VOLUME IX---NO. 17.

OXFORD, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1896.

SIMMONS

dways about, and the e and relief is to keep the You must help the Liver a bit, elect is the Old Friend, SIM-EGULATOR, the RED Z. of Lancaster, Ohio, for me, and less than new fence. business. I shall use and recommend it." you get it. Always look for the package. And don't REGULATOR. It is SIM-REGULATOR, and there is very one who takes it is efited. THE BENEFIT IS IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for sness and Sick Headache; both are and a sluggish Liver. J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

Jackson's Ice Cold Drinks.

Poison, Garden Seeds, I have them for sale.

J. P. STEDMAN, "The Old Reliable,"

The old reliable house is still

AFILE STOCK OF MONUMENTS and TOMBSTONES

ALWAYS ON HAND.

Work guaranteed, and a pleasure to atisfaction. Write for designs.

J. Hulin, Prop'r, C. GILL DURHAM, N. C.

gent at Oxford, I. S. HALL,

Do you Want the Best?

IF SO, GO TO ---

Brinkley's

raphs are the best in North If keeps the best line of Picand Mouldings in town. made to order. No stairs to J. D. BRINKLEY, Oxford, N. C.

BEAL, B. HAYS

one connection at reidence.

A FEW BITES.

Little Minnows of News Caught in the Stream of a Week's Happenings

-Improvements in the side walks and crossings are still in progress. -Gardening is now all the go to our office Thursday morning.

among the house-keepers of Oxford. -Major B. S. Royster is adding

-John Young had a bunch of nice raddish on the streets one day last

-The loving kiss of a child yi brates the tender strings of angel

-Dr. Henry Herndon is putting up back porches to his brick office building.

-Mr. J. M. Currin has enlarged his front yard and enclosed it with a in Chattanooga, May 7th. -We are glad to learn that Mr.

N. B. Cannady who has been quite sick continues to improve. -The Oxford & Cost Line is likely to remain among the sleepers, that seem to know no wakening. -Superior Court Clerk, Mr. J. M. Sikes, is getting ready for court, aware of.

which convenes on Monday. -Mr. West Brummitt has removed with his family back to the country Miss Check, of Durham. His brother, and gone regularly to farming.

-Our Warehousemen enjoyed good breaks of tobacco on Tuesday and prices were about as usual. -The improvements in the Gillam residence is in progress. Mr. A. B. Spencer is doing the work. -The new drug store of Mr. F. W. Hancock will be a beauty when he has everything in proper shape.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hancock roor jury system, which enables occupy the residence of Mrs. Haroccupy the residence of Mrs. Hartheir elients off clear of punishment.

-Alabama swings grandly into the free silver column led by Capt.

Willie Blackley, of Henderson, with Max and son, of Durham, were on their elients off clear of punishment.

-Ex-suage winston and Mr. A..

Willie Blackley, of Henderson, with Max and son, of Durham, were on their elients off clear of punishment.

-Ex-suage winston and Mr. A..

Willie Blackley, of Henderson, with Miss Blanche Morgan, of Durham; our streets Monday.

WHITE 175

fine sorrell trotting horse, along of harness, to Mr. Henry Strause, of in the slot and Jackson will take run in the interest of Wall street. Henderson.

-Excitement in regard to the gold discoveries in Cabarrus county con-

-If you live by the thermometer this is summer. If you rely upon the almanac, it is spring. As to whether it is a late or early summer, however, pinions differ.

-Some of the sweet little cherubs of Broad street are numbered with the many carling babies that roll along Main street these sunny days in their carriages.

-Mr. John Pope, one of the most liberal citizens of Richmond, and doth Balls, Camphor Gum, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Broomfield Ridley, the old time colout Powder, Ouicksilver, Bed American Tobacco Co., died in that ored Republican, as he will be here city last week. He left an estate of bright and early Monday, occupying

-The News and Observer is being | ing to be put on the jury. badly printed these days. Brother Daniels stir up that pressman of yours as good press work is one of to have a large furniture factory in gram Monday summoning him to the from mills in that section. bed side of his brother, Mr. Lon Hunt, who is quite sick at Fortress thing for an old time handsome Durknown, but thought to have been Monroe. We are glad to learn that ham bachelor, as he has became a caused by a lamp left burning. he is much better, and on the road benedict. Capt. U. B. Wahab was to recovery.

