about our	I flames at his flaming Words, and all	Stem, and T. J. Smith, of Hargrove,	visited her sister, Mrs. Dr. Jordan, that the colonels are very wary when	has at the lowest calculation lost	town and our ganant, warm nearted	the Populists go into the forest	Ma D E Champ of Deperture	of the Institute, recently.
	young fry as this.	provide year on account of the		clearings and take out their heads for	Va spent Saturday and Sunday	We gladly welcome Mr. A. M.
This old reliable house is still		non completion of the road. Business men of Oxford will you put this	Death the Deaner	a lights fest from the preprestues	with his daughters who are attend-	Jones back to the Institute. We hope to give him a pleasant time turning out	last our town authornies are de-	matter in your pipes and smoke it		of thoughtNew York Sun.	ing the Oxford Female Seminary.	while with us.
	termined to give us better sidewalks.	for a short time, and see if we are	We are sorry to have to chronicle the death of the wife of our highly	For every variety and phase of the	-Messrs. A. G. Fleming and Joel	I should have chronicled last week
First Class Work	They have been needed for several years, and in the name of the people	mistaken in our assertion?	esteemed young friend, Mr. W. B.	11	Lyon, of Northside, K. W. Hobgood, of Supset Nat Daniel of Satter-	I should have chronicled last week Miss Nettie Walker's visit to Orange
That Oldas Holk	we thank them most heartily with			sages of the throat and lungs, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will be found a specific.	white, R. I Daniel, of Berea, Addi-	two weeks ago, one met with a
—— A T ——-	the hope that the grand and glori-	"Kurnel" Dockery sends us a	on Tuesday night, after an illness of about one month.	Its anodyne and expectorant qualities are	cus Morris, of Wilton, and J. H.	hearty welcome by all.
LOUTOT DDIOTOL	ous work will continue.	abanastanistia magazana thuanah a	Mrs. Adcock was a good woman,	promptly realized, and it is always ready for use.	Breedlove, of Dexter, were on our streets Thursday.	One of the school girls came rush- ing in last week asking who that
L LEWEST PRIGEST	-Ine question has been asked	friend-"That we have not religion	kind neighbor and highly esteemed	interest and the second s	streets inursuay.	dark complected, handsome young
LUNLOI IMOLO.	around the Court House have got	enough to be a gentleman." That	in Oak Hill. She was a faithful member of Mountain Creek Baptist	Car load of Wagons. Car load of Bugzies.	Corinth Chronicles.	man was at the Institute. On being their bills in for whooning up Billy	would shock and morniny us, and	-1	Car load of Buggles. Car load Feed Cutters.	Miss Bettie Montague visited Mr.	told it was a Mr. Jones from Stem who had come to enter school, she
	Reed for Freshuent: Dut we can all-	compel us to self-examination and repentance, if we really thought	band and 4 children to mourn her	Car load of Lime and Coment.	S. Tippett's family last week.	exclaimed: Surely he is not coming
LARGE STOCK OF	bas not got a single man in town	that the "Kurnel" had any proper	passing away. She was 28 years of	Car load of Mowers and Binders. Car load of Plows and Castings.	Mr. W. J. Parker, of Watkins,	to school; I certainly thought he was
MONUMENTO	wearing one of his buttons, while	conception of what a "gentleman"	Mrs. James Williams, of Oak Hill	Car load Cook Stoves.		a professor as he made such a pros- found bow to me this morning. I
MONUMENTS	while Billy Reed has only two lone	is. We would not be a "gentle-	township.	Car load of Sheet Iron and Flues. Big lot of Buggy Harness.		will say to the lady from Cedar TOMPOTONES	buttons.	man" after his standard or type at	The interment took place Thurs-	Prices are correct. Let us sell you.	dav	Grove (if she has not found it out and TOMBSTONES	-The Superior Court Clerk's of-	any rateWilmington Messenger.	the farm of Mr. J. W. Adcock,	mch13. EDWARDS & WINSTON.	Miss Cora Satterwhite, of Dur-	yet) there are others in the village
AT WAYS ON HAND	fice this week has been in charge of Mr. J. W. Brown, as it is said that	"Goodby Old Party, Goodby."	witnessed by a large number of	The Place to Buy Millinery.	ham, is visiting in our neighbor-	that bow politely too.
