Who Can Measure

The influence of the mother! It shows the course of unborn generalities and enters the commonest maternity. With the best care, therefore, should the expectant Mother be prepared to ward off danger and make her life happy.

"Mother's Friend"

Alays Nervousness, relieves the Headache, Cramps and Nausea, and so prepares the system for Child-Birth is made easy and the time of recovery shortened—many say "stronger after than before confinement." It means safety to life of both mother and child. All who have used "Mother's Friend" say they will never be without it again. No other remedy robs confinement of the pain.

"A mother-in-law who used 'Mother's Friend' says that if she had to go through the ordeal again, she would use but four bottles to be obtained at the price of $100.00 per bottle. She would have used 40 bottles of the old-fashioned 'Gla. Laxton, Dayton, Ohio.'"

Notice of Dissolution of Copartnership.

Dr. T. L. Booth, accompanied by Dr. B. K. Hays, left yesterday for Snow Hill where he will wed this evening at 9 o'clock the attractive and accomplished Miss Irene Grimsley. Miss Linda Hoskins, one of the teachers of the Asylum will be one of the waiters. The many good wishes of a host of friends will follow this happy couple through life. They will spend some time at Morehead City.

One night last week some person crossed over the top of the Mitchell block and on to Herndon block and attempted to break into the room of Mr. Luther Russell. The noise of entering the window awoke him, and the thief finding he had been discovered ran back across the top of the Mitchell block. It would be well for our people to be fully prepared for such marauders and give them a dose of lead.

A competitive examination for one free-tuition vacancy in the Greensboro Normal and Industrial College will take place at the office of the Board of Education in Oxford Friday, August 6th, 1897. Any applicant can secure free tuition by agreeing to become a teacher for at least two years after leaving said school. There are a few tuition-paying vacancies for Granville with board in the dormitories.

WEEK OF SHORT ACCOUNTS.

To Transcribe Them is but the Work of a Minute some Folks Think

—Read advertisements of sale of land under mortgage by John W. Hays in another column.

—Commercial travelers report that more merchants in this State are paying cash for their purchases than ever before.

—The survey of the Mooresville and Mocksville shortcut of the Southern railway is completed. This road will certainly be built.

—Our warehouses had very good breaks on Friday. Two loads of new dip were on hand, one at the Meadows and one at the Banner, and sold well for the grades.

—The Overseers of Oxford Township are requested to meet the Board of Supervisors in S. V. Ellis' office the first Saturday in August at 3 p. m., and make report as to the conditions of their roads.

—The laying of a corner stone at the Colored Orphan Asylum is in progress as we go to press, and Oxford is full of the colored race, being largely augmented by an excursion from Burlington.

—A burglar entered the house of Professor Massey at Hamlet, Mrs. Massey heard him at work in the dining room. A little boy, Murphy McDonald, who was sleeping in the house, shot a pistol at the thief, and he left hurriedly.

—This section was visited by a severe wind storm on Friday night, and did some slight damage to corn and tobacco. In Oxford an old prize house near the old depot belonging to Mr. J. R. Roller was blown down. It was not occupied.

—E. H. Crenshaw & Co., the people's great friend, has a few welcome words to cheer your hearts with in another column. This firm have caught on to more bargains for their trade and they want them to come along and get them. Read their large advertisement.

—The editor is in receipt of the following invitation: Captain James H. Whitaker request the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter, Nannie Walker, to William Bransford Ballou, on Wednesday, August 11th, 1897, at 12 o'clock, Episcopal Church, Littleton, N. C.

—Some of the baggage and express which was taken from the 12:15 train from Durham was left on the side track yesterday, and the excursion train from Burlington loaded with colored folks, backed on the side track, ran over it and smashed up several trunks, two bicycles and one barrel of beer.

—We call your attention to the dissolution of the firm of Brooks & Co., in another column. Mr. George Brooks retires, and Mr. J. D. Brooks will continue to run the business at the same old stand and will be ever ready to offer bargains to the trade. He says high prices have been exploded at his corner.

—The railway commission increases the valuation of all the divisions of the Atlantic Coast Line, the Southern and the Seaboard Air Line; it decreases the valuation of the Atlantic and North Carolina and the Atlantic and Danyille; the others remain the same; the increase on railroads, steamboat and telegraph lines is about $3,000,000.

