peath of Mrs. Newton Hobgood, The Sunset section loses one of is noble women in the death of Mrs. Newton Hobgood, which sad event occurred Tuesday, after an illness of two weeks with dysentery. She was 44 years of age, and a number of Hesters Baptist church. she leaves no children, but a devoted husband who is now bowed down with sorrow over the great less he has been called upon to sus-

Mrs Hobgood was a loving wife, a true and sympathizing friend, kind neighbor, and more than all these she was a noble christian woman, of whom it can be truly said, in all the opportunities for doing publisher what she could. Another good thing can be said devoted to the children placed un- painter. ler her care and management.

by her pustor, Rev. R. H. Marsh, Tuesday. and all that was mortal of her was When she passed beneath the shadows (tod opened her eves on the glories of the eternal day.

of and sees the bright, eternal doors They deall be clothed with endless life, i dilno in everlasting day."

In this deep affliction our warmest sympathies go out to the bereaved ones.

New Pastor.

We had the pleasure on Sunday morning of hearing Rev. A. Shorter Caldwell, a dintinguished divine. preach in the Presbyterian church, who will for two months supply the vacancy in the pastorate. He comes to us from Florida, though he is of good old North Carolina Scotch of Mecklenburg county. He is an silver wave continues to roll on. able, learned, consecrated minister, and our Presbyterian friends are to be congratulated upon securing his services even temporarily. We extend a warm welcome to him and his

E. C. Schwitzerlet, of Oxford, N. ng. Only the best material used, and other counties. satisfaction guaranteed, jel5.1t.

I have for sale 2 Cloth Washing Mecaines, 1 Jumper and 3 Dish Washers, at a bargain. Apply to It.pd.

We have real bargains in several 2nd hand Buggies. Jel5-2t. EDWARDS & WINSTON.

DRUGGIST,

Physicians' Prescriptions carefully and accurately compounded by competent pharmacists at all hours.

OXFORD, N. C.

Nothing but the purest Drugs used.

Full Line Patent Medicines!

Full line of School Books, Blank Books, Stationery, Pens and

Cigarettes, Tobacco, Cigars, Confectioneries,

Toilet Articles, Perfumery, Soaps, etc. Our soda fountain is in full blast. All the most fashionable drinks

MARVIN'S CHARM WAFERS,

b. Caddies and the price is only bill. to cents at Jackson's.

and all the leading drinks at

A FEW BITES.

Little Minnows of News Caught in the Stream of a Week's Happenings

-Democrats in one township in Wake send two Populists to the county convention.

Mexico, is at his home near Weldon on a 30 days leave of absence.

confined at home a few days with out this issue.

severe tooth ache, is out again. -Mr. Wright Spencer has been confined at home some days on account of an attack of billious fever. -Vice-President Stevenson and party met with a warm reception good which God gave her, "sle during their visit to the State last

-The Gilliam residence is now of her, she was truly a good-step- being greatly improved under the mother, being exceeding y kind and skillful hand of Mr. Ball Smith, the

-William Royster, the jailor ear-The funeral services took place ried Arvry Anderson, colored to the on Wednesday afternoon conducted Insane Asylum at Goldsboro on

- Tobacco sold well in Oxford had to rest in the old family bury- Tuesday, some bringing as high as ing ground, amid sorrows and tears. $35.00 per hundred at Wilkerson's

> -- The Progressive Farmer says the Populists will vote for no man for President whom the Democrats nom inate at Chicago. -Mr. Dennis O'Briant, one of Berea's oldest citizens, died some days the bereayed family.

-Mr. H. M. Shaw laid on our table Wednesday a cucumber 101 nches long. It is the largest we have seen this season.

-We are requested by Mr. R. S. name to any gold-bug circular.

-The Texas primaries went almost solid for free silver, and endorsed Irish stock, his father being a native the present State government. The

> -The Chatham county Democrats declare for free silver, one convention, Col. J. S. Carr for Governor and Capt. S. A. Ashe for Treasurer.

-We are authorized to state that Major John W. Graham did not sign nor authorize his signature to ., solicits your patronage for the gold bug circular that is being Watch, Clock and Jewelry repair- distributed throughout Granville

Mrs. H. T. Beasley died in Louis- stuffing out of Nellie."-Concord be afraid." burg on Friday aged two years The remains were interred near Stem on Saturday. To the bereaved we extend our sympathies.

made such a splended reputation honor Judge A. W. Graham, who Shorter Caldwell officiating. The and D. C. Farabow. wherever he has held court since his has declined to seek the nomination. church was filled by a large crowd For the Legislature the vote reelevation to the bench, has com- Capt. Parker is a pure christian gen- of sorrowing friends and relatives, sulted in Messrs. John King, of Oak pleted his Spring Courts and will be tleman, well equipped for the bench at home for two months.