-The following farmers sold tobacco Tuesday with Hunt & Williams and gathered in the following -The stock of goods of Mr. E. T. Rawlins was sold at auction on Mon-It was knocked off to Mrs. Rawlins at $1,600. The many friends of Mr. vote of 27 to 26. It provides for day by Major B. S. Royster, trustee. Rawlins will welcome him back in $70,000 to be used in making the exbusiness again. Of course Luther periment of carrier delivery of mails Russell is behind the counters as he in the country and contemplates a is one of the fixtures.

-Everything around the Orphan Asylum looks quite busy. The brick yard is turning out brick for the new buildings, while digging out the going on. The grounds and walks stock company with our esteemed foundations for five of them are printing department.

-April is the pilot of spring, the generous guide.

ver, "that you can get a separation The silence of gray April skies is from your wife on account of her broken by, their callings, the soft making a practice of throwing breezes, the mornings sweet with the Photograph making a practic things at the dog."

the man with the haggard look and the deep woods, and the woods in the black eye, "nigh every time she turn breaking into bud and bloom— throws at the dog she hits me!"— this is the opening song of spring-Indinanapolis Journal.

-The kind of men who build up a town or a county, and enjoy life and doing business in Oxford for quite a be as low as the lowest. make the best citizens are energetic, while, having charge of the store of tall's drug store, Look for my enterprising and liberal men; who Messrs. W. H. Randolph & Co., has believe in living and letting others packed up and removed the goods to live, and who, when they get a dol- Tillery. Mr. Joe has made many lar: don't squeeze it until the god- friends in town who regreted to bid dess of liberty feels as though she him good by yesterday, but we are month of Ju y, on professional business. had on a corset. Such squeezing is inclined to believe that we shall see He requests that all desiring his profes who has left my employment without what causes the hard times and stops him occasionally, as he has been sional services to remember the time and provocation. the circulation of the American captivated by one of Granville's call and make engagements when he connection at relatives.

-Read administrator's notice of Ralph Currin.

-Judge A. W. Graham is dispensing justice in Edgecombe coun

-Mr. R. H. D. Gooch, of Dayton, Wake county, was a welcome visitor

-It is now claimed that the recently discovered gold mines near

-Mrs. Pattie Arrington is after sustain your county paper. Spier Whitaker again. She has instituted suit against him fer $1,300 damages.

-Dr. Kilgore, says the Durham Sun, preached at Hickory last Sunday and raised $2,500 to help build a new church at that place.

-Rev. W. C. Tyree, of Durham is one of the delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention which meets

-Col. A. B. Andrews will act as President of the great Southern sys tem 3 months during the absence of President Spencer to Europe. -The gold standard men in North

State than the general public is -Mr. T. Y. Allen, of Skipwirth. Va, was married on Wednesday to ded the nuptial. -As a mark of respect to the memory of ex-Governor Holt, Monday the day of his funeral, every one of the 22 cotton-mills in Alamance county shut down and their bells Carolina. It is largely due to the and rosy.

mer attractions.

-Despite all that has been claims ed by the Reed men that McKinley could not sweep North Carolina it looks like he has scooped in 18 votes, and Slippery Tommie Settle has more." proved a failure in managing Reed's campaign in this State.

-Court will convene on Monday, so look out for "bench warmer" a front seat in the courthouse wait-

-Why can't Oxford join the procession? Read this: Burlington is the essentials to the success of a which considerable capital is being placed. A mill is being equipped at -Dr. J. G. Hunt received a tele- Salisbury to work up cotton waste > married in Raleigh Thursday, to Miss Nettie Terry. We extend our congratulations to our old friend.

prices: E. G. Morris, $161, 211, beautiful May, and still the new April twen y-fourth. Those who re-33½, 12‡, 7½, 15½, 25, 35½, 12‡ and 8. A. E. Bobbitt, 17, 25, and 26. W. T. Allen, 10, 14‡, 26‡, 13‡, and 9‡.

Baptist church is not finished. We hope the able Rev. J. S. Hardaway will have the opportunity of preach-looking forward with pleasure to edifice by the first of January 1897.

trial in the sparse as well as in the thickly settled States.