ALWAIS ON HAND.	Mr. J. M. Sikes and Dr. A. J. Dalby	CARD CARD CARD, MARK SHOULD BE SHOULD BE	relatives and friends. Our warmest		hood	Died, at his home in Little River township on March 25th, at 10.45
	are canvassing among their respec- tive leaders in the county in the in-	tiad her husband by the thumbs to	condolence go out to our friend in	ing just returned from Baltimore	Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Currin visited	o'clock, Mr. F. N. Wilson, aged 44	75.1
All work guaranteed and a pleasure to			the hour of his sore affliction.	ing just returned from Dartinore give satisfaction. Write for designs.	terest of fusion. This accounts for	a bed post and flogged him with a	and the second s	and New York where she purchased	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur-	years, 7 months and 26 days; and on terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first	and the second s	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday.	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa-
C 1 77 11 73 1	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby,"	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. -The News and Observer of April	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi-	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL.	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28
C. J. Hulin, Prop'r,	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only.	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps,	March 26th, at 8.10 o'elock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the
	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street	March 26th, at 8.10 o'elock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as
	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor,	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon.	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves
mch27 6m DURHAM, N. C.	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest.	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they
Accent at Oxford I S HALL	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER.	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy-	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn
Agent at Oxford, J. S. HALL,	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the Populists will prove dead game in	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER.	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps. We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy- ery.	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services
Menzi 6m DURHAM, N. C. Agent at Oxford, J. S. HALL,	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee in the county of King William. The constitution of the state will	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to compliment Mrs. Tucker on her ex- cellent qualities, and commend her	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the Populists will prove dead game in favor of free silver instead of pie?	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER. Big bargains in picture frames.	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy- ery. Aunt Mary Jones, a most worthy	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton, of Roxboro The procession nums
Medal on DURHAM, N. C. Agent at Oxford, J. S. HALL, Do you	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee in the county of King William. The constitution of the state will not, however, permit any of her sex	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to compliment Mrs. Tucker on her ex- cellent qualities, and commend her to other women as an example. Sup-	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the Populists will prove dead game in favor of free silver instead of pie ? Holton, Chairman Republican Com- mittee says fusion never on Butler's	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER. Big bargains in picture frames. Mouldings and frames at greatly re- duced prices for cash until the 15th	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy- ery. Aunt Mary Jones, a most worthy old colored woman, died on the 26th	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton, of Roxboro The procession num- bered between 600 and 1,000 and was
Medal on DURHAM, N. C. Agent at Oxford, J. S. HALL, Do you	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee in the county of King William. The constitution of the state will not, however, permit any of her sex	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to compliment Mrs. Tucker on her ex- cellent qualities, and commend her to other women as an example. Sup- pose Mrs. Peffer were to take pat-	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the Populists will prove dead game in favor of free silver instead of pie ? Holton, Chairman Republican Com- mittee says, fusion never on Butler's plan as the Republicans are the big	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER. Big bargains in picture frames. Mouldings and frames at greatly re- duced prices for cash until the 15th of this month at Brinkley's photo-	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps. We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy- ery. Aunt Mary Jones, a most worthy old colored woman, died on the 26th of March.	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton, of Roxboro The procession num- bered between 600 and 1,000 and was the largest ever seen at Little River
Medal on DURHAM, N. C. Agent at Oxford, J. S. HALL, Do you	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee in the county of King William. The constitution of the state will not, however, permit any of her sex to hold an office, and consequently this innovation can not be carried out.	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to compliment Mrs. Tucker on her ex- cellent qualities, and commend her to other women as an example. Sup- pose Mrs. Peffer were to take pat- tern after her !	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the Populists will prove dead game in favor of free silver instead of pie ? Holton, Chairman Republican Com- mittee says, fusion never on Butler's plan as the Republicans are the big end of combine and will not give the	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER. Big bargains in picture frames. Mouldings and frames at greatly re- duced prices for cash until the 15th of this month at Brinkley's photo-	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps, We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy- ery. Aunt Mary Jones, a most worthy old colored woman, died on the 26th of March. 1 want to see our little town rep-	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton, of Roxboro The procession nums bered between 600 and 1,000 and was the largest ever seen at Little River church. HUMBUG.
Medica 6m DURHAM, N. C. Agent at Oxford, J. S. HALL, Do you Want the Best ?	terest of fusion. This accounts for Dr. Dalby's careless talk about free silver, as his platform must be for spoils only. —For the first time in the history of the Old Dominion a woman—and a pretty one, too—has been elected to a position of public trust. The position is that of a school trustee in the county of King William. The constitution of the state will not, however, permit any of her sex	a bed post and flogged him with a cowhide, is the woman who first sang "Goodby, Old Party, Goodby," on the political stump when the Populists sent Peffer's whiskers to the Senate to succeed Ingalls. She is a politician and a stump speaker, like Yellin Lease. In his speech during the campaign Peffer used to compliment Mrs. Tucker on her ex- cellent qualities, and commend her to other women as an example. Sup- pose Mrs. Peffer were to take pat- tern after her ! A Victim.	Butler Issues His Edict to the Reps. —The News and Observer of April 2 publishes in full Senator Butler's ultimatum on fusion and says the Populists must have the Governor, Legislature and a Free Silver Sena- tor to succeed Pritchard, and no gold bug need apply. We wonder if the Populists will prove dead game in favor of free silver instead of pie ? Holton, Chairman Republican Com- mittee says, fusion never on Butler's plan as the Republicans are the big	and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of latest novelities in millinery and trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- tation to the ladies in country and town to call and examine our stock before placing their orders for spring and summer hats. Our prices will be as low as the lowest. L. & C. KRONHEIMER. Big bargains in picture frames. Mouldings and frames at greatly re- duced prices for eash until the 15th of this month at Brinkley's photo- graph gallery. apl 3-tf.	the family of Mr. S. Tippett S. tur- day and Sunday. PEARL. Hester Helps. We have not finished our street car track yet, but hope we will soon. Mr. L. N. Caveniss' baby is very sick, and we hope it a speedy recoy- ery. Aunt Mary Jones, a most worthy old colored woman, died on the 26th of March.	March 26th, at 8.10 o'clock, his fa- ther, Mr. C. R. Wilson, followed, aged 68 years, 10 months and 28 days. One could hardly realize the gloom that hung oves that home as the father and son lay side by side cold in death. F. N. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, and they both leave a host of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton, of Roxboro The procession nums bered between 600 and 1,000 and was the largest ever seen at Little River church. HUMBUG.