-Dr. S. H. Cannady, who comes as near knowing how to take it easy in a buggy as any one we ever saw, is now the owner of a handsome new Babcock buggy. They are one of the most comfortable now sold on Theodore Davidson, of Buncumbe, take advantage of the bargains they Cooper and others. will be presented before the Demo | are now offering. cratic State convention for Governor.

-CONUNDRUM.-(Original .-- Patent University Station? At University believe we speak the living truth wards, Hugh Skinner, W. J. Long. sion. Station a change of cars is made for when we say that before the Popu-Chapel Hill, while the Democratic party will change Car(r)s for Governor.-Orange County Observer.

-Our highly cultured townsman, Rev. Junius M. Horner, one of the strongest preachers in the Episcopal church in the State, delivered the sermon before the graduating class at St. Mary's School, Raleigh. The sermon was of rare beauty and excellence, and highly complimented. Lonie Nevills and Frank Weaver vertisement. would be glad to receive any information concerning them. cation with the Patent Office for a through space and you if want a big patent on an economical process for lot of goods for a small amount of I appreciate the hon to watch the heat so he claims.

and talented editor of the Morganton | LEDGER. Herald, gets out a splendid publicait represents a magnificent section and as warm-hearted and hospitable people as ever the sun shone on. But brother, we are getting two The perfection of Grackers, in I copies each week and one will fill the meet in Greensboro, June 24th at 2

Marvin's Cheese Wafers in I of Dr. A. G. Carr, of Durham, who fine canvass as he is a forcible spea- school year ending June 30th, 1896, appointed him their agent for our b. Caddies, 20c. per pound at graduated at the University last er, strong free silverite, and has must be closed on or before Friday, town. He was strongly endorsed by on Saturday from a visit to Concord week was awarded the Worth prize never been found wanting when the 26th inst., and all parties having our business men and other citizens and Chapel Hill. She was accom for the best thesis on philosophy. whenever the party needed his ser- claims against the School fund to for the position, and we in their panied by Miss Gibson, one of the His younger brother, John R. Carr, vices. He has never wavered in his meet me in Oxford on Saturday, 27th name thank the companies for the fair maidens of Concord. bore off the highest honors in the devotion to his party, and every inst., with properly accredited appointment, and can say it is most MINER'S FRUIT NECTAR bore off the highest honors in the devotion to his party, and every linst., with property worthild be barred worthild be barr gentlemen were prepared for college for an office Mr. Green always sup- from collecting the same. The newest Summer Drinks, at the celebrated Horner school in ported him warmly. Now that our Oxford, and we are proud of the high county has the opportunity to return Chairman Board of Education, Gran-that in the course of a few years he it was a pleasure to the editor to standard they have taken at the the favor let us accord to him | ville county, N. C. JACKSON'S Popular Fountain, University.

-Mr. H. C. Patton, a merchant of Asheville, was found in a small pond near town Wednesday.

-James M. Roberts, a farmer in Rockingham county, commits suicide by shooting himself.

-Ladies and others can be accommodated with postage stamps at the -Senator Ransom, Minister to drug store of F. W. Hancock.

-Judge A. W. Graham authorizes us say that he will not be a candistate for the nomination of Judge in this district.

upon the people. -Connecticut Democratic convention instructed for gold and endorsed Cleveland, and the Maryland convention followed suit. -Rev. J. B. Hurley, the excellent pastor of the Methodist church, de-Trinity College this week.

-Mr. I. N. Day, executor of Mrs. Louisa Blacknall, advertises in this

-The Democratic territorial convention at Phoenix, Arizona, cussed Cleveland and whooped it up for 16 tender friends, watched through the Usry to state that he did not sign or authorize any one else to sign his date of the meeting of the Judicial morn.

Will meet at Dullata at 15 beautiful body in its nower linear Cozart, T. J. Brummitt, T. E. Bobdate of the meeting of the Judicial morn. convention.

> PAUL C. GRAHAM, Chmn. taste. In fact Tom Winston says, "first born" in her father's home, it ballot.

Standard.