-The Kinston Free Press is now published semi-weekly. It is seven column, and handsomely printed, and well edited. It is run by a vent of a semi-weekly paper.

-From sunnier climes on eager -"I hardly think," said the law- wing the birds are all returning. roundelay of robin and bluebird, the "But, Great Caesar, mister!" said voice of the wind ringing through time.

handsome young ladies.

-Summer has struck us with full force, the thermometer up to 90.

-Read the changes in the adver tisements of Mr. W. D. Lynch, and Dr. J. P. Stedman. -Senator Butler presided over the United States Senate Wednesday very creditably says the News & Ob some improvements to his attractive Oxford will yield $30 to each ton of tion for the Public Ledger. It will and it was like a fairy scene as the dropped in to see us Thursday. prove a good investment beside help couples glided through the mystic

> -Grover's a first-rate fisherman, And he fishes soon and late; But 16 to 1 he'll never catch The third term bait.

-If you want to help the editor when you buy goods from any of our tiful daughters. advertisers be sure and tell them you saw their advertisement in the Pub-LIC LEDGER.

nan in Oxford to don a straw hat. He appeared with one on Sunday between him and his girl. -The Republican State committee the time arrived to close the dance

Carolina are now saying that they convention to settle disputes as to membered as one of the most enjoy- Marsh. have really more strength in the delegates. It will be a big job as able ever given in the State. county after county is coming for ward with contests. -Philosophic men see only destiny and not a perversion of economic principle in a wife's being remin-Mr. G. L. Allen, of Wilton, atten- | ded that she wants a new hat when | the head of the house lays aside his winter hat and dons a new straw.

greeting Thursday morning the three liams with Miss Fannie Skinner; L. bright little boys of Mr. and Mrs. P. Landis with Miss Lula Biggs; Dr. Mrs. Gibson, of Wilton, were on our Chas. Landis, who were at one time I. H. Davis with Miss Lizzie Hil- streets Tuesday. our close neighbors. They looked liard; J. C. Thomas with Miss Lottie Kinston Free Press says crime ap- as if though Horner Hights agreed Britt; H. L. Skinner with Miss An-

-The sizz of Jackson's Soda beat a gold standard man for nomi--Mr. T. W. Winston has sold his Fountain is now heard, and his store nation for Governor. He is a banker is headquarters for different and in a position to see and feel the with a handsome new buggy and set kinds of cool drinks. Drop a nickle evils of a system of finances that is pleasure in assisting you in keeping -Pops and Reps have fused in -The Orinoca Club is proving a fax. A Rep says that the Populists and Mrs. G. Dusenbery. tinues. The 24 pound gold nugget is success, and is a source of great would be willing to fuse everywhere pleasure to the members. All the on the Warren county terms, "the latest newspapers and periodicals Populists took everything and the and Wade Cheek, of Henderson. are on file in the reading room. Republicans the remainder." Yes, Lawn tennis will be one of the sum- they want all the seats at the pie Taylor, J. B. Williams, C. L. Skincounter as that is what the leaders ner, Payne, W. H. Hunt, R. O. are crying for.

> -"Maw," said the little boy "Johnny is such a mugwump that I don't want to sleep with him any

"A mugwump?"

-Mr. J. T. Purgason, of Mt. that Mr. Reamus Strother, at Wilton, had the misforture to have his dwelling burned on Tuesday night. The tamily did not have time after awakening to save but a small amount of furniture and a few cloth--Leap year has accomplished one ing. The origin of the fire is not

-The class in Elocution at The -April will soon give way to House on the evening of Friday, will have the opportunity of preach- looking forward with pleasure to ing his first sermon in the handsome seeing the young ladies of the class in this beautiful drama. The pro-- Senator Butler's amendment to ceeds will be given for the building

An Early Bath.

Capt. W. H. White arrived in Henderson Sunday morning and hunting around secured a conveyance to come home. He left there clothes,

The Place to Buy Millinery.

Our Miss Carrie Kronheimer haying just returned from Baltimore and New York where she purchased a handsome and fashionable line of

L. & C. KRONHEIMER.

Dr. J. E. Wyche Coming. Dr. J. E. Wyche, will make his annual visit to Oxford, and remain during the api17. | April 14, 1806.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT.

day Night.