—Dr. T. L. Booth, accompanied by Dr. B. K. Hays, left yesterday for Snow Hill where he will wed this evening at 9 o'clock the attractive and accomplished Miss Irene Grimsley. Miss Linda Hoskins, one of the teachers of the Asylum will be one of the waiters. The many good wishes of a host of friends will follow this happy couple through life. —We are glad to learn that Mr. S. T. Hunt, who has been quite sick, is much better.

—The linen bicycle skirt is considered the correct thing by fair wheelwomen.

—We learn that Mr. Ed. Massenburg has rented the Booth residence on High street.

—Dr. Louis de Laeroix has put him up a new wind mill on his fine farm near Oxford.

—Clay county is the only one in the State which does not return a single bicycle for taxation.

—Mr. John W. Hays, Jr., is contributing some excellent sketches to the Sunday Charlotte Observer.

—When a man looks at a thermometer, he uses the language of the eyes to ask, Is it hot enough for me?

—The joy of welcoming one from whom you have been separated compensates for long days of absence.

—Rev. M. H. Tuttle occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday night and as usual preached a fine sermon.

—Mr. Thos. Smith while out riding Friday afternoon ran over a pig and landed about ten feet on the ground, but was not hurt in the fall.

—Some of the Western cities are fighting about being the hottest spots on earth. Still if what astronomers say is true, there are hotter spots on the sun.

—The Greensboro silk mill will have $1,000,000 capital. When the plant was at Paterson, N. J., as many as 1,500 persons were employed in the mill.

—The first load of new tobacco was sold at the Meadows Warehouse last week instead of the Farmers as stated. The seller was Mr. Winter, of the Hester section.

—Arch Kearson, fifty-seven years old, lost his footing while walking over some planks on the second floor of a barn near Townesville, Vance county, fell and broke his neck.

—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Frazier died on Thursday morning last after a long illness. It is far better off and is numbered with the blessed around the Great White Throne.

—Dr. Samuel Rapport, the well-known Optician and Refractionist will be in Oxford on the 2nd and 3rd of August (two days only) and will stop at Hancock's Drug Store. Eyes examined free.

—Mr. Robt. L. Lyon, of Dutchville Township, will be connected with the Meadows Warehouse the coming tobacco season. He is quite a popular young gentleman and has scores of friends.

—D. D. Shaver, of Morgan township, Rowan county, has discovered a rich vein of gold on his place, three-fourths of a mile long, the ore of which pans out ten to twenty dollars to the bushel.

—The President sends to Congress a message urging the appointment of a non-partisan commission to investigate our banking and currency system and report next fall such changes as are needed.

—It rarely happens that the real friend who honestly gives an opinion is appreciated as much as the one who doles out pleasantries lavishly, even though one knows that the latter is frequently insincere.

—A stranger sat down on a store porch at Hamlet and fell asleep. When he woke up he was minus a gold watch, a pistol and all the pocket change he had. Two negro women were jailed for the robbery.

—Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Dr. Thomas L. Booth, of Oxford, to Miss Irene Grimsley, daughter of Mrs. Mary C. Grimsley, at St. Barnabas church, Snow Hill, on Thursday evening, July 29th, at 9 o'clock.

—The attendance at the farmers' institutes is small. Up to this time the Populists have concluded that the attendance was light because there were Democratic officials, but now all the business is in Populist hands, yet they do not draw the crowds.

—The Board of Supervisors for Walnut Grove Township, will meet at Berea on Saturday, August 7th, 1897, at 2 o'clock p. m. All overseers of Public Roads for said Township are requested to be present, and report their roads as the law directs. J. F. COLE, Chairman.

—The Methodist District Conference was held at Garner, below Raleigh last week. Those who attended from Oxford station were, Rev. M. H. Tuttle, Dr. E. T. White and Capt. A. S. Peace; Granville Circuit, Rev. B. C. Aldred, and Oxford Circuit, Revs. G. B. Perry and W. S. Hoster.

GRANVILLE SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Spencer Adams Presiding--The Proceedings.

—Granville Superior Court convened promptly Monday at 10 o'clock, Judge Adams and Solicitor Bynum having reached Oxford Sunday. Sheriff J. T. Cozart and Deputy Coley Gill had every thing in readiness, and Clerk J. M. Sikes and assistant J. W. Brown, were at their desks to take down the proceedings of the court.

The first thing done was the drawing of the Grand Jury as following: W. J. Pitchford, Foreman, H. G. Royster, col., S. J. Jones, John Harris, D. W. Eakes, Lewis Smith, col., W. P. Lawson, M. A. Rhodes, B. J. Cash, Daniel Mitchell, col., J. W. Cash, W. B. Royster, W. W. Lane, J. B. Meadows, Phil Bullock, col., J. D. Daniel, col., D. C. Hunt and Seabrook Dorsey, with Mr. J. P. Buchanan officer in charge.