-Ex-Solicitor E. S. Parker, of Graham, who has many warm friends in this district is a candidate for the -Judge A. W. Graham, who has nomination of Judge in place of his and if nominated and elected would be a credit to the Superior Court bench of North Carolina.

they would go horse, foot, dragoon, rank and file bodily into the Republican party, and do what they could to insure a Republican victory in the State of North Carolina.'

-A great run for bargains at New -Badger Nevills and Johnnie Bank, and you should go early be-Weaver, two boys of Brassfields, fore the stock is picked over. It is

> -Rivet your eyes ye who wish to save a few dollars upon the two big Congressional Democratic convention of this district is called to o'clock, p. m., and we want to see C. B. Green, Esq., of Durham, nomihearty support.

IN THE ARMS OF JESUS.

ford Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Annie Smith Starke is dead, and Oxford mourns; all hearts grieve away in all the pride of youthful -We are very sorry to state that are communications from Kitty II was been Noted by the state of our communications from Kittrell was born Nov. 11, 1872, and was -Mr. W. D. Lynch, who has been and North Granville are crowded married to Luther W. Starke Sept. 123 years old, and her life work is done. One short week ago Mrs. Starke was the embodiment of all that is beautiful in life, the loving wife of a fact that some of them present failed -We are glad to say that the do devoted husband and crowned with to hand in their list of delegates we nothing Congress has at last ad all the sweet graces of motherhood. journed. It placed more bardens Today she is still and cold, deaf to the anguished cry of devoted hus band, sweet prattle of innocent babes and heartbroken mourns of State, Congressional, Judicial and stricken parents. The oldest of nine children she was the stay and comfort as well as the joy and pride of her devoted parents. To the mother vention. The delegates elected are she was not only loving and devoted as follows: livered the address before Alumniat | daughter, but sweet friend and companion; helper and guide to the younger brothers and sisters who loved her with such ardent affection. J. B. V. Tunstall, J. S. Pool, H. C. her couch of pain with love's devotion and her physicians, merged into to 1, sending 6 silver delegate to long hours of night and day that no The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. slightest chance of arresting the dread disease might be lost. All Gregory, W. N. Critcher, J. W. ago. We extend our sympathies to Roger Mathews died Thursday morn- that the most skillful care and tening. Jesus said, "Suffer little chil- der love could do was done to keep dren to come unto me and forbid the beautiful life with us, but the Breedlove, A. Baker, R. T. Chanthem not, for of such is the kingdom fiat had gone forth and the gentle dler, J. R. Wilson. spirit winged its way to the God who

To our earthly eyes this sweet J. W. Harris, S. S. Bragg. young life seemed full of brightest more buggies, better buggies and seemed she might not, could not be cheaper buggies. Read their adver- spared. And yet the stricken husband sits desolate with motherless -A little boy was on his knees, in babes and the girlhood's home has resist the temptation to tickle the nor his thoughts as our thoughts." soles of his feet. He stood it as long and midst the sorrow and desolation

> "And we feel and know that we can go Where'er He leads the way."

come to pay this last tribute of love Hill, and J. R. Buchanan being the and-affection to one so highly es- choice of the convention. Mr. J. W. Mrs. Stedman, was touchingly beau- get the coveted prize. the advertisement of Landis & Eas- of this beautiful young woman was tee is composed of Messrs. A. S. ton in another column, and tell them laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery. Peace and J. W. Brown. that you want some of the bargains As the grave was being filled "Jesus | The following resolution was in--It is now well settled that the offered through the PUBLIC LEDGER. Lover of My Soul" and other heart- troduced by Capt. Peace and adoptnames of Hon. R. A. Doughtion, of This is a clever firm and it is always touching hymns were exquisitely ed: Alleghany, Col. J. S. Carr, of Dur- a pleasure to them to sell goods at rendered by a choir composed of ham, and ex-Attorney General the lowest prices, so be certain to Mrs. Stedman, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. tive Committee by and under the ad-

The pall bearers were: Dr. J. G. the county shall have control of the -This week's Caucasian says Hunt, Dr. E. T. White, W. T. Clem- campaign and the candidacy of our the Populists have no idea of co- ent. Wm. Landis, Judge A. W. Graapplied for.) - What is the difference operating with Democrats of North ham, J. P. Stedman, J. G. Hall, Ed between the Democratic party and Carolina. Listen to the editor. "We Osborn, W. A. Bobbitt, J. F. Ed- vention would do if in regular ses-

gressional District.