On last Friday night the lovers of the dance enjoyed one of the most delightful Germans ever given in Oxford. Armory Hall was filled with the grace, beauty and gallantry -Put a dollar in a years subscript of Oxford and neighboring towns > figures. Besides the dancers there were many spectators who enjoyed the de lightful music and lovely dances. It was in Oxford Thursday shopping. was a typical Southern gathering and portrayed the grace, ease and elegance of our noble sons and beau-ulated on the brilliant success of ping. this German, which is but another -Mr. Sam Hobgood was the first evidence of the splendid manner in which our people always do what they undertake. The best of order noon and probably it caused a coolness prevailed and everything combined to make it all that could be wished day for Baltimore to buy new spring that night and made as usual a good for. Many regrets were heard when goods.

> Maj. Cook, in his usual easy and of Warnenton, Va. The following Tuesday. couples were present: Maj. E. P. Warrenton, Va.; T. Lanier with Miss ston this week.

M. B. Gregory; W. E. Massenburg with Miss Ida Gregory; C. H. Easton with Miss Annie Booth; J. C. Biggs -The editor had the pleasure of with Miss Willie Skinner; H. G. Wil- Mr. Alex Feild. son with Miss Laura Newland; E. streets Wednesday. M. Foote, of Henderson, with Miss Lila Tucker, of Henderson; Henry Strause, of Henderson, with Miss day. Carrie Wize, of Alexandria, Va.;

> Stags.-Dr. T. L. Booth, Phil Hawkins, W. M. Gulick, F. J. Crews Chaperones.-Mesdames W. R.

> > Not Our Fault.

At quite a number of postoffices in the county the PUBLIC LEDGER fail- two prominent gentlemen of the "Yes, mamma. Didn't you tell to Tuesday had not reached Clay, me that a mugwump was some one Tar River and Watkins. We had who would not take either side? the mail in the postoffice at Oxford fine looking ladies of the Hester sec And that's the way with Johnny, one hour and a half before closing tion, was numbered with the shop-He always wants to sleep in the mail time on Friday morning, and middle of the bed." - Cincinati En- hence we are not to blame for it. It is something new to us that mail matter has to be put in a postoffice more than one hour and a half be-Energy, was in Oxford Thursday and fore closing time to insure its trancalled to see us. He informed us sit. At any rate such delays damage our business. be held responsible for mail matter after it leaves his office, but we cannot see why the paper should fail to the railroads in the county under of the Regimental officers at Wil- or fourth cash. Balance on time, if dethree and four days. Our paper has not yet reached Hester and did not reach Hargrove, 6 miles from Ox-Francis Hilliard School will give a ford, until Saturday evening. We ates against our business. - Another postoffice heard from. Up to Wednesday evening the Public LEDGER had not reached Mt. Energy being just 5 days out roaving around among the unknown. We will thank each one of the postmasters in the county if they will inform us what day the PUBLIC LEDGER of April 10th arrived at their respective offices.

Rawlins Dry Goods and Shoe Co.

The stock of goods formerly owned by Mr. E. T. Rawlins of this place about two o'clock and nothing oc- has been purchased by Mrs. Tazzie curred until he reached a creek near L. Rawlins, and the business will be Carlton. It being dark the driver conducted as Rawlins Dry Goods could not see which way to drive so and Shoe .Co. Mr. E. T. Rawlins are being graded. New presses and friend, W. S. Herbert as editor. We he run the risk and drove down in for sixteen years one of our leading new engine have been put in the congratulate Kinston upon the adup on the side of a high sandbank best efforts will be given to please The Elkin Times of last week and over went the buggy, catching We are very much gratified that Mr. says: "The citizens of Elkin were Capt. White and the driver under Rawlins will still be identified with get the damning, black days of Re- to read. - Durham Sun. precious harbinger of grandeurs and treated to a spectacle last week that it. The boy held to the reins while our business interest and the town Neither Russell nor Dockery raised glories only waiting the touch of the sun and tempered breezes. And when April pilots the way what when April pilots the way whe wakenings from the soft brown earth, what responses from the lanindex elected at the last election." the Captain reacned Oxford it was right dealings entitle him to. Fresh about day and he was glad. His goods will be added from time to judges elected at the last election." Letter helf took in the situation at a line of the captain reacned Oxford it was right dealings entitle him to. Fresh dition. He was one of the fusion about day and he was glad. His judges elected at the last election." earth, what responses from the languorous fields, what showers and lengthened days to welcome this lengthened days to welcome the land the was glad. This length day and the was glad. This length post of duty and bespeak for the new firm a full share of public pat-detract from the appearance of the Commissioners of Oxford. Every best dressed man. Style, material citizen of Oxford is interested in latest novelities in millinery and and finish must all be right to en- good government and we urge the trimmings, we extend a cordial invi- sure a satisfactory garment. Messrs. Democrats to attend this meeting tation to the ladies in country and Noell Bros., of Roxboro, N. C., and see to it that only men who are town to call and examine our stock make a specialty of trousers at $2 68 competent and interested in the before placing their orders for spring These goods are guaranteed as well town's welfare and prosperity, are -Mr. Joe Randolph, who has been and summer hats. Our prices will as tailor made trousers, and to be named for office. Don't stay at home