As soon as the jury was empanelled Judge Adams faced the jury and delivered his charge, which was among the best we have heard in the court house for a long time, and it made a favorable impression no doubt on both the jury and the bystanders. He touched one point that we are sure was important, when he referred to officers charging bigger fees than the law allows. This is an important matter to our people in this time of greed for pie. There is no telling how much the people have been robbed by officials putting on extras in the way of costs when there was no law to justify it. We do not know of any individual cases of this kind that has come under our personal observation and if we did we would not hesitate to name the man, yet we know it is a matter to which attention ought to be called, so that the public shall be kept on the look out in such matters.

Judge Adams' charge was delivered in well chosen language, plain and impressive manner. It was concise, clear and forcible, and could be heard in any portion of the court house as the Judge has a good voice. We are glad to note that he deprecated the entrance of politics in the jury box, or any part of the court proceedings, or even the Judge himself on the bench. We take it from his charge that he is a strong believer in the doctrine of a "non-partisan judiciary." We concur with him in this view of the subject, if it was carried out. Yet we fear that under the new regime this evil is too often to be seen exhibited in many of the officials who are sometimes eaten up with prejudice to such an extent as to be incapable of acting fairly. Or worse still we fear they sometimes use favoritism to pay off some old political score contracted while they were candidates for office.

While the PUBLIC LEDGER has had occasion often to say something commendatory of Judges differing from us politically, yet we do not take any stock in holding a public meeting and passing a sugar-coated string of resolutions praising Judges for simply discharging in an ordinary way their public duties in the dispatch of the business that comes before them, as public justice demands that of them.

The following cases have been disposed of up to the time of going to press this Wednesday afternoon: State vs. Joe Daniel, a. w. d. w., guilty, judgment 3 months in jail.

State vs. Sam Chavis, disposing of mortgage property, not guilty.

State vs. Frank Madra and Sam Marable, affray, plead guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. C. H. Parham, a. w. d. w., plead guilty, judgment that the defendant pay a fine of $150 and that he enter into a bond of $500, and shall make appearance at next term of court and show good behavior.

State vs. Lee Daniel and Wheeler Smith, a. w. d. w., guilty as to Lee Daniel, fined $5 and cost.

In the case of Calvin Jones in jail charged with rape the Grand Jury failed to find a true bill and he was discharged.

State vs. William Burchett, larceny and receiving; not guilty, after hearing the evidence the jury without leaving the box said the defendant was not guilty.

At this juncture of the proceedings his honor Judge Adams received a telegram from Mrs. Adams stating that one of his children was quite sick with scarlet fever, and as soon as he finished the State docket left for the bedside of his sick child.

Our people deeply sympathize with Judge Adams and wish for the speedy recovery of the sick member of his dear household.

TOWN COMMISSIONERS.

Important Business Transacted by This Body.

The Board met on the evening of July 12, with Mayor J. C. Biggs, J. Y. Paris, W. D. Currin, S. W. Cooper, J. G. Hall, S. H. Cannady and J. F. Edwards present. The efficient Clerk, E. T. Crews, was at his post. Dr. S. D. Booth and Mr. John P. Stedman, two citizens and tax-payers of the town, appeared and entered a protest against levying a special tax with which to pay the interest on the O. & C. Railroad bonds. Said protests were made in consequence of a recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State, and on motion of Commissioner Cannady the matter was postponed until the night of the 26th, and the question was referred to the Mayor to investigate and report at that time.

Mayor Biggs and Chief Renn made regular monthly reports. Fines of the Mayor amounted to $7.50 for June, and Chief Renn's collections amounted to $29.50. The total amount of accounts allowed for June were: Street force, $47.38; Chief Renn's salary, $60; E. T. Crews, $417; J. C. Biggs, $15; for oil, $11.96; Edwards & Winston, $100.