was due to no fault of my own, nor | platform: York cost is being made on Paris to a lack of hearty support on your Whereas, The People's party ad-York cost is being made on Paris Bros., and we advise you to get into the swim and you will be sure to save money. Remember they are located in the new store, next to the located in the new store. located in the new store, next to the overwhelmed many of the best and has been a great reduction in the home and have not been heard from. stock of goods, for everybody knows nation, however ignorant and un- ings of the laborer, thereby nearly week and honored us with a visit. They are respectfully 13 and 15 that John and Jim Paris handle only worthy he might have been, would doubling the burden of the tax payyears old. Their fathers, Messrs. first-class lines. Read their big ads have been elected by as large or a ers; and whereas, such reduction has of Wilton, was a visitor at this oflarger majority.

low my name to be used, and as be it -Mr. J. C. Phelps, the agent for fist in this issue of the paper, and Democratic success is almost as- Resolved, That we, the People's the Singer Sewing Machine in Ox- read the great price winners at E. sured the temptation is very great, party in Granville county, are in ford, has just returned from Wash- H. Crenshaw & Co. The bottom in but matters of a personal and busi- favor of a just and equitable reducington City where he filed an appli- prices has about gone glimmering ness nature induce me to decline to tion of all salaries and fees in pro-

I appreciate the honor you con- ucts of labor. Be it farther terest of that party upon which I platform. tion, and we love to read it because Democratic Congressional Conven- believe the salvation of our good old State depends.

A. W. GRAHAM.

Notice! School Teachers and Others. Notice is hereby given that all ability of our highly esteemed young -Edward P. Carr, the oldest son nated for congress. He would make a public schools in the county for the townsman, Mr. Frank Spencer, and Tyree at Durham. T. D. WALLER,

This June 1st, 1896.

POPULIST CONVENTION.

Orderly Body. The County Convention of the Populist party was held in the court for the sweet young mother taken house in Oxford on Wednesday. It was composed of many of our good hitch of any kind occurring. There was not even a speech made nor a 5, 1890, and died June 7, 1896, scarce harsh word of any kind uttered by a single delegate. Mr. Glaude Allen was made chairman and Messrs. J. W. Brown and R. A. Gill secretaries. Owing to the are unable to give them in full, and hence we leave them all out. The first business before the convention was the election of delegates to the Senatorial Conventions. The same delegates chosen for the Congressional will also attend the Judicial Con-

J. B. Elliott, G. L. Allen, J. A. Waller, D. G. Farabow, J. F. Cole, issue some value real estate in the town of Oxford for sale July 20th.

If earthly love could have kept her, then would we not mourn as we do H. Gregory, J. S. Gooch, J. R. Wiltoday for agonized hearts watched son, R. T. Pittard, W. S. Cozart, S. W. Knott, M. L. Winston.

CONGRESSIONAL AND JUDICIAL. J. R. Buchanan, J. I. Champion, J. A. Waller, S. P. Washington, S. Brown, S. P. Brummitt, W. P. Lyon, C. J. Roberts, E. L. Jones, J. P.

SENATORIAL. The Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifth Judicial District will meet at Durham at 12 o'clock on Saturday, June 13, 1896, to fix the Nominations for county officers -Come right along and buy a promise. The gentle hands so full were next in order, and our present cepted a situation in Baltimore left buggy as Edwards & Winston have of loving service for devoted husband Sheriff, W. S. Cozart, and Mr. J. F. just received 25 new buggies of dif- and helpless babes, united with the Cole were placed in nomination and ferent makes, and can suit your beautiful and sacred heritage of Mr. Cozart was nominated on first

Mr. A. S. Peace was unanimously nominated for Treasurer.

For Register of Deeds Messrs. J. W. Brown, J. W. Wilson and Prof. pleasure of his old friends. his little night dress, saying his lost its brightest treasure. Truly A. Baker were placed in nomination. prayers, and his little sister couldn't "God's ways are not as our ways, The vote resulted in Mr. Wilson's nomination. Mr. J. W. Brown was nominated as he could and then said: "Please comes the sweet messa a, "Let not for coroner and respectfully dedrawn. Mr. J. B. V. Tunstall was he has been at school this year. then nominated by acclamation. which mostly interest the people

The funeral services were held were those of County Commissioners from the Presbyterian church Mon- and resulted in the election of day evening at 5 o'clock, Rey. A. Messrs. J. A. Bullock, W. H. Lyon O. Furman and daughter have reteemed by all. The music, led by Brown was voted for but failed to -Of course everybody these hard tiful. The procession was one of the Mr. J. R. Buchanan was elected time are anxious to secure great bar- largest ever seen in Oxford. As the chairman of the County Executive gains and we ask our readers to read sun was setting all that was mortal Committee and the Central Commit- Crews.