Long Bros., Oxford, N. C. ESPECIAL ATTENTION.

All persons are hereby warned not to W. A. BRUMMITT,

Oxford, N. C.

THE TRAVELLERS.

Easter German a Great Success Fri- People That Move with the Times--They go Forward, of Course,

-Mr. L. E. Wright visited Louisourg this week. -Mr. W. H. McCabe, of Durham, was on our streets Friday. -Mr. R. T. Slaughter, of Berea,

-Mr. J. M. Currin returned Monday from a visit to Richmond. -Mrs. Pete Thorp, of Oak Hill -Miss Nettie Hunt, of Fishing

The management is to be congrat- Stem, were in Oxford Thursday shop- night.

son, was on our streets Friday after- ed in on them and spoiled some of -Mr. E. T. Rawlins left Wednesis to meet one day before the State and this German will long be re- Va., is the guest of Mrs. R. H -Miss Ela Hays, of Chase City, > -Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Bryan, of graceful style, led with Miss Hicks, Stem, spent a few hours in Oxford little boy the calf run over.

-Mr. Joe Webb is attending a Cook with Miss Landon Hicks, of meeting of the Presbytery at Kin- they were both at great disadvant--Miss Fannie L. Goodwin, of Warren county, is visiting her uncle, -Mr. T. C. Rogers, and daughter,

-Mr. Roberts, one of the leaf pears to be on the increase in North with them as their cheeks were red nis Hughes; Henry Macy, of Hender-dealers of Henderson, was on our

> Daisy Stephens, of Henderson; Sid Mr. J. F. Usry, of Fishing Creek, -Mr. S. T. Parrott, of Hester, and

-- Mr. E. Plummer, daughter and Julian Ingle, of Henderson with Miss aunt, of Petersburg, Va., visited Warren but decline to do so in Hali- Pat Lou Jones, of Henderson; Mr. Rev. and Mrs. James Plummer this

> -Messrs, D. W. Hockaday and L. Woodlief, of New Light, visited Oxford Monday and called to see the editor. -Mr. James Pleasants, one of the handsome young men of Creedmoor, smiled in upon the office force Wed--Messrs. Shelburn and Mebane, Tuesday. -Miss Lettie Bullock, one of the pers in Oxford Friday.

last week the guest of Miss Mary B. | was, "Has Leak arrived yet?" and Gregory on College street.

merchandising at Berea, and Mr. S. Of course our postmaster cannot M. Evans, merchant at Satterwhite, were on our streets Tuesday. -Col. W. A. Bobbitt and Capt. J. Crawford Biggs attended a meeting which I will sell very cheap. One-third mington this week in regard to holding an encampment this year. -Messrs. D. G. Bullock, of Stem, S. F. Coley, Jr., of Lyon's, Glaude presentation of scenes from "The regret exceedingly to have to com- Allen, of Wilton, and W. A. Mc-Merchant of Venice," at the Opera Hain, but it is a serious matter with House on the evening of Friday. Us as such uncalled-for delays oper-spects to the Public Ledger Tues-good repair and can be gotten at a > -Master Wilber Smith, who has been spending some days with his ford, N. C. father, Mr. S. H. Smith, and grandfather, Dr. D. C. White, returned Wednesday to Mrs. J. B. Floyd's where he now makes his home.