Messrs. S. W. Cooper, J. Y. Paris and J. G. Hall, Commissioners, the committee to whom was referred the claims of the attorneys in the Union Bank case, made the following report which was accepted and recorded: "Your committee report that they recommend that attorneys representing the town of Oxford in the case of the Union Bank of Richmond, Va., vs. the Board of Commissioners of the town of Oxford be paid the following sums in full settlement of services rendered: That M. V. Lanier and B. S. Royster be paid $100 each for filing answers in said case; that M. V. Lanier, B. S. Royster, R. O. Burton and W. A. Guthrie be paid each the sum of $400, subject to the following credits: B. S. Royster $200; R. O. Burton $100; W. A. Guthrie $200, and that the total amount due M. V. Lanier $500, and the balance due B. S. Royster, to wit: $300 to R. O. Burton, $300 to W. A. Guthrie $200 be paid as follows: That Mr. Lanier be paid $200 in cash and that town order for $150 payable on or before April 1st, 1898, and town order for $150 on or before April 1, 1899, be issued to him; to B. S. Royster town order for $150 payable on or before April 1, 1898, and one for $150 payable on or before April 1, 1899, be issued to him; to R. O. Burton $100 less Supreme Court cost collected, and town orders be issued to him for $100 payable on or before April 1, 1898, and one for $100 payable April 1, 1899; to W. A. Guthrie town order payable on or before April 1, 1898, for $100, and order for $100 payable on or before April 1, 1899."

Commissioner J. Y. Paris was elected Mayor protem.

MEETING MONDAY NIGHT JULY 26. Mayor Biggs and all the members of the Board were present with the exception of Mr. W. L. Mitchell were present.

It was ordered that M. V. Lanier be paid interest at the rate of 6 per cent interest per annum on $200 cash payment from March 13th 1896, this being the date on which B. S. Royster received his first payment of $200, and it was also ordered that the orders issued various attorneys for deferred payments bear interest at 6 per cent from date of issue and acceptance.

It was ordered that a street lamp be placed on Smith Hill.

Ordered that the petition of citizens for continuation of Spring St., be referred to the Street Committee.

His honor Mayor Biggs reported that after careful consideration and diligent examination into the matter of levying a tax with which to pay the interest on the O. & C. R. R. Bonds he recommends that the levy be made.

The following levy of taxes for the year 1897 was made: For railroad tax 33 cents on each $100 worth of property; market house, 14 cents, general corporation 33 cents, making in all 80 cents on each $100 worth of property in the corporation of Oxford, and $1.00 on each poll. It will be observed that there has been an increase of 10 cents in the tax rates, which arises from the fact that one of the market house bonds will have to be taken up this year, and on account of attorney's fee in the Oxford & Coast Line Railroad case which will have to be paid in part this year.

The attorney's put in a claim for about $3,000, and the committee cut it down to $1,800, which has only been thus far accepted by Mr. M. V. Lanier.

The Lyon Roars out the First Note.

The Lyon of the Meadows Warehouse roars out the first bid through the columns of the PUBLIC LEDGER, the farmers' friend, to sell the new crop, and intends to capture his share of farmers tobacco trade, if his better averages, fair treatment and prompt attention will accomplish the end. He is now fully equipped with an excellent force, and by the aid of his right bower, Mr. W. H. Blalock, the great figuring man of this wide-awake house, will be able to handle a much larger quantity of tobacco than last season. It is a pleasure to us to note the rapid strides Mr. Lyon has made since he entered the warehouse business, and by his uniform courtesy and honest dealing has established himself in the hearts of the farmers.

The farmers may expect the best of treatment at the hands of Zack Lyon as he is honorable and never turns a pile loose until he has reached the top notch price. Oxford will be in the lead again this year as our buyers are in fine trim having the "cold hard stuff" to plank down for all grades of tobacco and Lyon desires to lead the procession with the Meadows in the sale of the weed.

Zack Lyon is a hustler on two legs and never fails to his do level best for a customer. Read his advertisement on the 4th page.

—Mr. Henry Knott has accepted a position as drummer for the Atlantic Warehouse, Kinston, and is at his post of duty.

Save Your Fruit and Vegetables. Buy Edwards & Winston's Tin Fruit Cans, can be used several seasons, also Mason's Jars and best Stone Jars. j-210f

Immense Mining Machinery. During the past week immense mining machinery arrived in Oxford for the Cheatham Gold Mine near town, and Mr. Hamby is rapidly getting in shape to commence mining gold in earnest. The engine and boiler was 100 horse power, and the largest ever seen in this section of North Carolina. He had to get a wagon from Baltimore to haul it to the mines on, and it took 14 horses to pull each piece of the machinery weighing 20,000 pounds. It was in charge of Chief Renn who did his work well.

Our people are looking for great results from these mines, and no doubt Oxford will be largely benefited by the investment of large amount of foreign capital in our midst.

—Messrs. Thad Parham, of Salem; Jerome Tunstall and W. K. Jenkins, of Bullock, S. W. Lyon, of Berea, called to see the editor Monday.