Resolved, That the Central Execuvice of the Executive Committee of candidates and to act in things necessary to be done as the county con-Mr. Glaude Allen-called Mr. John lists would consent to such a course To the Democracy of the Fifth Con- King to the chair and introduced the following resolution which was adopted and made some pertinent Two years ago I was selected as remarks thereon, urging the deleour standard bearer in this district. gates to the State Convention to feel that my want of success have it incorporated in the State come visitor to the PUBLIC LEDGER ablest leaders in our party. Any price of everything produced by other representative of that combi- labor which greatly reduces the earn. among the visitors to Oxford this taken place since the establishment fice Wednesday, and the editor was I have been solicited to again al- of the salaries and fees of the public glad to see him enjoying such good offices in North Carolina, therefore health.

portion to the reduction in the prod- Asheville.

curing tobacco. It will save wood silver Crenshaw and Geo. Pittard are ferred upon me, and sincerely thank Resolved. That the delegates from daughter, of Jacksonville, Fla., are ferred upon me, and sincerely thank and do away with setting up at night just the men you are looking for. to watch the heat so he claims. Don't put it off, but go at once and those friends who desire to again the heat so he claims. watch the heat so he claims.

—Brother McKesson, the polished

—Br that is honorable to advance the in- porated in the People's party State

A Deserved Appointment. It is a source of great pleasure to the people of Oxford that the Western Union and Southern Express authorities respectively recognized the strictly to business, and we feel sure chanan, were in Oxford Friday and Latest United States Government Food will attain to higher rank in either meet them in the PUBLIC LEDGER ofone of the companies.

THE TRAVELLERS.

Sad Death of a Popular Lady in Ox- They Nominate a Ful! Ticket -- A Most People That Move with the Times --They go Forward, of Gourse, friends in Durham.

> -Mr. Louis de Lacroix left Monday for New York City.

-Miss Nina Horner is visiting friends at Spartanburg, S. C.

-Miss Rosa Crews is on a visit to -Mr. James Kelley, of Henderson, was on our streets Monday. -Mrs. Herbert Gregory, of Stovall, was on our streets Monday.

-Mrs. Mary L. Hargrove is on visit to relatives in Greensboro. Miss Mary Belle Gregory visited friends in Durham the past week.

-Mr. Rom Parker, of Enfield. was in Oxford two days this week. - Mr. John W. Hays, Jr., of Weldon, visited his old home Friday. -Mr. Thomas Southerland, of Raleigh, was in Oxford Wednesday.

-Mr. A. S. Hall left Monday for Chase City and remain for a month. -Mr. B. E. Parham, of Greenville, was on our streets Saturday. -Mr. J. D. Brooks and son visited relatives in Person county this week. -Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bradford, of Fishing Creek, were on our streets | Prof. Hobgood. Friday.

Monday from a visit to his old home Oxford Monday and the editor enin Bladen.

-Mr. J. H. Meadows returned last week from Baltimore much improved last week at Panacea Springs and is in health.

Iniversity, was on our streets a short while Wednesday. -Mr. Wade H. Britt having ac-

-Mr. T. D. Neal, of Richmond, Va., was moving around among the tobacco boys Wednesday.

on Tuesday for that city.

-Capt. J. A. White, the polite agent of the Southern road at Durham, was in Oxford Monday. -Mr. Darius Eatman returned -The infant daughter of Mr. and God, excuse me while I knock the your heart be troubled, neither let it clined, asking that his name be with- Friday from the University where

> -Mr. W. H. Washington, of Hes-The next important nominations ter, was among the visitors to Oxford Friday and called on the editor. -Mrs. John W. Hays and Mrs. H of Knap of Reeds, and D. P. Wheelturned from a visit to Greensboro. -Sam Hobgood is in Durham this Man" Tuesday. week visiting relatives, and taking in the commencement at Trinity Col-

-Reavis Swett, who has been working on the Louisburg Times, is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Engene visit on Monday from Mrs. M. A. Fairbrother, of the Hillsboro Re--Mr. Tucker Daniel and two daughters, Mrs. Fuller and Miss Daniel, of Hester, were in Oxford Tuesday. Stem and son, of Stem, visited Ox- proud to know that he has made such from them. -Miss Lucy Williams and little sister, of Panacea Springs, arrived in Oxford Tuesday and will remain until Saturday.