Did They Protest? when the robbers were cursing and structs you and your wife and outraging North Carolina in the teaches your children; it comes to black days-1868 70-who ever heard you every week rain or shine, calm either Judge Russell or Dockery re- or storm, bringing you the best news nouncing Black Radicalism or say- of the neighborhood. No matter ing a word in condemnation of the what happens, it enters your doors a manifold injuries and crimes being welcome guest, full of sunshine, visited upon their native State they cheer and interest. It shortens long should have loyed, honored, and summer days and enlivens long winwretches and scoundrels. have not forgotten and will not for- does not give them the home paper construction in North Carolina. voice or lifted a hand to save their

Town Democratic Convention. The Democratic electors of Oxford

will meet in the court house this A poorly cut pair of trousers will Friday night, the 17th instant, to all the most exacting could desire as and then blame others for any mistake that may be made. If you love to fabric, finish, and fit. Sold by Oxford and want it to prosper nomi nate the best men and you will not be disappointed. Be on hand and

> When you need a new pair of hand-made shoes, or repairing done be sure to ment Food Report.
>
> A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest o all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report. call on Morris Bros., the shoe makers on Royal Baking Powder Co., Main street. Satisfaction guaranteed.

let us have a rousing convention.

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

Had a Big Time Thursday, but Leak Held Them Down at Night.

THE TWO BILLS HAPPY.

The two Bills, the favorites of the Third party in Granville, were in their glory last Thursday at the head of the "cession," but not for the best interests of their race as such men care but little for them so long as the white Pops and Reps put the cold stuff in their pockets to whoop up and gull the colored voter and put pie-counter seekers in office. We believe that Billie Royster and "my partner" Bill Crews got up the emancipation celebration for the purpose of getting a large crowd of Creek, is visiting Miss Lula Knott. the faithful together and have a rip--Mr. and Mrs. George Stem, of roaring old political meeting at

The scheme was nicely laid but -Mr. Sidney Cooper, of Hender- the colored orator of Raleigh Leaktheir plans, as they were going to run the meeting in favor of Russell and fusion. Rev. Leak was on hand straight Republican speech, pouring hot shot into the fusion camp. Of course the Billies were quite mute and submissive in the face of such a giant fighter for the true principles of Republicanism and were like the

As Billie Royster and his beaver were chief moguls of the meeting age and could not cope with brains, as Rev. Leak was soon master of the situation. He had resolutions passed endorsing Dockery for Governor, Settle for Congress and Holton for Chairman of the Executive Committee. It is not known whether the proceedings were satisfactory to Reps and Pops or not, but they certainly could not have been to Loge Harris, of Raleigh.

-Ex-Judge Winston and Mr. A. Just received a Car Load of Best Burn-

WHITE 175 Test.

RED 160 Test. WHITE 160 Test.

Clean out your Lamps and put in new wicks and we guarantee every gallon of oil we sell. EDWARDS & WINSTON.

A second hand Steel Centennial Corn Planter with Fertilizer Attachment for sale. A bargain. EDWARDS & WINSTON.

He Slept On. The great Capt. Hester give way fully to the emancipation celebration on Thursday, and fell into gentle slumbers while the orators discussed the rapid strides the colored race had made during the last 30 years. But not a single word was ed to turn up until Monday, and up revenue department were in Oxford uttered about the race being the slaves to the Republican and Third party Bosses. Of course Capt. Hester slept on as he had in view the political part that Bill Royster's plug had maped out for that night, and only awakened from his slumbers -Miss Blanche Morgan, of Dur- about four o'clock in the afterham, spent a few days in Oxford noon. The first words he uttered Grant Foster replied "he has my Lord, who slumbereth in the hour of -Mr. R. J. Daniel, who is now

> FOR SALE. I have for sale in Warren county sev eral grain, grass, cotton and tobacco farms > > Warrenton, N. C.

FOR SALE, A second-hand Hammond typewriter for sale cheap. Machine in bargain. For particulars address this office or Lock Box No. 96, Ox-

The County Paper. Any man can take a newspaper. It is the cheapest thing he can buy. It costs less than a postage stampless than to send or receive a letter. The Wilmington Messenger says, What good does it do you? It insought to save from the remorseless ter evenings. It is your adviser, your gossip and friend. No man is People have memories, and they just to his wife and children who

106 Wall St., New York