-Mr. L. M. Caviness, a progres sive farmer of Hester, was a wel office Monday afternoon. -Mr. John M. Taylor, of Rich merchant at Meherrin, Va., was vention. It is important that every

-The old veteran, Mr. Jack Usry,

-Miss Blanche Fowler, who has just graduated at Littleton Female -Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hicks and

-Miss Mary Horner has been on a visit to Winston and Asheville in ary Society of which she is the honored Secretary. -Miss Nellie Currin returned Monday from taking in the Wake Forest and Chapel Hill commence ments and a visit to Mrs. W. C the interest of the Diocean M ssion-

-Mrs. Gowan Dusenbery returned

-Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Frazier and

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

-Mr. H. T. Beasley, and son Bud, of Louisburg, were on our streets Monday. -Mr. Ben Currin and two sons, of Sunset, dropped in to see the editor Thursday. -Superintendant Lawrence, of the Orphan Asylum, was in Raleigh Wednesday.

-The many friends of Mr. Charlie Best were glad to meet him in Oxford the past week.

-Messrs. R. B. Hines and R. P. Taylor, railroad tourists, spent Sunday with their families.

-Sheriff W. S. Cozart, and wife, of Hampton, were among the visitors to Oxford Wednesday. -Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Eakes, accompanied by some lady friends, were in Oxford Wednesday. -The Misses Hilliard, of the Francis Hilliard School, are on a visit to their parents at Monroe. -Col. R. O. Gregory came in Saturday from his farm at Stovall, and spent a few days with his family. -Master Henry Osborn returned his aunt, Mrs. W. B. Mann, of Rals eigh. -Miss Carrie Hobgood returned home from Raleigh a few days ago accompanied by her mother, Mrs.

Monday from a two week's visit to -Messrs. Plummer Rowland, and -Mr. R. S. Williams returned P. A. Bobbitt, of Vance, were in joyed a visit from them.

> -Mr. T. M. Washington spent enthusiastic on the efficacy of this splendid Mineral Water. -Dr. N. M. Ferrabee and his > most interesting family have returned to Oxford for the summer to the pleasure of many friends. -Mr. Robert Dalby returned Saturday from Chapel Hill Law School.

> We are glad to learn that he is making rapid progress in his studies. -Messrs. Lee Minor, of Stem, and Henry Floyd, of Wilton, dropped in to see us Monday. We were glad to see Mr. Minor looking so well after

- Rev. Edward Benedict, of Wartwo weeks sickness. renton, was in Oxford Friday to the -Mr. C. L. Smith, the new agent of the Southern Railroad, has arrived and taken charge. We welcome him to Oxford, and trust he will be pleased with our town.

-Ex-Solicitor Parker, of Graham, was in Oxford Sunday. We found him the same clever gentleman of yore, and is numbered among the first men in the State. -Messrs. J. F. Green, of Stem, S. C. Hobgood, of Enon, R. W. Adcock and son, of Oak Hill, Sim Bullock, er, of Stem, called to see the "Old -Dr. R. P. Floyd, of Youngsville, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. T White, Sunday and Monday. This is his first visit to Oxford in 18 years, and met with a warm reception by his old time friends. -Miss Helen Cannady has return--The editor had the pleasure of a ed from Danville Female School, and had the honor of graduating this session. We congratulate this attractive young lady upon the high honors she attained at school.

his way to New York. His many -Messrs. J. R. Stem and W. E. friends were glad to see him and ford Friday and we enjoyed visits a fine reputation as a physician in his adopted city and enjoys a lucrative practice. -Messrs. A. C. Longmire, of Henderson, J. T. Bullock, and S. J. Rogers, of Mt. Energy, W. H.

Whitaker, and two sons, W. H. Farrabow, of Stem, Monroe Thomasson,

-Dr. L. B. Grandy, of Atlanta, stopped over in Oxford Monday on of Tar River, Wyatt Cannady and Abner Overton, were among the visitors to Oxford Tuesday. Attention, Demecrats of South Oxford The primary of the Democrats of South Oxford will meet at the court house Saturday at 12 o'clock sharp -Mr. J. E. Pigg, a progressive to select delegates to the county con-

> Democrat should be present. J. G. HUNT, Chmn. Ex. Com.

Dwelling for Rent. The Venable residence is for rent. Apply to A. J. Feild, Oxford, N. C. june15-3t.

A Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. polite, accommodating and attends daughter, Miss Lula May, of Bu- Highest of all in leavening strength .--

> Royal Baking Powder Co., NEW YORK.